

The columns of The Mahoning Dispatch will be found among the best in the local newspaper class. A trial advertisement is solicited for display, classified or reader departments.

Terms: $1.00 a Year.

The Mahoning Dispatch

An Independent Family Journal—Devoted to the Interests of All Classes and Nationalities.

Entrusted to The Mahoning Dispatch receive prompt and careful attention. Our rule is satisfactory work at the lowest possible prices consistent with service rendered.

Invariably in Advance

WASHINGTONVILLE LOCAL GLEANINGS

By Peter M. Herold.

Hugh DeWright and wife have moved to Salem.

Fred Longbottom is working in the Canton rolling mill.

A. W. Cocheil of Green township is being treated for sugar diabetes.

This year's cherry crop will be larger than usual, and some to spare for the robins.

Dennis O'Connor and wife are at the sanitarium at West Baden, Ind., and write home that he is improving.

The Erie railway is using the Y. & O. electric line to get freight and express from Pittsburg to East Liverpool.

K. A. Strau of Youngstown and Miss Euphemia Anderson of East Liverpool spent Sunday at the home of J. N. Palsley.

Frank Boston harvested 35 bushels of strawberries on Monday, and was short of pickers before the field was stripped.

The concert band received a new bass horn and two repaired horns Saturday evening. They will now be "playing some."

The jury in the $20,000 damage case at Lisbon, in which James M. Atkinson sued the Card & Prosser Coal Co., brought in a verdict Thursday evening for $1,000, after deliberating four hours.

Abraham Zimmerman is still able to drive to town on Saturday to get shaved and on Sunday to attend church. His son John L. represented his district at the general synod of the Lutheran church held in Baltimore last week.

William T. Smith of Welcome lodge and Charles Gray of Greenford lodge are at Hamilton, Butler county, this state, as delegates to the K. of P. grand lodge meeting. The people of that city made great preparations to receive the delegates and do them honor.

Geo. Murdock and J. E. Simpson of Wellsville were here Saturday examining the plans for the new M. E. Church with a view to bid for the contract. Mr. Murdock is a contractor of considerable experience, having built some large structures in Wellsville and East Liverpool.

The berry growers of this community who in previous years made their shipments from Columbiana are now shipping their crates from Leontia, Harry Holland, Harry Hartzell, Harry Stouffer, R. B. Maxwell, J. P. Fife, F. L. Stouffer, David Klingensmith, Elmer Warner and John Dutrow are among those having made shipments this year.

W. W. Anderson, who made several piano sales in this village for C. H. Betts of Salem, was thrown from his wagon last Friday forenoon when delivering a piano near Winona, and severely injured about the head. Mr. Betts and Dr. Yaggi responded to a telephone message and took the wounded and unconscious man to his home in Salem.

Bishop M. F. A. Easton, D. D., of Cleveland, formerly pastor of the African M. E. Church in Salem, contemplates a tour of Europe and Africa. Upon his return, thinks he will establish a national domestic science training school for colored youths in the old brick school house just west of New Albany. This is on the line of Peter McCav's interurban railroad.

A large class of catechumens received their first communion in St. Patrick's church Sunday forenoon. The girls wore white veils with myrtle wreaths upon their heads and carried prayer books in their hands. After mass they assembled between the church and the parsonage and were photographed as a group. That day being Trinity Sunday Fr. D. B. Kirby preached upon the antiquity of the Holy Catholic church and the establishment of the blessed Trinity. Rev. Kirby has his parish in good working order and is a great worker himself, having built a fine new parsonage and has the needed repairs on the church well under way.

During the rain and hail storm Sunday evening, an old telephone pole was blown against the Western Union telegraph wires and caused them to overlap the high tension wire of the Y. & O. line, carrying the current into the Erie railroad office at this place, burning off the office wire and setting the interior of the office on fire. The 40-gallon chemical engine and engine house No. 1, with small chemical engine were brought into use and extinguished the flames but damaged some of the books and papers before they were hurriedly carried out to a truck and hauled a safe distance away. The construction car of the Y. & O. came to the station and separated the wires, and everything was put in good order after the excitement had subsided.

