

M. E. AUNGST'S BRILLIANT ADDRESS AT THE ESSIG FAMILY REUNION.

Held at the Residence of Simon Essig, June 11, 1896—Sentiments Expressed That Went Home to the Hearts of All His Hearers.

At the Essig reunion, Deputy Probate Judge Maurice E. Aungst delivered the oration of the day, and it was replete with splendid things. It was eloquently and forcibly delivered, and Mr. Aungst has been warmly congratulated upon it. That the whole Essig connection may read it, the address is appended in its entirety.

The history of the Simon Essig family has been so repeatedly and eloquently told upon former occasions of these reunions, that it has become a familiar story to all of you. All the virtues and commendable traits you will find in the history of the Essig family, have been narrated in your hearing until little that is new or entertaining on that subject remains to be said.

another series of stations toward which the ambitious strive, and we find banks, clearing-houses, produce and stock exchanges. Many there are who go in at these doorways. What an ambition to be a banker, a broker, a dealer in stocks and securities, a director and manipulator of that unknowable machine called money!

But of far greater moment than all this is the fact that the population of the world, that great fact called the people, owes its existence to the primary pursuits.

brief, fleeting years, we can celebrate the centennial anniversary of the arrival of Simon Essig and his family of twelve children within the fruitful borders of this country. Let that celebration be a memorable one. Preparations should be begun in ample time. The family ties should be welded more closely. Renewed interest should be taken in these annual gatherings, and I close with the fervent hope that every one who is present today, as well as those who are not present and are yet unborn, will live to participate and will participate in the centennial anniversary of the settlement of our distinguished ancestor upon the verdant banks of the classic and now historic Nimitz-shillen.

McKinley and to give vent to his enthusiasm he fired a small cannon throughout the afternoon. The cannon failed to roar, and Henry was gazing thoughtfully into its throat when suddenly it let loose. The young man's face was peppered with powder; his right eye was badly injured. Dr. Marchand dressed his injuries.

BLOODHOUNDS ASSIST IN CAPTURING A WORK-HOUSE TRUSTRY

Who Took Leg Bail While Working on Stark County Roads in Charge of the Workhouse Officials—He is Cleverly Captured.

William Brobst, a trusty, while working with the work-house gang on the road north of the city, made his escape and was captured by the guards after a hot chase in which the blood-hounds were the principal actors. Brobst was sentenced some time ago from the mayor's office for failing to provide for his children. He was in charge of the plow team and after plowing up the road, he sat under a tree to rest. The attention of the guards being attracted elsewhere, he made a break for liberty. His absence was not discovered for some time, but when he was missed the blood-hounds were at once placed on his trail. They followed him for two miles. He had crossed a creek, but the hounds were not thrown from the scent, and they stopped at a big barn and set up a barking that was heard by the guards who were following the dogs. The barn proved to belong to Adam Pontius, the father of the superintendent of the work-house. Brobst had entered the barn, and in his desperation to escape the hounds, had gone into the granary and covered himself over with oats. He was dragged from his hiding place, and he will have no chance to escape for some time to come.

Several Matters of Importance That Held the Attention of the Bench and Bar. The damage case of Rachel Ruperd vs. Saloonist Frank Rose, for $10,000, was ended this forenoon with the pleas of the attorneys. Judge McCarty this afternoon charged the jury and it retired to deliberate upon the evidence at 1:30 o'clock.

Frank P. Kibler and John Spensler, acting for Frank A. Kibler as assignee for John McGregor and W. J. Piero and John C. Welty as sureties, have petitioned common pleas court for a writ of mandamus to compel Squire Wallace Webb to issue a transcript of a case in which a judgment for $50 was recently secured by a creditor against Kibler as assignee for McGregor. Kibler wished to appeal the case, but Webb, it is alleged, refused to issue the transcript.

Allen R. Goeler has begun suit in court for a divorce from his wife, Nancy. He claims she neglects her duties as a wife, hampers him with the broom and the poker, and otherwise makes life very unpleasant. Samuel Burgett has been retained to prosecute the case.

The jury in the contested will case of Karl Schwartz vs. Peter Shisler, as administrator of the estate of Margaret Schlotz, have filed their verdict with the clerk. This is a case where Mrs. Schlotz left most of her property to missionaries and church societies. The will was made just shortly before her death and a contest was made. The jury declared the will void and the property will go to the heirs.

B. F. Shull, by his attorneys, Sterling & Wertz, has sued DeForest and Josephine Strong to set aside a deed for property. The plaintiff alleges that he secured judgment against DeForest Strong for $152, and that to evade payment the defendant deeded his property to his wife.

W. K. Walter, on Thursday afternoon, made an assignment to Noah Haines for the benefit of creditors. Mr. Walter is a resident of Paris township and his assets amount to $1,200. The liabilities are about the same.

The case of Frank E. Ewing, of Alliance vs. The Prudential Life Insurance Co., is on trial before Judge McCarty and a jury today. The action is brought to collect $75 of life insurance held by the father of the plaintiff, who was killed by falling down an elevator shaft at the Aultman works several years ago.

Paralysis of the Heart Causes the Death of Mrs. Sarah Goodyear. Mrs. Sarah Goodyear, of No. 37 East Tenth street, was this morning found dead in bed. Mrs. Goodyear was 77 years of age, and retired last evening in apparent good health. She has for the past ten years, lived with her only son, W. E. Goodyear, at the foregoing number, and this morning she failed to put in an appearance at her usual hour. Her daughter-in-law, suspecting something was wrong, investigated, and found the old lady cold in death. Paralysis of the heart was pronounced the cause of death. The funeral services will be held at the residence Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in Westlawn cemetery.

CASTORIA for Infants and Children. Mothers, Do You Know that Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons? Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labelling them poisons? Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed? Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle? Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense? Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government-protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless? Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose? Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children will be kept well, and that you will have unbroken rest? Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts. The fac-simile signature of Dr. J. C. Pitcher is on every wrapper. Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Woman's Work is never done, and it is especially wearing and wearisome to those whose blood is impure and unfit properly to tone, sustain and renew the wearing of nerve, muscle and tissue. It is more because of this condition of the blood that women are run down. Tired, Weak, Nervous. Then because of the work itself. Every physician says so, and that the only remedy is in building up by taking a good nerve tonic, blood purifier and vitalizer like Hood's Sarsaparilla. For the troubles Peculiar to Women at change of season, climate or life, or resulting from hard work, nervousness, and impure blood, thousands have found relief and cure in Hood's Sarsaparilla. Face Badly Disfigured. Henry Mann, a young man living at No. 35 Conzong street, wears a worried look and face full of gun-powder. Henry was celebrating the nomination of Major
