

Will execute your orders, be they large or small, with the same skill and care that has always characterized DISPATCH printing.

Are the progressive merchants in every line. Perusal of the advertising columns of the DISPATCH can only result in mutual profit between buyer and seller.

WASHINGTONVILLE

Bright, Breezy Paragraphs Telling The Happenings in the Village on Mahoning's Southern Border.

BY CLARENCE BAKER

Sam Platt was in Youngstown Tuesday. Mrs. John McIntosh is not improving very fast. There is an active demand for coal at local mines.

Mrs. Kate Roller of Leetonia called on friends here Saturday. Mrs. Samuel Platt was in Salem visitor last Thursday evening.

Lewis Baker of Salem visited his son, Harvey Baker, over Sunday. Mrs. James Faloon and son went to Youngstown on business Thursday.

Mrs. Thomas McIntosh spent Monday with Mrs. Wm. Gabriel in Salem. Lawrence Callahan and wife of Salem were callers in the village Sunday.

Master Wm. Carnes of Salem visited his aunt, Mrs. Orville Moore, over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Pettit of a field spent Sunday with George Hall and wife.

James Paisley of Youngstown was home over Sunday with his father, J. N. Paisley. Eugene Peeler and family of Youngstown spent Sunday here with his mother.

Mrs. George Sommerville went to Youngstown Tuesday to consult Bone-setter Reese. Miss Ruth Simmons of Akron visited with her grandfather, Abe Zimmerman, over Sunday.

Mrs. Quinten Ballantine and Mrs. Ambrose Slater of Salem visited Geo. Hall and family Monday. Mr. and Mrs. James Baker of Salem spent Sunday afternoon with Squire Johnson and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Weikart of Leetonia spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Weikart. Mrs. Alice Vignon and daughter Hazel and son Donald went to Canton last Saturday to visit her sisters.

Mrs. O. Bossert and son Carl motored to and from Canton Saturday afternoon and called on friends there. Miss Sadie and Elizabeth Simpson of Sebring visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mat Simpson, over Sunday.

Dan Heister moved on Monday his family from the Co-operative house to Emmet Freese's house on Main street. Miss Ruth Smedley of Youngstown was home over Sunday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smedley.

Mrs. Park Holloway of Columbiana spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Lydia Frederick and Mrs. Wm. Weikart. Wm. Lindsey of Leetonia and Mr. and Mrs. John Lindsey of Struthers were Sunday callers at Fred Weikart's.

Miss Carrie Woods, teacher of fifth and sixth grades, was sick this week with quinsy. Joseph Thorp taught her place. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schuter and sons Paul and Russell of Canton spent Sunday with Arthur Johnson and family.

Mrs. James King left Friday morning for Youngstown to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor, over Sunday. Mrs. Arthur Johnson visited her sister, Mrs. Wm. Gabriel, in Salem last Tuesday. Mrs. Gabriel has been very ill the last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Grindle and son Harry and Mrs. Thomas McIntosh spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gabriel in Salem. Ed. Scally of Leetonia was indicted by the grand jury at Lisbon, charged with burglary and larceny in the cafe of Jesse Scattergood.

Mrs. Robert Dickson and little daughter of Pittsburgh spent this week with Mrs. Fred Davis and other relatives and friends in the village. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bell and little daughter Doris of Granville, Ill., are visiting his mother, Mrs. George Watson, and family for a few days.

George Wire and Mrs. Bertha Tetlow and son Charles of New Castle and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sneyel of Sebring visited John Lewis and wife over Sunday. Miss Ruth Bossert was an invited guest at an assembly of the Flashlight club members at the home of Miss Mildred Terry in Salem last Friday evening.

Mrs. W. W. Bush and little daughter Virginia of Pittsburgh came last Thursday to visit her sisters, Mrs. Walter Smith, and Mrs. Charles Heron for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dalrymple and little son, Mr. and Mrs. James Goldfinger of Youngstown, Mrs. Margaret Meyers and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Drexel of Pittsburgh were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dalrymple.

The first football game of the season was played here Sunday afternoon between the Salem Athletic Club football team and Washingtonville first team. The score was 0 to 0. This is a good start for the season.

