

Brings results, and that is the object. The Mahoning Dispatch carries messages in advertising form to a large number of people in all parts of the county. You will be more than pleased with results if you advertise in The Dispatch.

Washingtonville

Mrs. Wm. Young was a Columbiana visitor, Monday.

Mrs. F. G. Davis, Miss Clara Weikart and Mrs. C. H. Weikart were in Salem, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grindle of Locust Grove spent Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Johnson.

Mrs. Wm. Weikart spent the past week with her son in East Liverpool.

E. S. Freed and family of Youngstown were here over Sunday with their parents.

The grade teachers who visited in Youngstown Wednesday spent part of the day at the parsonage building, principally E. S. Freed having charge of that school. Miss Fitzsimmons spent the day at South High.

Miss Charlotte Bossert of Alliance spent the week end at her home here.

Miss Ruth Bossert spent several days the past week with her sister, Mrs. Fred Penstemaker, in East Palestine.

The men who are employed in the pressrooms at the Mullins plant, Salem, were laid off several days this week on account of gas shortage.

The public school was closed Wednesday, the teachers taking a day off to visit the Youngstown schools to get new ideas of teaching.

Miss Greenfield was unable to teach Monday on account of sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holt received entertainment, Saturday, of the wedding of their nephew, Reginald Warwick, of England. They also received some of the wedding cake.

Mary and Ruth, little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. King, are again able to be out after a week's illness.

James Weeden returned to his work Monday after suffering several weeks with blood poisoning.

Miss Amanda Bilger spent Sunday in Youngstown, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Stille.

William Holt was a visitor in Youngstown, Saturday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Platt.

Mrs. David Weikart and daughter Grace were Salem visitors, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Carlisle spent Monday in Youngstown.

Miss Sadie Simpson, who has been employed in the Salem hospital as nurse, left for Florida last week accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Thompson of Salem, Mr. Thompson being in poor health.

Mrs. Harry McNeal visited relatives in Salem, Saturday, at the home of Mrs. Emma Fitzpatrick, who has been confined to her home, is able to be about.

Regular services in the M. E. Church next Sunday morning and evening. The minister will be pleased to have a good attendance.

Richard Wilkinson has been off duty at the Co-operative store this week, being confined to his home by sickness.

John Feicht of near Greenford is staying at the home of his sister, Mrs. Clara Taylor, this week, the roads being closed with snow drifts between here and his home.

The Knights of Pythias will fix up the lower room of their building for a club room for their members. Special committees have been appointed to take charge of this work.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gilbert spent Monday evening in Leetonia.

Wm. Summerville is on the sick list.

Inauguration of officers was held at the Pythian Sisters' lodge, Tuesday evening.

The Forester members will enjoy an ox roast at their lodge rooms Friday evening.

Potatoes are on the market at $3 per bushel, wholesale, in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Denner of Youngstown spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stouffer.

Mrs. Mary Woods returned, Tuesday, to the home of her son, Clifford, in Salem.

Merie and Willard, little sons of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Davis, were among the sick this week.

Wm. Carlisle of Salem spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Moore.

Russell and Abbie Smith were Salem visitors, Monday evening.

Mrs. Emma Weikart and grandson, Kenneth, were confined to their home last week by sickness.

Mrs. Harley Woods was hostess last Wednesday evening to members of the Women's Home Circle; Misses, Andra and Helen Simpson were invited guests. Principal diversions of the evening were music and needlework. A dainty luncheon was served.

Mrs. F. G. Davis will entertain in her home next Wednesday evening.

George Firth is again able to take charge of his place of business.

A sleighing party from west of Canfield was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Davis, Saturday evening. Guests included, Martin Davis and family, Harvey Davis and family, Fred Bowman and family. An enjoyable evening was spent. Refreshments were served. The guests left for their homes at a late hour.

Leslie Burton is able to be out, after a week's illness.

An enjoyable time was had at the dance in town hall Saturday evening. Hundermork's orchestra of Salem furnished music. Another dance was announced for Saturday.

