

Business Items.

CAUTION. Notice is hereby given that August W. Weber is our only authorized agent and collector. All accounts paid to him will be fully and properly credited. W. M. MCGLEGGOR.

WANTED. Everybody to know that when you make a purchase of property, or accept it as mortgage security, you may have trouble by making the seller or mortgagee furnish an abstract of title. H. H. TRUMP, Abstractor, Opposite St. Cloud Hotel, Canton, O.

The best Cigars, (wholesale and retail), Smoking and Chewing Tobacco, in the City are to be had at Volkman's sign of the "Big Indian," Democrat Building, Canton, Ohio.

Use Foye's Italian Liniment for Rheumatism.

LOST. In Canton, Dec. 28th, a shepherd dog, color black; marked with white on face, neck and breast. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving the same at Reed's Harness Shop, Canton, Ohio.

Use Foye's Italian Liniment for Pains and Aches.

Foye's Italian Liniment guaranteed to cure.

HOUSES WANTED. Can furnish tenants for a half dozen small houses with rent under $10 per month; also have inquiries for two or three sets of cheap rooms. W. J. HARTZEL.

MISS BERTHA VON HILLEN, THE CELEBRATED PEDESTRIAN.

The only remedy used by her, after long and continued exertion, and in fact, during her matches, is Foye's Italian Liniment. It not only relieves her rheumatic muscles and joints, but gives her strength and endurance. She is never without a supply of the Liniment.

For sale by Durbin & Wright, Canton, Ohio.

Coccos for the hair and Oriental Tooth Paste, manufactured by Davis & Tucker.

J. C. PERRY OF NEW ENGLAND.

Says the American Cough Cure is the most wonderful remedy ever discovered, for Coughs, Colds and Croup, and for the relief of Asthma, and Bronchitis never fails always cures. Large Size Bottles 50c. Sold by W. B. Foye, 201 Tuscarawas street and Cherry Streets.

A NEW VERSION. Mary had a head of hair As soft and pure as snow, And every while a rapture went Through her sweet locks.

LICENSE ON BITTERS. We are in receipt of a copy of the decision of the Commissioners of Internal Revenue, exempting Dr. Foye's Capitol Bitters from the operation of the order of October last, requiring dealers in "Bitters" to pay special tax as liquor dealers. The decision is to the effect that Capitol Bitters is a medicine and not a beverage. Persons handling this remedy are therefore fully protected by the stamp affixed to the bottle by the proprietor.

FOR THE TOILET ARTICLES GO TO DAVIS & TUCKER'S.

IN THE WHOLE HISTORY OF MEDICINE No preparation has ever performed such marvellous cures, or maintained its reputation so long as the CHERRY PECTORAL, which is recognized as the world's remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs. It has continued series of wonderful cures in all climates has made it universally known as a safe and reliable agent in all cases of Croup, Whooping Cough, and all the fore-runners of more serious diseases, it acts speedily and surely, always relieving suffering, and often saving life. The protection it affords, by its timely use in the throat and lung disorders of children, makes it an invaluable remedy to be kept always on hand in every home. No person can afford to be without it, and those who have once used it never will. From their knowledge of its composition and effects, Physicians use the CHERRY PECTORAL extensively in their practice, and Clergymen recommend it. It is absolutely certain in its remedial effects, and will always cure where cure is possible.

FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS.

MONNIN'S, MONNIN'S, MONNIN'S, FOR HARNESS, SADDLES, WHIPS, HARNESS, SADDLES, WHIPS.

"HIGHLY VALUED." KAMINGTON, Ohio, May 10, 1877.

Dr. M. M. FENNER, Freedom, N. Y. Dear Sir:—I used one bottle of your Blood and Liver Remedy and Nerve Tonic, and three of your Golden Balm, and I can truly say that I am cured of my Blood and Liver diseases. Your medicines are having a great sale here and are highly valued. I believe your Golden Balm is the best medicine I have ever used. THOS. G. BELCHERS.

