NEWS FROM THE SOUTH.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Wm. H. Johnson, of the Lincoln cavalry, has been sentenced to be shot, and will be executed to-morrow.

Senator Sumner read an indignant letter from Gov. Andrew, remonstrating against the employment of Massachusetts men in the disgraceful business of slave catching, as had been done on the upper Potomac. Secretary Cameron promptly referred the letter to Gen. Stone, with an emphatic request that he would see to it that the men of color who entered the camps under his command, were treated liberally in the spirit of the orders concerning fugitives from slavery, which the Secretary of War had already given to the commanding Generals.

The President has reappointed Col. Mulligan in the command of his regiment, by an order of Gen. Halleck. The commissions of all regimental officers expire when their regiments are mustered out of service. Col. Mulligan and his command having been allowed to remain in the service, were mustered in, but an exception has been made in their case.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The steamer Stepping Stone came up the Potomac to-day from the upper flotilla. She reports that she went up the mouth of the Occoquan a short distance, and was met by a body of rebel heavy artillery. She also reports that the rebels have greatly increased their force at the mouth of the Occoquan.

The first military execution since the commencement of the rebellion took place to-day. Johnson, the deserter, was shot to-day in presence of Gen. Franklin's division.

The water will be discharged from the Georgetown Aqueduct, and it will be used as a means of increasing traveling facilities with Virginia.

Further from Fort Pickens. New York, Dec. 12.—A letter from Key West of the 5th inst., states their Peninsular despatches are of the 26th inst. The Peninsular despatches are of the 21st inst. The Peninsular despatches are of the 21st inst.

Expected Attack on Somerset, Ky. CINCINNATI, Dec. 13.—The Commercial's Frankfort despatch says no fight at Somerset up to 8 o'clock to-day. Zollicoffer advancing, and reinforcements probably coming to his assistance.

The Ohio Hotel Stamford this morning at daylight at double-quick, to assist Gen. Schoff. There is without doubt a rebel force at Owingsville, Bath county.

Humphrey Marshall is invading Eastern Kentucky, and has been reported to have taken the Mt. Sterling Whig issuing a call for Unionists to rally and resist certain dangers.

Mexican Privates—New York May. New York, Dec. 12.—I freely state that there are a number of letters of marque in this city issued by the Mexican Government to prey on the commerce of England, France and Spain, and that vessels are fitting out here, which have a right to do so, under a similar flag to that of the United States.

Another letter states that one of Wilson's Zouaves was killed and another wounded on the 22d.

About 2500 guns were fired in the two days. At 3 P. M. on the 23d, Warrington was set on fire by our gun, and in place, with nearly all the water destroyed.

The steamer Times was disabled by the first shot.

The rebel fire slackened on the second day. The command of Wilson's Zouaves was in charge of the batteries near the Fort; two companies arriving on the Fort, and the remainder of the regiment have work in the trenches to repel midnight attacks.

The heaviest rebel guns are near the light-house, and their best mortars are on both sides of the hospital. The water battery below Fort McKee is a bad customer. The ranges of our artillerymen are splendid.

A note dated the 24th, states that Col. Brown prohibited firing on the rebels first opened in the Sabbath.

One of our guns burst yesterday. The rebels have evidently suffered much.

From Port Royal. New York, Dec. 12.—The brig T. W. Rowland, from Rio, at St. Thomas, Nov. 27, confirms the reported escape of the Sumter from Martinique. The Ironquels returned to St. Thomas on the 25th.

The gunboat Dauphin arrived at St. Thomas on the 23d, and was dispatched with coal and provisions for the Ironquels, but missed her.

Capt. Dupont, in his communication to the Navy Department, dated December 4, says the apprehension of losing possession of the bay of St. Helena, so exceedingly valuable for a base of operations, has induced him to send a command of secured large forces, supplying interior communication with South Carolina, and induce him to dispatch a second expedition there under Commander Dupont, with orders to hold the island until Gen. Sherman is prepared to assume military occupation of it, when he will transfer the force to his troops.

It seems to be understood, in addition to our occupation of Beaufort, Gen. Vile was at once to be sent with considerable force to occupy the most important point in the new approaches to Savannah, and that another force will go about the same time on a similar expedition in the direction of Charleston, to hold certain strategic positions.

