

Brings results, and that is the object. The Mahoning Dispatch carries messages in advertising form to a large number of people in all parts of the county. You will be more than pleased with results if you advertise in the Dispatch.

The Mahoning Dispatch

JOB PRINTING DONE
At The Mahoning Dispatch office, not while you wait, but promptly and in a manner that will please you. Prices are consistent with service rendered. A trial order is solicited. Please place it now.

Washingtonville

Mrs. Chas. Stouffer was hostess last Wednesday evening to members of the Woman's Home Circle. A pleasant evening was spent. Mrs. Ray Stouffer and Mrs. C. A. Weikart were invited guests. A contest was a feature of the evening. The hostess served a dainty luncheon. Mrs. Frank Spear will entertain next Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Chappell and daughter Dorothy of Salem called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Weikart, Sunday afternoon. There will be a dance in town hall Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vogle of Salem spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Moore.

Elizabeth Lewis is employed as one of the heads in the old ladies' home at Salem.

Mrs. Henry Bixler of Youngstown spent Sunday with friends in town and was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Arner.

Misses Maggie and Mary McAndrew spent Sunday with friends in Youngstown.

Mrs. McSweeney, who has been very ill here at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hugh McIntosh, is a little improved.

Richard Dunn purchased a Ford touring car.

Francis McBride of West Point spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Dunn.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Paisley of Youngstown were here Sunday at the home of his father.

Rev. L. Reed, who has been conducting special revival meetings here for the past two weeks, has had good attendance, which speaks highly of the fine sermons and special music.

A family gathering was held at the home of Miss Amanda Bilger last Sunday when the following guests were entertained: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Money, Oliver Sidle and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Money, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Money, all of Youngstown, and Clyde Hawn, wife and daughter of Sebring.

Miss Fern Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Oldhouse, both of this place went to Lisbon last Wednesday, secured a license and was married at the parsonage by Rev. Scott. They were accompanied by Mrs. Jacob Stecher. They returned home and in the evening were given an old-fashioned belling and a joy ride. They are receiving many congratulations from many friends. They will make their home for the present with the bride's parents.

Communion services at the Lutheran church last Sunday morning were conducted by the pastor and were very impressive. A large crowd was in attendance. Four baptisms and one member were received into the church. A good sermon was delivered by Rev. Richardson at the evening service.

Word was received by relatives here of the sudden death of Mrs. Harriet Hardy of Seattle, Wash., last Thursday. Mrs. Hardy was well known here, having lived south of town until 12 years ago, when she moved to Seattle. She is survived by the following children: Johnathan, Robert, Thomas and Isabelle at home; Joseph of Annapolis, Pa.; Mrs. H. A. Dally of Portland, Ore.; and Mrs. H. A. Ouger of Salem. Also a brother, Joseph Barrow, of this place. The remains were brought Wednesday evening to the home of her daughter in Salem and services were held Thursday, interment in Oakdale cemetery, Leontonia, beside her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Candler and family of New Philadelphia are visiting at the home of his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davis of Alliance spent Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Davis.

Mrs. Harmon of Columbiana spent Sunday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. W. Fitzsimmons and daughter Mary.

The home of Lee Bowker is under quarantine for scarlet rash. Charles Hum is confined to his home with scarlet fever.

A. L. Taylor of Greenford spent Saturday evening here with friends.

Glenn Davis and family moved on Tuesday to their new home in Leontonia.

Ed Ouler won first prize at the Foresters' euchre party last Friday night. Edwin Fitzpatrick won the booty.

Mrs. Emmet Carlisle spent Monday with her parents in East Palestine.

Wm. Young purchased G. W. Allen's filling station and will have it moved to his home on Main street where he expects to open a garage.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Grindie near East Leontonia.

Mrs. Charles Moore of Cleveland is here at the home of her parents.

Mrs. Harley Woods was a Leontonia caller, Tuesday.

Resolutions of Respect.
We, the Pythian Sisters of Frigate of the Valley Temple, No. 408, desire to place on record the following resolutions:

Whereas: It has pleased Almighty God in His divine wisdom to remove from our midst our beloved sister, Effie Holland, we, therefore, bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doth all things well.