Dr. Fenner's Blood and Liver Remedy and Nerve Tonic may well be called "The conquering hero" of the times. It is the most powerful of all the remedies. Whoever has "the blues" should take it, for it gives life and restores the disordered system that gives rise to it. It always cures Biliousness and Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Headaches, Fever and Ague, Bilious Exhalations, Scrofula, Erysipelas, Pimples, Blisters and ALL SKIN Eruptions and Blood Disorders Swelled Limbs and Dropsy; Spleen, Impaired Nerves and Nervous Debility, Tremor, flesh and strength when the system is running down. It also cures Female Weakness and Chronic Rheumatism, and relieves Chronic Bronchitis, and all Lung and Throat difficulties. It does these things by striking at the root of disease and removing its cause.

Dr. Fenner's Improved Honey will relieve any cough in one hour.

Dr. Fenner's Golden Balm cures any pain, as Tooth-ache, Neuralgia, or Headache, in 10 to 20 minutes, and readily relieves Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint, Diarrhoea, Dysentery. For sale by dealers.

Dr. Fenner's St. Vitus Danse Specific. One bottle always cures. For sale by W. B. Foye, Canton, O.

PHRENOLOGICAL.

The property of the PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL would indicate an increasing interest in this subject, and that many people have a proper appreciation of its practical value. In the prospectus of The Phrenological Journal for 1879 the publishers make liberal propositions to subscribers. The price has been reduced to $1.00 (from $1.50), and to each subscriber is offered a choice of two premiums. First, a Phrenological Chart, a model has been made nearly life size, of plaster of Paris, so lettered as to show the exact location of all the Phrenological Organs. It is a handsome ornament, well adapted for the mantel-piece, center table, library, or office. With the aid of this and the key which accompanies it, together with the series of articles published in The Phrenological Journal on Practical Phrenology, such persons may become quite familiar with the location of the different Phrenological Organs. The second is a new book, THE TEMPERAMENTS; or, Varieties of Physical Constitution in Man, considered in their relation to Mental Characteristics and Practical Affairs of Life. By D. D. JACOBS, M.D. Price $1.50. This work discusses a very important subject and one which is of interest to every student of HUMAN NATURE, and who is not one of us. It shows the relation of Temperament to marriage, education and training of children, occupation, health and disease, etc. The work contains 30 pages and can not be obtained except as a premium at less than retail price, $1.50. When either of the premiums are sent, 50 cents extra must be received to pay for mailing them on to the subscriber. The Phrenological Journal, which is a most complete description, together with The Phrenological Journal, should be sent address on a postal card, or accept the publishers' offer, and send ten cents—half-price for a sample number of the Journal, to S. B. WELLS & CO., Publishers, 737 Broadway, N. Y.

AL MONNIN, THE HARNESS MAN.

Al Monnin, the Harness Man, wants to see you. He has a fine stock of Harness, Saddles and Whips, and perhaps he can sell you something, because he sells cheap. And if he hasn't got what you want, he can make it, because he has a corps of experienced men at work.

News Depot and fine Stationery at Davis & Tucker's.

The annual election of President, Vice President, and eight Directors of the Stark Agricultural Society will be held in the Court House, on Saturday, January 18th, 1879, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 3 p. m. A. D. MILLER, Sec'y.

Go to the Opera House Dry Goods Store if you want to buy goods cheap.

Everything in the way of HARNESS, SADDLES, AND WHIPS, At Monnin's, on East Tuscarawas street.

The Opera House Dry Goods Store has the best stocked five-cent counter in town.

TEA! TEA! TEA! Eternal vigilance is the price of good stomach. Ladies and gentlemen, you will all agree, it is pleasing to drink good tea. I sell that article to cheer you and delight, it will knock the blues higher than a kite. For months I have been selling Teas to private families, and parties given hard to please, like my teas, I sell all kinds of pure Teas, over 50 samples, I sell the Celebrated Garden Growth Teas, which are recommended by physicians for delicate and nervous persons. Garden Growth is highly cultivated, irrigated garden tea, is the first truly young leaves of the tea plant is sun dried, willow trays being used in place of copper pans; is not colored—no poisonous drugs being used. I am bound to please if that is possible, and if impossible, I will resume specie to you and take the Tea back. My Teas are pure and fresh, sold at New York prices. I canvas private families, then send my order to the importer. Our top will convince. It is my interest to sell good articles. J. M. McLELLAN, High and South streets.