BERLIN CENTER

Jan. 21.—A. S. Fellmole, Howard Wood, John Ormsby and Earl Orr were in Youngstown, Tuesday.

Mrs. Susan Hoover has gone to Rayenna to spend the remainder of the winter with her daughters.

Miss Smith is on the sick list.

I. J. Smith has a number of toms hauling logs from near Alliance to Deerfield station.

Solomon Heiser was an Atwater visitor, Tuesday.

Mrs. John Ormsby had the misfortune to fall down the cellar stairs and had a collar bone broken and was bruised severely. She has been suffering for a number of years with rheumatism. Many friends extend their sympathy to her.

Rev. Cayen is conducting revival meetings at the M. E. Church, preaching every evening at 7:30 except Saturday, all this week and next. Everybody invited to attend.

ISLAND

Jan. 21.—A gloom was cast over the entire community Sunday morning when it was announced that Mrs. Emma Longenecker had died at the family home about nine o'clock.

Death was not unexpected, however, as she had been hovering between life and death the past week. For several years Mrs. Longenecker had been suffering from sugar diabetes, which at last caused her death. She is survived by her husband, four daughters—Lucille, Pauline, Lois and La Rue; her mother, Mrs. Morris, several brothers and sisters, and a large circle of relatives and friends who extend sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mrs. Longenecker was a devoted mother, a most kindly neighbor and was loved and esteemed by all who knew her. She was a member of the Brethren church and always active in church affairs. Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in charge of Revs. Albert Harrod, James Horst and John Biber, with interment in the Zion Hill cemetery.

Nineteen of our young folks composed a sled load that spent Thursday evening with D. D. Wilmer and family.

Saloma Weaver and daughters Agnes and Ida were Sunday guests of Henry Lehman and family.

Jonas Knopp and daughter Lizzie are spending a week with relatives near Louisville.

John J. Martin recently purchased the John C. Martin farm near Columbus and will get possession in the spring.

S. R. Martin called on Alvin Detrow and family Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Lydia Boston, Mrs. Charity Roller and David Klingensmith called on Boston and family, Sunday afternoon.

Henry Rhel was in Enon valley, Pa. Saturday.

Abram Krieder of Wadsworth is doing chores for Mrs. Lorina Horst.

H. H. Calvin was in Youngstown, Tuesday.

Alvin Detrow had business in Youngstown, Monday.

Harry Culp has a new Ford touring car.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Weaver spent Monday afternoon with Adam Wenger and family.

Mark and Ethel Snyder of Chambersburg, Pa., are visiting friends here.

Miss Ella Burkholder spent the past two weeks assisting Mrs. Samuel Burkholder at Confederate Corners.

Miss Mabel Wilmer taught school at Germantown the past week in Miss Lucille Longenecker's room.

Why so backward about it, ye good people of Canfield, with 25 barrels of whiskey stored away in your town and claimed unknown as to its location? Strikes one as being kind of fishy. Had it been left in Bingleville, which has been noted for its use, it would have put a different light on it.

Authorities much work as it would not necessarily have been put in so secluded a place, hence the short life thereof.

NEW ALBANY

Jan. 21.—Who says we haven't enough snow to sleigh ride? Traffic was entirely blocked on the New Albany-Salem road Sunday. Many chauffeurs have decided to use the shortest plan to carry their little shovels.

Joseph Redinger spent the week end in Salem on account of the snow. Miss Isabelle O'Connor of Salem spent Sunday with Miss Esther Shepard.

Members of the Twilight Club were pleasantly entertained at an oyster supper, given by Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Stewart, Saturday evening. After supper the jolly crowd enjoyed themselves playing games, music and dancing. Misses Arlene and Gale Dougherty were invited guests.

Miss Rose Seaburg of Salem spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Detrow.

Mrs. James Smith has been on the sick list for a few days.

Mr. White of Salem spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Marion Truxall.

Mrs. Eli Houts has been ill the past few weeks. She is at present in a very critical condition.

Walter Fisher returned home from Toledo one day last week, bringing a new car.

