1887. Harper's Bazar.

ILLUSTRATED. HARPER'S BAZAR combines the choicest literature and the finest illustrations with the latest fashions and the most useful family reading. Its stories, poems, and essays are by the best writers and its humorous sketches are unsurpassed. Its papers on social etiquette, decorative art, house-keeping in all its branches, cooking, etc., are indispensable in every household. Its beautiful fashion plates and pattern-sheet supplements enable ladies to save many times the cost of subscription by being their own dressmakers. No line is admitted to its columns that could shock the most fastidious taste.

1887. Harper's Weekly.

ILLUSTRATED. HARPER'S WEEKLY maintains its position as the leading illustrated newspaper in America; and its hold upon public esteem and confidence was never stronger than at the present time. Besides the pictures, Harper's Weekly always contains instalments of one, occasionally two, of the best novels of the day, finely illustrated, with short stories, poems, sketches, and papers on important current topics, the most popular of the kind. The care that has been successfully exercised in the past to make Harper's Weekly a safe as well as a welcome visitor to every household will not be relaxed in the future.

MAKE YOUR FRIENDS HAPPY!

Once more we enter in the most glorious holiday month of the year. December with its train of joyous anticipations is here again to show gladness and happiness in the hearts of the young; make the aged forget their sorrows; bring to fond recollections of "Auld Lang Syne"; dissipate the cloud that hangs over saddened hearts; chase away sorrow and care, and trouble and malice, and make love and joy, and peace and good will reign supreme. True happiness is easiest found by making those around happy.

WE ARE AFTER GOOD WILL

In setting our business before you we have not put prices to the fore, as you know if closely following our advertising. We have no fears of misapprehension on that score.

What we are after is to get you familiar with our merchandise, the sort of Clothing, the methods and policy we pursue. With these understood, and the line drawn, we believe satisfaction will be reached in everything else.

We don't mean to say that we shall never mention Prices. We shall make free use of them in advertising when the time comes, and advise you of changes, even in prices.

At this initial stage, however, we go the whole length of our using newspapers in getting your good will, and letting you know of our fair and generous trading.

All Garments in our Stores Marked in Plain Figures.