Therefore, be it resolved, that we drop the charter in mourning for a period of thirty days.
Resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be placed on our minutes, a copy sent to the bereaved family and that they be published in The Mahoning Dispatch.
Mrs. Mercedes Stouffer, Miss Olive Bailey, Mrs. Lucy Johnson, Committee.

Sheriff Dairymple of Lisbon was here Tuesday visiting old friends.

Mrs. Fred Fenstermaker of East Palestine is spending several weeks here with her parents.

MILLVILLE

April 14.—Mrs. Aaron Coy and Mrs. Ada Coy received the sad news of the death of their brother, Urban Moore, of Toot's Corners, last week Wednesday night. Death was due to a stroke of paralysis from which Mr. Moore suffered Monday.

Mrs. Raymond Lamb received the members of the Home Circle Club at her home Thursday afternoon. The afternoon quickly passed in a very pleasant way. The business meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Mary Kindig, at which time ten members responded to roll call. After the business meeting the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Jerry Kindig, served a delicious lunch. The next meeting will be held the second Tuesday of the month at the home of Mrs. Mary Kindig. Miss Lacy Arner of Hubbard was a guest.

Local friends of Miss Hilda Rogers of Salem were interested in her recent marriage to Lee Emmett Brickett of Columbus. They extend congratulations.

Arbor Day was fittingly observed by our school, a fine program having been arranged. The occasion was also observed by planting a maple tree.

Mrs. Raymond Sheen was in Salem, Tuesday.

Mr. D. McKellar, who spent some time here in the home of her father, Harry Holland, returned home to Chicago, Monday.

Mrs. W. J. Archer and daughter Mary were in Beaver, Pa., Saturday.

James Zimmerman and Misses Clara and Viola Zimmerman received word of the death of their aunt, Mrs. Stephen Gray, in Beloit, Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Shepherd spent Sunday with the former's parents near Calla.

Mr. Ann Reese spent Sunday in Washingtonville with Mrs. Albert Spear.

Mrs. Van Dunn of Wellsville spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Crutcher.

Last Sunday our Sunday school elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Superintendent, W. L. Holwick; assistant, Raymond Arner; treasurer, Mrs. W. L. Holwick; secretary, Harry Parker; assistant, Miss Howella; pianist, Miss Winifred Holwick; assistant, Geo. Orr.

Miss Elsie Howell spent Sunday with Miss Grace Snedden of Washingtonville.

David Reese of Youngstown spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oesch.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moore and children and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn and children were entertained Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Frantz of Salem.

Mrs. Geo. Orr spent Sunday evening with Miss Lucy B. Alverson.

A number from here attended the funeral of the late Urban Moore, held at the Lutheran church in Greenford last Sunday, with interment in the Greenford cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Reese and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Davis of Washingtonville.

ISLAND

April 14.—Rev. Ben Good of Orrville conducted services at the White Memorial church Sunday afternoon.

Harry Shorwater and daughter, Esther, Miss Melissa Weaver, Joseph, Edith and Anna Wenger, Misses Pearl Calvin and Esther Reichard, S. G. McClun and Mrs. Susan Lehman called at Henry Lehman's, Sunday.

Singing was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zeigler Saturday night.

Noah Weaver and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Martin of St. Jacobs, Canada, are the parents of a baby girl, born April 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weaver and daughter Alma and Miss Ida Weaver called on Henry Lehman and family, Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Orren McClun and son Steven spent Thursday evening with friends in Leontonia.

D. R. Lehman was in Greenford, Friday.

Henry Newswinger of Lancaster county was an over Sunday guest of friends here.

Mrs. Kate McClun is suffering from a badly bruised arm as the result of a fall while in Youngstown, Friday.

Mrs. Mary Basinger, Miss Lydia Christopher, Mrs. Steve Martin and family, Rev. and Mrs. Jacob Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Martin and son Paul and Henry Newswinger were Sunday callers at Mr. Detrow's.

Mark Klingensmith sold his touring car.

S. G. McClun, Miss Esther Reichard, Orren McClun and son Stephen called at Sam Blosser's Sunday afternoon.

Driver Calvin of Youngstown spent Sunday afternoon with his children here.

Phares Witmer, local butcher, is supplying people near Goshen, Ind., with pig tails.

Era Host of North Lawrence spent Saturday night with his daughter, Mrs. Ezra Knopp, and family.

