Making 1000 Per Cent. on a $2.00 Investment

GETTING returns on the money expended is the distinguished mark between an expenditure and an investment.

If you can place your money where it will return to you a cash dividend of five hundred per cent, it is a good investment, isn't it?

What, then, about a trifling outlay which will return a dividend of one thousand per cent in health, in wisdom, in increased effectiveness, in inspiration, in enjoyment—in all those things which go to make life worth living?

You can make a thousand per cent investment today.

The Chautauqua committee has a limited number of season tickets to sell at $2.00 apiece. Every ticket opens the doors of opportunity. Every dollar spent for these tickets is an investment, not an expenditure.

A two dollar ticket brings a five day vacation to your door. It provides entertainment which is restful; lectures which are informative, inspirational, exhilarating; music which is beautiful, ennobling. It brings a tonic bath for tired nerves, a rejuvenating elixir for jaded brains.

The Chautauqua program is a program built by experts who have searched the markets of the world. The music, entertainment and lectures included therein are the finished product of master intellects.

For two dollars you get what your forefathers could not have bought with the wealth of a Midas—the concentrated effort of a thousand minds correlated by the organizing genius of modern business.

For two dollars you get the finished product of the life of master musicians, consecrated to your service since birth. You borrow the gifted brains of noted lecturers to search the libraries of the world.

For two dollars you get a master's degree in the People's University—the canvas college which is remaking America. You get inspiration and encouragement for renewed endeavors which mean increased effectiveness and earning power. You get money value, plus power.

And, over and beyond the selfish increment to yourself, the two dollar investment which you make in a season ticket brings the consciousness of association with the sort of thing which is making your home town a better place to live, building citizenship in the young, increasing business zeal and civic pride, multiplying opportunity for all and buttressing every good thing in the community with solid helpfulness.

Two dollars spent today enrolls you with the Chautauqua Boosters and puts you in line to receive the thousand per cent dividends in vim, vigor and joy-of-living which the Chautauqua pays.

Do it today!

OUR SHARE FOR BIG INTERESTS

If Senator LaFollette is to be taken as a criterion in his action on the floor of the Senate chamber the other day, then the old Progressives will be far from climbing into the Republican band wagon at the coming election. Mr. LaFollette decisively and vigorously endorsed President Wilson.

And the reason for it is shown in another point which he made, which was indeed his principal point and one in which the American common people ought to take an active interest. Senator LaFollette said "I sincerely hope the standard-bearer of the republican party in this campaign will not feel himself constrained and will not under any circumstances take the position that it is the duty of this government to put the flag of the United States behind the investments of speculators in Mexico or elsewhere. President Wilson declared in his speech at Detroit, that he would not stand for that policy, that he would not "become the collecting agent of investors in Mexico." This shows how Senator LaFollette, as well as some other people, look at the Mexican disturbance and its cause and Americans of the common people ought to get that angle and make up their minds whether or not they want to contribute to the business of big interests who invest in Mexico and then want the poor people to go to war and protect their property while they sit at home and carry on money schemes.—Chagrin Falls Express.
