

Will be promptly executed by The Dispatch Job Printing Department. Skilled workmen and excellent equipment enable us to turn out printed matter pleasing to the most particular. A trial order will convince you.

The Mahoning Dispatch

We feel sure will prove entertaining as well as profitable to you. The DISPATCH covers its field in a manner unsurpassed by any weekly. We still have room on our subscription lists for you and your friends.

WASHINGTONVILLE

Bright, Breezy Paragraphs Telling The Happenings in the Village on Mahoning's Southern Border.

By CLARENCE BAKER

John Fynes was some over Sunday. Miss Lizzie Fynes was a Salem caller Tuesday.

Mrs. Laura Grimm was in Lisbon Friday on business. Miss Birdie Brady was a Salem caller Saturday afternoon.

Miss Ruth Bossert went to Silver Lake to spend the Fourth.

Mrs. James Matzenbaugh was a Salem caller Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Hugo McIntosh were Salem callers Monday evening.

Quite a number of our young people spent the Fourth at Idora park. Miss Alice Pitts went to Cleveland last Friday to spend a few days.

Mrs. Slack and little son of Pittsburgh visited relatives here Sunday. Misses Epha Wilson and Kathryn Wilson were Youngstown callers Saturday.

Charles Taylor and family of Youngstown visited relatives here over the Fourth.

George Vaughn and son Damon of West Point was home here over the Fourth.

L. W. R. Baker of Salem spent Friday and Saturday with his son, Harvey Baker.

Arthur Johnson and family and Jack Boston and family spent Sunday at Pine Lake.

Charles Senior and family and Wm. Barton and family were Salem visitors Monday.

Misses Kathryn Wilson and Myrtle Baker were Salem callers last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Dora Calvin and daughter Pearl of Cleveland spent Sunday with Mrs. Margaret Stouffer.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reese, at Millville, a boy and girl last Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. James King returned Friday evening after a few days camping at Muzzy Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Saul Betz of Leetonia spent Sunday with Mrs. Fitzsimmons and daughter Mary.

J. N. Paisley and family spent Sunday at the home of Charles Orr and family in Columbiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bailey and children of West Point visited relatives here over the Fourth.

Miss Mary Watson of Salem spent Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Watson.

Miss Laura Nailor of West Point and Damon Vaughn of this place spent Monday at Idora park.

Mrs. Mellinger, wife of Leetonia called at the home of Mrs. Margaret Stouffer Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Howell and daughter Mildred of Sebring spent a few days with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paisley are the proud parents of a ten-pound baby girl, born last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Herbert Smedley was called to Rochester, Pa., last Friday on account of her little grandson's illness.

Mrs. Liddie Frederick went to Alliance last Thursday and spent a few days with her son, Ira Frederick.

Mrs. Mary Woods and Miss Eliza Wilkinson spent the Fourth with their sister, Mrs. Wm. Heaps, in Salem.

Mrs. Ed. Herrman and daughter Lillian spent a few days last week with her mother, Mrs. Lillian Fossnacht, at Canfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lancaster and son Richards of Wheeling, W. Va., visited friends and relatives here a few days last week.

Mrs. Charles Phillips and three children of Youngstown spent a few days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Guisman.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steward and daughter Vera and son Lester of Salem visited her brother, Harvey Baker, and family over the Fourth.

Miss Lizzie Brady of Mt. Washington, Pa., and Michael Brady of Cecil, W. Va., visited their sisters, Misses Annie and Birdie Brady, a few days this week.

Misses Ruth and Bessie Thorp and Ernest Blainste of Cleveland and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Smith of Leetonia spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thorp.

The Columbiana county teachers' institute will be held in Lisbon August 23 to 27, and the early indications are that the program will be instructive and entertaining.

Edward Skelly of Leetonia was taken to the Lisbon jail last Friday to answer to the next grand jury to a charge of burglary, being unable to furnish $500 bail.

