

Entrusted to our Job Printing Department cannot fail to please. Large or small jobs receive the same careful attention. We solicit a trial order. Call, write or telephone.

The Mahoning Dispatch

Is the certain method of bringing to the attention of prospective buyers what you have to sell. Progressive merchants use its columns regularly in offering dependable merchandise to the public.

WASHINGTONVILLE

Bright, breezy paragraphs telling the happenings in the village on Mahoning's Southern Border.

BY CLARENCE BAKER

Wedding bells will soon ring in the village. Prof. Gray visited the school here last Friday.

Mrs. Lydia Frederick was in Youngstown Monday. Miss Ruth Smedley of Youngstown was home over Sunday.

Mrs. O. Bossert was a Columbiana visitor Monday afternoon. Howard Stouffer was a Youngstown visitor Saturday afternoon.

Miss Lydia King is selling all millinery at reduced prices. Adv.

O. C. Weikart received a car load of stock and dairy salt Tuesday.

Mrs. Harvey Baker and daughter Myrtle were Salem visitors Saturday. Mrs. Mary Ann Andrews visited relatives in Salem a few days last week.

Manuel DeJane moved his family into the Co-operative house last Thursday.

Bert Simpson and family of Mineral Ridge visited his parents here Sunday.

Miss Clara Weikart and Mrs. Fred Davis were Leetonia callers Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stitt of Salem called on Harvey Baker and family Sunday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. Kennedy and son William of Southington spent Sunday with friends here.

Josh Roller and family of Youngstown called on W. E. Roller and wife Sunday afternoon.

Miss Myrtle Fynes of Youngstown visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Fynes over Sunday.

Lambert Carrier went to Salem Tuesday to spend a few days with his daughter, Mrs. George Lentz.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weikart of Leetonia spent Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Weikart.

Joe King of Alliance came home Monday for a few days' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George King.

It won't be long now until the lads and lassies will have an opportunity to coast down the school house hill.

Sheldon Cole and wife and son of Alanson, Mich., visited David Klingensmith and other friends this week.

A good crowd attended the dance given by the town's orchestra of Lisbon in the town hall last Saturday night.

Mrs. Samuel Rohrer and daughter Thelma and her mother, Mrs. Thomas Wilkinson, were in Salem Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Chalmers Cope and daughter Doris returned home Saturday after a few days' visit with her parents at Fredericktown.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church will hold their annual chicken pie supper and bazaar Saturday evening, Nov. 20, in the church basement.

The Minerva football team motored here Sunday afternoon and played with the local team. Our team put up a great game and won by a score of 28 to 0.

David Klingensmith took a load from here to the revival meetings at Franklin Square last Friday evening and another load Sunday evening, when Rev. Chalmers Cope closed the meetings.

If the weather continues favorable for another week Elza Feicht will have a couple of bushels of strawberries. He picked several ripe berries this week. This is something unusual for November.

Mrs. Lambert Carrier spent Friday and Saturday with her daughter, Mrs. Percy Tetlow, in Leetonia, assisting her in caring for her son, Percy, who fell from an automobile and broke his collar bone last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kinsey and Miss Laura Pettit of Damascus, Md., and Mrs. Joe Pettit, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Pettit and two daughters of Garfield motored here Sunday and spent the afternoon with Harvey Baker and family.

Percy Tetlow, Jr., son of Hon. and Mrs. Percy Tetlow, of Leetonia, while returning home from school one day last week jumped from the topboard of a moving automobile and was hurled to the ground. He sustained a broken collar bone.

In Columbiana county the majority in favor of state-wide prohibition was 2,568. The majority against extension of terms of county officers 4,542, against bond exemption 1,944, against the stability amendment 3,130, against the McDermott act 1,420.

An organized movement to secure a new industry for the village would no doubt meet with success. Let us get together and see if a plant of some kind cannot be secured to keep our young people here. Young blood must be kept in prosperous towns.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller entertained as Sunday guests Manuel Blake of Youngstown, Sheldon Cole and wife and son of Alanson, Mich., Harry Townsend and wife of Columbiana, Prof. and Mrs. Emmet Freed and son Virgil of Girard and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. King of Salem.

