

JUDSON HARMON THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE

WON OUT ON SECOND BALLOT

Judge Rockwell of Portage For Second Place

Bryan and Campbell Win Indorsement—Johnson Gained Victory in Resolutions Committee—A Garber-Finley Ticket.

The following is the state ticket, delegates at large and presidential electors chosen at the Democratic state convention yesterday: Governor—Judson Harmon, Cincinnati. Lieutenant Governor—David S. Rockwell, Portage. Secretary of State—John H. Newman, Miami. State Auditor—W. W. Durbin, Hardin. State Treasurer—D. S. Creamer, Belmont. Supreme Court Judges—Hugh T. Mathers, Shelby, and George B. Okey, Franklin. Attorney General—Timothy S. Hogan, Jackson. Clerk of the Supreme Court—Oliver C. Larson, Leikling. Public Works Board—Bernard Doran, Perry and J. A. States, Allen. Dairy and Food Commissioner—David Eley, Ashland. School Commissioner—John A. McDowell, Holmes. National Delegates—Tom L. Johnson, Cuyahoga; Congressman Mat R. Denver, E. W. Hanley, Dayton, and W. S. Thomas, Springfield. Electors at large—S. A. Hoskins, of Wapakoneta, and John ... of Columbus.

for the third time. The convention went to vote on Williams, Rockwell and Chase. The ballot stood: Rockwell 490, Williams 239, Chase 294. Rockwell was declared the nominee. The voting was done amid intense excitement. At one time members of the Hamilton county delegation almost came to blows. Judge Malloy shouted a charge that money was being used on the floor to gain votes. A significant fact is that after Harmon had received enough votes to nominate him, there was no motion from Mayor Tom's side to make the choice unanimous. This indicates the feeling against Harmon. Mike Davenney was first to wire Harmon of his nomination. Nominations for lieutenant governor were taken up. Frank Cook of Hamilton county presented the name of Senator Tom Schmidt of Cuyahoga, but Schmidt refused the compliment. John Bolan, named by Thos. Doreen of Cuyahoga, also declined, which threw the delegates into an uproar. M. D. Chase of Marion was nominated by W. D. Arnold of Marion. A recess was taken then on motion of C. P. Salen. Protests were ignored. When the convention was called to order Wednesday at 10:30 a. m., over 1000 delegates were present. For the first time Harmon badges were in evidence. Harmon had replied to Mayor Tom's denunciatory statement issued Tuesday, and to his reiteration of it in the convention speech at night, by announcing that he was a receptive candidate. Beyond this he pursued his policy of silence, trusting to his personal popularity to pull him through. Mayor Tom had denounced him as opposed to the initiative and referendum, the franchise tax plank and to W. J. Bryan's candidacy for president. Temporary Chairman E. L. Moore was continued as chairman when the convention organized. Senator B. F. Gayman as secretary and B. S. Bartlow as sergeant-at-arms. Rev.

HAYWOOD

Denounced Capital and Rooseveltism Before a Large Massillon Audience

PLEADS FOR SOCIALISM

Massillon, May 6.—William D. Haywood, famous in the great Boise City trial last year, spoke this evening in the Trades and Labor Assembly hall before about 500 persons. R. J. Wheeler was acting chairman and in introducing the speaker, he read a vigorous denial of the reports recently circulated to the effect that Haywood had been ousted from the Western Federation of Miners. He had been relieved of his duties as secretary of the organization at his own request and to the regret of the members of the Federation. After this formal introduction Mr. Haywood took the rostrum. He is heavily and well built; bold and fearless in appearance; and as a speaker, he at intervals either kept his audience in an uproar of laughter or had them verging closely towards tears. With simile and metaphor, he relentlessly attacked the politicians of the day. Taft, he declared was "fitted of granting an injunction which 'fit a union man as well as a tailored suit' and 'the leaders of the Democratic party took the measure.'" In reply to the question "what can a man do if he is starving?" he said, Taft had answered "God knows;" Bryan by a half column article, and a Prohibitionist by "Quit drinking." The Socialist party he maintained is the only one that can successfully answer the question. "We propose that the factories shall be operated, and operated by the people, so that the workingman can get the greatest good out of his labor. The capitalists have openly displayed their inability to operate factories but we will put all men back to work and also the capitalists alongside of them." He gave the following definition for "capitalism": "It is the difference between the wages that you receive and the value of the product that you produce." "Workingmen now produce so many shoes that they must go barefoot; so many clothes that they must go naked; so much food that they must starve; and so much coal that they must be locked out in the winter time." He brought a wild burst of laughter from the audience when he asked: "Do you propose to starve while J. P. Morgan buys priceless pictures from Rome, while the Vanderbilt family and more child labor laws. An employers' liability law.

