W. B. BRADBURY'S Piano-Forte Establishment, No. 427 Broom Street, New York.

THE subscriber respectfully invites the attention of his friends and the public generally to his Piano-Forte Establishment, at No. 427 Broom Street, New York.

Having withdrawn his interest, stock and materials from the late firm of "Light & Bradbury," which firm was dissolved on the 31st January ult., and having purchased the entire stock of Piano-Fortes and Piano-Forte Materials, owned by his brother, Edward G. Bradbury, in the said firm, he is now prepared to supply the increased demand for his celebrated Piano-Fortes.

Employing the most skillful and experienced workmen, with a large stock of the best and most thoroughly seasoned material, and an abundance of Capital, he has taken in hand the personal supervision of the whole business of manufacturing his instruments, and is enabled to turn out Piano-Fortes of unequalled tone and durability.

BRADBURY'S NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE—in the arrangement of our new scale, drawn up and prepared with the most care, expressly for our new instruments, we have added every improvement which can in any way tend to the perfection of the Piano-Forte, and we can confidently assert, that for delivery of tone, volume, brilliancy and sweetness of tone, combined with that strength and solidity of frame necessary to durability, these instruments are unequalled.

"STRENGTH AND BEAUTY" is our motto, and we invite the closest criticism of the best unbiased judges in the land. Every instrument warranted for five years.

The Radical Abolition Germans and Military Authorities in St. Louis—Gen. Halleck.

The Radical Abolition Germans of St. Louis have apparently been brought in collision with the military authorities in Missouri. They recently adopted the idea of celebrating the Camp Jackson anniversary by an immense meeting, which should demand of the President the dismissal of General Halleck from the chief command of the army. This object being freely avowed in the German papers, the following order was issued:

ORDER OF GENERAL DAVIDSON. (BRIGADIER-GENERAL ST. LOUIS DISTRICT, ST. LOUIS, MO., MAY 9, 1863.)

Messrs. Emil Pretorius, R. O. Rombauer, James Tamm, Esq.,

GENTLEMEN—I have just been shown a published notice from you, as an appointed committee to the citizens of St. Louis, for a public meeting at Concordia Park, on Sunday the 10th inst., for the discussion of our national affairs, etc.

I have to say that much of the object of your meeting is referred to recommending to the President the dismissal of Major General Halleck from the chief command of the army, which is a measure which I consider to be a violation of the duty which you owe to your country, and which I consider to be a violation of the duty which you owe to your country, and which I consider to be a violation of the duty which you owe to your country.

I am, gentlemen, very respectfully, Your obedient servant, J. W. DAVIDSON, Brigadier-General Commanding.

Notwithstanding this express prohibition of the military, the Abolition Germans assembled, and passed, among others, the following resolutions:

"That we regard it as one of the noblest rights of freedom is probably assembled and that the Chief Executive for a redress of grievances, believing this to be the only proper manner in which the wishes of the people of this city and district, and must be discarded from your discussions on that day.

"It is not the intention of the military authorities to interfere with the peaceful assembly of citizens for the purpose of delivering their opinions upon national affairs, but those of a political character will not be permitted.

"You must refer, gentlemen, that it is in these times the duty of every citizen to support the President and his appointed agents.

"I am, gentlemen, very respectfully, Your obedient servant, J. W. DAVIDSON, Brigadier-General Commanding."

TELEGRAPHIC.

Morning and Noon Dispatches.

Our Southern Fleet.

New York, May 16.—The steamer Ocean Queen from Annapolis has arrived.

Private advices received here state that the iron-clad vessels of the South Atlantic fleet were on the 10th of May thoroughly repaired, all injuries done by the forts having been remedied. The armor on the hull and turret is now perfect. It was generally believed that the 15 inch guns would be replaced by others of smaller bore, and in two of the vessels preparations were in progress to ship away the pieces. Captain Rogers is the senior officer in charge.

FROM WASHINGTON.