The Firestone bank of Lisbon was given judgment in the common pleas court against Paul and Lea Mathy for $707.55, the amount being claimed due on a promissory note given to the bank by the defendants in Leetonia July 8, 1913. The note was secured by a mortgage upon lot 788 in Leetonia, and the court has ordered that this be foreclosed and the property sold to satisfy the amount.

Attractive guide signs of uniform design, by order of State Highway Commissioner Clinton Cowen, will be placed on all roads throughout the state. Specifications for these signs have been prepared by the commissioner. The sign must be of iron, must bear the name of the town, distance in miles and indicate its direction by means of an arrow or a hand. The letters and figures shall be at least two and one-half inches high. They shall be white on a black background, or vice versa. The order for these signs will be sent to all road officials in the state.

ISLAND

Nov. 10—A. S. Brubaker's public sale amounted to $860.

Misses Esther Hoover and Emma Zimmerman of Lancaster, Pa., who had been Ohio visitors for some time, stopped here with friends a few days and left for home Saturday.

A. B. Knopp and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nicholas recently motored to Niagara Falls where they spent several days sight seeing.

Miss Minnie Brudery and David Wenger visited the Oak Dale school Friday.

Jonas Knopp is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Clayton Rohrer, in Washington.

Sheldon Cole and family of Oden, Mich., are visiting his sister, Mrs. H. H. Calvin, several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kline are on the sick list.

Mrs. Samuel Summers and daughter, Mrs. Vesta Barger, of Pleasant Valley called on Mrs. Henry Lehman Sunday.

Harry Culp moved in with his father, S. D. Culp, last Tuesday.

H. H. Calvin and family and Sheldon Cole and family were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Horn in North Lima Sunday afternoon.

Aaron Hursh and Amos Burkhardt of Orrville motored here Sunday morning, ate dinner with Nick Stempfl and left for home in the evening.

D. R. Lehman and family, Mrs. Susan Lehman and Miss Alta Lehman called Sunday on Aunt Margaret Lehman, near Columbiana, who will be 98 years old Nov. 22.

Ed. Hall and family of Dalton, who motored here Saturday, are visiting his brother, Amos Martin, and friends.

Samuel Good is recovering from a light stroke of paralysis.

Emanuel Swope of Harrisonburg, Va., took possession of his farm last Wednesday, formerly being the Sam Harrold property.

R. R. Lehman and sister Mary ate their Sunday dinner with Allen Rickett and family.

H. N. Detwiler was re-elected township trustee of Beaver township, receiving the largest number of votes of any candidate for township office.

Alvin Detrow and family, Mrs. Fanny Lehman and D. D. Whitmer and family were Sunday guests at J. J. Witmer's.

Ed. Hall and family moved to Midletown Saturday to take care of an old aunt of his.

Erna Knopp recently made a business call in North Lawrence.

Quite a number of young people met at Henry Lehman's Sunday evening and were entertained by Miss Pearl Summers.

The Night Owl Singing club met at the home of Josiah Lehman Saturday evening and rendered some fine music.

Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Culp spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Culp, in Columbiana.

H. E. Calvin and family of Clarksville visited at Harvey Good's Sunday.

Mrs. Jacob Tyson and children attended the funeral of her daughter, Mrs. Emma Sautamers, at Dalton Saturday. About a week ago Mrs. Sautamers mistook the gasoline can for the coal oil which exploded, causing a fire that destroyed the house and outbuildings and burned her so badly that death ended her suffering a few days later. Her husband was also badly burned while trying to extinguish the burning clothing of his wife but was getting along alright at last reports.

Erna Knopp and sisters Lizzie and Mary visited at Bert Rohrer's in North Lima, Sunday.

Israel, Amos, Iem and Stella Wenger called on Edwin Weaver and sisters Agnes, Malissa and Ida last Sunday.

David and Priscilla Lehman, Henry, Lizzie and Fannie Riehl, Lester and Harvey Detrow spent Sunday evening with Katie Brubaker in East Leetonia.

S. G. McClun and family motored to Greenville, Pa., and spent Sunday at Monroe Bierman's.

Bert Simpson and family of Mineral Ridge were entertained Sunday by George McClun.

D. R. Lehman and S. G. McClun attended a meeting of road superintendents in Youngstown Tuesday.

Farmers are hustling fall work and still there is much to do.

