STATE AND LOCAL

There is a DAILY UNION PRAYER MEETING, at 8 A. M., for half an hour, in the Basement of the First Presbyterian Church...

S. D. THATCHER, Esq., of the Express Company, furnishes us Eastern papers in advance of the mail. He has our thanks.

Miss SALLIE ST. CLAIR's benefit to-night! Three great pieces!

The 33d O. V. I. arrived at Cincinnati on Wednesday.

A LEADING Lincolnite paper says that "even if the Administration has committed some mistakes, it is useless to cry over spilt milk."

Mrs. LINCOLN's friends, says a Washington dispatch to an Administration paper, explain the basis of the statement recently made, that she sent from the White House conservatories, the flowers for Fernando Wood's reception...

BARRAS in the Hypochondriac to-night!

THE JUDGESHIP—Rufus King, of Cincinnati, has been tendered the seat on the Supreme Bench made vacant by the declination of H. H. Hunter. Mr. King also declined the proffered honor.

ELLISLER'S ATHENEUM—Miss St. Clair's BENEFIT—A SPLENDID BILL—The drama of "Aurora Floyd" was performed last night before a full house. Miss St. Clair depicted Aurora's alternations of fervid and wild passion in her usual successful manner.

We were pleased to see Mrs. Dickson last night in front of the stage. We hope we may have the pleasure next week of seeing her upon the stage.

The public will be gratified at the announcement that Miss Sallie St. Clair takes a benefit at the Atheneum to-night, at which will be played the pleasing drama of the "Jew's Daughter"—Miss St. Clair as Leah, the Jewess; and that most popular and ineffably mirth-provoking satirical comedy of the "Hypochondriac"—Mr. Charles Barras representing Mr. Vertigo Morbid in his truly imitable style...

BAR MEETING.—At 9 o'clock, on Thursday morning, a meeting of the Bar of Ohio was held in the Supreme Court Room, to pay a tribute of respect to the memory of General Charles B. Goddard, deceased, and was organized by appointing Gen. Samson Mason, Chairman, and Henry C. Noble, Secretary.

THE ladies, individually and collectively, without a single exception, pronounce Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus to be the best and most wholesome article in the market. They say it makes nicer, whiter and lighter Biscuit and Cake, and requires less shortening than any other saleratus is much better to use with cream tartar than soda. Try it. Most of the Grocers and many of the Druggists sell it, and at wholesale by wholesale Grocers.

"He made a few desultory remarks," said the schoolmaster. Mrs. Partington stopped suddenly in the bustle she was making around the table for tea, and gazed over her spectacles thoughtfully at him. Leaning on a plate, she said, "I suppose he was because he was weak," said she, "but AYER'S PILLS will cure him. I never knew 'em to fail! They are very solitary in such cases." "Really, madam," replied he, "I cannot guess your meaning." "You said desultory," said she, laying down the napkin, "and putting a spoon in the preserves, a dinner table." "No matter," said she, looking up in time to box Ike's ears, who was putting paper down the chimney of the kerosene lamp. "The pills are good for both, I dare say, for they cure almost all the diseases in the cornucopia."

An ardent advocate, he sought success; but he did so by open and honorable means—never by imposition or artifice; of a quick temper, he sometimes, in the excitement of a trial, uttered hasty remarks; but his magnanimity and sense of justice, always led him to make a speedy reparation. He had a high sense of the dignity and usefulness of his profession, and felt keenly anything that tended to lower the one or the other of them. He was laudably anxious to set a good example, and he was eminently successful in doing so. He sometimes entered the arena of politics, and for several years represented his county in the legislature; but law was his vocation, and to it and literary studies his intellectual life was chiefly devoted. He retained his love of classical learning to the last; he was a well-read French scholar, and his general reading was extensive and accurate. We shall miss him greatly. We shall miss his intellectual efforts, and high and honorable bearing at the bar; his genial temper and pleasant discourse in society; his wonderful cheerfulness of spirit, that neither labor, sickness nor age could destroy; and above all, his manly firmness and unswerving integrity; more distinguished members of the profession there have been, but none more esteemed or more loved. We do therefore resolve

1st. That in the death of Charles B. Goddard the legal profession of Ohio has lost one of its bright ornaments, and the State one of her best and most useful citizens.

2d. That we sensibly feel the bereavement sustained by the family of the deceased, and tender to them our sincere and respectful sympathy.

3d. That Judge A. G. Thurman is hereby appointed to present the proceedings of this meeting to the Supreme Court, and request that they be entered upon its journals.

Two brilliant stars at the Theatre to-night!

CHOICE FRUIT.—At the large grocery establishment of Messrs. Parks & Moore, in the Buckeye Block on Broad street, we found on inquiry yesterday, the finest apples, both green and dried, we have come across this season. They have a large quantity of very choice sound apples, of different kinds, which they will dispose of at reasonable rates.