Prof. E. S. Freed, principal of Oak Street school, Youngstown, wife and son Virgil left last Tuesday for New York City where Mr. Freed will resume his studies in Columbia university, leading to a master's degree.

Miss Alice Wilkinson was very pleasantly surprised last Saturday evening when a few friends called on her. She received quite a number of beautiful and useful presents. All enjoyed a social gathering.

There will be a fairly good crop of raspberries in this section. Pickers are now at work and the crop is being largely marketed in nearby cities and towns. Blackberries and elderberries will also yield well. The latter crop, however, grows wild.

State Representative A. O. Fleming of Mahoning county, whose home is in Youngstown, will be the speaker at the annual Harvest Home picnic at Shelton's grove, Saturday, August 28. "American Spirit" is his theme, and he will speak during the early afternoon. The feature of the forenoon will be a diamond medal oratorical contest, in which it is expected that six present holders of grand gold medals will compete for the coveted prize. Music for the occasion is to be furnished by the Leetonia band and by the Wesleyan male quartet of this city. Other plans for the event, which is each year the largest gathering of rural and urban folk in this section, are practically complete with every indication of a successful day.

ISLAND

July 7—Mrs. Daisy Everett of Cortland called on her mother, Grandma Klingensmith, last week.

Jonas Knopp and family were Sunday callers at Henry Lehman's.

S. G. McClun had business in Youngstown Friday and in East Lewis town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Heston and Jacob Lehman and family of Columbiana county spent Sunday with Eddie Hall and family.

Contractor Noah Bixler recently made some improvements on Mrs. John Brookhart's house in Washingtonville.

Miss Edith Wenger and Miss Hannah Brennehan of Iowa who spent several days here with their uncle, Adam Wenger, and family left Sunday evening by way of Niagara Falls for their home in Virginia.

Mrs. S. G. McClun and daughter Nellie and granddaughter, Esther Richard, called on Mrs. Aaron Calvin Friday.

D. D. Fisher and family, Sam Rohrer and family, A. W. Detrow and family, Mrs. Fannie Lehman, Miss Arvilla Blosser, Miss Minnie Martin, Norman Lehman, Frank, Charles and John Van Peit were Sunday guests at Stephen Martin's.

Mrs. Katy Mayers, who visited relatives here for some time, left Friday morning for her home in Napanee, Ind. Paul and Mark Calvin played ball in Greenford Monday.

F. D. Rohrer of Columbiana, who spent a year in Nebraska, returned home Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Weaver and Meano Brubaker spent Sunday with friends in Wooster.

I. T. Rohrer and wife and Clarence Horst spent Sunday with Mrs. Salome Weaver and family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Detrow attended Mrs. Elmer Crumbacher's funeral in North Lima, Monday.

H. E. Calvin and family of Clarksville spent Sunday with his brother, H. H. Calvin, and family.

D. D. Fisher and family of Pittsburgh circulated among the islanders the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Simpson of Mineral Ridge spent Monday evening with S. G. McClun and family.

Amos Martin and family ate their Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Swallower.

A. S. Brubaker, who suffered untold agony with inflammation of the tongue for a week, has been relieved of such pain by the healing breaking.

D. R. Lehman and family were entertained at Adam Wenger's Sunday.

Farming was at standstill last week on account of excessive rains. Much hay is being made this week while the sun shines.

Sam Geist of Maryland had business at Canal Dover, O., and stopped off here with friends a few days.

We made a mistake last week when we stated that communion services had been held the previous Sunday in the German Menzonia church.

MILLVILLE

July 7—Mr. and Mrs. Marius Sullot of Wilkensburg, Pa., have concluded a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sullot, and returned home.

Rev. Jacob Zimmerman spent Sunday with relatives in Damascus.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Phillips, formerly of this place, returned to the village from Wilkensburg, Pa., to spend the 4th with friends.