There was a large and orderly crowd in town Saturday night. The third parlors were filled to overflowing, and Fisher's hall was also well filled to witness a boxing bout between local talent and professionals. The opening contest was between Wm. Washington, colored, and James Scottine, Italian, two youths of about equal age, in which Scottine was given the decision. The next bout was between Fred Whitcomb of Salem and Billy Reese of Millville, in which the latter plastered it all over his opponent's countenance in regular John L. Sullivan style. The round-up was between Charles O'Donnell of Cleveland, the ex-champion welter-weight of the world, and George Dunn of Millville. This was more of a scientific game than for blood. The ex-champion is past 50 years of age, while Mr. Dunn is in his prime and landed his taps fast and furious, dodging the old man's passes to the entire satisfaction of the audience. Lovers of the "many art of self-defense" were in attendance from Salem, Leontia, Millville, Franklin Square and from the country. The crowd was orderly, the contestants were in their efforts to excel and accepted the decisions in good humor. An admission of 25 cents was charged to cover hall rent, etc.

Commencement exercises in Salem tonight.

"Delich" Summerville is working in Mullins' plant at Salem.

Joseph Tourdot is making a 75 barrel cistern at his home on High street.

Mrs. Charles Rohrer has been seriously afflicted with nervous prostration for a few days.

Bertha Lewis Tellow and gentleman friend from New Geneva spent Sunday here with her parents.

Miss Etta Röhler is spending commencement week at Mt. Union, the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. S. Freed.

June 21 will be the longest day in the year, the day on which our grandmothers planted late cucumbers.

Master Truby Brown of Wampum, Pa. is visiting at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Barbara E. Simpson.

Miss Georgiana Wallace of Lisbon was the guest of Wm. Washington on Sunday, and they attended church in Salem.

Children's Day will be observed in the Lutheran church next Sunday night. The offering will be for the Osterline orphanage at Springfield.

The large climbing rose bushes in front of the residences of Mrs. S. J. Taylor and Mrs. R. E. Schaffert are blooming in all their beauty.

Emanuel Blake and wife of Youngstown spent Sunday at the home of W. E. Roller and wife, and report grandpa Cole considerably improved.

The programs and premium lists for the big Canfield fair, to be held September 5, 6 and 7, have been issued from "The Mahoning Dispatch office."

John Lawther, aged 1 1/2 years, of Fox township, Carroll county, is the youngest grammar school graduate in the history of that county, and has passed the Bowtell examination.

The stack at Millville mine was partly down, and a few trees about town were trimmed by the wind during the last rain storm, but we read of greater devastations elsewhere.

Last week Thursday afternoon Mrs. Jas. Herbert was taken with violent cramps and Dr. O. A. Rhodes was sent for at Salem. His arrival here in 20 minutes after receiving the message.

Herman Darrow of Chicago, brother of Clarence Darrow, the noted criminal lawyer, took dinner at the Cottage hotel Wednesday when on his way to Canfield to renew his schoolboy acquaintance.

At a business meeting of the Leontia Tool Co. held Monday night, C. E. Holt of this place was re-elected secretary-treasurer and general manager, showing that the company is satisfied with his past record.

Cherry Valley furnace being overstocked with pig iron, has closed down until further notice. This will include the coke ovens. Grafton furnace has been closed for some time, and this will make business rather dull for our sister village.

Mrs. Carrie Nation, niece of nervous prostration in Leavenworth, Kansas, last Friday, aged 65 years. She lectured in Salem during the county option campaign two years ago, but never had the honor of showing her hatchet in Washingtonville.

Joseph Frederick an wife attended commencement exercises at Alliance last week Thursday, when their grandsons, Blair Frederick, was in the class of 50 graduates. Blair is a brilliant young man and will yet make his mark in the world.

S. S. S. used to stand for Swift's Sure Specific. Now it stands for Search and Seizure in Salem. The old medicine cost $1 a bottle; the new costs from $100 to $500 a dose, and the price will advance. Beware of the crooked S. S. S.'s when taken before Mayor Hincliffe.

Under the new one per cent tax law our village and school district officials are in a quandary. How to finance a 17-mill school with 5 mills has got the board to guessing. The school board and village council met Tuesday night and tried to untie the tangle.

The good roads law may be heard on counties like Hamilton and Cuyahoga, but it is good for counties like Columbiana and Mahoning. Counties pay in accordance to wealth and draw out equally. Under this law our farmers can drive to market on good roads mainly built by other people.