Thousands of useful presents on the five-cent counter at the Opera House Dry Goods Store.

SELECT SCHOOL. The next term of Prof. Worley's Select School will open on Monday, the 14th inst., at which time my classes will be organized in Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography, &c. Thorough instruction given in the Sciences, Higher Mathematics and the classics. M. A. TROUTMAN, Teacher in charge.

Court convened Monday.

To ask a man to pay a bill is as easily said as done.

The jawbone of an ass is still quite a formidable weapon.

Ohio has 16 militia regiments, with $,000 well equipped men.

Mrs. Caroline Richings Bernard is teaching music in Baltimore.

City road tax delinquents are referred to notice in another column.

Scarlet fever is so bad in Carrollton that the schools have suspended.

The Georgia Minstrels are to show here January 20th, Monday next.

Pat a little gum stickum on that leaf you turned over or it will stay turned.

Our wealth is often a snare to ourselves, and always a temptation to others.

Vice stings us even in our pleasures, but virtue consoles us even in our pains.

Law and equity are two things which God hath joined, but which man hath put asunder.

A rape case involving parties from the neighborhood of Richville, was tried before Justice Hudson, Monday.

God is on the side of virtue; for whoever deserves punishment, suffers it, and whoever deserves it, reads it.

It takes a fellow who has been kicked off the front steps by the irate parent of his girl to tell the story of the mistle toe.

No matter how fertile a country may be, interest even at two per cent, will inevitably oppress the producers.—Edward Kellogg.

A weak head is often a protection against a bad heart; but a fool is often as dangerous to deal with as a knave, being more incorrigible.

They say a woman traveling from the depot in a coach a few days since, put the vehicle to a very base use, and that she was a base woman there is no doubt.

Some men who find the day too long, think life too short; but short as life is, some find it long enough to outlive their character, their constitutions and their estates.

A black stocking, with a yellow snake coiled around the leg, is the latest novelty. When the girls get to wearing these stockings thousands of men will be anxious to see snakes.

She sang soprano sweetly— Her voice was like a lyre; But on Sunday she ate onions, And this busted up the choir.

Physicians recommend Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup when all other remedies fail, as a certain cure for Bronchitis, Sore Throat, and Coughs or Colds of long standing. For sale by all druggists.

You can keep a bee away from you by the use of tobacco smoke, but a bee is always in such a confounded hurry that he gets in his work before you can light your cigar.—Scientific American.

Andrew Jackson's old clock that used to mark time for the White House was discovered the other day in a heap of rubbish and sold to a patriotic Washingtonian for twenty nine dollars.

At a meeting of citizens in the Probate office, Tuesday night, it was decided to raise money enough to uniform the Canton Guards. The organization is one that should be, and it being favored by the citizens.

It is to the prosperity of the citizen and not to the demands of the creditor of the State that the first and original faith of civil society is pledged: the claim of the citizen is prior in time, paramount in title, superior in equity.—Edmund Burke.

One of the illustrations is that the present hour is not the critical, decisive hour. Write it on your heart that every day is the best day in the year. No man has earned anything rightly until he knows that every day is doomsday.

To GET THE NOOSE—A young man from Connecticut who went West a year or so ago, has just been hanged in Nevada as a horse thief. How true is the old adage that "you have to go away from home to get the noose."—Public Opinion.

"Law is very like a sieve; it is easy to see through it, but one must be considerably reduced before he gets through it." As a rule, everything is squeezed out of him—blood, bones, muscle, heart and soul—and his worthless skin and old boots are all there is left of the wreck. Avoid the law, and pray that it may never attack your friends.