Mrs. Susan Punn left Thursday for Wellsville and Yellow Creek to visit for some time with her daughter and granddaughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Orr, John Lippitt and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sirobert spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Zimmerman near Leetonia.

H. N. Baker of Boston passed through here on his wheel Friday enroute to San Francisco. He was traveling under the auspices of the Boston Y. M. C. A. and earned his expenses selling post cards. He had left Boston June 7 and expected to arrive in San Francisco about Oct. 1. After a short time at the Exposition he expects to return, going via the southern route.

Born, Thursday, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. A. and earned his expenses selling post cards. He had left Boston June 7 and expected to arrive in San Francisco about Oct. 1. After a short time at the Exposition he expects to return, going via the southern route.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Rothgeb and G. L. Minard spent Sunday at E. C. Rothgeb's in New Egypt.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Nelson of Youngstown spent the Fourth with her uncle, G. L. Minard.

The festival in Thoman's grove was postponed on account of bad weather but will be held Saturday evening, July 10. Everybody invited.

Ada Frye and daughters Margaret and Mildred spent the 4th with her sister, Mrs. Monroe Beard, on the farm.

Howard and Lottie Kyle spent Sunday with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kyle, on East Canfield Street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hench of Youngstown spent Monday at C. A. Messerly's.

The Herman family of Youngstown picniced in Wm. Hall's grove Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson, Mrs. Fanny Henderson and two sons of Struthers spent Saturday night and Sunday at Wm. Dietrich's.

A crowd from Youngstown picniced in O. H. Paulin's grove Sunday and Monday. The grove is an ideal place for picnics being close to the road and tables to serve meals on.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Heintzelman spent Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. E. Bare in Youngstown.

Those from here who visited Idora park Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dietrich, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Dietrich, F. C. and Esther Heintzelman, Howard Kyle, Elmer Alvin and Homer Bare, Wm. Sarvers and Frank Kellner.

Dr. Ross of Cornersburg called at H. C. Heintzelman's Sunday.

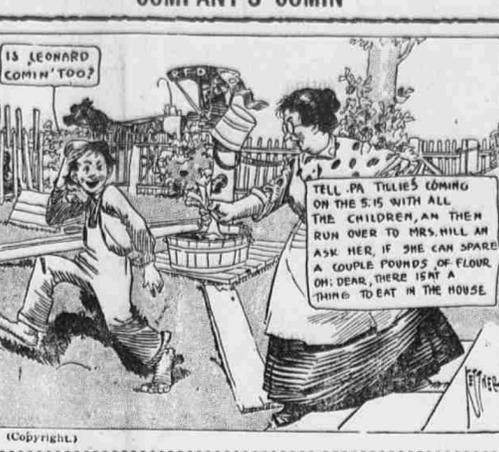

Daisy Paulin is spending a few days with her uncle, R. D. Bush, in Greenford.

Anna and Hazel Paulin are visiting Mr. Doyle in Youngstown.

Lottie Kyle is staying with her aunt, Mrs. Clemons, in Youngstown for several days.

Subscribe for the Dispatch.

COMPANY'S COMIN'

MILLVILLE

July 7—Mr. and Mrs. Marius Sullot of Wilkensburg, Pa., have concluded a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sullot, and returned home.

Rev. Jacob Zimmerman spent Sunday with relatives in Damascus.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Phillips, formerly of this place, returned to the village from Wilkensburg, Pa., to spend the 4th with friends.

Mrs. Susan Punn left Thursday for Wellsville and Yellow Creek to visit for some time with her daughter and granddaughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Orr, John Lippitt and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sirobert spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Zimmerman near Leetonia.

H. N. Baker of Boston passed through here on his wheel Friday enroute to San Francisco. He was traveling under the auspices of the Boston Y. M. C. A. and earned his expenses selling post cards. He had left Boston June 7 and expected to arrive in San Francisco about Oct. 1. After a short time at the Exposition he expects to return, going via the southern route.

