

Merchants who advertise in The Mahoning Dispatch are certain to get the best bargains going. Reading the business announcements before starting out to shop is time well and profitably spent.

The Mahoning Dispatch

Is what The Mahoning Dispatch strives to give every patron, no matter whether the job is large or small. Both receive the same careful attention. An opportunity to estimate your next order of printing is solicited.

Terms: $1.00 a Year.

An Independent Family Journal—Devoted to the Interests of All Classes and Nationalities.

Invariably in Advance

VOL. XXXVIII.

CANFIELD, MAHONING COUNTY, O., FRIDAY, JULY 10, 1914.

NO. 15

WASHINGTONVILLE

Bright, breezy party was telling the happenings in the village on Mahoning's Southern shore.

M. P. Brydley is home from the mines in West Virginia. We are now threatened with bubonic plague from New Orleans.

Misses Maggie and Hannah Foy of East Palestine were Sunday guests of Miss Mary Watson.

Allen Dalrymple and wife of Youngstown came here Saturday evening on a few days' vacation.

Miss Iva Kirkwood of Wampum, Pa., is here visiting her grandparents, John Telow and wife.

Mrs. Jos. Barrow and daughter Lena spent the past week at the home of her parents south of Lisbon.

E. S. Freed, wife and son Virgil of Girard spent the week-end here with her parents, W. E. Roller and wife.

Paul Senheiser had an index finger cut off with an ice cutter on Friday while preparing to make ice cream.

A fast sized crowd from here was at Southern park Saturday night. Some were also in Salem and Youngstown.

Joseph Melich, Jr., of Kaylor, Pa., spent the week-end here with his grandparents, Marco Pasich and wife.

Master Loron Taylor says he gets the correct time and the weather report from Washington City every day by wireline.

The "milky way" is an interesting astronomical study these pleasant nights when the sky is not overcast with clouds.

Misses Ruth and Edith Seaberg, with Stanley Getis of Sharon, Pa., and Mrs. D. Williams and wife on Saturday and Sunday.

Anthony Dawson of Beloit, Fred Spear and Alfred Thomas of Sharon were week-end guests at the home of Alf Spear and wife.

Patients from here who were treated in the Cleveland and Youngstown hospitals and returned are reported as getting along nicely.

Carl Clay has bought and removed the Cox greenhouse to his place on the Salem R. R., leaving this village without a floral industry.

Friday's mail brought the cheering news that Cleveland and operators had agreed upon a scale of 47 cents a ton for coal as it comes from the mine.

Mrs. E. M. Reagan and little son James of Youngstown visited a few days at the home of her parents, Jas. A. Matzenbaugh and wife, at Oak Ridge farm.

"Ditch" summerville returned home Saturday evening, after traveling through Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and other western points during the past year.

Thomas Grindell and wife of Canton and Wm. Herron and family of Canton were here Saturday evening at Mrs. Matilda Grindell who is convalescing from her recent illness.

Man taught pupils will be the leading feature of the schools of this country in the year 1920, according to Dr. Philander P. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education.

Two automobiles with former neighbors from Wellsville and West Point called at the home of Richard Dunn and wife Sunday forenoon and then proceeded to Mineral Ridge.

The weather bureau dealt us an ideal 4th of July, and the electric lines had "trailer" on that day to carry all the pleasure seekers to their respective places of amusement.

Mrs. Alice Peery of Norwood, Mo., spent the past week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mary Smedley, and will spend a few months with her brother, Ed. Wagoner, at Gettysburg, Pa.

Without cutting is going on rapidly in this section of the state. The wet weather interfered to some extent, but did little or no damage. Clover hay and some timothy is being harvested.

There are two recent transfers of real estate: Edward and August Vignon to Louise Vignon, lots No. 41, 40, Washingtonville, $50. C. E. Greenaway, Exr. to James T. Hennessy, lot No. 12 Leetonia, $2,600.

David S. Calvin was in town last Friday and sold nearly 300 pounds of fresh fish. He said that it was his last delivery of fish until after harvest, and thanked his numerous patrons for their past patronage along the "fish line."

Aubrey Miller, aged 38 years, married, of East Liverpool, was brought to Lisbon Thursday a raving maniac. He made threats against the life of Officer John McShane who had him in charge. He was adjudged insane. He is suffering from paralysis and his case is hopeless. He is a potter by trade.

