Complaints reach us from Richmond, Stark, and other counties in Ohio, of heat in wheat, and of ravages by the weevil. But we have reason to believe that these evils are not very extensive in their operations.

THE OLD QUAKER'S ARGUMENT.—In these days of wild excitement, when rebellion is rife in the land, we find among many of our moderate and peace loving citizens exemplifications of the following story, which is told in the article entitled "The Book-Hunter," in the May number of Blackwood's Magazine. The hero of it was the first Quaker that Barclay family which produced the apologist and pugilist. He was a Colonel in the great civil wars, and had seen wild work in his day; but in his old age a change came over him, and becoming a follower of GEORGE FOX, he retired to spend the remainder of his life on his ancestral estate in Kinrosshire.

Here it came to pass that a brother laid thought the old Quaker could be easily done, and began to encroach upon his marches.—Decent, a strong man, with the iron sides of his race, and their fierce spirit still burning in his eyes, strode up to the encroacher, and, with a grim smile, spoke thus:

"Friend, thou knowest I have become a man of peace and have relinquished strife, and therefore thou art endeavoring to take what is not thine own, but mine, because thou believest that, having shorn the arm of flesh, I cannot hinder thee. And yet, as thy friend, I advise thee to desist, for shouldst thou succeed in robbing the old Adam within me, perchance he may prove too strong, not only for me, but for thee."

The Boston Atlas proposes as a way to get rid of the negroes, to put them under the command of Gen. SCHENCK.

The Circleville Herald gives a glowing account of the crop prospects in the garden county of Pickaway. The wheat never looked better; corn is growing finely, and oats look well.

It is idle as well as absurd to impose our opinions upon others. The same ground of conviction operates differently on the same man in different circumstances, and on different men in the same circumstances.

Eighty horses, twenty wagons and teamsters left Bellaire on Wednesday, by railroad, for the use of the army.

Dispatches from Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 26. General Dix has had several interviews with the Secretary of War and Gen. Scott, to-day, and the subject of the future programme in this immediate vicinity, undoubtedly under discussion.

Four foreigners arrived at Alexandria to-day on passes signed by the British Consul at Richmond and ex-Governor Leitch. They state that Richmond is well fortified, and but few troops there, most of them having been sent to Norfolk and Manassas.

It is now officially denied that Gen. McClellan made any such agreement with Backus as was reported. Rumors reached the city to-night by special steamer from Fortress Monroe, that a reconnoitering party fired into the Rebel battery at the Point last night, and seven killed and many wounded.

The names of Capt. Danby H. Maury, Assistant Adjutant General, Carter L. Stephenson, 5th Infantry, and 2d Lieut. Edward Dillon, 6th Infantry, all of which have been struck out from the roll of the army, for entertaining an expressing treasonable designs against the Government of the United States.

Reliable information has been received here exposing a cunningly devised plot of the Rebels to possess themselves of the California steamers running to Panama. Their plan is to place upon these steamers as they leave port, a number of men in the capacity of stowaway passengers, who shall, after getting to Panama, take power the crew and seize the steamers. By such maneuvers they hope to possess the treasure transported upon these vessels, to replenish their empty treasury, and also to possess themselves of the California steamers, and use the latter as privateers to prey upon our commerce.

John Tompkins's Cavalry discovered that 200 Rebels had advanced to Vienna and re-established a battery; it is thought, for an attack, but to induce Federal troops to advance within reach of their concealed batteries.

A movement is afoot to elect Emerson Etheridge Secretary of the Senate. He will accept, if chosen.

An election for State Senator to represent Fairfax county, Virginia, will occur on Saturday, but no voting is expected, except within the lines of the Confederate army.

Mr. Chandler, a Bell and Everett elector for Virginia, has arrived here from Norfolk, and expressed his being forced into the Confederate service.

Col. Wier left here several days ago for Kansas, taking with him Gen. Lane's proclamation, calling on the people of that State to rally and fill up the regiments, stating explicitly his purpose to put down rebellion wherever it should exhibit itself, and to sustain Union men without regard to State or locality.

Senator James H. Lane has received his commission as a Brigadier General.

In addition to the three regiments heretofore accepted from Kansas, he is authorized to raise two, consisting of twelve companies of infantry, four of cavalry and four of artillery.

It is ascertained on reliable authority, that it is the fixed determination of the Government to fully maintain and protect in their Constitutional and legal rights, all those citizens of Tennessee, who, in their devotion to the Union, are now struggling to wrest their State from the hands of the usurpers.

It will defend all loyal States against parties thereof claiming to have seceded, and afford them every protection against domestic violence, insurrection or invasion. The government will furnish the citizens of such States unable to defend themselves with arms, accoutrements and provisions, and will speedily aid them with men and arms, in sustaining the constituted authorities of the United States.

The Postoffice Department, in consideration of the loyalty of the citizens of East Tennessee, has made arrangements for furnishing them with increased postal facilities. The mails will hereafter be sent thither by Cincinnati instead of Louisville.

A refugee from Richmond, by the flag of truce boat, yesterday, says that worse than the Roman Inquisition prevails in Virginia. There is a standing order that no one shall be permitted to leave the country. Gov. Letcher is completely overruled by Jeff. Davis and Beauregard, and a renegade patriotism is called in question by the Rebels.

The suit to test the legality of the blockade of the Nashville Road yesterday, was drawn by the shippers prosecuting it. It is generally understood that Mr. Guthrie, the President of the road, will assume the responsibility and accept of the suit.

Large quantities of contraband goods are said to go over the road to inland Kentucky towns, and thence to Tennessee.

Two fugitive slaves, caught near Corydon, Indiana, were returned to Kentucky yesterday. There was no excitement whatever at their arrest.

Maj. Gen. Pillow issues two proclamations in the Memphis Bulletin of the 24th. One recalls the order that whiskey and tobacco be distributed with the rations, and the other orders on his own responsibility, supposing the military board would allow it, knowing the soldiers were gentlemen, and used to plenty of whiskey and tobacco.

The order that all the goods in the North are by law now due the State, and are declared as such, and sequestered, and in refusal for illegal seizures by the people of the North.

Banks are required to state what amount of stock is owned by enemies of the State, and all such enemies are ordered to pay such indebtedness to the State only. These reports are returnable July 10th, from Hopkinsville, Ky., says two military companies of Christian county went to Clarksville, Tenn., and took the oath of the Southern Confederacy. They afterwards voted in the late election.

The Gunboat R. O. Tyler which got on the rocks below the Canal last evening, is likely to remain there for the present, as the river is falling.

Four companies of Col. Stevenson's Seventh Regiment, under Major Curry, left Booneville this evening, where they got into camp. Two companies of Col. Steffel's Regiment, detached to Jefferson City, left on the same train. Nothing new from the West. It is understood, however, that Gen. Lyon has not left Booneville, as previously reported.

Two deserters of the Pennsylvania Regiment have been arrested and probably will be shot as examples.

A number of our troops left Williamsport for Falling Waters last night.

Information from his official, say a forward movement will be made when sufficient artillery and means of transportation can be had.
