

THE MAHONING DISPATCH
ISSUED WEEKLY
C. C. FOWLER D. B. FOWLER
Publishers

CANFIELD, OHIO
OHIO STATE PHONE 48

Entered at the Canfield, Ohio, postoffice as second class matter under act of Congress.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION
One Year $1.50
Six Months .75
Three Months .35
Single copies .05

SPECIAL NOTICE
Obituary Notices, Resolutions of Respect and notices of church and charitable entertainments and the like where an admission fee is charged, will be charged for at the rate of five cents per counted line. Cards of thanks will be charged at the flat rate of 25 cents. These must be paid for in advance, or charged to responsible parties ordering the same.

FRIDAY, JULY 18, 1919.

THE LABOR PARTY.

The organization of a labor party in Cleveland is a move of economic and political significance. It represents an effort of a sizable and sometimes militant minority in the American Federation of Labor to appeal to the people. The fact that similar attempts in this country have failed in the past is no assurance that the present one will not succeed.

Under the leadership of Samuel Compers, the American Federation last month at Atlantic City voted to withhold support from the movement to organize labor as a political party. The decision was a triumph for conservatism. It represented a continuation of policies that have long controlled the Federation, under which the Federation and the cause of labor have prospered through many years.

Thus the Cleveland party starts without the sanction of the governing body of American labor. How serious the handicap may be, if serious at all, remains to be seen. The platform of the new party, of course, reflects the temper of the convention which promulgates it. It is radical, at points impracticable. It indicates a study of British labor experience in politics. Like any other platform it comprises many suggestions intended more to win votes than to serve as the basis of responsible action were the candidates who stand upon it to be elected.

In other countries labor has found it advantageous to organize for direct political action. Labor members sit in the English parliament. Labor wields an influence through party action in France and elsewhere. Here, therefore, American labor leaders generally have taken a stand opposed to direct political action, preferring to keep the force of labor independent of parties and ready to support men and measures, regardless of what party they support.

A review of labor's accomplishments over a period of years in this country indicates that, without the organization of a party, labor has achieved great and continuous victories. State and federal statute books bear evidence of how American labor, without starting a party of its own, has used the existing parties to write into American law the demands of an ever widening program of relief and concession.

But times have changed, and men's thinking is changing. A labor party put a ticket in the field at the last Chicago municipal election, polling a considerable vote without a very vigorous campaign. Other cities are witnessing the organization of labor parties. Men behind the movement in Cleveland represent more than a mere local purpose.

The party in Cleveland, like those in other cities, is put forth largely as an experiment. If these various local attempts find ready acceptance, there is certain to be formed a national labor party. There may, indeed, be one in the field for the presidential election next year.—Plain Dealer.

PROUD OF MR. WILSON

Many people here remember Harry Robinson, son of the late Judge Robinson of Ravenna.

Mr. Robinson has just returned from Europe and has come back a most enthusiastic supporter of President Wilson's war and peace policies. Before going over he was busy criticizing the government and its conduct of the war. That was when he was on the outside and in California. It is so easy to sit back, and knowing nothing of the inside, tell how it ought to be done. We all do it more or less, for if we expressed an opinion only on subjects about which we are well informed some of us would have to wait a long time before speaking and most of us, in fact, would preserve a continual golden silence. But we don't wait and neither did Mr. Robinson.

However after he got over in Europe and began doing some work there and really knew conditions first hand, he began to change his opinions and came home a few weeks ago most enthusiastic for America's part in the war.

After this terrible war, how can any of us be so partisan as not to give praise where praise is due, be it for a Democrat or Republican. If all the bloodshed and sorrow and months on anybody have not taught us to think above party lines, then we have missed one of the lessons of the war. It is fine to have Harry Robinson come home and be frank in his admission of his wrong stand before going to Europe.

HIGH LIGHTS OF WILSON'S ADDRESS TO SENATE.

"The treaty constitutes nothing less than a world settlement."

"It was not easy to graft the order of ideas upon the old of the peace table."

"Two great empires have been forced into political bankruptcy and we are the receivers."

"There could be no peace until the whole order of Central Europe was set right."

"The monster that resorted to arms must be put in chains that cannot be broken."

"The united power of free nations must put a stop to aggressiveness."

"We entered the war as the distinguished champions of right, and we interposed ourselves in the terms of the peace in no other capacity."

"The fact that America is the friend of the nations, whether they be rivals or associates, is no new fact. It is only discovery of it by the rest of the world that is new."

"America's isolation ended 20 years ago. She has just reached her maturity as a world power."

BOARDMAN

July 16—E. P. Joshua spent several days last week in Pittsburgh. Mr. Walker and Mr. Jenney moved from Girard into the house vacated by T. S. Woodward.