Attorney Charles S. Speaker and George T. Farrell of Lisbon Thursday afternoon filed a petition in common pleas court to test the validity of the last will and testament of Mary B. Casselberry, late of Salem who at her death according to an inventory filed in probate court had property to the extent of $42,186, and the great bulk of which was given by the will to the Masonic lodges and the churches of that city.

State highway Commissioner Jas. R. Marker of Columbus and a few tax holders motored into Lisbon last Thursday noon and were given a reception at the Hostetter hotel. Mr. Marker stated that they came by way of Newark, Coshocton, Cadiz, Steubenville, East Liverpool and Lisbon. They then proceeded to Salem, Alliance, Canton and Akron. They found the road muddy in spots, but the work of the drags and scrapers had made a great improvement in many sections. In discussing the probability of road improvements in Columbiana county, Mr. Marker stated that the state would help the county in that it had been found that the county had a right to help themselves, and he found considerable interest in this part of the state.

Thos. Senior has been ill for a few days. Alex Schettine and wife of Salem were here with his father on Sunday. Daniel Moss and James Babb were home from Beloit the fore part of the week.

The Pythian Sisters realized about $32 from their supper on the evening of the 4th.

Thomas Young of Sebring and Harry Longbottom of Akron visited relatives here this week.

It is estimated that 150 automobiles passed through here on Sunday, mostly Pennsylvania cars.

Few fatalities are reported throughout the country on account of the Fourth of July recklessness.

Ed. Frankfort and Frans Hendricks have repaired the Lutheran bell tower that was damaged by the lightning.

Miss "Stella" Matzenbaugh, stenographer at the East Palestine rubber works, was with her parents here over the 4th.

Wm. Telow and wife are visiting Niagara Falls and are guests at the home of his sister, Mrs. James Bowden, near Buffalo.

Carl D. Bossert passed the competitive examination, held in Cleveland a few weeks ago, for resident engineer of state highways.

Solon Krouse and Mrs. Frank Krouse of North Lima and Mrs. Perry Miller of Columbiana spent the Fourth with H. Getz and wife.

Division Engineer T. T. Richards of Ravenna and Carl D. Bossert of this village went over the Governor Cox Main Market Route 14 on Monday.

N. Bowman and Aaron Broadbent are working on the Erie section at Canfield, as are also the section hands from Leetonia and Greenford, at $1.35 per day.

There was but little doing here on the 4th, and what little was done the night previous was neither safe nor sane. The rackets were kept up on West Main street until 3 o'clock Saturday morning.

T. O. Rhodes and wife of Pittsburgh motored here on Saturday, called on his sister, Mrs. Alice Eyster, and were accompanied home by his mother (in her 80th year) and sisters Barbara and Lydia of Greenford.

Grandma Warner was badly bitten upon the hand by Howard Russell's dog Saturday afternoon when she went to the dog kennel to see the pups. Dr. S. A. Conrad was summoned and cauterized the wound.

Morgan Frazer, a prominent coal operator of Lisbon, was severely injured about the head and shoulders in one of his mines at East Palestine last Thursday by a heavy fall of slate. He will be confined to his bed for some time.

They appear to have had enough carnivals in Salem. Permission to show on the streets of that city during the week of July 29 was refused by Mayor Johnson to a carnival company which wished to pull off their money making stunts there.

If this week's issue of The Mahoning Dispatch is not sent to you, it can be charged to the fact that the correspondent has changed locations—moved from West Main street to east of the R. R.

J. Mansfield and wife (nee Jessie Cooper) of Johnstown, Pa., called at the home of Thomas McIntosh and wife last week when on their way home from their honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls and points in Canada.

Auxy Hill of Lisbon drove his automobile over a 35-foot embankment on the old Elkton road at 11 o'clock Wednesday forenoon, landing upon the P. L. & W. railroad tracks. He escaped serious injury, but the car is a complete wreck.

Levi Flickinger was seriously burned by hot metal when temporarily employed at the Buckeye foundry in Salem Monday afternoon. He was taken to the City hospital where it was learned that the entire right side of his body, arm and leg were badly scalded.

County Auditor W. L. Crooks of Lisbon is in trouble over a technical charge of turning $4,200 into his own private account instead of into the treasury at the end of the quarter. He is under a writ of habeas corpus.