Friends from here attended the funeral Tuesday forenoon of Joseph Wenger who died Friday evening at his home near Burton City, O.

GREENFORD

April 14.—The county commissioners met here with the township trustees last Tuesday to decide what shall be done with our roads needing repairs.

Several car loads of slag are being hauled and unloaded along the north and west roads preparatory to resurfacing them.

The board of education met last Monday night and adjourned to meet Tuesday evening.

Funeral services for Urban Moore of Marquis were conducted by Rev. Naffziger in the Lutheran church Sunday afternoon with burial in the cemetery.

George Hamilton and family moved to their new farm last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Culp and son Elwood left Sunday to spend some time with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Compton.

U. S. Weikart returned Saturday from Atlantic City where he spent several weeks visiting his daughters.

Prof. W. H. Hoover and U. S. Weikart dined Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Weikart.

Mrs. C. W. Clay spent a week with her son Royal in Canfield, assisting the family in moving.

Sunday visitors at H. L. Rotzel's in Clarksville were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Rotzel and son Warren, Jr., of Gettysburg and Mrs. Mary Harding of Connotton.

Choosing her natal day, March 20, as her wedding day, Frances Geneva, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Cochel and Martha Collier Cochel, became the bride of William B. Sobel, balke at the home of her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Wycokoff, in Seattle. The bride spent her childhood in Greenford and has numerous kinsmen in Green and Canfield townships. She is a graduate of Belingham state normal and junior at the state university. She has been principal of the Pt. Madison union school for the past four years. Mr. Sobel is an alumnus of the university of Idaho and a post graduate of the university of California, being a civil engineer by profession. The couple will make their home in Seattle in the university district.

NORTH LIMA

April 14.—Funeral services for the late Mrs. C. E. Stafford were held from the family residence with interment in North Lima. Rev. L. J. Robb had charge of the services.

Mrs. Stafford's death occurred following a long illness. Her maiden name was Minerva Hahn, she being a daughter of the late Adam Hahn and wife, pioneer residents of this township. She is survived by her husband, two sons, three daughters and a sister.

At a citizens' meeting held Thursday evening in the school house, steps were taken to organize a Citizens' Mutual Gas Co. This company after being incorporated expects to begin immediately to drill for gas in this vicinity, with the hope of being able to supply its stockholders with gas.

Over $1,200 worth of stock was sold at this meeting, and a thorough canvass of the community will no doubt result in this amount being greatly increased.

Mrs. Macintosh and Ray Griffith, both of this place, were united in marriage one day last week. They have begun housekeeping in apartments over L. M. Toot's store.

North Lima high school gives a musical entertainment Wednesday evening for the benefit of the school.

Mrs. Mary Koller sold her household goods and will go to Dayton, Ohio to live with her son Simon and family.

Mrs. A. M. Shihl and Mrs. C. H. Welsh were in Louisville last week attending the annual sessions of the Reformed Missionary church of East Ohio Classis. At the meeting of the local society Wednesday afternoon in the parsonage they will give a full report of the work done at this meeting.

Local people interested in the Inter-church World Movement met Monday evening in the Evangelical church to discuss plans for pushing the proposed financial campaign which comes the latter part of the month.

Nathan Heckenly sold his farming equipment and will move to North Lima as soon as a house can be erected on a lot purchased by him on Youngstown street. A party from Youngstown bought the farm.

MARQUIS

April 14.—Frank Schaaf of this place and Miss Iva Richards of Columbiana were married recently at the home of the bride. Both have many friends who extend best wishes.

W. R. Loveland and I. W. Coy were in Columbiana one day last week.

Jesse Renkenberger was a caller here, Saturday.

Curis Fishel and family have moved to the house owned by Coy brothers.

A. W. Beard of Youngstown purchased a tractor for his farm here.

G. C. McIntyre and family of near Calla visited relatives here, Sunday.

Lewis Hoffman and family visited out of town, Sunday.

J. D. Schaaf, wife and daughter Margaret were here from Alliance the first of this week.

Ray Beard of New Buffalo is working on the Beard section.

County surveyors were here the first of the week looking after road matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Painter of Confederate Corners were callers here, Friday.

BOARDMAN

April 14.—Mrs. Samuel Kerr, with Mrs. Pruckner as associate hostess, entertained the ladies of the local Red Cross auxiliary last Wednesday afternoon. There was a good attendance.

