

ARGUMENTS IN GARBER TRIAL.

Testimony All Introduced in The Akron Case.

GARBER CALLED TO STAND

The Closing Session of This Case Is Held And It Will Be Given to the Jury Today

Garber Makes a Statement Respecting Certain Points.

Akron, May 15.—At 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon the attorneys for Mr. Garber announced that they had introduced all the evidence they desired.

The state had nothing to offer in rebuttal and the arguments were taken up.

Each side was given four hours. Judge E. W. Stuart opened for the state.

At the afternoon session Mr. Tobin was again called to the stand but was immediately dismissed.

The next witness was Mr. Harry W. Wilson, of Cleveland.

"Do you know Mr. Young?" "Yes, sir; for three or four years."

"In the year 1898 what connection did you have with Democratic state central committee?"

"I was secretary." "Did you see Mayor Young that fall?" "I did."

"Did you have a conversation with him concerning Mr. Garber?" "I did."

"Did Young not say to you that he had set a trap for Garber and that he would get more than $500 worth of goods politically out of it?"

"I cannot say that those were the exact words."

"State the conversation." "I came here that fall, and to Mr. Young I expressed surprise that Mr. Garber would do what was alleged and he said Garber came to him to retain him as an attorney. I said, 'Why didn't you accept?' Young said, 'I thought it would help him secure his re-election.'"

Mr. Wanamaker cross-examined. "At the meeting did you not say to the mayor that Garber was a good Democrat, and all concerned were Democrats, we ought to pull together?"

"No, sir." "Did you not say that in substance?" "No."

"Who was present?" "I went up to the mayor's office with Mr. Paul."

Miss Bertha Kaiser was called. She testified that there was a call for Mr. Garber from the city commissioners the day of the meeting at McGarry's house.

GARBER CALLED.

The defense next placed Mr. Garber upon the stand. He testified that he was 34 years of age and lives in Greenville, O. His first employment was in a tobacco factory at the age of 7 years.

He attended school in the winter. He next worked in a spoke factory, afterward worked one summer on a farm. Later he became a messenger boy in Greenville for the Western Union.

He learned telegraphy and held a position with the Panhandle road. He was afterward manager of the Western Union Telegraph company at Greenville.

He said his earnings were given to his parents.

He was elected to the legislature in 1889, re-elected in 1891, and served an extra session during that year.

He afterward returned to telegraphy which later was given up for a position with the Central Union. He has held various positions and is now assistant to the general counsel of the company.

"Do you know Mr. Young?" "Yes."

"Do you know Mr. McGarry?" "Yes."

"Did you have a talk with him?" "A very short talk. He was busy. He asked me to call again."

"Did you see Mayor Young next day, Tuesday?" "I think I did."

"Did you see McGarry?" "I did."

"What was said by telephone next day?" "I was at the telephone exchange and Miss Kaiser called me."

"Whom did you find there?" "Mr. McGarry."

"What did he say?" "He said he was sorry he missed me the day before, and wanted me to call at 11:30 the next day."

"Did you go?" "I went about 12 o'clock."

"Did you go into the parlor?" "I did."

"Did you notice a piano?" "I did."

and also of the long distance telephone." Thomas A. Seis, county treasurer of Montgomery county, was called. He testified that Mr. Garber's character was the very best.

"What are your politics?" asked Mr. Rogers, after the examination was concluded.

"I am a Democrat," was the emphatic reply.

Hon. C. O. Hale was the next witness. He has known Garber since 1892. The witness and Mr. Garber served in the state legislature together.

DEMOCRATS HAD STORMY SESSION.

In Richland County Over Selecting Delegates

TO THE JUDICIAL CONVENTION.

Two Conventions Held and Two Sets of Delegates Selected—Two Factions Meet—Action Finally Revoked.

Special to News-Democrat.

Mansfield, O., May 15.—Richland county Democrats had a stormy time at their county convention Monday afternoon and for a time it looked as though contesting delegations would be sent to the State Democratic district convention at Coshocton. Stark county is a member of the district and on Saturday selected Atlee Pomerene, of Canton, as Stark's candidate before the convention.

When the convention met to canvass the vote cast at the primary election last Saturday one faction, led by James P. Seward, chairman of the state executive committee, and a recognized McLean lieutenant, called for Judge N. M. Wolfe for chairman. The other and larger faction wanted ex-Sheriff Boala.