Harry King, wife and children of Mahoningtown spent the Fourth with their parents here; King going with home and Mrs. King going with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Senreiser, of Chicago, to visit relatives, leaving Master George and his sister Neurusia at the homes of their grandparents.

John Schaefer of Green township died of infirmities of age Monday evening, aged 73 years. Interment in Grandview burial park at Salem Wednesday afternoon. Also Lawrence T. year-old son of Jack and Clara Galster, died of stomach trouble near Greenford Tuesday morning. Interment at Locust Grove this afternoon.

Judge Moore divorced two couples in Lisbon last Friday. Mrs. Hattie Guy of Lisbon from Harry Guy, on the grounds of gross neglect of duty. She was restored to her name by a former marriage, as she has children by that name. Also Mary M. Harshman of Salem from her husband on the grounds of extreme cruelty. He now resides in Sebring, Florida.

Edward Truick, aged 68, a well known farmer living on the Township Line road just south of Lisbon, died while sitting in his chair Saturday afternoon about 3 o'clock. He had been suffering from Bright's disease for some time and there was nothing to indicate that he was near death until he said to those near that all was getting dark and in a moment his life was extinct.

Thomas Prosser, for years one of the most widely known coal operators in Columbiana county, was seized with a severe stroke of paralysis at 7:30 o'clock Monday morning, and he still lies in an unconscious condition with the chances for recovery against him.

More than a year ago Mr. Prosser suffered the first stroke and since that time has been in declining health, and unable to attend to business. Mr. Prosser is a prominent member of the Card & Prosser Coal Co.

Holy Communion will be administered in the Lutheran church next Sunday morning. The pastor will preach his farewell sermon at the evening at 7 o'clock. The treasurer desires that all members who are in arrears with their church dues will bring or send

John A. Weikart is again able to be about. Wm. Jones and wife are here from Youngstown.

Miss Helen Warnes spent a few weeks in Garfield.

Alva Telow of Sebring was here a few days.

Burt Simpson is here from Mineral Ridge, visiting his parents.

The Lutheran ladies have a quilting bee at the home of Mrs. Myron Davis.

Mrs. Jo. Longbottom is working at the home of Ed. Crook at North Lima.

Wm. Neal of Youngstown accompanied James Paisley home over the Fourth.

Mrs. Laura Grim and son Clyde spent Wednesday with relatives at Canfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wallace of Lisbon spent Sunday at the home of J. Longbottom.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustav of Canton is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Arthur Johnson.

William Barton attended the funeral of John Hilkyard in a mining town of Illinois last week.

Fred Girard and wife spent a few days this week at the home of Lem Moss and wife at Deerfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Greenwald of Franklin Square are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Walter Senior.

Misses Alma Metz and Nellie Heft of Leetonia spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Miss Freda Paisley.

Miss Annie Dalrymple entertained the Smart Set Tuesday night. Miss Sadie Simpson won the honors as a guest.

Welcome lodge, K. of P., are arranging to have Rev. L. W. Gros preach their memorial sermon next Sunday afternoon.

Miss Alex McIntosh and daughter Muriel have moved into the Jos. Telow property on West Main street, lately vacated by J. G. Thorpe.

Victor Davies, wife and little son of Braddock, Pa., spent the 4th here with relatives, and she is now visiting her brother, Elmer Johnson, in Leetonia.

H. Weikart and family, accompanied by son of "his wife's relatives," attended the Eastern Stars' picnic at Southern park Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. E. R. Lewis went to East Palestine on Wednesday to attend the funeral of George Kleinicht, aged 19 years, who died following an operation for appendicitis. Interment at Middletown.

The State Industrial Commission Friday granted an award to Michael Hepper, of 49 Perry St., Salem, of $63.69 for an injury recently sustained by him while in the employ of The Silver Mfg. Co. at Salem.

John Holland, a prominent coal operator of Lisbon, was severely injured about the head and shoulders in one of his mines at East Palestine last Thursday by a heavy fall of slate. He will be confined to his bed for some time.

They appear to have had enough carnivals in Salem. Permission to show on the streets of that city during the week of July 29 was refused by Mayor Johnson to a carnival company which wished to pull off their money making stunts there.

If this week's issue of The Mahoning Dispatch is not sent to you, it can be charged to the fact that the correspondent has changed locations—moved from West Main street to east of the R. R.

J. Mansfield and wife (nee Jessie Cooper) of Johnstown, Pa., called at the home of Thomas McIntosh and wife last week when on their way home from their honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls and points in Canada.

