

The Mahoning Dispatch.

ADVERTISING BRINGS RESULTS

When the columns of The Mahoning Dispatch are used, this statement has been verified by thousands of pleased patrons in past years. For the small advertiser the classified column offers opportunities that none can afford to overlook.

VOL. XLV. NO. 23.

CANFIELD, MAHONING COUNTY, OHIO, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1921.

$1.50 A YEAR. (Outside Ohio, $2.00)

YOUR JOB PRINTING ORDER

It is certain to receive prompt and careful attention when placed with The Dispatch job printing department in charge of artistic workmen who spare no pains in making every piece of work handed meet the approval of the most exacting purchaser.

WASHINGTONVILLE

Spear Bros. and Ed. Herman, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cluncheon had lunch stands at the Canfield fair this week. Mr. Edward Girard and Mrs. Hannah Kline were there demonstrating their new can vices.

Mrs. Daniel Heester and children, returned to their home, Sunday.

Andrew Vaughn had his Ford car remodeled and now has one of the classiest little machines in town.

Miss Helen Stecker celebrated her birthday anniversary at her home last Thursday with a corn roast, inviting a number of her young friends who all had a jolly good time. Hot weiners and sandwiches were on the menu.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Fairrell spent over Sunday at the home of his parents at Beloit.

Miss Mollie McAndrews was pleasantly surprised at her home last Thursday evening in honor of her 19th birthday anniversary. Guests included Miss Edna Bush, Miss Caroline Carney, Howard Bush, Margaret Bush, Frances Galbreath, Margaret Adams, Lily Leroy, Mrs. Roy Patterson, all of Lisbon; Mrs. Mary Patterson, West Point, Charles Keyser of Columbiana, Miss Alice Wilkinson, Mrs. James Connell, Mrs. Finney, Charles Holt, of Washingtonville. The hostess received some very pretty gifts. Dancing and singing and games made the evening one of enjoyment. A delicious luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Young and daughter of Boston, Mass., are visiting here at the home of her father, Fred Kepper.

Miss Walter Berg, Mrs. Leon Vignon were Youngstown visitors, Tuesday.

The home of Mrs. Bertha Neff is being painted.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Beiling and son of Leetonia visited with their daughters, Mrs. Harry and Pete Fast, Tuesday.

Some thief entered the garage of F. G. Davis Friday evening and took the spotlight off Mrs. Nelson Lett's car. Mr. Lett says he knows who the party is and will very pretty soon have it back after return to it.

Hugh McIntosh was brought home from the Salem hospital last week.

Charles DeJane, sr., moved his household goods to the home of his son Charles, where he will make his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fitzsimmons of Pittsburgh spent several days this week here with his mother and sister Mary.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Weikart and daughters, Mrs. O. Bossert and daughter Charlotte and Miss Clara Weikart, motored to Pittsburgh Monday and were callers in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Slack.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor returned Sunday from a trip with relatives in Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Moore and Mrs. Ada Carnes and children of Salem attended the Crumbacker reunion held at Columbus, Saturday.

Miss Eliza Wilkinson of Salem spent several days here with friends.

Harry Hartzell had a new heater installed in his home last week.

The new brick road was finished from east of town to the railroad and was opened Saturday morning. Many motorists made good use of it Labor day.

Earl and Ralph Lora of Salem spent Sunday at the home of Harry Hartzell.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Needham, Sunday last.

G. W. Allen bought the George Burbeck farm near Franklin Square, last week.

Harry Irwin of McKees Rocks and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson of Leetonia were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Andrews and other relatives in town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Weikart and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Weikart and children of Leetonia spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Slack in Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Davis spent Labor Day at Alliance.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Velosik of Ashtabula county, former residents here, visited in the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kipler and called on friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weikart and daughter Betty of Demascus visited at the home of his parents, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Humm entertained a number of friends at a weiner roast at their home west of town on Labor day.