Aaron Brubaker and family left Wednesday morning for a month's visit with friends in Michigan and other points.

Mrs. Martha and May Wisler were Columbiana visitors Tuesday.

S. G. McClun and D. R. Lehman had business in Niles and Youngstown Tuesday.

Fred Brudery and family were Sunday guests of the parents at Alliance.

S. D. Culp and a force of men are grading the John Detrow hill.

Jack Frost is surely doing business. Subscribe for the Dispatch, $1 year.

WEST AUSTINTOWN

Nov. 10—Mr. and Mrs. Peter Herman, Mr. and Mrs. Sada O'Rourke and son Harold, Miss Rosie Minck and W. O. Hill were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McMahon at Ohl's Crossing last Sunday, the occasion being the birthday anniversary of Mrs. McMahon and H. O'Rourke. A sumptuous dinner was served by the hostess.

David Schofer is confined to his bed with grip.

Mr. A. K. Wright has moved into Cloe Bishop's house, Mr. Bishop having moved to W. S. Anderson's farm.

L. E. Minck, rural mail carrier, delivered during the last 30 days' count 13,271 pieces of mail matter weighing 2,097 pounds and 8 ounces.

Mrs. Marietta Pennell is home from Youngstown.

MILLVILLE

Nov. 10—Mrs. Fred Oesch concluded a visit with friends in Newell, W. Va., and returned home.

A. R. Greenamyer, who has been ill the past three weeks, is improving.

Silas Perkins of Salem spent Sunday at the home of Fred Reese.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Oesch, Jr., of Damascus visited friends here Sunday.

John Lippert and family were Lisbon visitors Sunday.

A fair and school exhibit will be held at the school house this evening. It promises to be of much interest to every parent.

A large number from here attended the school exhibit held at Chestnut Grove school in Perry township, District Supt. J. L. Gray was in charge of the exhibit, which consisted of vegetables, drawings, cake, pie, fancywork and all kinds of plain sewing. An address by J. W. Moore of Lisbon and a recitation by Mrs. Amos Bush were interesting features. The schools winning prizes for the best exhibits were: First, Chestnut Grove, taught by Miss Emma Floding and Miss Ava Barnes; second, Model school, taught by Miss Naomi Hyland; third, Vernal Grove school, taught by Mrs. Winifred Baker; fourth, Beechwood school, taught by Miss Mary Herbert. The judges were County Commissioner Frank Dickey and County Supt. J. W. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Roller spent Saturday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Abe Calladine, in Salem.

The Smith Co. is building coal sheds for their new mine, on the Sheehan farm, formerly owned by David Zimmerman.

Newly infirm Supt. H. B. McCammon of Lisbon is now driving a new automobile purchased for him by the county commissioners. There is never a day when Mr. McCammon is not required to go to some part of the county to look into case reported by the trustees.

Dr. A. W. Schiller of Salem called here Wednesday.

Harry Shinn of Franklin Square spent Monday with friends here.

Mrs. W. E. Sheen was the guest of friends in Salem Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. King of Canton spent Sunday with friends here.

Miss Naomi Hyland of Salem called on friends here Sunday.

BLANCO

Nov. 10—Jacob Heisel and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Baringer of Shelltown.

Dr. McDougall and wife of Youngstown were Sunday callers at John Porter's.

Mrs. Wesley Porter and Miss Lucile Porter were in Newton Falls the other day.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Kale and daughter Zella spent Sunday at John Diehl's in Berlin.

Merton Porter spent Sunday in Youngstown.

Frank Porter, Perry Weasner and Homer Heisel are doing carpenter work for W. F. Renkenberger.

Mr. Pritchard of Youngstown was a Blanco caller Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Kale, Mrs. Emory Kale and Mr. Lewis Flick were in Youngstown Tuesday.

Mrs. James Cessa and son Delmus spent Sunday at W. J. Force's.

Mrs. Martha Rosenbaum is visiting in Newton Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Foraker were in Blanco Tuesday.

Mrs. W. F. Renkenberger, Mrs. Blanche Thorpe and Mrs. Martha Rosenbaum were in Warren recently.

Lincoln Snook and family entertained an uncle from Wisconsin several days last week.

ROSEMONT

Nov. 10—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell and little son of Girard spent Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. Flora Campbell.

