WASHINGTONVILLE LOCAL GLEANINGS

By Peter M. Herold.

This is a world of melody, All things are full of it, The rock, the tree, the bird, the bee, And every lovely flower we see, From rose to violet.

Labor Day Was a Red Letter Day.

Monday was not only Labor day, but was also a red letter day for the Washingtonville base ball club, which defeated the boastful "Clodbusters" of Leetonia in two decisive games. The first game was played upon the Leetonia diamond from 10 to 12 o'clock in the forenoon. Pete Cuff umpired the game and after a few unsatisfactory decisions and an argument, he was given a few bats upon the jaw and upon the nose. After quiet had been restored the game proceeded to a glorious victory of 3 to 5 for the "Bingville" team, requiring the tenth inning for the 3 to 2.

Penstermaker pitched for Leetonia and Hess for Washingtonville. The lineup follows: Arnold, C. Holland, Blattman, C. Clunen, Stiegel, W. Stouffer, Crook, W. B. Daney, Bossell, J. B. Indermill, Kleinknecht, J. M. Atkinson, Bells, W. A. Wellkart, Lodge, H. A. Holland, Fenstermaker, H. Hess.

Leetonia 3 Washingtonville 5. The afternoon game was umpired by the same lineup excepting that A. Holland pitched for Washingtonville and a semi-professional named Eels pitched for Leetonia. Percy Tetlow umpired the afternoon game. Both teams did good work. The receipts were more than usual and excitement ran high. Cassidy made a three run hit, and two base hits were made by Siegel, Fenstermaker, Indermill, Crook and Holland.

About 1 o'clock a team of Salem and Millville young men composed of McConner, C. Quinn, P. Somers, J. Gant, J. Bonny, J. Conley, J. W. D. Galt, J. B. Daney, and played a picked up nine of our boys of the same age, as follows: Vaughn, P. Davis, C. Wellkart, J. B. Spear, J. C. Candler, J. Shives, J. C. Cowen, J. F. Fieldhouse, C. J. Stouffer, Jr. The game continued until the regular time for Washingtonville and Leetonia began, with a score of 12 to 5 in favor of the Bingville boys. Hoora! The game played here last Saturday afternoon with the Salem China Co. was a mere practice game for our team, trying three of our players on the pitcher's box, so as to be ready for Monday's two games with Leetonia. The score Saturday was 4 to 7 in favor of Salem.

David Levin has located for the present in Ellsworth, Pa. John Carr has accepted a position in the Erie depot at Leetonia.

The electric machinery at Fairview mine is in good working order, and the place is ready for the hoisting engine. After a little cleaning up has been done in the mine entries, work will begin in earnest.

Clint Taylor and wife of Cleveland spent Sunday here with their relatives. Clint is a good man for the position he holds with the O. & P. Coal Co., and if he were not on the Dispatch list we would spread more taffy.

Council met in regular session Tuesday night with all members present, including the "seventh member," whose services are appreciated by the reading public and 99 per cent. of the taxpayers who desire to know how the public funds are being expended.

Clerk Paisley read a letter from the auditor of Columbiana county stating that there is $29.25 due the village. Mayor Stouffer turned in $28.60 for fines and sale of two stoves, the large stove to J. C. Herbert for $2, and the small one to John A. Wellkart for $1.50. A letter was read from the state board of health with reference to a garbage dump the council having two plots of ground in view. A proposal was received from the Standard Oil Co. to oil our dusty streets and keep them from washing. Stockwell's map of the storm water sewer from south side of Market street north to Roller's field at creek was shown and action taken to ask for bids from contractors for three-foot tile and placing same. After allowing the following bills council adjourned:

The lid was on so tight in Leetonia last Sunday that thirty ones came down their ice cream and cigars. There is such a thing as acting the fool along purely business lines. It is causing sadate persons to smile every time they laugh.

It is again rumored that the Pennsylvania company is preparing to install a gasoline motor car service between Canton and Columbiana to compete with the traction lines. A gasoline motor car made a trip over the road during the present week.

The hand boys gave an enjoyable dance in Fisher's hall Saturday night. They think of introducing gas into the band room, buying a few extra chairs and making the place more home-like for the winter, and in order to do this a little more money must needs be collected. A music loving community like this will not allow the boys to be stuck.

At a meeting of the school board Friday night, it was ordered that school begin Tuesday of this week instead of Labor day. J. D. Smith was given the contract to furnish the school house coal, and John Schaefer nocker and Cory Eyster were given the contract to clean the school house, which they did next day.