C. M. L. Agnew and H. C. Heintzelman unloaded a car of coal one day last week.

Howard and Lottie Kyle, John and Esther Heintzelman, Freda and August Bohm were in Cleveland Sunday.

Frances Joshua spent a few days last week with Gussie Mitchell in Austintown.

Dwight Carlson met with an accident last week in Youngstown. He was riding a motorcycle and a dog ran out in front of him and threw him. He was badly hurt and has to walk with crutches. He hit the dog hard enough to kill him.

The township trustees met Monday evening and so did the board of education.

Elmer Barger was on the sick list last week but was able to return to work Monday morning.

Frank Catherman and family returned from Syracuse last Sunday.

Edwin Barger and family were in Canfield Tuesday evening.

Red Cross workers met picnic fashion at Southern Park last Thursday. The attendance was not large, owing to the busy time of year, but the day was thoroughly enjoyed by those present. Mrs. Anthony Calvin has invited the society to meet with her Thursday Aug. 14. A good attendance is hoped for.

Mr. and Mrs. German Buehrle are now living here. Mr. and Mrs. Wheelock of Youngstown spent Saturday evening with them and Mr. Inglis and family were Sunday afternoon visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Huffman of East Palestine and Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Agnew of Youngstown visited at Frank Agnew's, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Smith spent Sunday in Ashtabula.

Miss Matilda Withers entertained a number of members of the Monday Musical Club Choral at a chicken dinner at her home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Stafford were in Youngstown Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meek were in Poland Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Agnew were recent visitors at the home of O. B. Jones in Poland.

ROSEMONT

July 16—There will be a social in the Hall next Saturday evening for the benefit of the Hall Association. The ladies interested will please bring cake.

Miss Lola Powers returned Saturday from a two weeks' visit with relatives in Erie.

Arthur Dutterer and family and Floyd Schisler spent Sunday here with their parents.

Mrs. Charles Voxtheimer and daughter, Etta, of Canfield called here one day last week.

Mrs. Earl Huprich of Meadville, Pa., spent Sunday here with her parents.

Miss Edith Carns of Austintown is visiting at Fred Kline's.

Joseph Cessa and family visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Schurtenberger in Greenford.

Wm. Tiesley and family spent Sunday at the home of Fred Gensler.

Mr. and Mrs. Kinzy of Ellsworth and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wilderson of Struthers visited at Shannon Roof's Saturday evening.

George Renton of Castle Shannon, Pa., and Mr. Campbell and Mr. Crowe of Youngstown were recent visitors at the home of Frank Williams.

Mrs. Jessie Bryson of Youngstown called on Mrs. Elizabeth Rose, Sunday.

Misses Ruth and Margaret Clayton are visiting friends in Penna.

BLANCO

July 16—Mrs. James Weasner and Miss Anna Keeler were Saturday callers at Elgin Middleton's.

Ruth Kale is on the sick list.

Roscoe Force and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Force.

Miss Opal Orr of Berlin Township is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Orr, Mead.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Kale, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dodd and son Robert were Sunday visitors at C. B. Kale's.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Baringer of Berlin Township and Hiram Hesel and family were Sunday visitors at Jacob Hesel's.

Mr. and Mrs. John Porter, Miss Laura Onstott, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Flick and son Austin spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fenton of Edinburg.

H. E. Kale and daughter Mabel, F. E. Wiesner, Jacob Hesel, Mrs. W. F. Renkenberger and Helen Swank were in Youngstown Tuesday.

Mrs. Blanche Woldford and Mrs. W. F. Renkenberger recently visited friends in Canton.

WHEN ALL IS DONE

When all is done and my last word is said,

And ye who loved me murmur "He is dead,"

Let no one weep, for fear that I should know

And sorrow, too, that we should sorrow so.

When all is done and in the oozing clay

Ye lay this cast-off hull of mine away,

Pray not for me, for, after long despair

The quiet of the grave will be a prayer.

For I have suffered loss and grievous pain,

The hurts of hatred and the world's disdain,

And wounds so deep that love, well-tried and pure,

Had not the power to ease them or to cure.

When all is done, say not my life is o'er,

And that through night I seek a dimmer shore;

Say rather that my morn has just begun—

I greet the dawn, and not a setting sun.

When all is done,

Summer Complaint Quickly Relieved

"About two years ago when suffering from a severe attack of summer complaint, I took Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and it relieved me almost instantly," writes Mrs. Henry Jewett, Clark Mills, N. Y. This is an excellent remedy for colic and diarrhoea and should be kept at hand by every family.—adv.

BEAT THE SUGAR SCARCITY—GET 25 LBS. FOR $2.75 WITH A DOLLAR GROCERY ORDER AT C. NEFF'S GROCERY, CANFIELD.

If you are going to kick about a man don't kick his face. Don't kick behind his back.

