FRIDAY, MARCH 30, 1917
AUDITOR IS ASSESSOR UNDER NEW TAXATION LAW
Under the new tax law the county auditor is made the assessor of real estate in his county. On or before the second Monday in April, 1917, he shall ascertain whether the real property in each township, village, ward or assessment district is assessed for taxation at its true value in money as the same now appears on his tax list. If he finds that it is so assessed, he shall, subject to the following provisions, enter such valuation upon the tax list for the current year. He shall submit his findings as to the valuation of such real estate to the county commissioners and said board shall, at a hearing fixed within not less than ten days, nor more than 20 days thereafter, confirm, modify or set aside the same by an order entered on their journal. Notice of such hearing shall be given in one newspaper of general circulation in the county. If the county commissioners determine that the real estate in any subdivision is not on the duplicate at its true value, then the auditor shall proceed to assess the same. He is also required to make such assessment upon the petition of not less than 25 freeholders, a board of township trustees or the council of the village, such petition to be filed at any time after January 1, but not later than the fourth Monday in April, 1917. The auditor is authorized to take or real estate, maps, plat books, etc., are re-acted.

The auditor is empowered to employ expert assistants, clerks, etc., the amount to be expended in the payment of their compensation to be fixed by the county commissioners and paid out of the general county fund on warrant of the county auditor. If the commissioners fail to provide a sufficient amount application for an additional allowance may be made to the common pleas court and the allowance of such court shall be final. If funds for this purpose are not available for this year the commissioners may borrow the amount so required, and issue certificates of indebtedness therefor.

The board of revision will consist of the county treasurer, county auditor and president of the board of county commissioners. The auditor is the secretary and may convene the board as often as necessary during any year. The board of revision shall hear and determine complaints pending from last year.

Following is the general plan for the reappraisal of personal property: Blanks shall be mailed to each taxpayer or left at convenient places in each taxing subdivision, notice thereof being given in one newspaper of general circulation in the county. Each person is required to list all his or her personal property of the day preceding the second Monday in April within 15 days thereafter, and deliver the same to the county auditor by May 1. Failure to do so deprives the taxpayer of his $100 exemption and willful failure or refusal to make returns subjects him to a 50 per cent penalty.

The auditor shall examine the returns, and after giving notice to the person listing, may make corrections thereof, and he may examine the returns with the assessors, who shall meet for instructions on the first Monday of May and if they believe any property is omitted or valued incorrectly, the assessor shall call upon the person listing and assess his property. Assessors shall also call upon and list the property of all persons who have failed to make returns to the county auditor. Assessors will have no right to administer the oath to such persons as apply to them for that purpose.

WILL MARK THE GRAVES OF REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS
At a recent meeting of Mahoning Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution it was decided to mark the graves of Revolutionary Soldiers buried in Canfield with the authorized bronze markers. The names under consideration of which the historian has the records, are William Childs, Lieut. Tyrrel Tanner, Elijah Wadsworth, Haynes Pitch, Eleazar Gilman, Saml Riddell. The records of the following named soldiers are not in her possession: Benj. Dean, John Everett, Darius Jones, Geo. and John Harding, Henry Ohl, Capt. James Doud, Matthew Steele, Nicholas Lynn, John B. Miller, Charles Wood, Geo. O'wry, Jacob Harfif. The four last named were pensioners.

There seems to be some doubt as to the burial place of Capt. James Doud; possibly it is not in Canfield. Any information in regard to the graves or records of these, or other soldiers buried in Canfield, would be very much appreciated and would insure the placing of markers on the graves. Please send any communication to Cora Z. Parsons, Historian, D. A. R., 1918 Elm St., Youngstown.

Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels has issued an urgent call for enlistments in the navy which is to be increased to 87,000 men.

His father brought suit for the amount of the judgment rendered. Dealers in real estate say many farms in this neighborhood are being offered for sale because their owners and men who formerly worked on them are being lured to the cities and towns to work in shops and mills at higher wages than can be earned on farms.