Mr. and Mrs. Feston Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Orrville Weltry of Kentmore spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Mackin, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Longbeach and children of Akron spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Firth.

evening with an umbrella when it was pouring rain. These ladies promised to return the same evening with the borrowed property. Mrs. Jones waited, but to date is still waiting. So, girls, return this umbrella as you may need another some time.

ISLAND

Sept. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Calvin and Elmer Calvin and family of Locust Grove, Mrs. Elizabeth Burns, Mr. and Mrs. G. McClun, Frank Archer and Mrs. Nellie Richard and daughter Esther were Sunday guests of G. D. Rowe and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lehman were over Sunday guests of relatives in Wayne county and attended the Rohrer family reunion at Wooster, Saturday.

About fifty people attended the poultry culling demonstration held at the home of S. G. McClun last Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Maria Detrow and daughter Angeline spent last week with Alvin Detrow and family.

Wm. Tescher and family and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tescher and son Billy of Alliance, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. O'Neil and daughter Vera of Salem, Ed Zeller of Beloit and Miss Mollie Lehman spent Sunday with Fred Brudler and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Slagle and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Longenecker and daughters Lois and La Rue attended the state fair at Columbus last week.

Rev. and Mrs. David Wenger of Burton City and Mr. and Mrs. Mart Horst of Orrville were over Sunday guests of relatives here.

Verne Weikart and Frank Thomas of Niles spent Wednesday with S. G. McClun and family.

A number of former residents of Virginia who now live in this vicinity held a picnic at Fetters park, Labor Day.

Mr. and Mrs. James Zeigler, son Everett and daughter Doris of Cleveland were guests of Ben Zeigler and family, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Detrow and daughter Helen spent Sunday with Howard Clark and family.

Ray, David Wenger of Burton City conducted preaching services at the White Menonite church, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Davis of Salem spent the week-end with Clarence Leshner and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Harold of Columbiana and Harvey Detrow and family were entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Detrow, Sunday.

The twelfth annual reunion of the Zeigler family was held Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zeigler with 109 relatives in attendance. Officers elected for the following year are: President, Daniel Martin; secretary, Mrs. Daniel Martin.

Clarence Leshner and family and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Davis, of Salem, spent Sunday with Sam Burkholder and family.

Earl Klingensmith left Thursday evening for Denver, Col., after spending five days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Klingensmith.

SALEM

Sept. 8.—The new Central clinic and hospital at Chestnut and East Green streets will be thrown open for public inspection on Saturday with a formal program at 8 o'clock. Dr. Crile, famous Cleveland surgeon, will speak on surgery and Dr. Hoover, also of Cleveland, will make an address on medicine. The new hospital is housed in a brick building with a capacity of 100 beds.

Labor Day was not observed in the usual manner this year, probably due to serious labor troubles here last year.

The city schools open next Monday morning.

Eagles' lodge initiated 25 candidates last Sunday.

J. E. McNeelan of this city purchased the National laundry in Alliance and took possession.

City water rates will be boosted 11 per cent Oct. 1.

Walter Evans, youthful burglar, has confessed to robbing several residences in the city. He has served time in Lancaster. He is jailed at Lisbon awaiting trial.

Gentlemen ambitious to fill township offices have been busy circulating petitions which must be filed by Friday.

During August 22 arrests were made in the city, 10 being for intoxication.

Mrs. Elizabeth Berry, 88, oldest colored woman in the city, died last week.

Bankers of eight counties in this district held a convention here, Wednesday.

Dr. C. L. Smith has donated 200 volumes to the public library.

NEW ALBANY

Sept. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Baker of Akron, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Vonegan, sons Leo and Raymond and daughter Helen of North Canton and Mrs. Angie Shriver and granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Redinger and daughter Fay of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Gust Getz of near this place, were visitors of Mrs. Anna Redinger, Sunday.

Miss Fay Stewart of Canfield spent Sunday afternoon with Holly Daugherty.

Master Lorin Karcher of Canton is staying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Daugherty, and family.

The Albany ball team played the Rosemont team Saturday afternoon, the score being 17 to 4 in favor of Albany.