Walter Dutrow and Mark Klingensmith had a "close shave" in Leontia Friday afternoon as the "flyer" was passing over the Ft. Wayne railroad. They thought that the flagman had given them the right of way, and only by a strong pull upon the lines they missed being hit by about a foot.

Miss Edna Tourdot of this place is announced to be married to a young German plumber in the Catholic church at Canton June 23, and Miss Stella Delvic of this village and a young Italian of Youngstown are announced to be married in the Catholic church of that city in the near future.

Council met Tuesday night to arrange for the completion of our street lighting system. Another meeting may be held June 27th to distribute the village money into the various funds provided for by law. It was the opinion of council that no levy is needed for village purposes, in view of the shortage in the school funds.

Those who complained of dusty streets a few weeks ago had just grounds for complaint; but the bakers' dozen who now knock at oiled streets, don't know what they are talking about, for the streets have not yet been oiled. Just wait and see; then if there is a general complaint against the asphaltum that shall have been applied by competent persons we have the assurance that we need not pay for it. Anyway, the taxpayers are not paying for it. Yet it is amazing how many carpets, clothing and shoes have been ruined by the oiled streets. Those who want paved streets should remember that it costs not less than six thousand dollars per mile and contractors will not pave "a little bit at a time."

Police court in Washingtonville has not been very busy during the past few months.

The Methodist choir is practicing for a sacred concert to be given in the near future.

The wheat crop in this vicinity looks well, considering the weather at heading time.

The Dynamo club had a turtle supper at the home of Homer Heintzelman Wednesday evening.

A surprise party of friends from Pittsburg are being entertained today at the home of J. C. Welkart and wife.

A telephone pole was blown over Bowman's greenhouse Sunday afternoon and the damage sustained was less than $200.

Samuel Lehman and wife of Burton City, Wayne county, are visiting at the home of Henry Lehman and wife, east of this village.

Prof. John R. Kall of Bell Roy was here Wednesday interviewing our school board as to the renewal of their book contract with the American Book Co.

Sam Atkinson and Ray Stouffer caught a 10 1/2-pound fish with a hook and line at the dam Monday afternoon, and when swung over the shoulder it resembled the label on a bottle of cod liver oil.

Thomas Somerville, 21, and Helen K. McDowd, 24, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents near Garfield on Wednesday. The groom's parents, John Somerville and wife, formerly resided in Washingtonville.

Henry Getz and wife were at New Buffalo Wednesday attending the golden wedding of Joseph Heintzelman and wife. There were 78 persons present, presenting the venerable couple with numerous presents, including $47, mostly in gold.

At the meeting of the board of education held Tuesday night the Methodist congregation was given the privilege of occupying the school building for church services and Sunday school during the building of the new M. E. Church in this village.

John Lawther, aged 1 1/2 years, of Fox township, Carroll county, is the youngest grammar school graduate in the history of that county, and has passed the Bowtell examination.

The stack at Millville mine was partly down, and a few trees about town were trimmed by the wind during the last rain storm, but we read of greater devastations elsewhere.

Last week Thursday afternoon Mrs. Jas. Herbert was taken with violent cramps and Dr. O. A. Rhodes was sent for at Salem. His arrival here in 20 minutes after receiving the message.

Herman Darrow of Chicago, brother of Clarence Darrow, the noted criminal lawyer, took dinner at the Cottage hotel Wednesday when on his way to Canfield to renew his schoolboy acquaintance.

At a business meeting of the Leontia Tool Co. held Monday night, C. E. Holt of this place was re-elected secretary-treasurer and general manager, showing that the company is satisfied with his past record.

Cherry Valley furnace being overstocked with pig iron, has closed down until further notice. This will include the coke ovens. Grafton furnace has been closed for some time, and this will make business rather dull for our sister village.

Mrs. Carrie Nation, niece of nervous prostration in Leavenworth, Kansas, last Friday, aged 65 years. She lectured in Salem during the county option campaign two years ago, but never had the honor of showing her hatchet in Washingtonville.

Joseph Frederick an wife attended commencement exercises at Alliance last week Thursday, when their grandsons, Blair Frederick, was in the class of 50 graduates. Blair is a brilliant young man and will yet make his mark in the world.