Born, Thursday, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. A. and earned his expenses selling post cards. He had left Boston June 7 and expected to arrive in San Francisco about Oct. 1. After a short time at the Exposition he expects to return, going via the southern route.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Rothgeb and G. L. Minard spent Sunday at E. C. Rothgeb's in New Egypt.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Nelson of Youngstown spent the Fourth with her uncle, G. L. Minard.

The festival in Thoman's grove was postponed on account of bad weather but will be held Saturday evening, July 10. Everybody invited.

Ada Frye and daughters Margaret and Mildred spent the 4th with her sister, Mrs. Monroe Beard, on the farm.

Howard and Lottie Kyle spent Sunday with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kyle, on East Canfield Street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hench of Youngstown spent Monday at C. A. Messerly's.

The Herman family of Youngstown picniced in Wm. Hall's grove Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson, Mrs. Fanny Henderson and two sons of Struthers spent Saturday night and Sunday at Wm. Dietrich's.

A crowd from Youngstown picniced in O. H. Paulin's grove Sunday and Monday. The grove is an ideal place for picnics being close to the road and tables to serve meals on.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Heintzelman spent Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. E. Bare in Youngstown.

Those from here who visited Idora park Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dietrich, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Dietrich, F. C. and Esther Heintzelman, Howard Kyle, Elmer Alvin and Homer Bare, Wm. Sarvers and Frank Kellner.

Dr. Ross of Cornersburg called at H. C. Heintzelman's Sunday.

Daisy Paulin is spending a few days with her uncle, R. D. Bush, in Greenford.

Anna and Hazel Paulin are visiting Mr. Doyle in Youngstown.

Lottie Kyle is staying with her aunt, Mrs. Clemons, in Youngstown for several days.

Subscribe for the Dispatch.

SHADY HOLLOW

July 7—C. L. Meeker and family were in Youngstown Sunday evening. Louisa Halt of Youngstown spent a week here with her brother William.

Frank Flint of Youngstown spent Sunday at Wm. Hall's.

F. C. and Esther Heintzelman, Howard and Lottie Kyle attended a meeting of the Klatswa Club at A. D. Rukens' in Boardman Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Snyder and sons Robert and Dale visited Strk county relatives a few days.

Mrs. Chas. Wyon and daughter of Youngstown spent the fourth with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Ruggy.

A. P. Lloyd and G. L. Minard have cut some grass but it is not drying very fast.

Warren Bare of Youngstown picked cherries at the home of his father, Julius Bare, on the 5th.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Rothgeb and G. L. Minard spent Sunday at E. C. Rothgeb's in New Egypt.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Nelson of Youngstown spent the Fourth with her uncle, G. L. Minard.

The festival in Thoman's grove was postponed on account of bad weather but will be held Saturday evening, July 10. Everybody invited.

Ada Frye and daughters Margaret and Mildred spent the 4th with her sister, Mrs. Monroe Beard, on the farm.

Howard and Lottie Kyle spent Sunday with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kyle, on East Canfield Street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hench of Youngstown spent Monday at C. A. Messerly's.

The Herman family of Youngstown picniced in Wm. Hall's grove Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson, Mrs. Fanny Henderson and two sons of Struthers spent Saturday night and Sunday at Wm. Dietrich's.

A crowd from Youngstown picniced in O. H. Paulin's grove Sunday and Monday. The grove is an ideal place for picnics being close to the road and tables to serve meals on.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Heintzelman spent Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. E. Bare in Youngstown.

Those from here who visited Idora park Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dietrich, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Dietrich, F. C. and Esther Heintzelman, Howard Kyle, Elmer Alvin and Homer Bare, Wm. Sarvers and Frank Kellner.

Dr. Ross of Cornersburg called at H. C. Heintzelman's Sunday.

Daisy Paulin is spending a few days with her uncle, R. D. Bush, in Greenford.

Anna and Hazel Paulin are visiting Mr. Doyle in Youngstown.