O. C. Wene of Salineville was arrested here Friday evening charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He was given a hearing Saturday afternoon when he was fined $10 and costs. He paid his fine Sunday and was released. Wene is employed by Herford & Hurmy, contractors for hauling for the new roads east of town.

There was considerable excitement in the village Tuesday afternoon when a team of horses hitched to a big wagon, ran away. The horses belong to Sam Good, east of town. He had left the horses standing at the Metzbaugh coal bank when they became frightened and ran off. They were caught on Main street at Wm. E. Roller's residence.

A few friends of Mrs. John Lewis gave her a very pleasant surprise Saturday night in honor of her birthday. The ladies standing at the Metzbaugh coal bank had the table decorated with red peppers, pumpkins and squash. The evening was spent playing games and with music. The guests returned to their respective homes wishing Mrs. Lewis many more happy birthdays.

ELLSWORTH

Oct. 6—Rev. G. H. Klotz is one among us now, having last week moved from North Jackson into the Frank Howard farm house. Schon Ripley is the proud possessor of a new auto, very noticeable from north or south.

Misses Marian Brown, Pauline Shafer and Katherine Barnett attended the Girls' Congress in Youngstown last week in connection with the county Sunday school convention. The first number of the Presbyterian lecture course was given on Tuesday night by Rev. Geo. W. Brown of Mineral Ridge. Some excellent things were said and the evening was replete with humor and wit, applied to "The American Boy."

The lecture course is a novelty in church work, and stands for a very progressive spirit on the part of Rev. Chauncey Case. Everyone should attend. The next number will be given Oct. 19, an address by Rev. T. L. Kiernan of Canfield on the subject, "Manhood and Democracy."

A most enjoyable affair occurred Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Read, being the celebration of their golden wedding. The whole day was given to it. All the children were there but one and many friends from a distance. The old soldiers were there for dinner in the day, and again the house was full with neighbors at night. Some beautiful presents were given and more than the golden quota of money. More life to these estimable people and also some successors in the way.

Asher Case attended the Boys' Congress in Youngstown Saturday, going directly from school in Alliance and returning by auto with his parents who were in the car. The next number will be given Oct. 19, an address by Rev. T. L. Kiernan of Canfield on the subject, "Manhood and Democracy."

A most enjoyable affair occurred Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Read, being the celebration of their golden wedding. The whole day was given to it. All the children were there but one and many friends from a distance. The old soldiers were there for dinner in the day, and again the house was full with neighbors at night. Some beautiful presents were given and more than the golden quota of money. More life to these estimable people and also some successors in the way.

Our rural mail carrier, Mr. Halverson, is taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

MILLVILLE

Oct. 5—Mrs. Charles Ashman of Beckett spent Thursday with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Reese. C. V. Harris of Cleveland was a Saturday caller here. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here.

Our rural mail carrier, Mr. Halverson, is taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

Mrs. C. K. Heineman and children are taking a vacation and the mail is being delivered by a substitute. Volney Stone of Orrville spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn were Sunday guests of Mrs. Dunn's sister in Salem.

James and Paul Fogg of Salem were guests of relatives here Sunday. Friday evening the Juvenile League of Willow Grove presented a play in Perry grange hall on the Franklin road. The play was well received by an appreciative audience. Wm. Holland has moved his family to New Buffalo.

OHLTOWN

Oct. 6—Mrs. Nora Bott of Youngstown spent Friday with her friends. Will Decker, wife and daughter Doris and Ray Frame of Youngstown were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Case.

Mr. and Mrs. Donnelly of Warren were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oldham, Sunday. Mrs. John Lyford entertained over Sunday the following guests: Mrs. Hattie Burmaster and little daughter Edna, Miss Flossie Lyford and Mr. Lambly of Pittsburgh and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Garland of Mineral Ridge.

Misses Evelyn Holmes and Edna Jones spent Sunday at the latter's home in Hubbard. Don Linn and lady friend of Youngstown were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Watson.

A. S. Goehring is spending a few days in Brookbridge. The Ladies' Aid society held their regular meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Rose of Warren were Sunday guests of relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of Columbiana spent Tuesday with their grandparents, Mrs. Helwig.