S. S. S. used to stand for Swift's Sure Specific. Now it stands for Search and Seizure in Salem. The old medicine cost $1 a bottle; the new costs from $100 to $500 a dose, and the price will advance. Beware of the crooked S. S. S.'s when taken before Mayor Hincliffe.

Under the new one per cent tax law our village and school district officials are in a quandary. How to finance a 17-mill school with 5 mills has got the board to guessing. The school board and village council met Tuesday night and tried to untie the tangle.

The good roads law may be heard on counties like Hamilton and Cuyahoga, but it is good for counties like Columbiana and Mahoning. Counties pay in accordance to wealth and draw out equally. Under this law our farmers can drive to market on good roads mainly built by other people.

Walter Dutrow and Mark Klingensmith had a "close shave" in Leontia Friday afternoon as the "flyer" was passing over the Ft. Wayne railroad. They thought that the flagman had given them the right of way, and only by a strong pull upon the lines they missed being hit by about a foot.

Miss Edna Tourdot of this place is announced to be married to a young German plumber in the Catholic church at Canton June 23, and Miss Stella Delvic of this village and a young Italian of Youngstown are announced to be married in the Catholic church of that city in the near future.

Council met Tuesday night to arrange for the completion of our street lighting system. Another meeting may be held June 27th to distribute the village money into the various funds provided for by law. It was the opinion of council that no levy is needed for village purposes, in view of the shortage in the school funds.

Those who complained of dusty streets a few weeks ago had just grounds for complaint; but the bakers' dozen who now knock at oiled streets, don't know what they are talking about, for the streets have not yet been oiled. Just wait and see; then if there is a general complaint against the asphaltum that shall have been applied by competent persons we have the assurance that we need not pay for it. Anyway, the taxpayers are not paying for it. Yet it is amazing how many carpets, clothing and shoes have been ruined by the oiled streets. Those who want paved streets should remember that it costs not less than six thousand dollars per mile and contractors will not pave "a little bit at a time."

Police court in Washingtonville has not been very busy during the past few months.

The Methodist choir is practicing for a sacred concert to be given in the near future.

The wheat crop in this vicinity looks well, considering the weather at heading time.

The Dynamo club had a turtle supper at the home of Homer Heintzelman Wednesday evening.

A surprise party of friends from Pittsburg are being entertained today at the home of J. C. Welkart and wife.

A telephone pole was blown over Bowman's greenhouse Sunday afternoon and the damage sustained was less than $200.

Samuel Lehman and wife of Burton City, Wayne county, are visiting at the home of Henry Lehman and wife, east of this village.

Prof. John R. Kall of Bell Roy was here Wednesday interviewing our school board as to the renewal of their book contract with the American Book Co.

Sam Atkinson and Ray Stouffer caught a 10 1/2-pound fish with a hook and line at the dam Monday afternoon, and when swung over the shoulder it resembled the label on a bottle of cod liver oil.

Thomas Somerville, 21, and Helen K. McDowd, 24, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents near Garfield on Wednesday. The groom's parents, John Somerville and wife, formerly resided in Washingtonville.

Henry Getz and wife were at New Buffalo Wednesday attending the golden wedding of Joseph Heintzelman and wife. There were 78 persons present, presenting the venerable couple with numerous presents, including $47, mostly in gold.

At the meeting of the board of education held Tuesday night the Methodist congregation was given the privilege of occupying the school building for church services and Sunday school during the building of the new M. E. Church in this village.

John Lawther, aged 1 1/2 years, of Fox township, Carroll county, is the youngest grammar school graduate in the history of that county, and has passed the Bowtell examination.

The stack at Millville mine was partly down, and a few trees about town were trimmed by the wind during the last rain storm, but we read of greater devastations elsewhere.

Last week Thursday afternoon Mrs. Jas. Herbert was taken with violent cramps and Dr. O. A. Rhodes was sent for at Salem. His arrival here in 20 minutes after receiving the message.

Herman Darrow of Chicago, brother of Clarence Darrow, the noted criminal lawyer, took dinner at the Cottage hotel Wednesday when on his way to Canfield to renew his schoolboy acquaintance.

