

MARTIAL LAW NEEDED. Only Way to Remedy Cleveland Situation, Said Axline.

BOYCOTT SEVERELY CONDEMNED. Minister Denounced It and His Congression Endorsed What He Said—The Boycott Quite Stringent—Cars on Some Lines Were Not Well Patronized.

CLEVELAND, July 31.—Notwithstanding the fact that big crowds were upon the streets there were no outbreaks of violence, and apparently very little attention was paid to the Big Consolidated cars, which ran on all lines on schedule time.

As the relation of the protective tariff to trusts will be discussed invitations have been accepted by representatives of the Protective Tariff League, United States Export association and the tariff reform committee of the Reform League of New York and the Home Market club and New England Free Trade League of Boston.

The only exciting incident on the South Side was the holding of an election wagon by a crowd of soldiers, who took from it a four-gallon freezer full of cream.

Business Agent Pratt of the union of the Big Consolidated strikers issued a statement in reply to the intimation that there was a breach between the strikers and the employees of the Little Consolidated.

Apparently the strikers have the sympathy and active co-operation of all the labor organizations in the city and not only are merchants being punished for riding on the tabooed cars, but they are warned against selling goods to other people who do ride, on the threat of losing the trade of union men.

The boycott of the troops aroused the ire of Adjutant General Axline, who declared that there is a state law to punish people who interfere with the militia. He threatened to invoke the aid of the law.

A number of ministers preached on the strike Sunday. Last night, at the First Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. Louis Albert Banks took occasion to denounce the violence that had taken place and condemned the proposed boycott as highwaymen's tactics.

PEACE CONFERENCE ENDED. Work Done Declared Wise—States Sign Conventions.

THE HAGUE, July 31.—The international peace conference met for its final sitting when it was announced that 14 states had signed the arbitration convention, 15 the other two conventions, 17 the declaration prohibiting the throwing of projectiles or explosives from balloons, 16 the declaration prohibiting the use of asphyxiating gases and 16 the declaration prohibiting the use of expansive bullets.

A letter was read from the queen of Holland to the pope asking his moral support of the conference. The pope's reply, which was read, promised co-operation, recalled the fact that he had many times performed the function of arbitrator and assured her majesty that, in spite of his present abnormal position, the pope would continue to seek the advancement of civilization.

Baron de Staal delivered the farewell address, thanking the representatives of foreign states. He said the work accomplished, while not so complete as might be desired, was sincere, wise and practical.

Minister Estourmelles and Dr. Beaufort followed, the latter saying that the conference had not realized utopian dreams, nevertheless it had disproved pessimistic forebodings, and the moral effect would more and more influence public opinion and aid governments to solve the question of the limitation of armaments, which still remain a source of grave consideration for statesmen of all countries.

Universalists Summer Meeting. SARATOGA, July 31.—The Universalist-Methodist summer meeting was addressed Sunday morning by Rev. Dr. H. W. Thomas of Chicago on "The Things That Abide," and Sunday evening by Rev. Dr. L. M. Atwood of Clinton, N. Y.

CONFERENCE ON TRUSTS.

Main Department Will Get Information From Consuls—Prominent Men Agree to Attend.

CHICAGO, July 31.—Ralph M. Easley, secretary of the Civic Federation of Chicago, returned from the east, where he had spent two weeks furthering the interests of the coming conference on combinations and trusts to be held in this city Sept. 13-15.

While in Washington he arranged with the state department for a circular of inquiry to the consuls throughout Europe asking information concerning trade combinations of all kinds.

In behalf of the committee of arrangements, he extended an invitation to the interstate commerce commission and the United States industrial commission to each to attend in a body. Members of both commissions write that they will favor accepting the invitation.

As many members of congress have stated their intention to come to hear the discussions and asked for seats, the committee has decided to invite all the members to be present and special arrangements will be made for all who accept.

The presidents of 37 national and state commercial, agricultural and labor organizations have not acceptances.