Ben Aldridge, wife and little daughter of Warren were week-end guests of Mrs. Reese and daughter Viola. A business meeting of the Epworth League was held Tuesday evening in the church.

Preaching next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Kellar Harshman of Youngstown visited at John Shively's Sunday.

The chicken supper given by the young men's class of the M. E. Church Saturday evening was largely attended and a neat sum added to the treasury.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Read celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Monday, receiving the congratulations of many friends. Bert Tibbets and family of Youngstown spent Sunday at Wm. Schaefer's.

Mrs. Lee Bingham and son Kenneth, Mrs. Allen Dickson and sons Robert and Maurice, Mrs. Francis Allen and daughter Elizabeth, Mrs. Wm. Schaefer and daughter Ruth, spent Tuesday in Youngstown, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arnott, formerly of this place.

Rev. George Brown of Mineral Ridge delivered a fine lecture before a large audience in the Presbyterian church Tuesday night on the American Boy.

Mrs. M. K. Boyle, daughter Auth and son George of the city visited in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ryder, one day last week. G. W. Ryder and wife attended the Stoneboro fair last Wednesday. They were accompanied by C. T. Agnew and wife of the city.

Mrs. Elton Crum and daughter, Mrs. Albert Nelson, and son of the city spent Thursday in the home of Carl Corli. John Follweiler of West street is recovering from an injury sustained by falling from his motorcycle and breaking a bone in his right ankle.

Miss Sarah Jane Morgan of the city was in the home of her parents, Mrs. Amelia Shields. John Wackler, wife and son Jack of the city spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Curtis.

Arthur Smith, wife and two daughters Helen and Virginia of the city spent Sunday afternoon at G. W. Ryder's. Mrs. Thomas Wanamaker spent Saturday night and Sunday in the home of her brother, Milton Henry, of Poland, Mr. Wanamaker spending Sunday with his wife at Mr. Henry's.

Delmer Roller, wife and daughter Ruth visited Greenford friends Sunday. Oct. 6—Mrs. Syl Heintzelman was on the sick list last week. Dorothy Wertz spent a night last week with friends in Youngstown.

F. C. Heintzelman was in Cleveland Saturday and in Salem Monday. C. L. Meeker and family visited Sunday at E. H. Hanes' in North Lima. Wm. Halt, H. C. Seintzelman, Fred Fries and son Arthur attended a cow sale at W. P. Sprinkell's at North Lima, Saturday. Fred Fries bought a cow.

Mrs. Herman, who was here with her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Halt, for some time, has gone to Cleveland to visit her sister for a couple of weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Obenauf of North Lima visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Syl Heintzelman, Sunday.

Mrs. M. C. Rice and daughter, Pearl Shaffer, and Lester Rotge of Youngstown called on Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Lloyd Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Heintzelman visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Osborn of Tippecanoe.

John Avery has made an offer for his farm but he thinks he will continue farming a while longer. These are busy days on the farm—silo filling, corn cutting, potato digging, apple picking, etc., being the order.

Joseph Justice of Hickory was a visitor at our school Tuesday. James Smith is making improvements on his barn.

Oct. 6—Mrs. L. Schurringer and daughter Effie of Washingtonville spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. A. Pow. District Superintendent J. C. Skaggs of Canfield visited our school last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Carr of Salem were here a short time Sunday. Mrs. Ada Hopley, who works in Columbiana, spent Sunday here with her parents.

A son came Saturday to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Smith. Ditch supervisor Weaver was in town Tuesday putting up notices prohibiting the dumping of rubbish into Sulphur Run.

M. L. Parker and daughters called at C. A. Bow's Sunday. Miss Merle Giddings has returned from a visit with Alliance relatives. Isabella O'Conner is working for Mr. Otis Rhodes near Washingtonville.

Joseph Justice of Hickory was a visitor at our school Tuesday. James Smith is making improvements on his barn.

Oct. 6—Mrs. L. Schurringer and daughter Effie of Washingtonville spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. A. Pow. District Superintendent J. C. Skaggs of Canfield visited our school last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Carr of Salem were here a short time Sunday. Mrs. Ada Hopley, who works in Columbiana, spent Sunday here with her parents.

A son came Saturday to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Smith. Ditch supervisor Weaver was in town Tuesday putting up notices prohibiting the dumping of rubbish into Sulphur Run.