Ignoring the majority, James E. Payne, chairman of the county committee, declared Wolfe elected. For a half hour each served as a chairman of a separate convention and both conventions selected delegates to state and judicial conventions amid great excitement and dire threats of vengeance on both sides.

Finally Judge Wolfe withdrew and the McLean-Seward faction tried to induce Boala to do the same, but the latter's followers would not listen to it, and he continued as chairman, but an agreement was reached that all previous work should be blotted out and an entire change be made in delegates, and after resolutions had been adopted endorsing the Chicago platform of 1896, and instructing the delegates to poll only for delegates-at-large favorable to the nomination of Bryan, the following delegates were selected to the convention: A. C. Cummings, J. E. Coss, C. N. Gaumer, H. E. Cave, Lewis Brucker, John S. Burns, Edwin Mansfield, Frank Rabold, Richard Dalton, H. K. Robinson, Fred W. Olfersburger. Delegates to the judicial convention: A. A. Douglass, Glenn Cummings, H. E. Bell, William Cummins, Charles Huston, Geo. Bricker, T. P. Black, Frank Long, of this city; Oscar Wise, Butler; John Hale, Pavnica; T. J. Green, Shelby.

FUTURE ATTITUDE TOWARD UNION

The Hitch in the Street Railway Situation.

THE STRIKERS AND OFFICIALS

Are Attempting to Get Together at St. Louis Today—The Police Shoot Into a Mob and Hit Several.

[News-Democrat Leased Wire Service.] St. Louis, May 16.—Yesterday's efforts at a settlement having been fruitless the Transit company officials and the grievance committee of the employees will meet again this afternoon. The essential point of difference was the future attitude of the company toward the union. No more cars are running today than yesterday. Wire cutting was prevalent all over the city last night.

Two hundred men have arrived to take the strikers places. They are stopped and searched, and arrested if found to have weapons. Several persons, among them it is said, one woman, were shot by police on Broadway and Osceola streets. Officers say fully one thousand were hiding along the tracks throwing stones at the Southern electric cars. Those wounded were hurried away and it was impossible to learn their number or identity.

Two men, John Flatley and Joseph Trendall, were shot and badly wounded in a riot at Grande and Easton avenues, yesterday afternoon. It is said that D. B. Campbell, a conductor, on a Grande avenue car, fired the shot.

The grand jury yesterday, returned five indictments charging obstructing streets and railway tracks against Jos. and George Smith, George O'Donnell, John Heinz and Lawrence Backoff. None of them was in the employ of the Transit company. Chief of Police Campbell yesterday sent a letter to General Manager Baumhoff complaining because the company failed to run cars, after asking for and receiving police protection.

AT DAYTON.

Dayton, May 16.—The strike of the People's railway line has settled down to a quiet, systematic boycott. Cars started at 7 o'clock on both divisions on a ten minute schedule, every car with a policeman. There has been no public announcement made of the boycott by union organizations but cars are running without any passengers. Principal points are covered by union wagons running in opposition to the cars at regular rates of fare. The orderly manner pursued by the men is enlisting the sympathy of the public. Cars began this morning on regular schedule time.

TRIED TO POISON FAMILY.

Unknown Persons Attempt to Lives of Five People At Mansfield.

Mansfield, May 16.—A dastardly attempt was made to poison Mrs. Mary Garrett and four daughters and as a result all became deathly sick and only prompt medical attendance saved their lives.

This was the second attempt upon their lives within a week, their butter being poisoned a few days ago. It seems that the family ate noodles for dinner and the receptacle in which they were cooked had been placed in the summer kitchen. It is thought some one entered it and placed poison in the receptacle.

Mrs. Garrett is employed away from home and while at work there she was taken deathly sick. Upon being driven home her four daughters were found dangerously ill. Physicians were summoned and they are much better.

The Carolina, Lybenburg and Pretoria commandoes trekked north with 11 guns and entered at Glencoe, the last train and the ambulances leaving yesterday morning. This result is largely due to the excellent work of the Fifth division the last few days. Trains are now running as far as Wessels Nek station, half way between Ladysmith and Dundee."

FROM ROBERTS.

London, May 16.—General Roberts reports from Kroonstad, under date of May 15, as follows: "Two officers and six men of the Prince Alfred Guards, while foraging yesterday were fired on by a party of Boers who were hiding in a farm house on which a flag of truce was flying.