Lottie Kyle is staying with her aunt, Mrs. Clemons, in Youngstown for several days.

Subscribe for the Dispatch.

WEST AUSTINTOWN

July 7—Preaching next Sunday at 11 a. m. by Rev. Hensel. Young People's meeting in the Evangelical church in the evening.

"Did you see the balloon?" was a question asked Tuesday noon by many as it passed a little south of here going east. The air craft was noticed to be coming down. Several from here went in autos as far as Austintown and then returned. It was learned later that it had landed at Frank Brickley's about a mile east of Austintown. Quite a number went from here after it was known where it had landed. There were four persons in the basket, two ladies and two men. They sailed from Akron Tuesday morning.

Misses Sadie Minck, Carrie Schisler, Edna Bowman and Irene Jones, Carlos Schisler, John Jones, Carl Depky, John Bowman and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Ohl celebrated the 4th on the 5th at the Milton dam.

Misses Anna and Carrie Schafer and W. Ohl attended the dedication of Packard park in Warren Monday.

Mrs. Hayet and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Ohl of Girard were Sunday and Monday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ohl.

Mrs. Charles Lee of Canfield township spent Monday in Fairview with her parents.

John Arnold and family of Belmont are visiting relatives here.

Isaac Hewitt of Warren was a recent guest at the home with his sister, Mrs. Julia Pooe, and his brother Andrew.

Mr. and Mrs. Stahl of Alliance are visiting at the home of Dan James.

Average temperature for June at 6 a. m. 53. Lowest during the month 48. Highest during the month in the morning 73.

Not every beach costume is a bathing suit.

NEW BUFFALO

July 7—The Fourth passed off very quietly here.

Dudley Hartman of Canfield and Miss Florence Minard of Youngstown called at Ray Smith's Sunday evening.

Herbert Beard and family of Struthers, Charles Davis and family of Youngstown visited at Alvin Thoman's Sunday and called on other relatives about here. Mrs. Beard and Mrs. Davis are daughters of Alvin Thoman.

It is a credit to the North Lima Lutheran congregation to say that five young men have gone from that church and entered the ministry. Rev. Perry Basler is one of the five. He preached a very interesting sermon here last Sunday afternoon. He is here visiting his aged father who is sick; also visiting with his sister, Mrs. Emma Siegle, and brothers William and Charles, who are still Mahoning county farmers. Rev. Basler graduated in 1901 from Chicago Theological seminary and is now engaged in missionary work in Winnipeg, Canada. He first went to Kenosha, Wis. There is a great need of more earnest workers like Mr. Basler.

Lightning struck I. N. Hixson's house last Wednesday but did little damage.

Mrs. D. A. Viets, Mrs. Henry Oteaff, Mrs. W. Craghton and a gentleman escort of Youngstown called at Free Baptist's Sunday to see his display of relics.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Dietrich attended Reformed church in North Lima Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Henderson and Mrs. Frances Henderson and sons John and Harold were Sunday guests at William Dietrich's.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Snyder visited relatives in Canfield and Akron from Saturday till Monday.

Mrs. James Carbaugh of McClurg called on friends here Sunday.

Lots of automobiles passed through here Sunday regardless of the rough road.

Wilbur Forber visited here Sunday with his grandfather, Henry Swank.

On account of the rain Saturday the ice cream social which was to have been held in Alvin Thoman's woods, was postponed until next Saturday night.

Miss Nora Moff spent several days last week with her aunt, Mrs. Harvey Baer, in East Lewistown.

Noah Rothgeb and family entertained two auto loads of friends from Youngstown Sunday.

Mrs. Clark Baer and Mrs. E. G. Moff called on friends in East Lewistown Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Louisa Albert of Youngstown visited her sister, Mrs. E. Miller, Sunday.

Granddaughters of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Ruggy, Florence and Gertrude Wyan, of Youngstown are visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Brothers of Youngstown spent Sunday with Mrs. Fred Landt.