While playing, Frederick, little son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Daugherty cut a deep gash in his forehead, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt Capel and little son Richard spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Capel.

Mrs. Herbert Johnson and daughter Mary of Loriston spent day last week visiting friends here.

Misses Ina Kendig and Thelma Kelly of Greenfield called on Holly Daugherty one day last week.

GREENFORD

Sept. 8.—Schools in Green township will open Monday, Sept. 19. Teachers for the high school and grades are as follows: Prof. H. C. Seran, New Cumberland; assistants, Miss Mabel Melinger, North Lima and Miss Crawford, New Wilmington, Pa. The 7th and 8th grades, Dewey Bush; 4th and 5th grades, Mrs. Foster Reed, Clarksville; 1st, 2nd and 3rd grades, Miss Esther Bush. Janitor, Frank Clay. Van drivers are Harvey Knaut, from the north, and Lorin Wisler from the south. District schools, No. 1, Miss Nola Holben, Calla; No. 3, Miss Iva Badger, Salem; No. 4, E. E. Zimmerman, Greenford; No. 7, Mr. McDonald; No. 8, John Burkholder, Maple Grove; No. 10, Mrs. Baker, Millville.

Miss Marjorie Cook of Greenford will teach in North Jackson. Perry Coy of Clarksville will teach Meadow Brook school in Goshen.

Miss B. F. Rhodes of Pittsburgh came last Tuesday to visit her sister, Miss Lydia Rhodes, of Virginia Ave.

The mad dog scare of a week ago was a reality, as word came from Columbus that it was a case of hydrophobia.

Wm. Brightwell's car and a Penny car collided at Locust Grove Saturday afternoon. Both cars were badly damaged. The Penny car turned over several times but no one was hurt. Both claimed it was the other fellow's fault.

Misses Mae Stahl and Lucy Calvin of Greenford, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Stock, Mrs. Mary Allison, Mrs. Clara Bashaw and daughter, Glen Allison of Salem, Mrs. Geo. Burton and children of Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Farnley and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. H. Leshner and daughter, Mrs. Charles Parker of Millville and Geo. Allison of Franklin Square were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Allison.

Lewis Bush and family were entertained Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wilson.

D. W. Roller and family attended the Warren fair last Thursday.

Ray, David Wenger of Burton City conducted preaching services at the Youngstown church, Friday.

On account of Canfield fair the grangers held their Tuesday night meeting Friday night, and will hold an extra session Tuesday evening, Sept. 13.

The Fanny Circle picnic in the Schuermanberger grove last Wednesday. A corn roast was a feature of the occasion.

Charles Schaefer and family attended the funeral of Mrs. Schaefer's aunt, Mrs. Kibler, in East Palestine last Wednesday.

Miss Lottie Zimmerman entertained her Sunday school class last Thursday afternoon. Ice cream and cake were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wright of Youngstown and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hively and daughter spent Sunday and Labor Day camping at Shilling's Mill.

Mr. Beans and children of Kent spent Labor Day visiting his sister, Mrs. P. A. Hartman, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Leimbach and daughter, Mrs. Geo. Zier, and son John of Vermilion spent Sunday and Monday here with Dr. P. H. Leimbach and family.

D. W. Roller and family spent Sunday with relatives in Akron.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Huffman and children were Sunday guests of Albert Huffman and family in Wellsville.

Greenford grangers will hold its annual fair Saturday afternoon and evening, Oct. 8.

Mrs. Wm. Barnes received a telegram Saturday evening stating that her brother had been killed, and Sunday morning Mr. and Mrs. Barnes left for Custer, Mich.

Miss Frances Eldler of Petersburg is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Schaefer, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lemmon of Steubenville spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Kopp, and husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Forman are visiting their parents in Cambridge.

Mrs. Philip Thompson, son Ernest and daughter Jean Orr of Irving, Tenn., are visiting her father, Cos Herbert, and sister Neve.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bush, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Bush, son and daughter and Mrs. G. L. Bush and son Everett attended the Wonseller reunion held last Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Slagle near Cornersburg.