Everybody attend the Greenford high school minstrel, to be given by the pupils at grange hall, Jan. 23. We all enjoy a colored minstrel show. You will not regret money or trip.

The following pupils were present every day during the fourth month of school: Holly Dougherty, Clara Schaefer, Florence Burns, Nettie Shepard, Frederick Puttkamer, Kenneth Stewart, Leroy Shepard, Ghalie Stewart.

The following pupils were present every day during the first semester: Clara Schaefer, Florence Burns, Nettie Shepard, Frederick Puttkamer, Leroy Shepard and Ghalie Stewart.

GREENFORD

Jan. 21.—Sunday school convention will be held at Locust Grove church Sunday afternoon and evening, Jan. 25.

There will be no services in the Lutheran church Sunday evening, Jan. 26.

The Lutherans contemplate holding protracted meetings soon, possibly beginning next Monday evening, if the weather is favorable.

Raymond Compton of Leetonia was a Greenford caller, Friday.

The high school will give a minstrel play in grange hall, Friday evening, Jan. 23.

Mrs. J. B. Schroy and Mrs. Homer Culp are among the sick.

O. S. Walter spent Monday in Youngstown.

The children of Ren Hendricks have the whooping cough, but all are recovering.

Elmer Schaurenberger of Canfield spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Willie Rotzel.

Ernest Roller, Ralph Calvin and Wm. Feicht went to Cleveland Tuesday to attend the automobile show. Carl Clay was in Canfield, today.

ELLSWORTH

Jan. 21.—Miss Pauline Schafer, who had her tonsils removed last Friday in the Youngstown city hospital, is getting along nicely.

Frank Hull was in Youngstown, Sunday.

S. B. Brooke recently suffered a stroke of apoplexy.

Clyde Kistler contemplates working in Youngstown.

Ether Gossier spent Sunday at her home here.

Jay Heisel, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Keen and Mrs. Elmer Crum were Youngstown callers one day last week.

The farmers' institute was held Friday in grange hall. There was a good attendance at all three sessions.

Grange will meet next Tuesday evening. Every member is requested to be present.

Samuel Gossier was home from New Castle a couple of days last week.

There will be preaching in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Schafer spent a few days last week in Youngstown.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hull of Youngstown, who died of pneumonia, was brought here for burial.

Allen Dickson was in Youngstown last Saturday attending a meeting of the county board of education.

Snow-bound roads make traveling difficult.

PATMOS

Jan. 21.—It has been so long since we have read any news from Patmos in the Dispatch that we are afraid some people may think that we are not on the map, but that is not the case.

We are still here and going right along. At present we are laboring under difficulties in the way of too much snow, although Ford's do occasionally get through with the help of a team or a shove.

Our groceryman, B. T. Kegg, in making his weekly trip to Youngstown Friday, got within two miles of home and then telephoned for his team to come and get him and his machine.

Dewey Bush, our school teacher, left for his home in Greenford, Saturday with a shovel in the back of his Ford. He reports anything but a pleasant trip.

Dr. Gudger of Berlin makes daily trips to the village and looks very comfortable in his new closed car.

Charles Venable, who has been ill with a severe attack of jaundice, is up and around again. His father has been doing his work.

Wm. Middleton, who has been teaming south of Salem, is at home suffering with rheumatism.

Pearl Bowman, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jont Stratton, is recovering from a serious attack of measles and pneumonia.

Our people are rejoicing over the prospect of a macadam road through the Center.

Miss Charlotte Kegg has returned from a week's visit with her sister in Alliance.

The Patmos Community Club is making plans for a debate and picnic at the school house, Friday evening, Jan. 30. The subject will be announced later. Good music will be a feature of the evening.

Sleighb parties passing through the village are numerous.

Quite a number of our young men are working in Salem this winter.

Write your community news and send it to the Dispatch. It may not be interesting for you to write, but it is interesting for other people to read.

