DOWN WITH THE TYRANT!

An evil great is spread abroad Throughout our state and nation; A baneful thing both far and near, It worketh devastation; A tyrant reigns and thousands bow, In shameful subjugation, While chains are forged whereby To vilest degradation. With shameless face he stalks abroad, A mocker by profession; Defying God's most sacred laws, A foe to the poor, deludes and bribes The highest functionary— His works declare he is in truth The devil's emissary. King Alcohol this tyrant's name, (He has a host of allies Who bolster his satanic throne.) From hades forth he sallies, A train of woes hid hard behind, He gives the kiss of treason; Then pounce on the sons of men In an unguarded season. He slowly leads his victims first To bondage and submission Then holds them on the downward grade That tethers to perdition. He blinds the weak and stupefies The brightest sons of learning And at his shrine behold the wealth And lives of millions burning! Hark! hear ye not the orphans' cry, The widows' wail of sorrow, As fathers, sons and husband fall Pierced by Rum's fatal arrow? Where is our boasted freedom now, The hope of former ages, While drunkard-makers ply their trade And share with us their wages? To arms! O Buckeyes, brave and true, With "State-wide" ballots rally, Dethrone the monster alcohol In spite of every ally. Pass customs old, scorn bribes of gold, Spurn compromising offers, Let not immortal souls be sold To fill Ohio's coffers! The victory in each righteous cause Is gained by heaven's assistance, We'll trust in Him who aids us fight, The wrong that needs resistance, Then forward all, in heaven's name, We'll surely be victorious, And generations yet unborn Will bless a work so glorious. —S. P. Yoder, Denbigh, Va. (Formerly of East Lewistown, O.)

LUKE McLUCHE SAYS

The man who leaves the house with a frown in the morning, and slams the door behind him, has a bad day coming. The man who squeezes every nickel until the Buffalo grunts is the same man who falls for a wad when he gets a letter from the famous Spanish prisoner with the beautiful daughter. A statistician says that only five in every 100 marriages are happy. This will make every married couple in the country wonder who the five are. A woman doesn't begin to show her age until she begins to try to hide it. Hush money does more to talking than any other kind. When you see an over-dressed woman escorting a man who looks like a door mat, you know who is boss in that house. A girl can put in ten years acquiring culture. But that won't keep her from snoring when she is asleep. The man who beats his wife isn't a bit worse than the man who robs his family by spending his money on his friends. A loser always gets the worst of it. A father never whips his son for fighting if his son won the fight. A married woman always likes to have a stranger tell her that she doesn't look it. Father will stand in front of a bar for two hours and forget that he is standing up. But if he has to stand in a street car for 10 minutes on his way home he fears that the strain may affect his nervous system.

NEW BUFFALO

Oct. 28—Squaw winter. Hurry up fall work. Potatoes are about all dug in this neighborhood and a good yield is reported. Henry Hess and wife visited his brother Cooney in Petersburg Sunday. Guy Boston and wife and Mrs. Orr Johnson of Salem called at John Morris' Saturday evening on their way home from Youngstown. Mrs. Willoughby and children of Canfield visited her father, Henry Swank, several days last week. Paul Messerly was brought home from the Youngstown hospital Monday and stood the trip well. His many friends hope for his speedy recovery. John Elser and family visited friends in Columbiana Sunday. Grandma Messerly, who visited in Youngstown the past week, returned home Monday. Guy Boston and wife and Teddy of Salem and his grandmother, Mrs. Boston, who is 89 years old and enjoys motoring immensely, were here Sunday evening. They had been to Lisbon, Hanover, Clarkston and Columbiana and to Columbiana county infirmary. Next Tuesday is election and many disappointments and surprises may be looked for. Freeman Beard and family of Struthers visited friends here Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. E. G. Moff and daughter Nora and Mrs. Harvey Bair of Youngstown visited their old home near East Lewistown Sunday. Mrs. Harry Beard and son of Youngstown who were here the past week, went home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wright and Mr. Cathcart of Cleveland were at Free Rudright's Sunday looking over his Indian relics. Mr. Wright is writing a book on Indian trails and Mr. Cathcart is president of the Indian relic association of Cleveland. Elizabeth Hoffman of Cleveland left for Los Angeles, Cal., Monday. She expects to stay until next May. She is a sister of Wm. Geis of this place. Mr. and Mrs. James Carbaugh, who just returned from their wedding trip, were at the Lutheran church Sunday. Mrs. C. W. Minnie Kellner, they will reside in Youngstown after Nov. 5. Plumbers are at work in E. G. Moff's new house and plasterers are working in C. P. Moff's new house. Both will soon be ready to occupy and then two good housewarmings will be in order.

CALLA
