Our 29th Annual Linen Sale The Greatest in Our History

This annual event which is talked of for months in every home in Youngstown and surrounding territory as the greatest money saving sale of the year, is proving the greatest in our store history.

Thursday Morning, March 4th

we will place on sale an exact duplicate stock of Linens we had for the first day, (Tuesday) including all the specials, enough to last throughout the week, or longer, but we would advise early purchases.

The low prices we name for this sale, are not likely to be repeated for years to come, the European war causing a scarcity of Linens, and prices advancing beyond all precedent.

Anticipate your future needs and buy freely.

COUNTY EXPERIMENTAL WORK WILL BE STARTED EARLY IN THE SPRING. A SUPERINTENDENT AND ASSISTANTS ARE YET TO BE SELECTED.

BERLIN CENTER

March 3—Mrs. Alexander Clugton, one of the oldest and most highly respected women of this township, died last Saturday after an illness of several months. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Leonard, early settlers of Berlin, and was born 86 years ago. Mr. Clugton passed away some years since. She is survived by one daughter, Miss Alice, who has the sympathy of the entire community in her bereavement. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Bartolotte, of Missouri and one brother, Lewis Leonard, of this place. Funeral services Monday were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Mr. Nichols. Interment in the Berlin cemetery.

There was an enjoyable family gathering and dinner Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Gunder.

Mrs. A. L. Clugton returned home to Alliance Tuesday after a visit here with friends.

The west road, which is to be improved the coming summer, was surveyed again the past week.

Berlin is waking up in educational matters as never before. The feeling in some quarters that existed for years is rapidly passing away.

There is much speculation as to where the next wedding will occur. We know the home but dare not reveal the secret.

Mrs. David Mock visited in Alliance this week with Mrs. A. L. Case. Bly Center correspondence in the Youngstown Vindicator: "Mrs. Belle Fellongie is teaching school at Berlin Center," was an item of interest appearing in the Canfield Dispatch of February 26, under the heading of "What People Read in the Dispatch 25 Years Ago." Mrs. Fellongie's daughter—Miss Theo, will be one of the members of our graduating class of 1915.

Quite a number of sugar camps in this locality have been opened but not much syrup has been made as yet. Weather conditions have not been favorable so far this season to big runs of sap.

Spring birds are singing and this old world is indeed beautiful. Let us make the most of our brief stay here.

Byron Woolf has made 17 gallons of choice maple syrup and others in this locality have been busy in the sugar bush.

James Bradshaw had business in Alliance Wednesday.

Berlin is pushing to the front very soon. Good roads built, more to be constructed, a fine new school house to be built the coming summer and several houses and barns will be erected during the next six months.

R. A. Burky is moving from Berlin to the recently purchased Johnston farm north of Canfield. He is somewhat troubled about moving his live stock on account of the foot-and-mouth quarantine in the county.

The Test Supreme. "You say that women haven't the endurance of men?" "They haven't." "That they cannot successfully resist unusual mental strain, or physical fatigue—that they lack nerve and physical endurance?" "Yes." "Do you see that little woman over there?" "Yes." "You have never known a man who could endure what she has endured?" "Oh! Why, what do you mean?" "She's the reader of the love stories submitted to a popular magazine."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