TURNER STREET

Jan. 21.—J. S. Ockerman and Ed. Reese were in North Jackson, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Brick attended Mr. Jones' sale in North Jackson, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schouder and children of North Canfield Street called at Adam Brobst's, Thursday afternoon.

Nora and James Kennedy were at T. M. Thomas' Tuesday.

Mrs. A. L. Wilson is suffering with tonsillitis.

Charles Carson was on the sick list several days last week.

R. R. Brick was home Monday.

Adam Brobst and family entertained Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Will Fick of Lynn street, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Lower and Mr. and Mrs. C. Schrouder, daughter Dorothy and son Myron of North Canfield street.

There was no school here Monday and Tuesday on account of the roads being impassable, and a number of the scholars being sick.

GETTYSBURG

Jan. 21.—Rena Getz entertained members of the Loyal Sons and Daughters' class of the Christian Sunday school, last Wednesday evening.

Jan. Kendig spent from Friday till Monday with her grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. Kendig, of Washingtonville.

F. E. Steepe had a lightning plant installed in his residence.

Mrs. John Callahan and children of Alliance visited over Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Clay.

Charles Getz is confined to the house with tonsillitis.

F. E. Steepe was in Salem, Tuesday. Owing to the drifted condition of the roads, the men employed in Salem have been unable to get to work for a few days.

EAST LEWISTOWN

Jan. 21.—David Wunderlin died last Friday at his home in Salem after a lingering illness. He was son of Dallas Wunderlin and was born here Sept. 22, 1894, and many friends sincerely regretted to learn of his death.

In March, 1917, he was married to Maud Bailey, who survives him. For the past eight years he had been employed at the Mullins plant as a sheet metal worker. He was a member of the Methodist church, Odd Fellows and Mullins Relief association. Private funeral services were held Sunday afternoon with burial in Grandview cemetery.

The home of Henry Blosser was destroyed by fire last Saturday afternoon, the fire starting in the attic. Efforts to extinguish the flames were unavailing as they had gained great headway before being discovered.

Through the help of Mr. and Mrs. Blosser, who were in the city, the contents on the first floor saved, but little was gotten out of the rooms on the second story.

Russell Double, who served with the Marines nearly a year, has returned home. He says he enjoyed the life and expects to return to it.

Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Burkholder visited last Thursday at the home of Rudolph Basinger.

School at North Lima has closed at a result of scarlet fever developing in several families.

Leeter Burns and Leonard Mentzer of North Lima called on Jacob Wilder last Thursday.

H. Langraver helped Henry Blosser with logging several days last week.

Irvin Cole and Wade Carr were in North Lima the other day.

The people of this locality can greatly help in making the Dispatch, their home paper, more interesting by sending in to the correspondent any item that comes to their notice. Please do this and in keeping our town on the map.

Some sleighing parties reported despite snowbound roads and intense cold.

NORTH LIMA

Jan. 21.—The house of Henry Blosser at East Lewistown was destroyed by fire about noon last Saturday. The origin of the fire remains a mystery to the members of the family. A large part of the household effects were saved, as was also the large saw mill adjoining the house.

The funeral of David Wunderlin was held Sunday from his late home at East Lewistown, and was attended by friends of the family from this place. The deceased was the only son of the late G. M. D. Wunderlin and wife, former residents of this township, and is remembered by many here. Death was due to tuberculosis.

On account of the prevalence of scarlet fever in the village and immediate vicinity, the local schools have been ordered closed until further notice by the township board of health. None of the Sunday schools had sessions Sunday, and two of the churches did not open their doors.

None of the cases have proven serious, but all are under strict quarantine.

The Searchlight Club was entertained Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. E. Dilworth with Mrs. R. E. Dilworth as hostess.

The North Lima board of education recently re-organized with the following officers: President, H. S. Wheel; vice-president, Mrs. Jay Glenn; clerk, Rollin Crouse.

Willard Kreppe and family are spending the winter in Miami, Fla. Their house is occupied by William Dye and family, who came here from Canal Fulton. Mr. Dye is employed in Youngstown.