At a business meeting of the Leontia Tool Co. held Monday night, C. E. Holt of this place was re-elected secretary-treasurer and general manager, showing that the company is satisfied with his past record.

Cherry Valley furnace being overstocked with pig iron, has closed down until further notice. This will include the coke ovens. Grafton furnace has been closed for some time, and this will make business rather dull for our sister village.

Mrs. Carrie Nation, niece of nervous prostration in Leavenworth, Kansas, last Friday, aged 65 years. She lectured in Salem during the county option campaign two years ago, but never had the honor of showing her hatchet in Washingtonville.

Joseph Frederick an wife attended commencement exercises at Alliance last week Thursday, when their grandsons, Blair Frederick, was in the class of 50 graduates. Blair is a brilliant young man and will yet make his mark in the world.

S. S. S. used to stand for Swift's Sure Specific. Now it stands for Search and Seizure in Salem. The old medicine cost $1 a bottle; the new costs from $100 to $500 a dose, and the price will advance. Beware of the crooked S. S. S.'s when taken before Mayor Hincliffe.

Under the new one per cent tax law our village and school district officials are in a quandary. How to finance a 17-mill school with 5 mills has got the board to guessing. The school board and village council met Tuesday night and tried to untie the tangle.

The good roads law may be heard on counties like Hamilton and Cuyahoga, but it is good for counties like Columbiana and Mahoning. Counties pay in accordance to wealth and draw out equally. Under this law our farmers can drive to market on good roads mainly built by other people.

Walter Dutrow and Mark Klingensmith had a "close shave" in Leontia Friday afternoon as the "flyer" was passing over the Ft. Wayne railroad. They thought that the flagman had given them the right of way, and only by a strong pull upon the lines they missed being hit by about a foot.

Miss Edna Tourdot of this place is announced to be married to a young German plumber in the Catholic church at Canton June 23, and Miss Stella Delvic of this village and a young Italian of Youngstown are announced to be married in the Catholic church of that city in the near future.

Council met Tuesday night to arrange for the completion of our street lighting system. Another meeting may be held June 27th to distribute the village money into the various funds provided for by law. It was the opinion of council that no levy is needed for village purposes, in view of the shortage in the school funds.

Those who complained of dusty streets a few weeks ago had just grounds for complaint; but the bakers' dozen who now knock at oiled streets, don't know what they are talking about, for the streets have not yet been oiled. Just wait and see; then if there is a general complaint against the asphaltum that shall have been applied by competent persons we have the assurance that we need not pay for it. Anyway, the taxpayers are not paying for it. Yet it is amazing how many carpets, clothing and shoes have been ruined by the oiled streets. Those who want paved streets should remember that it costs not less than six thousand dollars per mile and contractors will not pave "a little bit at a time."

DAMASCUS

June 14—The baccalaureate services for the 1911 graduating class of the Damascus high school were held at the Friends' church Sunday evening and were largely attended. The services opened with the invocation by Rev. Ellyson, followed by singing by the choir. Rev. Pennington then preached the sermon, the scripture lesson being found in first Kings 2:2, "Be thou strong therefore and show thyself a man." He said that the world's greatest need of today is men who are strong physically, intellectually and spiritually. He emphasized the need of taking care of the body and doing everything possible to promote good health. It is very important to acquire a habit of self-reliance. It is necessary to be true and steadfast to your convictions and render careful obedience to your conscience. A strong point was made in the statement that there is much to be learned outside of books. And also that there is always room at the top for the man of ability. Rev. Ellyson then made a few appropriate remarks. The services closed with the benediction pronounced by Rev. Herron.

The marriage of Miss Florence Irwin to Frank Mather took place at the bride's home last Wednesday at high noon, in presence of about fifty relatives and friends. They are both well known young people of Goshen.

Miss Myrl Carr spent Sunday in Goshen.

Misses Rhea Stanley and Helen Boyle were in Salem, Saturday.

Chas. Carr and family spent Sunday with his brother, Comely Carr, of North Jackson, Saturday.

Goshen Grange held a social on Howard Smith's lawn near Salem Thursday evening. A large crowd from Salem attended.

The Brown and Middleton reunion will be held at Joel Middleton's, near Snodes, Saturday, June 17.