Boardman chapter of the Old Ladies' Home held a delightful gathering at the home of Mrs. Lois Osborne last Thursday afternoon. The next meeting, at which time officers will be elected, will be at the home of Mrs. E. Wiseman, Geiger Stop, Tuesday afternoon. Each member is requested to bring a new member.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ruckebrod and son Carl and Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Agnew were Sunday afternoon visitors at Frank Agnew's in Youngstown.

German Buehrle has returned from Florida and called on Boardman friends the other day.

W. A. Chambers was a Youngstown visitor Monday.

H. A. Lehman of Canfield was a caller on some of his Boardman friends, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meek, Mrs. Jennie Duncan, Miss Ruth Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Agnew and son Norman attended services in the Polish M. E. Church Sunday evening and heard Dr. N. H. Chaney of Youngstown give an excellent address on "Young Manhood."

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stafford and little daughter Marie came for an extended visit with O. H. Stafford and family. Mrs. Herbert Stafford is confined to her bed from the effects of an attack of influenza.

Boardman Red Cross auxiliary recently sold 300 tickets for two concerts. Mrs. Harry Eyster and Mrs. Samuel Abel were awarded the emblems.

Rev. and Mrs. Roberts and daughter called at Chas. Meek's, Sunday evening.

Howard Kyle and Kermit Carlson visited Ray Kyle of Louisville over Sunday.

Clark Lyman of Andover and Lloyd Osborn of Youngstown called at H. C. Heintzman's Sunday afternoon.

Fred Stansbury has moved into the Detton house and Richardson moved into the house vacated by Stansbury.

S. A. Burt unloaded a car of ashes to be used near his new house.

The county commissioner unloaded a car of slag to repair the road south of the center.

Geo. Bishop of Poland and Mr. Dilly unloaded a car of coal here last week.

TURNER STREET

April 14.—Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Brooke and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rhodes called on the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Brooke, of North Lima, Monday.

Mrs. Frank Ewing and Mrs. Waldo were in Youngstown, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham of Youngstown were at A. C. Carson's and John Brown's, Sunday afternoon.

Thomas and James Kennedy, Harry Dolin and Clayton Reese spent Sunday at I. S. Pershing's.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Brooke were in Columbiana, Friday.

W. S. Rhodes called on T. J. Brick, Wednesday morning.

Adam and Elmer Brobst were in Rosemont, Monday, butchering hogs for O. E. Bailey.

Charles Brooke purchased a new touring car.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rhodes spent Saturday with their daughters in Youngstown.

Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Pershing and son Freddie were at John Brown's, Monday.

Nora Kennedy spent Monday afternoon and evening at T. W. Thomas'.

Mr. R. K. Brick was at John Brown's, Friday evening.

Mrs. Leah Fusselman and Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Bailey and son Orson were Sunday visitors at Adam and Elmer Brobst's.

Jeanette Bucher called on Nora Kennedy, Sunday.

Wilfred Brobst went with Prof. Fred Myers to Patmos Friday evening to help him with his picture show.

On account of the untoward weather, only two new birds have arrived this week—April 8, the cow bird and on the 13th the plover.

Wm. Rowe of Smith's Corners was on the street Tuesday deborning cattle.

NEW BUFFALO

April 14.—Earl Rothgeb and family and Norlin Rothgeb and wife spent Sunday at Noah Rothgeb's.

Mrs. Mary Koller and son Harry spent Sunday with George Heckel and family in Youngstown.

Phillip Fink and wife of North Lima called on friends here, Sunday.

Noah Rothgeb was in Cleveland, Sunday.

Orville Beard and family spent Sunday with M. L. Beard and family near East Leontonia.

Clark Paulin and Ada Huxley and daughter called at Clark Bare's, Sunday.

Eugene Snipes and family and Mrs. Geo. Boston of Salem spent Sunday afternoon at John Morris'.

A. C. Meeker was in Columbiana, Monday.

Tom Abblett and wife attended Effie Calvin's sale, Monday.

Earl McDartney and family of Youngstown called at Henry Hess' on Sunday evening.

EAST LEWISTOWN

April 14.—E. Swope and family of Midway spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burkholder.

Henry Blosser spent Saturday and Sunday in East Palestine with his son, C. H. Blosser.