Clement Schenefeld has moved to the farm of his father north of town. The former house is occupied by Will Runkenbrod and wife.

Dr. Campbell Morgan was heard by many local church workers during his stay in Youngstown, and all were delighted with his sermons.

D. L. Leister and D. C. Hicks sold their farm stock last week. Mr. Hicks expects to move back to Kansas.

Mrs. Earl Snyder and daughter of West Austintown were guests of Mrs. Anna Wolfgang and family last week.

WEST AUSTINTOWN

Jan. 21.—Henry Davis, manager of the paint works, spent a few days last week with his family in Cleveland.

Mrs. Bert Knight, who has been seriously ill of scarlet fever, is able to sit up.

West Austintown has a human thermometer. When P. J. Ohl dons his muffler, look out for zero weather!

Prof. J. C. Eschliman has planned a pleasure trip to Hubbard some time in the near future.

The deep snow turns our thoughts back to years ago, when people came into town on horseback. At that time our P. M. was an expert at helping the ladies off their steeds.

W. J. Knight, president of the board of township trustees, attended the board of health meeting in Youngstown last week.

R. O'Rourke is the busiest man in town in the summer he builds good roads and in winter looks after his dairy.

The condition of Mrs. Robertson, who has been ill for some weeks, is slightly improved.

Prof. Eschliman had P. D. Schnum appointed trust officer. There is a reason for that. P. D. being a bachelor, he will see that none of the lady teachers play truant.

Mrs. David Anderson has been very ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. S. May, at Erkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schafer of Lowellville had for a 6 o'clock dinner guests the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Frick and brother John, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haas and son and Rev. and Mrs. Reiff of West Austintown.

Rev. and Mrs. C. J. Reiff were called to Lowellville, Friday, to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schafer, to conduct a baptismal service, Mrs. Schafer and little daughter, Vera Lucie, receiving the holy rite of baptism. They remained until Saturday.

Subscribe for The Dispatch—$1.50.

BOARDMAN

Jan. 21.—Mrs. W. H. Bass and daughter left, Monday night, for Florida, to spend the remainder of the winter.

A number from here went to hear Dr. G. Campbell Morgan in Youngstown, last week.

There were no services in the Methodist church last Sunday, Rev. Roberts having been called to New York by the death of his mother.

Andrew Barger was in Youngstown Saturday. He is one of three Civil War veterans left in Boardman. Wm. Ripley and I. J. Deemer are the other two.

Joshua Simon is one but he has moved to Youngstown and is living with his daughter, Mrs. Carl Bohn.

Miss Sarah Moody, one of the oldest residents of Boardman, is sick. She is living alone.

Frank Bwing of Youngstown is staying with his mother while his wife and children are visiting her parents in St. Louis.

There were three games of basketball Friday evening. Poland freshmen played Boardman freshmen, score 14 to 11 in favor of Poland.

Austin high school girls and Boardman high school, score 9 to 12 in favor of Boardman and Austin high school boys, score 29 to 34 in favor of Boardman.

Saturday evening Salem Teddy Bear girls and Boardman A. C. girls, score 22 to 14 in favor of Salem. Macons of Columbus and Boardman A. C. score 12 to 25 in favor of Boardman. It is the first time the macons were defeated.

The township trustees met last Tuesday evening and paid their share of the roads built last summer, amounting to over $9,000.

John Cain spent last week in Pittsburgh.

Lewis Rode has been having neuralgia.

MILLVILLE

Jan. 21.—The Millville Sunday school will hold a pound social in the school house Friday evening, Jan. 30. A miscellaneous program will be given. Everyone attend.

Maurice Strawn of Damascus spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sheen.

Archie Holland visited friends in Highland this week.

Miss Ethel Weingart enjoyed a visit of several days this week with friends in Damascus.

Mrs. W. E. Sheehan and children of Salem spent Sunday with her parents here.

J. W. Hendricks was in Lisbon recently.

Mrs. Ann Reese and daughter, Mrs. Fred Oesch, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Hannah Moore of Salem.

Mrs. E. E