HE STRUCK BILLY PATTERSON.—A Canton lawyer who failed to keep his word with a pious little law student, was severely thrashed Saturday afternoon. The lawyer has his office in Cassidy block, and was called into an adjoining room long enough to be "piled off." There are times when a thorough use of the many art are pleasing to outsiders.

JANUARY, the first month of the year, is said to have been added with February by King Numa Pompilius, to the year which previously had but ten months. The name January was given the month in honor of the two-faced god, Janus, to whom is due that which looks back upon the old year and forward upon the new, and sacred, January originally had but 29 days, when the reformed calendar, Julius Cæsar gave it two additional days.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Monday Eve'g, Jan. 13. Present—All but Arter and Herbruck. Minutes of last meeting read and approved. Petitions—Citizens in 20 ward complained that snow in front of the Ball shops had not been removed. Let to the street commissioner to notify owners. Residents of the same ward also complained of the stench from the paper mill which complaint was referred to the Board of Health. Reports of Committees—Committee on Fire Department stated that they had accepted the bid of W. B. Dewese to furnish the Department with rubber overcoats. Committee on claims reported Durbin & Wright's bill of $1,000 correct and recommended payment; also, recommended the payment of C. C. Snyder's bill, with a reduction of 75 cents; also, recommended payment of B. Daumeniller & Son's bill, less 17 cents. Mr. Rober was appointed to buy matches hereafter for the city. It was also decided that any material of this kind necessary for the use of the Fire Department hereafter should be purchased by the department committee. The committee reported in favor of allowing Hose Co. No. 6, the use of the interest on $30, down until they shall draw the principal. This is in place of the $30 spent by other companies for bolts and bands. The committee on gas reported number and location of gasolene street lamps which had failed to burn at times during the month of December, and recommended a reduction of two dollars from the bill of the Globe Gas Light Company for that month. Also reported thirteen different gas lamps which had failed to give light during one night of the same month, and recommended a reduction of $1.31 from the Canton Gas Company's bill. Accepted. Also in favor of employing E. Haack for lighting the new lamps at $1 per post per month. The Water Works Trustee's report was accepted as correct. C. Biechle, sr., petitioned that $2.50 road tax which he had paid be refunded him as he was past the age when the tax is required. Clerk instructed to refund. A committee of city officers reported that delinquent poll tax list had been put in the hands of E. M. Grimes. It was suggested that the house on the city lots might be fitted up to answer the purpose of Mayor's office, water works office and Council chamber. The matter was referred to Messrs. Rober, McCann and Monnot. The bills of T. W. Saxton & Co., and A. C. Etlinger were referred.

LETTER FROM GEORGIA.

ATHENS, Ga., Dec. 25, '78. FRIEND MCGLEGGOR: According to promise I write you again; and, first, will say something concerning this beautiful and thriving inland city of the "Sunny South," where I have for the present pitched my tent. Athens has an elevation of 1,400 feet above the level of the sea. For the sake of the place, it is doing a very respectable manufacturing and manufacturing business. One horse alone sells to the amount of one million dollars annually; another half a million; two more one hundred thousand, and quite a number do what we would consider an extensive business. The State is nominally divided into Northern, Middle, and Southern Georgia. Athens is in the northern portion of the middle division, and draws her trade principally from the country north, even as far as North Carolina. It is quite common to see the old-fashioned covered wagon, like the Pennsylvania wagon of early 1847, or the modern "prairie schooner" of Kansas, come to this place from North Carolina, often from four to six in a line, drawn either with mules or oxen, loaded with apples, and fruit and chestnuts, all of which find a ready market here. I am told that North Carolina is the most successful fruit-growing State of any of the "original thirteen."