Rev. Edgar Ellyson, wife and three children of Texas arrived in Damascus Saturday evening. The children will spend about two months here with their grandparents while Mr. and Mrs. Ellyson make a trip east to hold camp meetings.

Mrs. Carrie Atkinson is seriously ill with heart trouble.

Levi Pearce has purchased a new automobile.

The high school students and teachers were entertained at the home of Mary Miller, near Boswell, last Friday night. A fine lunch was served by the hostess. All reports a glorious time. The following were present: Misses Helen and Vera Blayne, Myrl Carr, Helen Boyle, Judith Weaver, Carrie Armstrong, Hazel Dalzell, Rhea Stanley, Louella Bauman, Jessie Harrod, Esther Hoopes, Esther McCluggage, Louise Burton, Erma Fog and Messrs. Murray Windle, Fred Walker, Paul Bennett, Irving Jones, Ray Stanley, Wm. Fog, Frank Colburn, Earl Santee, Clifton Shreve, Paul Meyers, Ray Pearce and Wilmer Hoopes.

Miss Lucy Bauman was in Alliance Friday visiting her sister.

John Lawther, aged 1 1/2 years, of Fox township, Carroll county, is the youngest grammar school graduate in the history of that county, and has passed the Bowtell examination.

The stack at Millville mine was partly down, and a few trees about town were trimmed by the wind during the last rain storm, but we read of greater devastations elsewhere.

Last week Thursday afternoon Mrs. Jas. Herbert was taken with violent cramps and Dr. O. A. Rhodes was sent for at Salem. His arrival here in 20 minutes after receiving the message.

Herman Darrow of Chicago, brother of Clarence Darrow, the noted criminal lawyer, took dinner at the Cottage hotel Wednesday when on his way to Canfield to renew his schoolboy acquaintance.

At a business meeting of the Leontia Tool Co. held Monday night, C. E. Holt of this place was re-elected secretary-treasurer and general manager, showing that the company is satisfied with his past record.

Cherry Valley furnace being overstocked with pig iron, has closed down until further notice. This will include the coke ovens. Grafton furnace has been closed for some time, and this will make business rather dull for our sister village.

Mrs. Carrie Nation, niece of nervous prostration in Leavenworth, Kansas, last Friday, aged 65 years. She lectured in Salem during the county option campaign two years ago, but never had the honor of showing her hatchet in Washingtonville.

Joseph Frederick an wife attended commencement exercises at Alliance last week Thursday, when their grandsons, Blair Frederick, was in the class of 50 graduates. Blair is a brilliant young man and will yet make his mark in the world.

S. S. S. used to stand for Swift's Sure Specific. Now it stands for Search and Seizure in Salem. The old medicine cost $1 a bottle; the new costs from $100 to $500 a dose, and the price will advance. Beware of the crooked S. S. S.'s when taken before Mayor Hincliffe.

Under the new one per cent tax law our village and school district officials are in a quandary. How to finance a 17-mill school with 5 mills has got the board to guessing. The school board and village council met Tuesday night and tried to untie the tangle.

The good roads law may be heard on counties like Hamilton and Cuyahoga, but it is good for counties like Columbiana and Mahoning. Counties pay in accordance to wealth and draw out equally. Under this law our farmers can drive to market on good roads mainly built by other people.

Walter Dutrow and Mark Klingensmith had a "close shave" in Leontia Friday afternoon as the "flyer" was passing over the Ft. Wayne railroad. They thought that the flagman had given them the right of way, and only by a strong pull upon the lines they missed being hit by about a foot.

Miss Edna Tourdot of this place is announced to be married to a young German plumber in the Catholic church at Canton June 23, and Miss Stella Delvic of this village and a young Italian of Youngstown are announced to be married in the Catholic church of that city in the near future.

Council met Tuesday night to arrange for the completion of our street lighting system. Another meeting may be held June 27th to distribute the village money into the various funds provided for by law. It was the opinion of council that no levy is needed for village purposes, in view of the shortage in the school funds.

