About 35 persons enjoyed the good things prepared for dinner and supper on last Friday by Mrs. Libbie Grooms, who needs no advertising as one of the best landladies in all the country. It was the day of a law suit held in Court room, court room, from 10 a. m. till 1 p. m., Saturday. The jury gave the verdict in favor of Harsh who had bought a horse of Cassidy and the horse died in a few days, when Harsh refused to pay for it. The amount was $75.

GREENTOWN.

John Greenwald, of Canton, has moved to town and will be the proprietor of the hotel. A recent storm did considerable damage to the H. B. Camp Co., works. One of the main buildings was partly blown down and a new horse barn was unroofed and otherwise damaged. Prof. Syler and family, of Columbus, the former principal of the High school there, are visiting their many friends in this vicinity. The Sarah Clemens property was sold last Saturday to Philip Loew for $1,605. Mr. Wm. Swaller is modernizing and improving his Center street residence. A social was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Fohl last week for the benefit of the U. B. church. Quite a neat sum was realized. Last Sunday morning Corpus Christi services were observed in St. Clements. On May 1st Mary Rodey died of a protracted illness of brain fever at her home at the age of 12 years. She resided on 4th street. Her mother preceded her in death about a month ago. Services were held in St. Clements church Friday morning by Father Baker. Interment in St. Clements cemetery. She leaves a father and one brother to mourn her departure. The commencement last Friday night was a success and the attendance one of the largest ever witnessed in Navarre.
