

NO WORD FROM PEKING

All Effort to Get Word From That City Has Proven Fruitless.

FOREIGNERS ARE ALIVE

So Insist the Chinese Officials on the Accuracy of Reassuring Message.

FIGHTING SINCE JULY 9TH.

At Tien Tsin So Reports Admiral Remy to the Navy Department—Reports Differ Widely—Latest News From the Orient.

London, July 12.—According to Shanghai dispatches every effort including the offer of enormous rewards is being made to get even one word from any foreigners at Peking. So far these efforts are fruitless, although the Chinese officials insist on the accuracy of the recent reassuring messages, and maintain that the foreigners in the Chinese capital are still alive.

The Peking situation is a hopeless mystery, made worse by each dispatch Attention is again centered on Tien Tsin, where the situation is undoubtedly desperate. According to the report of Admiral Remy to the government at Washington, fighting was going on there July 9. It has continued since July 9 and the allied forces must be well-nigh exhausted. Reports differ widely concerning the number of Chinese attacking Tien Tsin, but there seems to be no question that they have an inexhaustible supply of men. The announcement of the arrival of the Japanese reinforcements is awaited with eagerness. There is scant faith in the truth in the report of the restoration of the empire to power. The alleged proclamations issued by her and the young emperor have had no effect, and a stronger hand than theirs appears to be directing affairs with death to foreigners as the slogan.

Late dispatches confirm the report that Russia will have her hands full in defending Manchuria.

NIU CHWANG BURNED.
London, July 12.—The ex-chief of police at Porth Arthur reports that Nieu Chwang has been sacked and burned and that the Manchuria railroad has been wrecked. The unprotected outskirts of Porth Arthur are being pillaged.

BELATED DISPATCH.
Washington, July 12.—A belated dispatch with no signature attached but which is believed to have been sent by Admiral Kempff, was received this morning by the secretary of the navy, as follows:
"Taku, July 2.—Runner Peking reports German troops burned Tsung Tsung Li Yamen. Chinese moved many guns on wall commanding legations. Chinese subjects advise leave legations. Runner heard heavy firing in Peking after leaving city."

This dispatch was received, this morning via Siberia, under date of Nagasaki, Japan. It is supposed that Admiral Kempff sent it from Taku by a steamer or war vessel touching at that port.

ORDERED TO CHINA.
Alla Habel, July 12.—The Sixteenth Bengal Lancers, Third Bombay cavalry and battery C have been ordered to China.

SIEGE TRAIN.
Capetown, July 12.—A siege train is being prepared for shipment to China.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation is taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

BEECHAM'S PILLS

taken at night will make you feel right, not right and look right. They cure Constipation. 20 cents and 25 cents, at all drug stores.

M'KINLEY IS NOTIFIED.

Kinley administration. Four years ago we were in distress, now Democrats and Republicans both have prosperity. The great question in the campaign is not imperialism but whether we shall have Democratic adversity or Republican prosperity. The supreme question is whether we shall have the gold standard or the free coinage of silver.

"Four years ago," continued the senator, "Canton was but little known, today it is the most conspicuous place on the map of the world. I did not come here to make a formal speech but I could not resist the opportunity to congratulate this city on the great service it had done for the United States in giving William McKinley."

With the assurance that the Republicans of Indiana were loyal and that the state would vote for McKinley the senator closed.

YELLED FOR HANNA.

"Hanna," "Hanna," began the crowd again and the Grand Army band struck up to drown the bedlam. It was no use. The crowd wanted Hanna and the band had to shut up. Senator Hanna came out and stood by the side of the stand. "Get up," yelled a hundred voices but Mr. Hanna shook his head. "The place for a subject at the foot of the stool," said the national chairman.

Then he began to speak. "Get up higher," "Higher," "Higher." We want to see you," shouted the crowd and seeing that they would not be satisfied Mr. Hanna allowed himself to be helped upon the table.

MR. HANNA WAS FACETIOUS.

He spoke in a spicy and vigorous style that brought peals of laughter and applause alternately. "If I have any other duty to perform now that the notification of the candidate is over it is to notify the people of Ohio and the United States that the Republican party expects every man to do his duty. It is not necessary for me to arouse enthusiasm in Ohio. It comes spontaneously when McKinley is a candidate. I want to say that the National Republican convention at Philadelphia did its duty." (Loud and significant laughter.) The committee has formally notified the candidate and Mr. McKinley has concluded to accept (more laughter) and now my fellow citizens you must do the rest."