Those who complained of dusty streets a few weeks ago had just grounds for complaint; but the bakers' dozen who now knock at oiled streets, don't know what they are talking about, for the streets have not yet been oiled. Just wait and see; then if there is a general complaint against the asphaltum that shall have been applied by competent persons we have the assurance that we need not pay for it. Anyway, the taxpayers are not paying for it. Yet it is amazing how many carpets, clothing and shoes have been ruined by the oiled streets. Those who want paved streets should remember that it costs not less than six thousand dollars per mile and contractors will not pave "a little bit at a time."

Police court in Washingtonville has not been very busy during the past few months.

The Methodist choir is practicing for a sacred concert to be given in the near future.

The wheat crop in this vicinity looks well, considering the weather at heading time.

The Dynamo club had a turtle supper at the home of Homer Heintzelman Wednesday evening.

A surprise party of friends from Pittsburg are being entertained today at the home of J. C. Welkart and wife.

A telephone pole was blown over Bowman's greenhouse Sunday afternoon and the damage sustained was less than $200.

Samuel Lehman and wife of Burton City, Wayne county, are visiting at the home of Henry Lehman and wife, east of this village.

Prof. John R. Kall of Bell Roy was here Wednesday interviewing our school board as to the renewal of their book contract with the American Book Co.

Sam Atkinson and Ray Stouffer caught a 10 1/2-pound fish with a hook and line at the dam Monday afternoon, and when swung over the shoulder it resembled the label on a bottle of cod liver oil.

Thomas Somerville, 21, and Helen K. McDowd, 24, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents near Garfield on Wednesday. The groom's parents, John Somerville and wife, formerly resided in Washingtonville.

Henry Getz and wife were at New Buffalo Wednesday attending the golden wedding of Joseph Heintzelman and wife. There were 78 persons present, presenting the venerable couple with numerous presents, including $47, mostly in gold.

At the meeting of the board of education held Tuesday night the Methodist congregation was given the privilege of occupying the school building for church services and Sunday school during the building of the new M. E. Church in this village.

John Lawther, aged 1 1/2 years, of Fox township, Carroll county, is the youngest grammar school graduate in the history of that county, and has passed the Bowtell examination.

The stack at Millville mine was partly down, and a few trees about town were trimmed by the wind during the last rain storm, but we read of greater devastations elsewhere.

Last week Thursday afternoon Mrs. Jas. Herbert was taken with violent cramps and Dr. O. A. Rhodes was sent for at Salem. His arrival here in 20 minutes after receiving the message.

Herman Darrow of Chicago, brother of Clarence Darrow, the noted criminal lawyer, took dinner at the Cottage hotel Wednesday when on his way to Canfield to renew his schoolboy acquaintance.

At a business meeting of the Leontia Tool Co. held Monday night, C. E. Holt of this place was re-elected secretary-treasurer and general manager, showing that the company is satisfied with his past record.

Cherry Valley furnace being overstocked with pig iron, has closed down until further notice. This will include the coke ovens. Grafton furnace has been closed for some time, and this will make business rather dull for our sister village.

Mrs. Carrie Nation, niece of nervous prostration in Leavenworth, Kansas, last Friday, aged 65 years. She lectured in Salem during the county option campaign two years ago, but never had the honor of showing her hatchet in Washingtonville.

Joseph Frederick an wife attended commencement exercises at Alliance last week Thursday, when their grandsons, Blair Frederick, was in the class of 50 graduates. Blair is a brilliant young man and will yet make his mark in the world.

S. S. S. used to stand for Swift's Sure Specific. Now it stands for Search and Seizure in Salem. The old medicine cost $1 a bottle; the new costs from $100 to $500 a dose, and the price will advance. Beware of the crooked S. S. S.'s when taken before Mayor Hincliffe.

NEW BUFFALO

June 14—Mrs. Paul Messerly and children and Mrs. Catharine Messerly visited at Lauren Wisler's in Greenford, Sunday.

Miss Pearl Rothgeb of Lynn Street is staying with her uncle, Ensign Belber, and family.

A number from here attended commencement at the Normal college in Canfield last Thursday.

Arthur Duval of Akersville, Pa., is visiting relatives here for several weeks.

George Smith and family visited at E. G. Moff's, Sunday.

The penny social held at the grange hall Saturday evening was largely attended. The proceeds were $13.65.

L. Frank and Homer Clabaugh, Irvin and Arthur Hixson, with their families and Arthur Duval were guests of Jacob Mills and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wunderlin of Eureka visited at Mrs. Heckman's, Sunday.