Mrs. Ellis Pipher and daughter of Youngstown are spending a couple days with her sister, Mrs. C. A. Rose.

Mrs. Sloan and Mrs. Claisey of Struthers, spent Thursday at Fred Shialer's.

Thirty-six attended the Ladies' Aid meeting at the home of Mrs. C. A. Rose last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson Powers and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hassler were in Lisbon last Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. Yoxthelmer was in Youngstown last Wednesday.

Mrs. Herman Creed and daughter spent last Wednesday in Boardman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Arnold were in Youngstown Saturday.

Fred Kline and family spent Saturday in Warren.

Henry Rose had business in Youngstown Wednesday.

Miss Hazel Measmer of Youngstown spent Saturday evening and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Measmer.

The traveling range of the fly does not exceed 700 yards.

REWARD OF MERIT

MILLVILLE

Nov. 10—Mrs. Fred Oesch concluded a visit with friends in Newell, W. Va., and returned home.

A. R. Greenamyer, who has been ill the past three weeks, is improving.

Silas Perkins of Salem spent Sunday at the home of Fred Reese.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Oesch, Jr., of Damascus visited friends here Sunday.

John Lippert and family were Lisbon visitors Sunday.

A fair and school exhibit will be held at the school house this evening. It promises to be of much interest to every parent.

A large number from here attended the school exhibit held at Chestnut Grove school in Perry township, District Supt. J. L. Gray was in charge of the exhibit, which consisted of vegetables, drawings, cake, pie, fancywork and all kinds of plain sewing. An address by J. W. Moore of Lisbon and a recitation by Mrs. Amos Bush were interesting features. The schools winning prizes for the best exhibits were: First, Chestnut Grove, taught by Miss Emma Floding and Miss Ava Barnes; second, Model school, taught by Miss Naomi Hyland; third, Vernal Grove school, taught by Mrs. Winifred Baker; fourth, Beechwood school, taught by Miss Mary Herbert. The judges were County Commissioner Frank Dickey and County Supt. J. W. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Roller spent Saturday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Abe Calladine, in Salem.

The Smith Co. is building coal sheds for their new mine, on the Sheehan farm, formerly owned by David Zimmerman.

Newly infirm Supt. H. B. McCammon of Lisbon is now driving a new automobile purchased for him by the county commissioners. There is never a day when Mr. McCammon is not required to go to some part of the county to look into case reported by the trustees.

Dr. A. W. Schiller of Salem called here Wednesday.

Harry Shinn of Franklin Square spent Monday with friends here.

Mrs. W. E. Sheen was the guest of friends in Salem Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. King of Canton spent Sunday with friends here.

Miss Naomi Hyland of Salem called on friends here Sunday.

BLANCO

Nov. 10—Jacob Heisel and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Baringer of Shelltown.

Dr. McDougall and wife of Youngstown were Sunday callers at John Porter's.

Mrs. Wesley Porter and Miss Lucile Porter were in Newton Falls the other day.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Kale and daughter Zella spent Sunday at John Diehl's in Berlin.

Merton Porter spent Sunday in Youngstown.

Frank Porter, Perry Weasner and Homer Heisel are doing carpenter work for W. F. Renkenberger.

Mr. Pritchard of Youngstown was a Blanco caller Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Kale, Mrs. Emory Kale and Mr. Lewis Flick were in Youngstown Tuesday.

Mrs. James Cessa and son Delmus spent Sunday at W. J. Force's.

Mrs. Martha Rosenbaum is visiting in Newton Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Foraker were in Blanco Tuesday.

Mrs. W. F. Renkenberger, Mrs. Blanche Thorpe and Mrs. Martha Rosenbaum were in Warren recently.

Lincoln Snook and family entertained an uncle from Wisconsin several days last week.

ROSEMONT

Nov. 10—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell and little son of Girard spent Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. Flora Campbell.

Mrs. Ellis Pipher and daughter of Youngstown are spending a couple days with her sister, Mrs. C. A. Rose.

Mrs. Sloan and Mrs. Claisey of Struthers, spent Thursday at Fred Shialer's.

Thirty-six attended the Ladies' Aid meeting at the home of Mrs. C. A. Rose last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson Powers and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hassler were in Lisbon last Sunday.

