

CARROLLTON.

Carrollton, June 11.—The Republican nomination convention held Saturday was one of the hottest contests of the kind ever waged in the county. A full county ticket was nominated and the fight for several of the offices was very close. There were three commissioners to nominate and there were six candidates, including Messrs. Brooks and DeFord for renomination. These two were renominated, and Otto Elek, of Harrison township, in the new man selected. In the auditorship there were only two candidates, V. G. Stoddy, of Dell Roy, and Will H. Coleman, of Carrollton. The latter was renominated with a margin of 120. The representative contest was waged by J. B. Essig and Jesse Marshall, of Carrollton, and R. S. Tidrick, of Sherodsville. Mr. Tidrick was successful over Mr. Essig by a plurality of two votes. The remainder of the ticket was either for renomination or had no opposition. On Monday the central committee met and organized by electing the following officers: S. Q. Morrow, Carrollton, chairman; A. E. Johnston, of Augusta, secretary; M. V. Cline, of Washington township, treasurer.

Stewart Miller is home from Germany, where he is attending a military academy. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Butler celebrated the thirtieth anniversary of their wedding on Friday. There were many out of town relatives present. The potters' excursion Monday to Rock Springs park at East Liverpool attracted 211 from Carrollton. All places of business were closed and it was a very quiet day. Good order prevailed, and it was pronounced one of the best excursions that ever left the city. The Carrollton band accompanied the crowd. Howard Blazer and daughter, of Salineville, were in Carrollton on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Henderson and daughter went to East Liverpool on Saturday in their auto and were there Monday for the potters' picnic. Prof. I. B. Phillips, who has been employed at Cleveland, has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Clemens for the past few days. Samuel Andrews, of Mechanicstown, was in town Saturday.