Mrs. Alex Mayberry and daughter Jessie of Bessemer, Pa., are spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Swank.

Lutheran church Sunday evening, June 25.

Harry Brinker and family of Youngstown spent Sunday at M. L. Beard's.

Mrs. Catharine Messerly is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lauren Wisler, and family at Greenford.

The Ladies' Aid Society will hold an ice cream festival Saturday evening, June 17, everybody invited.

Wm. Geis and wife and John Morris and family visited in Salem, Sunday.

Frank Clabaugh called at Homer Clabaugh's Monday evening.

Fred Sprinkle and family of Canfield and Charles Davis and family of Youngstown were visitors at Alvin Thomas's, Sunday.

Mrs. Lydia Belber is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. N. Rothgeb, of Lynn Street, Canfield township.

E. G. Moff was in Canfield Monday afternoon.

On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Heintzelman, among the most highly esteemed residents of this locality, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. Surrounded by a large number of relatives and friends the occasion for the old people was a most pleasurable one. A purse of nearly $50 in gold was among the gifts. A most sumptuous dinner was served. Here is hoping that Mr. and Mrs. Heintzelman may live to celebrate many more pleasant wedding anniversaries.

The Ladies' Aid Society of New Buffalo will hold an ice-cream and strawberry festival in the Thoman school house Saturday evening, and the public is most cordially invited.

Wm. Hilborn and wife of Akron are here visiting relatives.

John Lawther, aged 1 1/2 years, of Fox township, Carroll county, is the youngest grammar school graduate in the history of that county, and has passed the Bowtell examination.

The stack at Millville mine was partly down, and a few trees about town were trimmed by the wind during the last rain storm, but we read of greater devastations elsewhere.

Last week Thursday afternoon Mrs. Jas. Herbert was taken with violent cramps and Dr. O. A. Rhodes was sent for at Salem. His arrival here in 20 minutes after receiving the message.

Herman Darrow of Chicago, brother of Clarence Darrow, the noted criminal lawyer, took dinner at the Cottage hotel Wednesday when on his way to Canfield to renew his schoolboy acquaintance.

At a business meeting of the Leontia Tool Co. held Monday night, C. E. Holt of this place was re-elected secretary-treasurer and general manager, showing that the company is satisfied with his past record.

Cherry Valley furnace being overstocked with pig iron, has closed down until further notice. This will include the coke ovens. Grafton furnace has been closed for some time, and this will make business rather dull for our sister village.

Mrs. Carrie Nation, niece of nervous prostration in Leavenworth, Kansas, last Friday, aged 65 years. She lectured in Salem during the county option campaign two years ago, but never had the honor of showing her hatchet in Washingtonville.

Joseph Frederick an wife attended commencement exercises at Alliance last week Thursday, when their grandsons, Blair Frederick, was in the class of 50 graduates. Blair is a brilliant young man and will yet make his mark in the world.

S. S. S. used to stand for Swift's Sure Specific. Now it stands for Search and Seizure in Salem. The old medicine cost $1 a bottle; the new costs from $100 to $500 a dose, and the price will advance. Beware of the crooked S. S. S.'s when taken before Mayor Hincliffe.

Under the new one per cent tax law our village and school district officials are in a quandary. How to finance a 17-mill school with 5 mills has got the board to guessing. The school board and village council met Tuesday night and tried to untie the tangle.

The good roads law may be heard on counties like Hamilton and Cuyahoga, but it is good for counties like Columbiana and Mahoning. Counties pay in accordance to wealth and draw out equally. Under this law our farmers can drive to market on good roads mainly built by other people.

Walter Dutrow and Mark Klingensmith had a "close shave" in Leontia Friday afternoon as the "flyer" was passing over the Ft. Wayne railroad. They thought that the flagman had given them the right of way, and only by a strong pull upon the lines they missed being hit by about a foot.

Miss Edna Tourdot of this place is announced to be married to a young German plumber in the Catholic church at Canton June 23, and Miss Stella Delvic of this village and a young Italian of Youngstown are announced to be married in the Catholic church of that city in the near future.

Council met Tuesday night to arrange for the completion of our street lighting system. Another meeting may be held June 27th to distribute the village money into the various