An effort is being made to secure the attendance at the conference of E. J. Smith of Birmingham, England, whose phenomenal success in promoting combination movements in England is dealt with in recent advance sheets of a consular report. It is claimed in this report that Mr. Smith's plan has been successfully working for several years, and that it secures a sure profit to the manufacturer and satisfactory wages and conditions to the artisan without unduly raising the price of the commodity to the consumer.

Mr. Smith's plan is endorsed by Joseph Chamberlain and many members of parliament and will be discussed at the conference.

YELLOW FEVER AT NEWPORT NEWS. Thirty Cases at the National Soldiers' Home—Three Known Deaths and Others Suspected.

NEWPORT NEWS, July 31.—There are 30 cases of what is believed to be genuine yellow fever at the National Soldiers' home near Hampton and three deaths from the disease were reported. There were several other deaths at the institution, but it could not be stated that all of them were caused by yellow fever.

The news has created great excitement in Newport News, Old Point and Hampton and the most vigorous measures will be resorted to prevent its spread. There are 4,000 old veterans at the home and several large excursion parties went through it last week.

NEBRASKANS ARRIVED. Utahs Also on the Transport—Reached Port Sooner Than Expected. One Died Enroute.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—The untimely arrival of the United States transport Hancock, having on board the Nebraska regiment and two batteries of the Utah artillery, completely destroyed all the arrangements which had been made for a royal reception and an enthusiastic welcome to the fighting volunteers returning crowned with their laurels.

Only one man died on the Hancock after she left Manila. He was Private Richard Walph of Battery A, Utah artillery, and he died of typhoid fever, at Nagasaki.

Two Persons Killed. Wrecks on the Erie Due to a Landslide—Number Injured.

PORT JERVIS, N. Y., July 31.—The accidents on the Erie railroad growing out of the landslide a mile east of Lackawanna were not as serious as at first reported. Only the fireman and engineer of the derailed engine of the westbound Chicago express, which turned over on the track, were killed, though a number of passengers on the express, the vestibule passenger train for Buffalo and Cleveland, were injured.

Stephen Outwater, Port Jervis, engineer of Chicago express. Fred Sells, Port Jervis, fireman of Chicago express.

Among the injured are: G. H. Boyd, Sharon, Pa., scalp wounds. Mrs. G. H. Boyd, Sharon, Pa., bruises back and shoulders. G. E. Belz, Cleveland, cuts, head, hand burned.

Three Drowned by Boat Capizing. PHILADELPHIA, July 31.—By the capizing of a small boat in the Delaware river Otto Komp, aged 37 years, his son Albert, aged 8, and Christian Ostertags, Kemp's brother-in-law, aged 30 years, were drowned.

REMARKABLE TOWNS

One Is Built on Stilts in the Ocean, the Other on the Ice.

Athos, on the Coast of Macedonia, the Most Curious Community in the Universe—A Town Without Women.

The marine village of Tupuselei, in New Guinea, would take a lot of beating on the score of singularity. Here the houses are all supported on piles, and stand right out in the ocean, some considerable distance from the shore. The object of this strange position is to protect the inhabitants against sudden attacks of the dreaded head-hunters, who are always on the lookout for victims.

Another curious place is a town without a name on one of the arms of Lake Huron. This consists of some 500 wooden huts. During the summer these little dwellings are hidden away in a clearing on shore, and the town contains not a single inhabitant.

Athos, a town situated on a promontory on the coast of Macedonia, well deserves the title of the most curious town in the universe. The peninsula is known as "The Mountain of the Monks," from the fact that a score or so of monasteries are dotted about the rough hillsides or the valleys. In these establishments dwell a numerous body of ascetics, kind and hospitable to wanderers, but full of superstition, and believing in the doctrine of separation to a wonderful degree.

The actual town, as distinct from its monastic environs, is called Caryes, and supplies the simple wants of the monks. Here are to be found streets of shops, crowded bazaars, flourishing trades and all the bustle and energy of a modern town. But one thing soon strikes the visitor as strange. There is not a female to be seen anywhere, for the gentler sex is rigorously banished from the place.