Hogs always seem to be ten cents higher.

The genius who evolved the soviet did not invent much.

From what country did they get the name for Turkish baths?

The high cost of explosive material never discouraged an anarchist.

Not all other uplift movements are keeping pace with the prices.

Since hobble skirts came in, the fashion of arriving on time has gone out.

No need to go further—we are convinced that you can't drown a dandelion.

It takes more time now to pay the luxury tax than it does to select a suit of clothes.

As to those British automobiles of concrete, will they run again after they once get set?

If the war tax schedule gives you a headache, it will be noted there is no tax on bromo seltzer.

Thus much must be said though—the fellow who has no garden isn't so liable to work on Sunday.

China and Japan are in the class of twins with the colic. As soon as one is quieted the other yells.

Formerly the most-sought-for thing in the world was perpetual motion. Now it is perpetual peace.

One of the troubles of the world is that it has too many imperative needs that conflict with one another.

The objection of buying coal now is that one probably will have it all burned before winter comes.

Does the protest of the United States against German dyes mean that something has been stymied?

Japanese ought to practice some of their well-known Jujitsu on that vicious anti-American propaganda.

Lard has now reached a price so high that we need no longer fear it is being used to adulterate our butter.

The demand for cents, however, is due to the war tax and not to thrift or the increasing number of children.

It's a safe bet the Rainbow boys saw more to admire in New York City in a minute than they did in Paris in a month.

London is reported as crazy over "jazz weddings," and soon may be expected to specialize on ragtime divorces.

San Salvador reminds one of those fellows around the cigar counter who spends the greater part of their time shaking.

The Germans have no cause for complaint. This was their war, and they are entitled to everything that goes with it.

No statistics are available as yet to show how much an air passenger from overseas will be permitted to carry in his suitcase.

After the young man has paid the luxury tax on the ice cream soda he hasn't the penny left to offer her for her thoughts.

If street car steps will have to be lowered to accommodate milady's newest skirt, it wouldn't seem to be getting on so very well.

Having become accustomed to those uncomfortable tin hats, returning warriors may be able to wear even derbies without a grimace.

To make an overseas flight safe all that is necessary is an airplane that will fly like a bird, float like a chip or dive like a porpoise.

All the gentlemen who used to tell how cheaply and scientifically the rail roads could be run should now submit their remarks in writing.

"Does your husband aggravate you servants?" queries a woman's page writer, in which case, of course, you should get a new husband.

Letter delivery by airship has been pronounced successful. Once an aviator gets going it is difficult for the post office department to interfere with him.

Loot stolen in Berlin from the stores is openly sold in the streets of the city. Which is adapting a pet Hun theory to the fact that laws are merely scraps of paper.

Bolshevism is losing ground in Russia, but literally and figuratively. The depth of its decline will be in proportion to the violence of its reign.

American writing paper shows $6,000,000 increase in gross sales. Blanks for income tax returns have been spoiled by the million. It's an ill wind that doesn't blow somebody good.

With the coming winter wheat crop estimated at 900,000,000 bushels it looks as if the landlady will find small excuse for cutting the slices of bread so thin after the harvest is over.

Wonder if the poor fish, like everything else, are going to demand a more expensive kind of bait this season.

Women of the world will soon be voting and then if the millennium hangs back it will be a mean old thing!

When General Foch visits the United States the weikin will have nervous prostration from overwork after its ringing.

Patronize Dispatch advertisements.

PROFESSIONAL

Life and Death were growing tired of the struggle.

"Look here," said Life, "we'll never get anywhere at this rate. I know I could put you out if I wished you, but why should I? When I finish you I finish myself."

"Just what I was thinking," responded Death. "Why not quit and call it a draw?"

"You're on," said Life.

In that moment some of the world's greatest medical reputations were made.

Workless Affluence.

"You don't sell gold bricks any more."

"No," replied the wily citizen. "Money is so easy to get nowadays that there's no use of going to all the trouble of hunting up a brick and gliding it."

Place Hunting.

"Some day," said the high-browed youth, "I shall have a place in the hall of fame."

"Well," replied Senator Sorghum, patiently, but absent-mindedly, "may be I can help you. What kind of a place do you want and what salary do you expect?"

Deductive Analysis.

"How did you know the relative Mr. Blipps is entertaining is a masculine one?"

"Because Blipps remarked in the course of conversation that his visiting relative was very closemouthed."

Real Literature.

I scorn the magazine designs.

I scoff at books so neat.

I love to read the little signs displayed on every street.

Mean Hint.

"Are these flannel cakes, Mrs. Jiggers?"

"No, sir, they are not flannel cakes. Why do you ask?"

"I merely judged they were by their taste."

Magnate's Expenses.

Crawford—Since he became a magnate his expenses are enormous.