This place supports twelve churches, and they are all well attended. So far as I have observed, the people here are more generally in the habit of attending church, and paying more respect to the Sabbath day, than with us. There are two large churches exclusively for the accommodation of the colored population. The facilities for education here are ample. The cost is from $3 to $5 per month. The colored population are making quite an effort to educate themselves. They have now two schools of their own in operation, both taught by teachers of their own race. They are remarkably imitative, and ambitious to be like the whites. They are easy to get along with, and easily controlled. They have a great fear of the law. The whites are giving them every proper assistance and encouragement in their efforts at improvement. A few manifest a commendable disposition to accumulate property, but the large majority are a reckless, prodigal, jolly set, like Jake Blockson. I often hear Jake's laugh. Generally when several get together you are certain to hear a boisterous laugh.

I was told by a prominent citizen of this place that if it was not for the care and assistance given the black race by the whites they would degenerate into a condition of barbarism. This place is most scattered, extending about a mile each way from the center. There are many private residences of showy exterior, with colored fronts and large yards that are as this time as green and beautiful as any yard I ever saw in Canton in mid-winter. Some with large trees fastened to the very top with the English yew. There is less attention given to the improvement of the streets and sidewalks here than in the North. In the business portion of the town, the streets in many places are almost blocked with piles of cotton, which is left exposed to all kinds of weather. The traffic in cotton here seems to me immense, though I presume will not compare with that of the great sea-ports. The two railroads running from this place take out east-bound trains loaded with cotton bales morning and evening.

The Onnise river which flows through the town gives motive power to several cotton factories, a paper mill and several machine shops. They manufacture checks, sheetings and shirtings, of which they ship largely to Philadelphia and New York. Some of these same goods I have no doubt are handled by Canton merchants.

Near the center of the city, upon an elevated spot, the citizens have erected a beautiful monument upon which is inscribed the name of every soldier from this locality who fell in the defense of the confederacy or as they term it here, the rebel cause. Here, as with you, references are rarely made to the late civil war. May the feeling of alienation it engendered between the North and the South be forgotten, and as a united brotherhood, with a common interest, may we continue to prosper, multiply and replenish until we become, as we are certainly destined to be, the greatest nation upon earth.

The farming community or "planters" as they are called, are an intelligent class of persons, so that the hope is not to be held in regard to them. They appear to know but little about raising grain. Since the depreciation of cotton, however, few of the more enterprising farmers have turned their attention to general agriculture and stock raising. They find that by proper tillage and the judicious use of fertilizers, they can now raise from 40 to 50 bushels of corn to the acre. Wheat from 15 to 25 bushels. Corn brings very readily in this market 75 cts per bushel. Most of the corn and wheat consumed here is brought from Tennessee. I have learned of one farmer who gives his entire attention to raising clover hay, in which he has been quite successful. He raises large quantities each season for shipping, and upon this product alone is getting rich.

Land is comparatively low here. Good improved farms located within three or six miles of the city, can be had from $5 to $15 per acre. The soil has a peculiar appearance, like that of dark red brick dust. It washes very much on hill sides, sometimes in deep gullies. This is said to be from much ploughing in the cultivation of cotton. This would not be the case if it were grain and grass. It has occurred to me that if a young farmer had a few thousand ahead, or in expectation, this country has inducements for a settlement rather than the West. It cost but little to keep cattle through the winter. The wages for common labor is from 50 to 65 cents per day. Mechanics from $1.00 to $1.50.

To-day is Christmas, and such a merry time as the people have here, I never before witnessed. They commenced last night by firing guns, ringing and yelling. Business places are all closed, and everybody makes it a holiday, especially the "cultured folks." During the forenoon some go to church, some hunting, others to a shooting match. This afternoon there were street parades of fire companies, and others in fantastic dress in imitation of a Mardi Gras exhibition. This evening there is to be a display of fireworks, and a number of negro dances. The week from Christmas to New Year's day has always among the blacks been observed as a continuous holiday.