Auxy Hill of Lisbon drove his automobile over a 35-foot embankment on the old Elkton road at 11 o'clock Wednesday forenoon, landing upon the P. L. & W. railroad tracks. He escaped serious injury, but the car is a complete wreck.

Levi Flickinger was seriously burned by hot metal when temporarily employed at the Buckeye foundry in Salem Monday afternoon. He was taken to the City hospital where it was learned that the entire right side of his body, arm and leg were badly scalded.

County Auditor W. L. Crooks of Lisbon is in trouble over a technical charge of turning $4,200 into his own private account instead of into the treasury at the end of the quarter. He is under a writ of habeas corpus.

Harry King, wife and children of Mahoningtown spent the Fourth with their parents here; King going with home and Mrs. King going with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Senreiser, of Chicago, to visit relatives, leaving Master George and his sister Neurusia at the homes of their grandparents.

John Schaefer of Green township died of infirmities of age Monday evening, aged 73 years. Interment in Grandview burial park at Salem Wednesday afternoon. Also Lawrence T. year-old son of Jack and Clara Galster, died of stomach trouble near Greenford Tuesday morning. Interment at Locust Grove this afternoon.

Judge Moore divorced two couples in Lisbon last Friday. Mrs. Hattie Guy of Lisbon from Harry Guy, on the grounds of gross neglect of duty. She was restored to her name by a former marriage, as she has children by that name. Also Mary M. Harshman of Salem from her husband on the grounds of extreme cruelty. He now resides in Sebring, Florida.

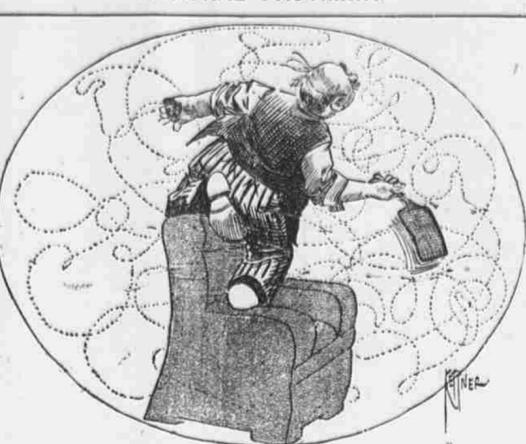

Edward Truick, aged 68, a well known farmer living on the Township Line road just south of Lisbon, died while sitting in his chair Saturday afternoon about 3 o'clock. He had been suffering from Bright's disease for some time and there was nothing to indicate that he was near death until he said to those near that all was getting dark and in a moment his life was extinct.

Thomas Prosser, for years one of the most widely known coal operators in Columbiana county, was seized with a severe stroke of paralysis at 7:30 o'clock Monday morning, and he still lies in an unconscious condition with the chances for recovery against him.

More than a year ago Mr. Prosser suffered the first stroke and since that time has been in declining health, and unable to attend to business. Mr. Prosser is a prominent member of the Card & Prosser Coal Co.

Holy Communion will be administered in the Lutheran church next Sunday morning. The pastor will preach his farewell sermon at the evening at 7 o'clock. The treasurer desires that all members who are in arrears with their church dues will bring or send their envelopes at the services of the day, so that all business matters can be settled at the church council meeting Monday evening. Rev. Henry Voegtly of Massillon will visit the different churches of this charge on Sunday, July 19th, and will preach here that evening; his name having been presented as a possibility to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Rev. L. W. Gros.

NATIONAL PASTIMING

(Copyright)

Miss Alex McIntosh and daughter Muriel have moved into the Jos. Telow property on West Main street, lately vacated by J. G. Thorpe.

Victor Davies, wife and little son of Braddock, Pa., spent the 4th here with relatives, and she is now visiting her brother, Elmer Johnson, in Leetonia.

H. Weikart and family, accompanied by son of "his wife's relatives," attended the Eastern Stars' picnic at Southern park Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. E. R. Lewis went to East Palestine on Wednesday to attend the funeral of George Kleinicht, aged 19 years, who died following an operation for appendicitis. Interment at Middletown.

The State Industrial Commission Friday granted an award to Michael Hepper, of 49 Perry St., Salem, of $63.69 for an injury recently sustained by him while in the employ of The Silver Mfg. Co. at Salem.