NEW ORLEANS IS STRUCK BY BIG WIND AND RAIN

New Orleans, May 6.—Another severe wind, rain, hail and electrical storm prevailed throughout Louisiana, Arkansas and neighboring states last night, and early this morning. The wind rose to forty miles an hour in New Orleans and the lightning was about the worst ever known here, the thunder roaring without cessation for several hours, and a large number of buildings were struck and hundreds of telephones put out of business. A portion of the roof of the Gruenwald hotel was torn away by lightning. The customs house, Playume office and other buildings were struck. A number of persons were shocked. Joseph Lillac and Edward Leslie died of fright of the lightning and thunder and Miss Lillie Buhler is critically ill from the same cause. The hail which was general throughout southern and central Louisiana did much damage to the crops.

JEROME

Says Campaign Contributions Are Legitimate and That Corporations Need the Newspapers

CLOSES HIS DEFENSE

New York, May 6.—District Attorney Jerome closed today his defense to the King committee charges against him that have been heard by Commissioner Robert L. Hand. The district attorney explained why he had not advised the indictment of George W. Perkins and Thomas F. Ryan, charged that a member of the January grand jury attempted to engineer a stock raid, and defamed the Metropolitan contributions to political organizations and a newspaper now defunct by saying that it was policy to be friendly with the city officers who could block the traction company's plans, and that a street car line needed a newspaper friend. He said he regarded these contributions as legitimate. As to ice matters Mr. Jerome said that the contracts sent him by the attorney general had never been brought to the attention of the grand jury because Mr. Smyth had regarded the evidence as inadequate to justify action. New Philadelphia—Two local young men paid $50 for buggy ride. Horse was abused and buggy injured. Akron—Morris Goldberg, 45, found unconscious with poison bottle by side. Canal Dover—Temperance forces of Tuscarawas county preparing for local option election. FOR WALL PAPER AND HOUSE CLEANING CALL 1421, STARK. New Philadelphia—Elizabeth Neidreiser, 25, died in hospital at Gailpells.

BATTLESHIP FLEET ENTERED THE GOLDEN GATE

Under Command of Rear Admiral Evans

Entire Coast Went Wild Over Arrival of Most Powerful Armada That Ever Sailed the Seas Under One Command.

San Francisco, May 6.—The battleship fleet was led into port by Rear Admiral Evans in person, anchored off the southern part of this city at 2:15 this afternoon and San Francisco went into a transport of joy. Hundreds of thousands crowded the hills for miles. All seemed to go mad at the sight of the fleet. The yellow peril faded out of sight. Japan for the time being was wiped off the map. San Francisco's dream had come true. She had all the battleships Uncle Sam could scrape together right where she could see them. She was as happy as a mother hen clucking to her brood. The entrance into the Golden Gate was as dramatic as even President Roosevelt could have wished it. The fleet had anchored over night at the lightship ten miles out. Soon after daybreak a fog shut out the Golden Gate. It remained closed until Evans gave the orders for the fleet to get under way. Then Old Sol decided to get into the game. He burst through clouds, drove the fog away and opened the gate wide. It was just as if he said: "Evans, everything is now ready; kindly sail inside." The fleet consisted of eighteen battleships, the torpedo flotilla and half a dozen auxiliaries as it sailed in. The battleships Nebraska and Wisconsin which are to go around the world with the fleet, displaced the Maine and Alabama and took their places in column, the Nebraska joining Admiral Emory's division and the Wisconsin Admiral Sperry's. The torpedo flotilla and the Yankton were on the left flank of the fleet. All the ships had battle flags at the fore and main. The fleet sailed in at ten knots speed. Long before the gate was reached, vast crowds on the hills could be made out. It was such an outpouring as the fleet has not seen any where on its voyage, not even at Rio. Inside the harbor the shipping was congregated clear of the Fairway which was half a mile wide. As soon as the gate was reached the hubbub began. It really amounted to tumult. You could hear the tens of thousands cheer on the hills. Every eminence was packed. Hundreds of boats, ocean steamers, yachts, ferry boats, sailing vessels and row boats were out loaded to the gunwales. All the large ships in the harbor were anchored and all the small ones had to keep out of the way. (Continued on Page Two.)

HIGHWAYMAN AT WORK LAST NIGHT; ATTACKED WOMAN

The report of a daring hold-up came to the police station by telephone on Wednesday night about 10 o'clock, but the party sending the message was too much excited to give the particulars before she rang off. Some woman sent a message that a man had robbed a woman of her purse in North Cleveland avenue, near St. Peter's Catholic church. The turnkey called the officer on the square and Patrolman Bour visited the locality at once. He could not find anything wrong and sometime later made a report to this effect. In the meantime the shock of the attack wore off and another message was received about the same matter. This time more particulars were received by Chief Smith. He was informed that Mrs. Sammett, while passing the corner of North street and McKinley avenue in company with three other women was the party assaulted and robbed. It was said that a tall man dressed in black ran up to the women and snatched a purse containing about $4.50 from the hands of the woman and that he ran south in McKinley avenue and was soon lost in the darkness. It was raining at the time, so the informant said, and the job was accomplished so suddenly that the women scarcely knew what had happened at the time.