Since my stay here I have been treated very courteously by citizens of Athens, and have learned that their feelings toward the Northern and Western people are warm and friendly. They are ready and willing to assist persons coming here with the intention of remaining to do business. Especially do they invite Western merchants to settle here, as they are most pleased with their enterprising ways over here. I will close by wishing you and all your readers a merry Christmas. LUE MILLER.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

Miss Amelia Keip, a housekeeper in the family of Mr. John Marburger, on North Poplar street, was found dead in her bed Monday morning. Rumor was rife and reported it a case of suicide, which of course heightened the interest of the public. The true cause of the death, however, was, in all probability, heart disease, or a neuralgia of the heart. This conclusion is rendered the more certain by the fact of the young woman's having long been a sufferer from severe neuralgia of the left side, and has been under the treatment of Dr. Conklin several months for heart disease. Her friends, who came from New Berlin, where her father, Mr. Nicholas Kolp, resides, during the day, awaited anxiously the coming of the Coroner, who had been telegraphed for. Late in the afternoon that officer arrived and commenced his examination. He examined several witnesses and decided that a post mortem examination was unnecessary, and that death was caused by heart disease. The body was taken to the home of the parson Monday evening, and was interred Wednesday at 10 o'clock. Deceased had been in the employ of Mr. Marburger since October last, and was an upright and amiable young woman. Her age was 23 years, 7 months and 9 days.

FROM APPRECIATIVE FRIENDS.

Mingo, Lagrange Co., Jan. 6, 1879. Editor Democrat: Enclosed find $1.00, for which send me the Democrat for six months. ALBERT W. CURTIS.

Martinsville, Ill., Jan. 8, 1879. Editor Democrat: Enclosed find postal order for $2.00, for the Democrat one year. Yours truly, JOS. SHARP.

Mansfield, Jan. 8, 1879. Editor Democrat: Enclosed find $2 for paper. Please send me the Democrat for one year, and oblige JOHN CORCKER.

Denison, Jan. 4, 1879. Editor Democrat: I send you $2.00 in payment for the Democrat. Please send me a receipt for the same. Respectfully, M. J. LEGATE. [This is the receipt.—Ed. Dem.]

THE NIGHT SCHOOL.—The night school mentioned before in the Democrat was opened Monday evening in the east building, with Mr. B. D. Wilson as principal. The attendance was unexpectedly large, nearly a hundred young people being present. No one room in the building is large enough to accommodate such a number and it was decided to open another school in the 2d ward building, which was done Tuesday evening with Mr. Rookhill as superintendent. Both schools will be classified and put to work this week and will undoubtedly become an institution which cannot be dispensed with. The applicants thus far are largely young men employed during the daytime in shops and stores.

A young farmer jumped from his sleigh and ran into a saloon on Market street Sunday afternoon and got into a fight with a man named Cassidy block, and was called into an adjoining room long enough to be "piled off." There are times when a thorough use of the many art are pleasing to outsiders.

DIGGING THE TUNNEL.—Fifty hands were put to work on the tunnel for the Youngstown & Connon Valley R. R., near Robardsville Monday. They are working at both ends and over sixty feet of earth has been taken from one end already. The tunnel, as we stated in an article two weeks since will be 600 feet long when completed.

COLD NEWS.—It is stated at the Board of Public Works in Columbus, that there has been more permits granted this year for cutting ice on the canal and for ponds along than during any winter in the history of the State. It is thought that the ice crop in this State this winter will be the largest ever known.

LETTER FROM MASSILLON.

MASSILLON. Sleighting is still excellent, and sled parties to country dances is now the evening amusement. A grand Bal Masque at the Frohman Hall, on Thursday evening, the 16th inst., is what is the excitement for the coming year are over $11,000, part being to finish the bridge to be constructed. But also deaths have occurred during the year, and the number admitted during the same time was seventy-eight. Mr. William Taft, of this place, put in a bid to furnish timber for the Cleveland breakwater, and received the contract. He is to furnish 2,000,000 feet of hemlock lumber 12x12 inches, varying from 22 to 32 feet in length, delivered at Cleveland between the 1st of January and the 1st of July, 1879. The government reserves the right to add 1,000,000 feet more to the contract, to be delivered within twelve months from the 1st of July, 1879. It will require 600 cars to remove this lumber to Cleveland.—Greenleaf Argus.