The Kopp brothers are entertaining relatives from Tuscarawas county.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Calvin and daughters Ariene and Dorothy were Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lehman, near Columbiana.

William Alverson and family of Alliance spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lake.

The Greenford Cornet band will play at the Canfield fair, Thursday.

The four-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hendricks died Monday at 5 o'clock. Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 with interment in the Lutheran cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Dively motored to Butler, Pa., Monday to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Margaret Christner.

GEEBURG

Sept. 8.—About thirty people from Youngstown enjoyed a corn roast at Arlie Miller's, Saturday evening.

Mr. McCormick and Mr. Hopps called on Mrs. Sarah Leonard's, Monday afternoon.

Urias Yeager and James Murphy were in Youngstown, Saturday.

James Leonard attended a corn roast at Harry Young's, Saturday night.

Miss Bertha Musser is assisting Mrs. Leonard with her work.

BOYER

Sept. 8.—Mrs. Jonathan Reichard and granddaughter, Laverne Hurley, spent some time in Cleveland last week.

Marcus Detwiler and Elmer Kurtz attended the state fair in Columbus. Ruby Blosser is assisting Mrs. Daniel Martin with her work.

Harvey Metzler was in Youngstown Monday.

H. H. Leshner spent Monday with A. B. Williamson in Greenford.

Ed. Arkwright is on the sick list. Boyer school opens next Monday.

Harvey Metzler spent Tuesday in Lisbon.

Farmers are busy cutting corn. They feed the crops very large.

John Burkholder and Galdys Sauerwein attended the teachers' institute in Canfield last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Leshner spent one evening last week in North Lima.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bradley of Clarksville called on Fred Boyer and family, Monday evening.

Wm. Johnston was in Columbiana, Monday.

Noah Bixler did concrete work for W. R. Johnson last week.

Harry Barger cleaned Boyer and Beard school houses last week.

Ward Blosser spent Sunday with Elwood Forney.

Harvey Metzler sold his dairy cows and purchased steers instead.

Nannie Swope left Tuesday for Illinois where she will spend some time with relatives.

Homer Schaeffer, Oliver Swope and friends spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schaeffer in Niles.

Mrs. Homer Stachhouse and daughters Gertrude, Helen and Alta May of Winona spent several days with E. E. Forney and family.

A number from here attended the Virginia reunion held Monday at John Swope's. A fine time was had by all.

Samuel Blosser has started his cider press.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Leshner and C. S. Leshner spent Sunday afternoon with Levi Yoder and family.

E. E. Forney on Monday assisted W. R. Johnston in butchering of his hog.

Harvey Rohrer filled a silo for John Detwiler, last week.

Mrs. E. E. Forney spent Saturday in Canfield with her son Monroe, who has typhoid fever, but is recovering.

Misses Sara Schaeffer and Ruby D. Blosser spent Sunday with Miss Elizabeth Burkholder in East Lewisville.

An Austin, Tex. visitor at Freeman Hollabaugh's, Sunday.

Joseph Cessna and son William were in Youngstown, Saturday.

Ralph Feisley and wife spent Sunday in Salem.

Miss Pressell of Ellsworth is visiting Ada Feisley.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kean spent last week at the Ohio state fair.

Miss Anna Blosser spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Buchwalter in Columbiana.

NORTH LIMA

Sept. 7.—North Lima grange has a fine display at the county fair this week. A committee from the grange went to the fair grounds Tuesday to arrange and complete the display which has received much favorable comment.

The Mentzer-Wolfgang reunion held Monday was well attended and proved a day of pleasure for all.

Bert Hiner has moved to Youngstown. Thomas McCallum and family will occupy his house.

Mr. and Mrs. Klingeman and children have moved here from Austin, Tex., occupying the Congdon house which they purchased.

Dan Freer and family spent last week with P. J. Heasley and family at Slippery Rock, Pa.