John Holland, a prominent coal operator of Lisbon, was severely injured about the head and shoulders in one of his mines at East Palestine last Thursday by a heavy fall of slate. He will be confined to his bed for some time.

They appear to have had enough carnivals in Salem. Permission to show on the streets of that city during the week of July 29 was refused by Mayor Johnson to a carnival company which wished to pull off their money making stunts there.

If this week's issue of The Mahoning Dispatch is not sent to you, it can be charged to the fact that the correspondent has changed locations—moved from West Main street to east of the R. R.

J. Mansfield and wife (nee Jessie Cooper) of Johnstown, Pa., called at the home of Thomas McIntosh and wife last week when on their way home from their honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls and points in Canada.

Auxy Hill of Lisbon drove his automobile over a 35-foot embankment on the old Elkton road at 11 o'clock Wednesday forenoon, landing upon the P. L. & W. railroad tracks. He escaped serious injury, but the car is a complete wreck.

Levi Flickinger was seriously burned by hot metal when temporarily employed at the Buckeye foundry in Salem Monday afternoon. He was taken to the City hospital where it was learned that the entire right side of his body, arm and leg were badly scalded.

County Auditor W. L. Crooks of Lisbon is in trouble over a technical charge of turning $4,200 into his own private account instead of into the treasury at the end of the quarter. He is under a writ of habeas corpus.

Harry King, wife and children of Mahoningtown spent the Fourth with their parents here; King going with home and Mrs. King going with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Senreiser, of Chicago, to visit relatives, leaving Master George and his sister Neurusia at the homes of their grandparents.

John Schaefer of Green township died of infirmities of age Monday evening, aged 73 years. Interment in Grandview burial park at Salem Wednesday afternoon. Also Lawrence T. year-old son of Jack and Clara Galster, died of stomach trouble near Greenford Tuesday morning. Interment at Locust Grove this afternoon.

Judge Moore divorced two couples in Lisbon last Friday. Mrs. Hattie Guy of Lisbon from Harry Guy, on the grounds of gross neglect of duty. She was restored to her name by a former marriage, as she has children by that name. Also Mary M. Harshman of Salem from her husband on the grounds of extreme cruelty. He now resides in Sebring, Florida.

Edward Truick, aged 68, a well known farmer living on the Township Line road just south of Lisbon, died while sitting in his chair Saturday afternoon about 3 o'clock. He had been suffering from Bright's disease for some time and there was nothing to indicate that he was near death until he said to those near that all was getting dark and in a moment his life was extinct.

Thomas Prosser, for years one of the most widely known coal operators in Columbiana county, was seized with a severe stroke of paralysis at 7:30 o'clock Monday morning, and he still lies in an unconscious condition with the chances for recovery against him.

More than a year ago Mr. Prosser suffered the first stroke and since that time has been in declining health, and unable to attend to business. Mr. Prosser is a prominent member of the Card & Prosser Coal Co.

Holy Communion will be administered in the Lutheran church next Sunday morning. The pastor will preach his farewell sermon at the evening at 7 o'clock. The treasurer desires that all members who are in arrears with their church dues will bring or send

Light blue eyes generally have the keenest sight, with gray ones next.

WEST AUSTINTOWN

July 8—Those in attendance from here at the Township Union Sunday school held in Austintown last Sunday were Rev. and Mrs. Hartman, John H. McDonald, Ora Plick and W. Ohl. An interesting session was held and an hour or more was well spent. Four schools out of the six were represented. In regard to desecrating the Sabbath, mention was made about the playing of ball.

Mrs. Margaret Bishop is visiting in Cleveland.

The Misses Sadie Minck and Carrie Schieler spent the Fourth in Mill Creek and Idora parks.

Among the visitors at the home of G. W. Dehoff last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kistler, two sons and daughter, Miss Stella Starckhouse, assistant teacher of Latin in Mt. Union college, Clyde Stackhouse, formerly of the Columbus experiment station, all of North Georgetown, and Mr. and Mrs. Grover Delfoff of Austintown.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Schrum, P. D. and Samuel Schrum, Mr. and Mrs. George Jordan and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boyer motored to Cleveland on the Fourth.