Cincinnati, Jan. 9.—James Atkins, the Kentonville outlaw, who recently escaped from the Elliott county jail, attended a turkey shooting match at Blair's Mills, Morgan county, yesterday, and becoming engaged in an altercation with Ben Perry, a farmer, was shot and killed. Perry was badly wounded in the head.

The State Agricultural Convention at Columbus on Wednesday elected L. B. Wing, Peter Murphy, Charles Smith, Arrive Wales and Richard Baker, members of the State Board of Agriculture. Wales and Baker succeed Sickney and Stone. The others were re-elected. Those holding over are Carlisle, Pope, Pugh, Wells and Cowden.

Cincinnati, Jan. 9.—Lizzie Obhogge, a little girl while returning from school at Dayton, yesterday, was attacked by an angry cow and tossed ten feet in the air, alighting in a snow bank, where she was found insensible, though her injuries were not fatal.

A statement of the assets and liabilities of the suspended banking house of Adee & Co., of Cincinnati, shows the former to be $391,814 and the latter $79,855.

The erection of a free bridge over the Ohio river at Covington was voted down last Saturday by a large majority.

Cincinnati, Jan. 10.—The coroner's jury, in the inquest over the body of James H. Rogers, of Bloomington, Ind., who died from wounds received New Year's evening, returned a verdict of murdered by Henry Felten, proprietor of the Bloomington Corrier, and Julian Wentworth, an employe. The parties were all drunk at the time the deed was committed.

Sandusky, Jan. 10.—Captain John M. First, of Lucas, Richland county, Postal Clerk on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, was arrested by Detective Cox, and brought here to night, on the charge of opening letters and stealing the contents.

Steubenville, Jan. 10.—To-day Thomas Means instituted suit against the Humboldt Fire Insurance Company, of Allegheny, Pa., for $50,000 for malicious prosecution in December, 1878, charging Means with hiring Lafayette Stone to set fire to the plaintiff's distillery for the purpose of securing the insurance thereon.

Millsburg, Jan. 8.—The coal mine reported on fire near this place, and which has been closed up since Christmas last, was opened last night for inspection, and found well booming hot. It was immediately closed again, and will probably remain so for a month, or until the first snow, when all the miners who have not secured work at other mines are now idle.

Mansfield, Jan. 10.—The editors of the Sunday Morning Globe were arrested to-day on a warrant from Belleville sworn out by one Jerry Garton. Last Sunday's Globe contained an article called the "Belleville Boer," in which it showed up Garton in "ways that are dark and tricks that are vain," in reference to his marital vow. The warrant charges the parties with selling and distributing an obscene paper, and they were taken to Belleville this afternoon in charge of the marshal.

Millsburg, Jan. 10.—The through freight train from the north, due here at 2:30 yesterday afternoon, was thrown from the track by a defective rail about two miles north of here. The engine and four cars rolled over the embankment into a field. Among Douglas, a brakeman, was severely injured about the face, Frank Ogdon, the engineer, narrowly escaped.

ALLIANCE.—The Review says: On Thursday evening about six o'clock three men entered the hardware store of Henry Miller. Mr. M. being in the back end of the store met two of them about midway and offered to wait on them. Missing the third man, he looked about to see what had become of him and discovered him behind the showcase near the door with his hands in suspicious proximity to the money drawer. Mr. M. enquired what he was doing there and the man answered that he was looking for a half dollar he had dropped. Mr. Miller grabbed a scoop shovel and sprang to the door to intercept them, and called for help, but none happened to be near. The three men then made a combined rush upon Mr. M. and hurled him from the door and escaped upon going behind the counter Mr. Miller found three revolvers on the floor which had been taken from the show case, while another one was missing. The police were notified and started in pursuit, but up to this writing have failed to arrest the parties. They were quite respectable looking young fellows.

Mr. John W. Frederick, a prominent farmer of Washington Twp., was found dead in his bed Monday morning.

Mr. Benjamin Brooks of the firm of Brooks & Houser, stock dealers, living a few miles northwest of Alliance, was dangerously gored by a bull Monday.