Christ Butts went to Youngstown Sunday to visit his son.

Vance Knight has gone to East Liverpool to work for a couple of months and his wife is visiting in Beaver Falls.

A company of young folks was pleasantly entertained at the home of E. G. Moff last Wednesday evening.

Those present were Mary Bair, Elta Moff, Lena Greasel, Effie Lynn, Beatrice Elser, Irma Smith, Leeta Smith, Cary Bell, Edna Wellendorf, Hazel Wellendorf, Dorothy Wertz, Stella Van Fossan, Lottie Kyle, Esther Heintzelman, Louise Halt, Pearl Schaffer, Bertha Kohler, Bernice Buck, Frances Plickinger, Mary Renkenberger, Nora Moff, Miss Ludy, Mrs. Laura Greasel, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Dietrich, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rothgeb, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Rupert, Geo. Messerly, Frank Kellner, Howard Kyle, Fred Fitch, Fay Heintzelman, Roy Williams, Homer Bair, Lauren Moff, Albert Moff, Charles Moff, Oliver Moff, Leonard Renkenberger, Archie Renkenberger, Ward Greasel, Thomas Greasel, Joseph Greasel, Ivan and Roy Thoman, Clyde Van Fossan, Will Sarver, Clarence Sarver, Paul Renkenberger, Oda Lynn, Howard Elmer and Bryan Lynn, John Heintzelman, Howard Wellendorf, Allen Plickinger, Lester Rothgeb, Clarence Rothgeb, Norlin Rothgeb, Richard Hitchcock, Ethan Hitchcock, Ray Beard. Music and games were indulged in to a late hour. Ice cream and cake were served.

MILTON

July 2—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Crider and two children of Girard, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Libbie and Miss Dorothy of Warren spent the 4th and 5th here with their parents.

Mrs. Helen Orr and Miss Rutheda and Fred Detchen and family attended the funeral of Humphrey Orr in North Jackson Sunday.

Herbert Richards of Youngstown spent the 4th with Addison Craig.

Mrs. Mary Roth and daughter Helen have gone to Rochester and Pittsburgh for a visit of several weeks.

Fred Higley of Rochester, Pa., is visiting Harry Roth.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Florence and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Florence spent Monday in Palmyra.

Misses Violet and Grace Eckis of Sebring were home for the 4th.

The ice cream social which was to have been held at Lincoln Snook's last Saturday night, was postponed for one week on account of the weather. Everybody invited. A good time is anticipated.

Grange hall will soon be under cover as the roof is being laid as rapidly as possible.

Quite a number of Milton people had their plans for the Fourth spoiled by the rain. But rain was much needed and has done more good than picnics or auto rides.

Subscribe for the Dispatch.

An improved oil can is made of thin tin, and the inventor has devised an ingenious method of shaping the sheet of metal to form a bellows by which the ejection of the contents is greatly facilitated and accurately controlled.

NORTH LIMA

July 7—At a recent meeting of the board of education, the following teachers were hired for next year: Principal of high school, B. T. Rheinhart of the Ohio State university; teacher of domestic science and mathematics, Miss Linda Johnston of Allegheny college; teacher of languages, Miss Helen Weber of Youngstown, a graduate of Heidelberg university. The grade teachers were all re-elected, and are as follows: Grades 1 and 2, Miss Lucy Arner; grades 3 and 4, Miss Edith Longstreet; grades 5 and 6, Miss Corene Musser; grades 7 and 8, John Eschman. The position of superintendent had not been filled as yet. Our high school being a first grade school, has taken advantage of the opportunity given by the state and withdrawn from district supervision.

Mrs. Elmer Crumbacher, nee Edna Shank, died at her home in Columbiana last Saturday morning after an illness of only a few days. Mrs. Crumbacher was raised in East Lewistown and is well known in this township. The family lived here for several years but about two years ago removed to Columbiana. She is survived by her husband and three small sons, Russell