Mr. J. Freer and family are visiting with relatives in New Washington, Pa.

School opened Tuesday morning with the usual large attendance. Following are the instructors: W. A. Smith, David Huff, Miss Ruth Workman, Beulah Brubaker, Christine Westlake, Gladys Westlake, Corene Musser, Edith Barrow and Mrs. Edna Dutler.

Mrs. Laura Clay and Mrs. Basler, both of Springfield township, were quietly united in marriage Saturday evening in the home of Squire and Mrs. W. E. Mentzer in this place.

The marriage service was read by Rev. L. J. Rohrbraugh in the presence of a few near friends. The couple will live with Mr. Basler's mother on a farm near the Springfield center school.

Local friends extended best wishes to Gladys Heinzel entered the Dana military institute in Warren this week to take a course in piano.

James and John Rohrbraugh will enter Wooster college next week.

Rev. L. E. Hill and family are expected here this week from attendance at the yearly Ohio conference of the Evangelical association. Rev. Hill has been returned to the local congregation for his fifth year of service. Services will be held in the church Sunday morning.

Mrs. Sylvia Pfau and daughter Mildred of Struthers spent last week with Miss Virginia Hasnes.

The Siler reunion was an event of last Wednesday in Stafford's grove at this place.

The weather interfered somewhat with the pleasure of those attending the Reformed Sunday school picnic on Saturday, yet all report a nice time. Dinner was served in the church basement on account of the rain.

Clarence Heck and wife were in Columbus last week and attended the state fair.

BOARDMAN

Sept. 7.—Mrs. Harold Doyle entertained her two sisters from Bellaire over Labor day.

Mrs. Starr of Pennsylvania is visiting her son Carl and family.

Mrs. Ed Barker is home from the hospital and her condition is much improved.

Robt. Fleming and family spent Sunday with his mother in East Palestine.

Claire Catherman is in Vernon, where he is teaching junior high school.

orchestra consists of the following members: Soprano, Mr. Johns; alto, Marshall Simon, and Harold Moyer; E-Flat, Arthur Sweeney, melody, Howard Smith; tenor, Louis Simon; baritone, Cecil Sweeney, and pianist, Esther Heinzelman.

Mrs. James McKay is home from the hospital, having had a finger removed.

Mrs. Oliver Stafford was in Akron over Sunday.

The Boardman band played at the Canfield fair, Wednesday.

Mrs. H. C. Heintzelman called on Mrs. Peter Mike at the city hospital, Thursday.

Miss Ruth Duncan is home from Athens where she has attended school. She will return for the winter term.

A. L. Henderson, superintendent of Boardman school, and his mother have moved here from Fredericksburg.

H. V. Hall sold his property Saturday and on Monday broke ground on the adjoining lot for a new house. He must vacate in 30 days.

Mr. Powell is building a new house on West street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Baldwin and daughter Esther attended the state fair last week. Esther is visiting relatives in Columbus.

V. E. Crouse and Homer Slagle and sons are at the Canfield fair with their herds of Jersey cattle.

Harvey Metzler is busy getting the school building ready for school to begin next week.

Grandmother Detchon is not so well this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Raye are in Toronto, Can., attending the exposition and visiting relatives.

ROSEMONT

Sept. 7.—Miss Almira Wilson of London, visited last week with Mrs. Elizabeth Rose.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Pipher and daughter Lucille, who spent several weeks here at the home of Mrs. Fronia Rose, have returned home to Youngstown.

Miss Lele Powers is spending a few weeks with relatives in Sebring.

Miss Margaret Fullerton of Jackson visited Miss Leola Powers recently.

Dan Jandies and family of Austintown visited at Fred Schisler's, Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Schisler and son Albert were in Youngstown, Monday.

Mrs. Amos Smith bought the Fred Gensler property and his opened up a new grocery store.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ohi and sons of Austintown visited at Freeman Hollabaugh's, Sunday.

Joseph Cessna and son William were in Youngstown, Saturday.

Ralph