FOREST TREES INDIGENOUS TO STARK COUNTY.

The following list of trees, that attain a growth not less than sixteen feet in height and four inches in diameter, has been made out after considerable research. If by any addressed to the Democrat, it will be glad to know it by postal address to the Democrat.

White oak—Quercus alba. Red oak—Q. rubra. Chestnut oak—Q. prinus. Bur oak—Q. macrocarpa. Swamp oak—Q. bicolor. Black oak—Q. nigra. Spanish oak—Q. falcata. Gum oak or black-jack—Q. tinctoria. Post oak—Q. obtusiloba. Pin oak—Q. palustris. Black walnut—Juglans nigra. White walnut (butternut)—J. cinerea. Shell-bark hickory—Carya alba. Pig-nut hickory—C. porcinata. Bitter hickory—C. amara. Sycamore—Platanus occidentalis. Yellow poplar—Liquidambar styraciflua. Cottonwood—Populus monilifera. Hackberry—Nyctaginia americana. Mountain Ash—Pyrus americana. White ash—Fraxinus americana. Green ash—F. viridis. Swamp or black ash—F. sambucifolia. Sugar maple, hard maple—Acer saccharinum. Red or swamp maple—A. rubrum. Silver-leaf maple—A. dasycarpum. Box elder—Nephus americana. Wild cherry—Cerasus virginiana. Black cherry—Prunus virginiana. Dogwood—Cornus florida. Ironwood—Aspera virginica. Black or sour gum—Nyssa multiflora. White elm—Ulmus americana. Slippery elm—U. fulva. Sugar or hickory—Celtis occidentalis. Yellow birch—Betula papyrifera. White birch—B. pumila. Water birch—B. nigra. Red-barked (tooth-ache tree)—Zanthoxylum americanum.

Cucumber—Molonia acuminata. Tamarack—Pinus canadensis. Locust—Bosinia pseudoacacia. Honey locust—Gleditsia tricanthos. Crab apple—Pyrus coronaria. White pine—Pinus strobus. Spruce pine—S. canadensis. Yellow or red pine—Pinus americana. Service or June berry—Amelanchier canadensis. Sassafras—Sassafras officinale. Yellow birch—Betula papyrifera. Yellow hazel—Hamamelis virginica. Wild Plum—Prunus. Sweet gum—Liquidambar styraciflua. White cedar—Cedrus virginica. Red cedar—Juniperus virginica. The exotics we would not undertake to enumerate. Besides all our fruit trees, many have been introduced for ornament and for shade. Among the most conspicuous may be mentioned the Buckeye, Horse-chestnut, Catalpa, Ailanthus, Eng. Elm, Scotch and Box Elder, White Fringe, Norway Spruce, Balsam Fir, Scotch and Austria Pine, Balm of Gilead, Lombardy and Silver-leaf Poplar.

INFORMATION WANTED.

A printer named Will Davis left his home in Cleveland last July informing his wife that he was going down town to hunt work at his trade. Since that time nothing has been heard or seen of him by his wife, who is nearly distracted in consequence. His family consists of his wife and one child. He was formerly from Wooster, O. Any information in regard to his whereabouts would be thankfully received by his bereaved wife at Franklin Square, [Columbus county, O.—Akron Argus.]

On the 6th inst., the stockholders of the Youngstown and Connon Valley railroad held their first annual meeting at the R. R. office in Carrollton, and elected the following directors: C. G. Patterson of Botton, N. A. Smith of New York, Samuel Allen of Dell Roy, and Hon. Joseph W. Barnabach, Jos. L. Ross, Francis M. Sheridan, and J. V. Lawler of Carrollton. The Board organized by electing Mr. Ross, President, Mr. Allen, Vice President, Mr. Smith, General Manager and Superintendent, C. H. Ross, Secretary and Treasurer, and S. J. Calloway, Road Master.

REV. DR. BEATY OF STEUBENVILLE, was married last week to a widow lady. The Rev. Dr. is nearly sixty-nine years