WHITLOCK

Of Toledo Being Boomed For Governor on an Independent Ticket

JOHNSON A SUPPORTER

Columbus, O., May 6.—On the heels of the nomination for governor of Judson Harmon by the Democratic state convention today, a move to put Brand Whitlock, mayor of Toledo, on the "ballot" this fall as an independent candidate for the governorship was put under way. Tonight hundreds of signatures to the petition necessary to gain him a place on the ticket were obtained in Toledo, where he has been three elected mayor by the Independents. The Whitlock men were denied seats in the state convention, John Dolan having jockeyed them in the Democratic primary call in Lucas county. It is reported among delegates still here that the Whitlock movement has gained among the delegates to the convention and that Mayor Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland, backer of Atlee Pomerene, of Canton, is giving the movement his silent support. Still Harping on Another County. Alliance, May 6.—A petition is now in circulation for signers, and will be presented to the next session of the Ohio general assembly as a result of the fact that the proposition has been revived to make the 89th county in Ohio out of a portion of Stark, Columbiana and Mahoning counties, the new county to be named McKinley with the county seat Alliance. Merry Widow band will give a dance at Olympia Rink Thursday night.

HORRORS OF THE LAPORTE MURDER MILL

Increase as New Developments Are Made

Remains of More Bodies Have Been Found and it is Thought the Number of Victims May Reach Over a Score.

Laporte, Ind., May 6.—The horrors of the murder mill at the late home of Mrs. Belle Guinness are increasing with the finding of additional bodies and there is little doubt but the number of murders may be swelled to a score or more when all the facts are known. One body, making the sixth, was added to the list today when diggers unearthed the remains of a man and within an hour the detached bones of two other victims were found. The sheriff is arranging to have the ground of the entire yard excavated to a depth of five or six feet. The skeleton of a man was found today about five feet from where four of the bodies were found yesterday. It had apparently occupied a wooden box five feet long. The box was thin and had rotted away in the soft ground. The skeleton was lying face downward and had apparently been carelessly dumped into the box. Detached bones were also found today among a pile of stones. It was reported that two more bodies had been unearthed, but this rumor proved to be untrue. The finding of the man's skeleton today may prove conclusively that two men who visited the Guinness home about the same time a year ago are the victims. One of them was a young man, a stranger, who was known as the sweetheart of Jennie Olson and was to have married her, but he disappeared. The other may be a middle aged Swede from a town near Minneapolis and who answered one of Mrs. Guinness' advertisements. He came here and spent several days during which time he had a draft for $1000 honored on a Minneapolis bank. The money went to Mrs. Guinness. Sheriff Smulzer obtained the name of the man from Cashier J. W. Crumpacker, of the Laporte Savings bank, today, but both refused to divulge it until it is known whether the man is missing. In a statement this afternoon, Postmaster Small made known that the

ROOSEVELT IS CHOICE OF TEXAS REPUBLICANS

Austin, May 6.—Incomplete reports from Republican county conventions held throughout the state yesterday indicate that a majority of them selected Roosevelt delegations to state conventions which are to select delegates to the Republican national convention. Many of the delegations are instructed outright to send Roosevelt delegates to the national convention and others are un instructed but with the understanding that they favor Roosevelt, as first choice. A few of the counties instructed for Taft for first choice in the event Roosevelt's name is not placed before the convention. It is practically certain at the state and congressional delegations will send a solid Roosevelt delegation to the national convention with Taft for second choice.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM FLAYS REPUBLICAN MACHINE BOSSES

Columbus, May 6.—The scheme of the reactionaries to send an un instructed delegation from Ohio to the Democratic national convention was shattered in the resolutions committee. The indorsement of Bryan is unqualified. Ohio's delegates are instructed to vote for the Nebraskaan, first, last and all the time. The committee went into session at 4 p. m. Tuesday, and it was 2:30 a. m. Wednesday before its report was ready. The first test vote showed Johnson in control by 17 to 4. After a declaration that the Democracy of Ohio casts its efforts for the cause of the people against the interests, the platform "sets its face against the privileges, outlawed or legal," by which the masses "are despoiled." "We therefore favor the initiative and referendum in state and local matters," it says. Provisions of the instrument call for: Revision of the Ohio system of taxation to distribute more equably the burden. A franchise tax law "upon the value added to the tangible property of public service corporations by the franchisees they enjoy. An eight-hour day on public work and more child labor laws. An employers' liability law. Liberal road and canal improvement appropriations. The platform denounced the Republican machine and its heads in the offices of state auditor and state treasurer. It accuses the auditor of building a machine "for the interests" of refusing to tax public service corporations, permitting them to write their own tax bills, or wasting the public funds on political examinations in counties and cities and neglecting to audit properly the treasury department. It continues: "The state has lost more than $100,000 a year by the failure of the treasurer to take advantage of the depository laws, failure to keep books showing the deposits by him, his insolent refusal to answer questions from the legislature upon the subject; and the spectacle of enormous sums of state money deposited in banks owned and offered by the state treasurer, his deputy, and the state auditor, who refuses to audit, disclosed peril to the public funds and scandal in the management of these great offices. "The state treasurer is employed to enrich the friends of the system by and through the Republican organization. Three hundred thousand dollars of the people's money is now in the bank of the chief Republican boss of the state, and this boss at the last Republican convention fore-