CORNERSBURG

Nov. 10—G. W. Ryder and son William, Thomas Wanamaker and wife and Mrs. Earl Corll ana son Edward spent Saturday in the home of Joseph Henry of North Benton.

Mrs. G. W. Strook and Miss R. T. Osborne spent Sunday in the home of William Noffsinger.

Miss Edna Houser of the Bear's Den road spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Houser, of the south side.

Mrs. Roy Osborne and son Leroy of the Bear's Den road have moved into rooms in the Strook house on Lanterman avenue.

Mrs. Samuel Elser, Mrs. Henry Ackerman and Mrs. Laura Wagner of Woodworth and Mrs. George Glecker and son Carl of Columbiana spent Wednesday with Mrs. Levi Little.

Miss R. T. Osborne spent Monday night and Tuesday with W. A. Osborne in Boardman.

Mrs. G. W. Ryder attended a thimble bee at the Y. M. C. A. in the city Friday afternoon.

Jesse Lynn and wife of Beaver township were recent visitors in the home of their daughter, Mrs. John Fink.

John Shively of Ohtown was a Sunday visitor in the home of his sister, Mrs. Caroline Phillips.

Mrs. Will Davis and on Robert have returned from a visit with Oil City relatives.

Mrs. Mary Curtis has moved to the city.

Florence, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Scholtz, is ill with pneumonia.

Miss Caroline Lipp of the city was a Monday caller.

G. W. Ryder, wife and son William were Sunday guests in the home of Guy Clupper.

Mrs. Ibbie Patterson spent the week end with her brother, George Dickson, in Lovellville.

A cordial invitation is extended to all members and strangers to attend the special week evening services in the Lutheran church to be held Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, commencing Nov. 16 at 7:45 o'clock, eastern time. The pastor, Rev. W. J. Kratz, will be assisted by others. Special music will be provided for the week and all will be made welcome. Attend and enjoy the services.

Miss Nettie Riblet spent Sunday in the home of Lloyd Viets in Youngstown.

R. C. Millikin and family of the city were Sunday visitors in the home of P. B. Riblet.

NEW EGYPT

Nov. 10—Elmer Rothgeb and family visited Sunday at G. L. Minard's in Shady Hollow.

Clinton Beard, wife and son Elton and daughter Naomi and John Elser and wife spent Sunday in Struthers.

G. W. Smith and family motored to the Milton dam Sunday afternoon.

Ferry Esterly, wife and daughter Evelyn of Tool's Corners spent Sunday with N. L. Rothgeb and family.

Jacob Barger and Eli Koerich and two daughters, Ellen and Lydia and grandson, Philip Fink, visited at Geiring's on the Raccoon road.

Eli Goodman and daughter Elta of Canfield passed through here Sunday.

Irvin Stambacher and James Humphrey of Lynn street assisted I. W. Rothgeb to husk corn one day recently.

Jonas Lynn had a valuable horse die last week.

Clarence and Norlin Rothgeb took in the sights at New Waterford Sunday afternoon and evening.

Miss Villa Konkle spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Canfield.

WATCH CORNERS

Nov. 10—Harry Crum of Youngstown spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Crum.

Earl Osborne suffered several days last week with tonsillitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lanterman and two children spent Sunday with relatives in Youngstown.

Mrs. Ruprecht spent several days with her niece, Mrs. George Brooks, and family of Willow Grove.

The Grove school held a fair Tuesday evening which was greatly enjoyed.

M. J. Schrum and family spent Sunday with relatives in Boardman.

Class No. 2, under the auspices of their teacher, Amy Kern, is arranging to give a pumpkin pie social, Saturday evening, Nov. 20. The children are planning all the work themselves and are now busy selling tickets. Attend and have a good time and a good supper.

Miss Hazel Measmer of Youngstown spent Saturday evening and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Measmer.

NORTH LIMA

Nov. 10—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCarney last week.

The Reformed Sunday school will celebrate Rally day with appropriate services next Sunday morning. Rev. L. J. Rohrbach, the pastor, with his family, is expected home from Allentown this week and it is thought that he will be able to resume regular services next Sunday.

William Sabl and wife have moved into the house vacated by Leonard Stratton.

Guilford Clark