W. Ohl made a July 4 visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Crum in Warren.

While the writer does not wish an accident to happen anyone, yet he thinks having a "safe and sane fourth" will be the cause of lack of enthusiasm for the day that independence was declared. Years ago thirteen guns were fired at sunrise in nearly all the larger towns and Young America celebrated during the day. Only a few business houses in some of the towns were decorated this year. In a few generations hence the glorious fourth will go into oblivion. I think statistics will show that more accidents happen, either in injured or killed, during the hunting season than when we were allowed to celebrate the Fourth with powder, but the hunting season goes merrily on.

July 8—Job Evans of Beaver Falls is spending a few days with Frank Vickers and family.

Miss Edith Elton of Salem returned home after spending a week with her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Oltip.

Miss Helen Douth of Youngstown spent the Fourth with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Cessna and son Delmas of Rosemont. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cessna and daughters Mildred and Margaret of Ellsworth spent Sunday and Sunday in New Waterford.

George Bush and wife, George Grover and wife called at Curt Swank's Sunday evening.

Jacob Ault and wife of Struthers were at Henry Hess' Monday.

Christ Butts returned home to Hubbard last Friday.

Paul Moreau is not so well again.

Mrs. Paul Messery and Mrs. Catherine Messery were at Hosa May's in Springfield last week.

Mrs. Maggie Kreiger died Saturday morning. She was only sick Friday night, but heart trouble was the cause of death. Six children survive her—Mrs. Fred Schroder, Mrs. Fred Ludt of Youngstown; Minnie, Bertha Lena and Frank.

Frank Watts of New Jersey came Friday to spend a few days with Wm. Cessna and family.

July 8—Mr. and Mrs. Phil Gathier and grandson, Paul Carthright of Pleasant Grove visited with Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Pfau Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. Smith and Mr. Hoffman spent Sunday with Mr. Pfau and family.

Mrs. Jan Orr and daughter of Pittsburgh visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rhodes, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen DeCamp and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rhodes were Fourth of July visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Harman in Berlin.

Emerson Pershing and Pat Chapman of Mt. Pleasant, Pa., visited I. H. Pershing and family from Saturday until Monday. They made the trip in an automobile. Miss Erda Pershing accompanied them home.

Mrs. May Neff of Canfield called on Mrs. Rhodes Friday.

Mrs. A. C. Pfau called on her son Roy last Monday.

Eva Fletcher is visiting in Youngstown.

Messrs. Pershing, Carson, Chapman and Reed saw the photo drama of Creation in Youngstown Sunday.

W. S. Rhodes is building a straw shed, 22x22 ft., to his barn. Mr. Ripple of Austintown raised it with his blocks and tackle, assisted by several of Mr. Rhodes' neighbors.

C. C. Bowman and daughter, Mrs. Chas. Arnold, were in Salem Monday. J. S. Harding of Peach Hill had business here Tuesday.

July 8—Mrs. James Weasner and granddaughter Anna are spending a week with relatives in Youngstown.

Alton Williamson of Strasburg spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Williamson.

Frank Force and family entertained Mr. and Mrs. John Geary of Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Probst and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Talbot of Youngstown, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Thorpe of Niles spent a few days the last of the week with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Rekenberger.

W. L. Snook and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoover of Newton Falls, Saturday.

H. E. Kake and mother and Miss Zella spent Friday in Youngstown.

Quite a number from here spent the Fourth at Idora park.

Orris Mead and family entertained his nephews and their families from Mantua and Ashtabula, Sunday.

David Porter of Warren spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Porter.

Jacob Heisel has purchased a new automobile.

Low Stanford and family of Warren, John Scott and son Will of Niles are spending a week camping here, near their old home by the river.

J. Heisel and son Homer, Mrs. Martha Rosenbaum and Mrs. Orris Mead were at Newton Falls Tuesday.

NORTH LIMA

July 8—Members of the local order of the Home Guards of America and other friends attended a birthday surprise party for John Dunn at his home in Pleasant Grove last Tuesday evening.

Vernon Mentzer visited relatives in Pittsburgh last week, returning home Sunday.

Neilson Mentzer and Odeth Unger attended the Unger reunion at Alliance on the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hick and son Anna Hick of East Palestine were Sunday guests of their sister, Mrs. J. M. Hahn and family.

Frank Paisley and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Grindell of Washingtonville were Fourth of July callers at E. J. Creed's.

Archie Sahli and wife of Boardman and Miss Bessie Carr of East Lewis town were Sunday guests at William Sahli's.

W. E. Mentzer and wife visited with Mrs. Emma Fellnag and Ed. Wentz at New Waterford Sunday.