M. L. Parker and daughters called at C. A. Bow's Sunday. Miss Merle Giddings has returned from a visit with Alliance relatives. Isabella O'Conner is working for Mr. Otis Rhodes near Washingtonville.

Joseph Justice of Hickory was a visitor at our school Tuesday. James Smith is making improvements on his barn.

NEW BUFFALO

Oct. 6—G. S. Gransel of Cleveland called on Mrs. Elizabeth Wertz Sunday. Dick Holland and family have moved back here after being away about three years, living in Millville.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson returned here to his sister's, Mrs. Free Rupright, after a month's stay with his daughter in Hubbard. Carl Clay and family of Gettysburg spent last Sunday with Free Rupright who is laid up with sciatic rheumatism.

Mrs. Clark Baer and children and Samuel Baer were in Canfield Monday. Henry Painter and family of East Leewatstown called at Clark Baer's Sunday.

William McCormick and wife of Struthers spent Saturday and Sunday with Henry Hess and wife.

Mrs. Claude Rupert is staying with her mother, Mrs. L. N. Hixson, who is suffering with an asthmatic cough. William Geis and wife was in Youngstown Monday afternoon.

Russell Morris is not able to go to school on account of his eyes. He is under the care of Dr. Gibson. George Smith and family spent Sunday with Ray Smith and wife.

Mrs. Katie Osborne and daughter Ada were here Tuesday to visit Mrs. Osborne's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Wertz. Kirzah Renkenberger and family spent Sunday at E. G. Moff's.

Mrs. Matilda Cline of New Castle is staying with Mrs. Emma Beard who is better at this writing. Miss Larkie Frederick had to return to Cleveland last week to finish her term of 27 days in the hospital training ward as nurse.

Henry Swank is very low at this writing. Oct. 5—Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Clay spent Sunday afternoon at Urban Moore's.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Keets of near Hickory were Sunday visitors at Sam Durr's. Myron and Mabel Goodman and Devoey and Esther Bush attended the county S. convention in Youngstown last week.

Mrs. Chas. Baird was a Sunday visitor at O. D. Heintzelman's in Canfield. Wm. Dressell, who has been sick with typhoid fever for some time, is now able to be around.

Mrs. Sarah Estery is assisting Mrs. E. E. Paulin of Gettysburg. Mrs. Paulin is seriously ill. Mrs. Mary Durr and Mrs. Sam Durr were Greenford callers Tuesday evening.

Sam McQuiston is visiting friends here a few days. J. J. Hendricks did his threshing today.

Mrs. George Frederick and son Paul and daughter Dorothea were Canfield callers Saturday afternoon. Miss Helen Gregg and brothers James and Theodore called at Freeman Baird's Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Baird and daughters Edna and Daisy and Ensign Baird were in Salem Tuesday. Edna Felton of New Philadelphia is visiting at I. H. Goodman's.

Mrs. Perry Estery spent Monday with Mrs. Noah Rotge of New Egypt. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Knauf and daughter Grace of Knauffville called at Urban Moore's Sunday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Leimbach of Greenford called at Sam Durr's Sunday. Subscribe for the Dispatch.

Oct. 6—Mrs. L. Schurringer and daughter Effie of Washingtonville spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. A. Pow. District Superintendent J. C. Skaggs of Canfield visited our school last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Carr of Salem were here a short time Sunday. Mrs. Ada Hopley, who works in Columbiana, spent Sunday here with her parents.

A son came Saturday to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Smith. Ditch supervisor Weaver was in town Tuesday putting up notices prohibiting the dumping of rubbish into Sulphur Run.

M. L. Parker and daughters called at C. A. Bow's Sunday. Miss Merle Giddings has returned from a visit with Alliance relatives. Isabella O'Conner is working for Mr. Otis Rhodes near Washingtonville.

Joseph Justice of Hickory was a visitor at our school Tuesday. James Smith is making improvements on his barn.

Oct. 6—Mrs. L. Schurringer and daughter Effie of Washingtonville spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. A. Pow. District Superintendent J. C. Skaggs of Canfield visited our school last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Carr of Salem were here a short time Sunday. Mrs.