The store of Messrs. Parks & Moore is supplied with an abundant and well selected stock of articles in the grocery line, and they are constantly adding to it fresh consignments. Among other things they have just received a large consignment of genuine and superior coffee. We advise our readers and the public to call on Messrs. Parks & Moore at their grocery in the Buckeye Block.

SECURE your seats for the Hypochondriac to-night!

MISS PAULINE CUSHMAN.—This young and accomplished heroine gave her first entertainment before a Columbus audience, in Naughton Hall, last evening. She was enthusiastically received; and the account she gave of herself and of her romantic adventures in the secret service of the Government, was in the highest degree interesting and entertaining, and was listened to with the most marked attention. She is a very pleasant and agreeable talker, and withal a pretty and captivating woman. In the musical department, she was assisted by Tasso, the imitable violinist, and Prof. Gardner, pianist and vocalist—whose performances were enchanting.

A MAN SHOT BY THE PROVOST GUARD.—We understand that there was a citizen of Columbus shot dead by the Provost Guard, last night, in the south part of the city. We were unable to learn any of the particulars, before going to press.

FIFTH WARD MEETING.—The citizens of the Fifth Ward held a meeting at Vosswinkel's, on Wednesday evening, for the purpose of making some arrangements by which the quota of recruits of that ward could be raised. Mr. Rickly was called to the chair, Chas. Heide appointed Secretary, and Jacob Reinhard, Treasurer. It was agreed to raise a subscription to pay an extra bounty, and $15 was assessed upon each enrolled citizen of the ward. Committees were appointed to canvass the ward, after which the meeting adjourned.

M. LAHEY and T. McKERNAN propose to give their last Ball this season at Naughton Hall, Tuesday evening, Feb. 9th. Admission for Gentlemen and Ladies, $1 00.

"A smile was on her lip—health was in her look strength was in her step, and in her hands—Planta tion Bitters.

S-T-1860-X. A few bottles of Plantation Bitters Will cure Nervous Headache. Cold Externities and Feverish Lips. Sour Stomach and Fetid Breath. Flatulency and Indigestion. Nervous Affections. Excessive Fatigue and Short Breath. Pain over the Eyes. Mental Depression. Prostration; Great Weakness. Sallow Complexion, Weak Bowels, etc.

Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia. It is estimated that seven-tenths of all adult ailments proceed from a diseased and torpid liver. The biliary secretions of the liver overflowing into the stomach poison the entire system and exhibit the above symptoms.

After long research we are able to present the most remarkable cure for these horrid intestinal diseases the world has ever produced. Within one year over six hundred and forty thousand persons have taken the Plantation Bitters, and not an instance of complaint has come to our knowledge!

It is a most effectual tonic and agreeable stimulant, suited to all conditions of life. The results that it elicits upon mineral substances for its active properties, are wholly false. For the public satisfaction, and that patients may consult their physicians, we append a list of its components.

CALIFORNIA BARK—Celebrated for over two hundred years in the treatment of Fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, Weakness, etc. It was introduced into Europe by the Countess, wife of the Marquis of Peru, in 1840, and afterwards sold by the Jesuits for the enormous price of its own weight in silver under the name of Jesuit's Powder, and was finally made public by Louis XVI., King of France. Humboldt makes special reference to its febrifuge qualities during his South American travels.

CAMBODIA BARK—For diarrhoea, colic and diseases of the stomach and bowels. DANDELION—For inflammation of the liver and dropsical affections. CHAMOMILE FLOWERS—For enfeebled digestion. LAVENDER FLOWERS—Aromatic, stimulant and tonic—highly invigorating in nervous debility.

WINDROGUES—For scrofula, rheumatism, etc. AROMATIC—An admirable carminative, creating flesh muscle and making menaced by mothers nursing. Also, clove buds, orange, caraway, carduus make-root, etc.

Another wonderful ingredient, of Spanish origin imparting beauty to the complexion and brilliancy to the mind, is yet unknown to the commerce of the world, and we withhold its name for the present.

Important Certificates. ROCHESTER, N. Y., December 22, 1861. Messrs. P. H. DRAKE & Co.—I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia for three or four years, and had to abandon my profession. About three months ago I tried the Plantation Bitters, and to my great joy, I am now nearly a well man. I have recommended them in several cases, and as far as I know, always with signal benefit. I am, respectfully, yours, REV. J. S. CATHORN.

PHILADELPHIA, 10th Month, 17th day, 1862. Respected Friend—My daughter has been much benefited by the use of the Plantation Bitters. She will send me two bottles more. Thy friend, A. A. CURRIEN.