The North American of this morning has the following: A letter received in this city from an officer in the army at Fort Royal, dated Hilton Head, Dec. 5, says: "Last night a fleet arrived for a last time with twenty-five thousand troops. Savannah and Charleston will soon be ours."

Three hundred boats, each thirty-two feet long, are being shipped by Burnside's expedition.

The Captain of the Ironquels Charged with Losing the Sumter.

New York, Dec. 13.—The brig Thomas W. Rowland, Capt. Rowland, from Rio Janeiro via St. Thomas, Nov. 27, arrived at this port last night.

Capt. Rowland states that the Captain of the U. S. gunboat Ironquels is entirely to blame for the escape of the Sumter. The Captain of the gunboat, on the night of the 23d of November, with signal lights, and gave him instructions to signalize to him the movements of the Sumter; and on the night of the 23d of November, signals were made by the man on shore that the Ironquels was to be sent out to sea, saying that it would be very unpleasant for him to capture her, as he and Capt. Semmes had been schoolmates, and had sailed very much together, and Captain Semmes had been his superior officer.

Another reason that the Captain of the Ironquels gave, that he did not wish to break the neutrality laws.

The movements of the Sumter were seen from the deck of the Ironquels.

These facts were given at St. Thomas, the greatest indignation prevailed among the Americans in port and all others friendly to the United States.

Affairs in Kentucky. LOUISVILLE, Dec. 13.—The Bowling Green Courier of the 7th depreciates the discouraging effect of the burning of Whippelville Bridge, on the Memphis Branch Railroad, by the Federals. It corresponds says nothing indicates a forward movement of either army.

Tennessee news was fifteen to twenty per cent. discount twenty days ago, and is now thirty-five per cent. discount.

The Savannah Republican urges Davis to send Wm. R. Rives and John J. Ward to England and France.

The Courier says five thousand Kentuckians are in the rebel army.

A letter from Somerset, dated the 7th inst., confirms the charge by the rebels of Major Helvet and Capt. Price.

J. R. Richardson, Postmaster of Somerset, writes under date of the 10th inst., that Zollicoffer had crossed the Cumberland twenty miles below Waverston, on a bridge of coal barges, with nine thousand to fifteen thousand troops. We expect a fight to-morrow. The Federal force under General Schoff consists of six regiments of Infantry and two batteries.

The Democrats discredited the story, falling to get a confirmation from his correspondent.

At Bagdad, Ky., a party of secessionists were endeavoring to make Union men take the oath of allegiance to the Southern Confederacy. Col. Whittaker, learning this, sent a squad to apprehend the secessionists. One of the secessionists, Whittaker, who had the odds being too great, proceeded with troops to Jacksonville, where a skirmish last evening took place.

From Missouri. St. Louis, Dec. 13.—In order to suppress entirely and prevent any aid or assistance to or communication with any person or persons directly or indirectly disloyal to the Government, the Federal Government, the entire commerce of the Mississippi and Missouri Rivers has been placed under military control and surveillance, and no boat will be permitted to take on board any arms, munitions, or other articles, except those authorized and commissioned by the proper military authority. All owners, officers and employees on boats will be required to take a solemn oath of allegiance; and any person committing any act contrary to the above expressed object of the order, will cause immediate forfeiture of the boat and cargo to the Federal Government, and such owner or officer be subject to the penalties prescribed by the articles of war for giving aid to the enemy.

On the morning of the 31st the steamers again appeared. Col. Brown disabled one of the other escaped. A general cannonade then took place between Fort Pickens and Fort Barrancas, the Niagara and Richmond opening on Fort McKee and several of the latter were disabled. The engagement lasted nearly two whole days. Fort McKee was silenced, and also the water batteries in reach of the Richmond's guns. No persons injured aboard the Niagara. Jas. Cook was the person killed on the Richmond. Both vessels were slightly damaged in their upper works. Fort Pickens had not even a sand bag displaced by the fire of Fort Barrancas.

On the 24th, while removing a fuse from a shell, it exploded, killing five men and wounding many others.

Col. Brown says he has Fort Barrancas completely at his mercy, and is awaiting sufficient reinforcements to hold the forts, when he shall take them.

Another letter states that one of Wilson's Zouaves was killed and another wounded on the 22d.

About 2500 guns were fired in the two days. At 3 P. M. on the 23d, Warrington was set on fire by our gun, and in place, with nearly all the water destroyed.