Coming from Mr. Hanna this struck the crowd rather suggestively as though he had said: "I press the button and you do the rest," and the crowd roared good naturedly as the speaker continued. Mr. Hanna said that when he had laid down the gavel at Philadelphia he had some idea that he would be through then but he said he had in an unguarded moment let drop his motto and it was, "There is no such word as fail." The boys liked the motto he said and so they had called him again, "And here I am," quoth the senator.

He said that some were saying that the rallying to the Republican standard last time was through fear but now over confidence would possess the people and the cause of Republicanism would fall. He declared that to take such a view would be to insult the intelligence of the voters of the country and he did not propose to do it. He thought the people knew and understood.

"I heard it said that the working people would not follow the Republican party because of new issues this year but I want to give the lie to that statement," said he. The senator then closed with a few words of congratulation to working men.

OTHER SPEAKERS.

Charles Emory Smith, the postmaster general, was called up and he proceeded to address the crowd. Others followed and the speech making did not close till every one had gotten a first class appetite and was ready to get back to the big tent where a sumptuous feast was spread for the notification committee.

THE OPPRESSIVE HEAT.

During the speaking by the president a young man who stood under a tree in the front part of the McKinley lawn, dropped over in a faint because of the oppressive heat. He was taken in charge by friends who took him to a cool place and soon restored him. Several ladies, who also were in the crowd, came near fainting, but they were immediately taken to cooler places and did not become unconscious.

MANY CAMERA FIENDS.

Amateur photographers were present during the notification proceedings and dozens of exposures were made of plates while the president was speaking. Several amateurs secured stepadders, while professionals also had their cameras mounted on store boxes placed at advantageous points. There were over 100 cameras in the crowd and the ardent devotees secured every vantage point where they could catch a shot at the president.

POLICE ON DUTY.

The recent rumor respecting an attack on the president had something to do with the large number of police who were on duty. While the president had many secret service men attending him, who were constantly on the watch, the local police lined the walks and scanned every person who stepped into the enclosure which was roped in. The officers also mingled with the crowd. There were no disorderly persons in the crowd, however, and no trouble was experienced.

A DISAPPOINTMENT.

First Year of American Rule Doesn't Meet a Consul's Approval.

[News-Democrat Leased Wire Service.] London, July 12.—The report of the British consul in Cuba for the year 1899 states that the first year of American rule in the island was a disappointment. They expected a revival of trade, inflow of capital and new public works have not materialized. The report says that no responsibility for the nonfulfillment of these promises attaches to the American officials. They worked honestly and in good faith for what they considered to be the best interest of the island. The one thing needed, however, they are powerless to give, namely, the establishment of a permanent form of government.

CANNOT WHIP BOERS.

British Said to Be Very Tired of the Efforts to Defeat Burghers.

[News-Democrat Leased Wire Service.] Manchester, Eng., July 12.—The Guardian reports that Mr. Chamberlain is eager to dissolve parliament and appeal to the country before the Boer war drags on further. Experts have confidentially informed the government that hostilities are likely to continue for two years longer.

The Lydenburg country in the northern Transvaal is well stored with cattle and provisions and there are reserves of Martini-Henry rifles and cartridges which the Boers have not yet touched. The Boers are absolutely irreconcilable to the idea of British rule.

ST. LOUIS STRIKE.

No Violence Reported in the Street Car Strike During Past Twenty-Four Hours.

[News-Democrat Leased Wire Service.] St. Louis, July 12.—The only move looking to the adjustment of the differences between the Transit company and its striking employes thus far has been made by the self-appointed citizens committee, acting in the interest of the business community which has been such an extensive sufferer by the strike and boycott.

The strikers gave out, yesterday, a statement of their side of the case and it is said the company will follow suit today. There was no violence reported during the past 24 hours.

SUGAR IS GOING UP.

One of Mr. Hanna's Pet Trusts Gives It Another Boost.

New York, July 10.—The American Sugar Refining company advanced the price of refined sugar, yesterday, 10 points, which makes the price of granulated 6 cents net. This is the highest price that has been asked for nine years. The advance was immediately followed by all the independent companies.

Safe in China.

Akron, July 12.—Mrs. W. G. Pitkin of this city has received a message from her sister, Mrs. C. W. Pruitt, a missionary in China, stating that she and her husband, with her three children are now safe in Che Foo.

The Pruitts have been in China fourteen years, and have been doing missionary work in Hwang-Hsien, sixty miles west of Che-Foo. They were the only foreigners in that region and had charge of a self-supporting school for boys. Mr. Pruitt was also postmaster under the imperial government at Hwang-Hsien. The family will come to the United States as soon as possible.