New York, May 16.—A dispatch from Washington says: Gen. Stahl, a day or two since, set a scouting party to look for rebel forces. None were found in force. The skirmish with the Black Horse cavalry near Warrenton Junction resulted in killing sixteen and wounding several rebel soldiers. We had three wounded.

A special to the Tribune says: The last of our wounded left on the other side of the Rapidan has been brought across the river. As good care was taken of them while they remained in the enemy's lines as could reasonably be expected. Our surgeons have been with them ever since Hooker crossed the river. Medical stores sent over at the suggestion of Lee, were taken possession of by the rebels, but were issued to our surgeons on proper requisitions. The death of both sides have been buried.

The record in Gen. Bull's case has arrived here. There is reason to believe that the findings of the Court are such as show that the President had ample reason for removing Bull from the command of the Department of the Cumberland, and that the Government only erred in postponing his removal so long.

It is said that the doing so of Stonewall Jackson was a request that Gen. Bull might be assigned to command of the troops.

A special to the World says: Gen. Hooker came up from the army last night, and to-day had an interview with the President, lasting for some time, after which he returned to the army in a special boat. From what I can learn Hooker returned to retain his present command and conduct the army as directed by Halleck throughout another advance, whenever such shall be determined on. This you may consider reliable as present.

The Herald's dispatch of the 15th says the President has been elected to-day with Gen. Sickles.

Upon Gen. Heintzelman's report, the President has restored Gen. Strong to his rank.

Washington, May 16.—It is reported that a number of Rebels and men daily arrive from the Rapidan and get leave of absence and go home, as regarded as an indication that the army will not move at present.

FROM KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, May 15.—Col. Jacobs, in Sunday's fight with the rebels Clark and Chesnut at Horse Shoe, Cotton Narrows, on the Cumberland, lost forty-two men, including three officers. Capt. Chesnut and several other rebel officers and thirty-eight of their men were killed and three taken prisoner. Gen. J. H. Morgan was in command with nine regiments, in the aggregate four thousand men, which are still on the south side of the Cumberland, only squads having crossed at different points.

Col. Graham at Glasgow killed several rebels and drove two hundred to the south side of the Cumberland on Wednesday. There is no considerable force of rebels on the north side of that river.

Morgan's proposed raid into Kentucky has been defeated by the forces of Col. Boyle and Holman, and the 20th Michigan Regiment, under Col. Jacobs, at Narrows.

Mexican News.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The general tone of advices from Mexico received at the State Department to-day, is unfavorable to the French, who had on the 21st ult. made slight progress toward the capture of Puebla. The Mexicans were defending the place with desperate courage. Comfort had received reinforcements, and was about to assume the offensive. Gen. Forey was believed to be in a perilous situation.

Stonewall Jackson Shot by His Own Men.

New York, May 15.—Richmond papers say there is no doubt that Jackson's wound was inflicted by the mistake of his own men. He received three balls in the left arm and hand. This occurred after dark Saturday. Having given orders to fire on anything coming up the road before the line of the line, and on seeing Federal skirmishers before him, he ordered to retreat, and was shot by his own men. His general was very large, attended by J. F. Davis and Cabinet, etc. His body was sent to Lexington. A statue will be erected in the Capitol.

Unreliable rumors are going the rounds of a great land and naval battle at Vicksburg. Rebutals of telegrams of the 11th say nothing of it.

Rebel News.

JACKSON, Miss., May 11.—Elyon of Grant's cavalry entered and burned Cross Springs, on the New Orleans railroad, to-day at 12 o'clock. The army are fortifying at Rocky Springs and Western Springs. Gen. Osterhaus is at Cayuga with five hundred cavalry and six or seven regiments of infantry. The enemy are reinforcing at Willow Springs and Rocky Springs, from the river. Grant will probably advance east, and not direct to Vicksburg.

Vicksburg, May 11.—Nothing of importance transpired to-day. A large load with coal had past the batteries last night. The enemy's fleet above the city is increasing.

CHARLESTON, May 12.—The steamer Britain, with merchandise, has arrived through the blockade. She started from Nassau on Thursday in company with the steamer Natchez, which has not yet been heard from.

WILMINGTON, May