Crabshaw—No wonder. He hires a doctor to keep him out of bed and a lawyer to keep him out of jail.—Life.

Odd Happenings.

"Pa, do they have lots of snow and ice in Panama?"

"Of course not, son."

"Then how can they have those slides on the canal?"

Pointless.

"The man is a pinhead!" exclaimed the exasperated person.

"Not at all," replied the soothing citizen. "Even a pinhead leads to some sort of a point. He never does."

Details.

"Her father struck me very forcibly."

"As a man of thought?"

"No; as a man of action. He kicked me out."

Delayed Vindications.

"Truth crushed to earth will rise again," said the hopeful person.

"Yes," replied the cynic; "but it's liable to have to go with a crutch for some time after."

Metallic Natures.

"Biggins has an iron will, but he is behind the times."

"Yes," replied Miss Cayenne. "That's the trouble with an iron will. It is liable to get rusty."

THERE'S A REASON.

Hubby: I never realized you were so tall before.

Wife: I'm supposed to be—I am I not your better half?

Amusing His Friends.

"I'm glad I'm bald," the fat man said.

"Although perhaps you doubt it, I find my friends enjoy my head. They love to joke about it."

A Difficult Aspiration.

"You depend on the wisdom of the plain people!"

"Yes," replied Senator Sorghum; "but while the plain people out my way are getting their wisdom, I want to be on hand as much as possible, as their instructor."

Suspicious Imitating.

First Hobo—Why did you hesitate when the lady told you to come in and get a bite?

Second Ditto—Well, it sounded hospitable, but I was looking around to see if she kept a dog.

Expert Training.

"Did the professor of physiology have any success with the suspect?"

"Oh, yes; he made him show his hand."

"What then?"

"Then he showed his teeth."

You never can tell. Many a man has been lincited, only to make an ass of himself.

Patronize our Advertisers.

SEEK SUCCESS

Associate with friends who are successful. Think Success, and work for it, too.

Choose as a place for your savings the largest and most successful institution in this part of the country.

The Home Savings and Loan Company

129 West Federal St., YOUNGSTOWN - OHIO

FIVE PER CENT AND SOMETIMES MORE

Don't Fail This Year

to use SHENANGO PULVERIZED RAW LIMESTONE ON YOUR FARM

The demand for Food Products is unlimited and it is imperative that you employ the best Agricultural Limestone that you can secure to improve your land and insure a maximum production.

ORDER NOW McKeefrey & Company LEETONIA, OHIO

Eyes, Headaches, and the Nervous System

DR. W. L. BRYN Eye Specialist Bell Phone 306

The best glasses and eye attention for less money. It's about time some thing was low. Don't you think so? Remember we guarantee all work.

Consult Dr. Bryn if you suffer Headaches, Nausea, Nervousness or Stomach Trouble we gladly advise.

302 Wick Building Youngstown, O

NOTICE Notice is hereby given that the stockholders of the Mahoning Supply Company will meet at their office in Canfield, Ohio, on Monday, August 4th, 1919, at 8 o'clock P. M. Eastern time, for the purpose of choosing not less than five, nor more than thirty, directors to represent the corporation and for the transaction of such other business as may lawfully come before the meeting.

R. E. FREDERICK, GEO. S. BISHOP, RANDOLPH H. ANDERSON, JAMES M. MCKAY, C. A. BUCK, Incorporators.

13-4 Docket 24, Page 117 EXECUTOR'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that A. C. Orice, Petersburg, Ohio, has been appointed and qualified as executor of the last will and testament of Mary Wier, late of Poland Township, Mahoning County, Ohio, deceased by the Probate Court of said County. All persons interested will govern themselves accordingly.

JOHN W. DAVIS, Probate Judge of Mahoning County, Ohio July 12, 1919.

LEGAL NOTICE Minnie Manross, who resides at R. F. D., Box 77, Jamestown, N. Y., will take notice that her husband, Dan Manross, has sued her in the Court of Common Pleas of Mahoning County, Ohio, for divorce on the grounds of wilful absence and gross neglect of duty and that said case will be at issue and for hearing on and after six weeks publication of this notice.

R. A. Beard, Attorney for Plaintiff. 10-4

Notaries Public

C. C. FOWLER D. B. FOWLER Telephone 48 Canfield, O.

THE HILLS OF OHIO.

O give me the hills, the grand old hills,

Where I spent my childhood hours; Give me the hillsides green with corn, And the hills where the sun peeped over at morn.

Or aglow with autumn flowers, Give me the hills, the silent hills; I'm sick of the ways of men, I'm tired of the rush, of the tramp of feet;

My whole heart longs for some cool retreat.

In the heart of the hills again. 'Tis autumn now on the hills at home;

I dream of the fields aglow With the billowy gold of the golden rod,