Jacob Wilderson, who recently sold his property to a Youngstown party, has moved to the old farm south of town.

Mrs. I. R. Gay of Columbiana visited her mother, Mrs. Barbara Blosser, Saturday and Sunday.

A number of our young folks attended a musical at the high school in North Lima last Wednesday night.

Why not look upon the bright side awhile? Surely it will not snow in June!

NORTH JACKSON

April 14.—Mrs. Florence Eekin, wife of Fred Mohrman, died last Saturday of acute Nephritis, her illness covering two weeks. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Eekis and was born in Milton township June 25, 1852. She came here shortly after her marriage to Mr. Mohrman eight years ago. Active in all affairs looking to the uplift of the community and being a most lovely character, she greatly endeared herself to a wide circle of friends to whom her passing is a sad blow. She was a member of the Presbyterian church, Pythian Sisters, and grange of this place and the Eastern Star lodge at Palmyra. Surviving with her husband are her parents and one sister, Miss Helen. Funeral services held from the Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon in charge of Revs. Wiseman, Hoover and Brown, were very largely attended. The floral offerings were many and beautiful, silent testimony of the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Interment made in the North Jackson cemetery.

Mrs. Alice Thompson, wife of J. R. Thompson, for 35 years, or until last August, a resident of this place, died last Saturday at her home in Warren of heart trouble and paralysis. She was an active church worker and she was much missed when the family removed from the village. She leaves her husband and five sons, Bert, of Mahoningtown, V. C., Floyd and Roy of Warren and Leo of Michigan. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon with burial in the Warren cemetery.

Both of these excellent women were former local correspondents of The Mahoning Dispatch.

Mrs. Jones and two children of Youngstown visited Mrs. Jones and family several days last week.

Mr. Howard is slowly recovering from flu from which he has suffered some time.

Will Bush and family of Canfield township spent last Sunday at Frank Howard's.

Attorney Miller was here from Alliance last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Stine of Warren visited old friends here last Sunday.

Emmet Gault and family of Youngstown visited here, Sunday, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gault.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Klingensmith and Ben Golt of Warren spent Sunday here.

D. V. Eckenrode moved to Warren Wednesday and Mrs. Mary Corll moved to the Eckenrode property which she purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Mansell of Warren and Mrs. Orr of California visited friends here last Sunday.

Charles Best spent Sunday in Alliance.

Mrs. Elizabeth Prince's condition remains unchanged.

Mrs. Jennie Eekis spent several days here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Rose of Canfield visited George Westbaker's, last Sunday.

Will Probst purchased the J. C. Umsted property west of town.

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Rose were recent Kent visitors.

Friend Jones, who suffered a slight stroke of paralysis, is recovering.

Joe Arn moved to the John Gault farm, occupying the house with Mr. and Mrs. Gault.

Mrs. Ella Bingham recently visited Warren relatives.

Mr. Heatterington sold his farm west of the village.

Miss Thomas, primary teacher, is recovering from her illness.

Bina Schuster has wired his home for electric lights.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Leach of North Perkins recently visited friends in this place.

ELLSWORTH

April 14.—Luther Cutting, who works in Akron, spent the week-end at his home here, Saturday.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown, who have whooping cough, are somewhat improved.

Grangers served lunch Thursday at the sale of Francis Allen.

Mrs. Alfred Schaefer and son Wilbur were in Youngstown, Friday.

There will be preaching in the M. E. Church next Sunday morning.

Charles Matteson of Youngstown, agent for the Ohio Farmers' Insurance Co., called here, Friday.

"Chuckles and the Baby," presented in the grange hall last Friday evening, was well attended and enjoyed by all. "Chubbing a Husband" was given at Berlin Wednesday evening by ladies of Rosemont. Music was furnished by North Jackson "Four."

E. M. Keen was in Canfield recently. "East Lynne" was played at Goshen Thursday evening by home talent and Mr. and Mrs. John Negroto and son John, Jr.

James Eckenrode is driving a truck for Harry Brown.

John Malmberg of North Benton was here, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Schaefer, daughter Pauline and Walter Klingensmith were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNelly in Youngstown, Sunday.

Kenneth, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burt, is sick.

Little Charles Cutting, who has been suffering several months with an infected knee, seems to be improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bowman were in Salem recently.