SHEWAN HOUSE, CHICAGO, Ill. Feb. 11, 1863. Messrs. P. H. DRAKE & Co.—Please send us another twelve cases of your Plantation Bitters. As a morning appetizer, they appear to have superseded everything else, and are greatly esteemed. Yours, etc., GAGE & WAITE.

Arrangements are now completed to supply any demand for this article, which from lack of Government stamps has not heretofore been possible. The public may rest assured that in no case will the perfectly pure standard of the Plantation Bitters be departed from. Every bottle bears the fac simile of our signature on a steel plate engraving, or it cannot be genuine.

COUGH NO MORE! TRY STRICKLAND'S MEXICAN PECTORAL COUGH BALSAM. THIS IS A RICH AND PECTORAL BALSAM OF THE MOST HEALING, SOFTENING, AND EXPECTORATING QUALITIES.

A Newspaper Office for Sale. A RARE CHANCE FOR A PRACTICAL PRINTER. ANY MAN HAVING A PRACTICAL KNOWLEDGE OF THE BUSINESS, and desiring to enter into the same is hereby offered a splendid opportunity to purchase a well established and patronized Democratic newspaper office. It is situated in a flourishing city—containing 1000 inhabitants, with no railroad running through it, in a country with 4000 voters. The country is permanently Democratic. Vallandigham received a handsome majority at the late general election. All of the county, except a few towns, are permanently in the full possession of the Democracy. The press, type, and material are comparatively new. The office will be sold for $1000.00, and the purchase money can be given for reasonable for selling, &c., to those who address for one week, A. A. STRATTON, office, Columbus, Ohio.

VERY LATEST NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED EXPRESSLY FOR THE STATESMAN. Last Night's Dispatches. XXXVIIIth CONGRESS. FIRST SESSION. WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.

SENATE.—On motion of Mr. Wilson, the joint resolution equalizing the pay of soldiers in the United States army was taken up. Mr. Wilson explained at length the grievances suffered by colored troops.

Mr. Hendricks moved an amendment inserting 40c per gallon instead of 70c on liquors distilled and sold or removed for consumption or sale after July 1st 1865, and 40c instead of 80c after January 1st 1865. He supported his amendment at length.

HOUSE.—Mr. Kasson reported a bill relating to the capture of cotton and disposition thereof. Referred to the committee on Ways and Means.

The Printing committee reported in favor of printing ten thousand copies of the foreign correspondence, for the use of the State Department. After some opposition, the resolution passed—only 17 yeas.

The House resumed the consideration of the amendatory confiscation bill. Mr. Woodbridge argued in favor of restoring the persons of rebels and confiscating their property.

Mr. Cox moved to lay the resolution on the table. Disagreed to—71 against 83. Mr. Kerman made a speech opposing the passage of the resolution and the confiscation act.

Mr. Wilson spoke in advocacy of the resolution, which proposed to do only what the Constitution authorized. He expressed his surprise that the expressed lovers of the Constitution opposed the measures, its object being justly to punish traitors who ought not to be spared and who were not to be pacified with olive branches and honours.

Foreign News. PORTLAND, Feb. 4.—The steamer Jura, from Liverpool, Jan. 21st via Londonderry, 23d, arrived this evening. The Danish situation remains unchanged, with more hopes of a peaceful solution, although Austrian troops commenced marching for Schleswig.

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 22.—Cotton.—Sales for the week, 26,000 bales. Dull as a decline of 1/2d per pound, the decline being on middling low grades. Sales to-day (Friday), 4000 bales, closing firm. Stock in port 206,000 bales.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—Evening.—Breadstuffs dull, sugar quiet and steady. American stocks dull. Illinois Central shares 24 1/2 discount. Erie 64 1/2 @ 65 1/2. Consols for money 90 1/2 @ 90 1/2. The bank minimum has been advanced to 8 per cent.

Hon. Wilmer Gibson had been addressing his constituents at a meeting. He predicted a speedy revival of the cotton trade and plentiful supplies. He combated the idea that the American war was beneficial to England. He pointed out that the rebel crusade was a lesson to England. Her commerce might be similarly attacked at a future time, and the Government must be supported in its efforts to stop the supply of such vessels. He asserted that England had no right to act toward her in a singular emergency. He uttered no prophecies as to the issue of the war, but contended that slavery was the whole motive, and that the South were the aggressors in order to found a slave empire.

The gigantic Austrian lottery scheme has been abandoned. Another suit has been commenced against her. Capt. Patton had the vessel arrested on a claim of 2000 pounds. The Danish refusal of the Austro-Prussian demands had reached these governments, and it is announced that the Austro-Prussian troops would march without further delay on Schleswig.

FRANKFURT.—The opinion prevails that Austria and Prussia must have come to a definite understanding with England. The London Globe expresses confidence that peace will be maintained, now that two substantial governments have substituted themselves for the shadowy German diet.
