ANSWER TO ENIGMA.—(America shall rule America.) BUCKEYE.

CHARADES.—Answer to first "Sicily." Answer to second "Pentecost." Answer to third "Panama."

We are thankful to have it in our power, to say to our friends, that the accident which occurred to our little daughter, on Thursday of last week has not proved fatal. It was on this wise: Two very spirited horses, broke from the stable of Mr. Frye, and were running at full speed, near the corner of 3d and Adams streets; the child walking on the pavement, and seeing the horses running towards her, became frightened and involuntarily stepped from the sidewalk; whereupon one of the horses struck her with his front feet, knocked her down and jumped over her, grazing her with his hind feet, and leaving the print of his hoof on her side. The escape was said by those who witnessed it, to be marvellous. We tender thanks to God that our dear daughter has been thus mercifully preserved.

We attach to blame to Mr. Frye, the owner of the horses, but such an event should admonish all persons not to allow their horses to run upon the streets, under any circumstances, when it is possible to avoid it; and fast riding or driving on the streets should be rebuked by force of law.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.—August 1855.—REPLICATION OF L. SCOTT & Co., N. Y.—The better half of this number is devoted to the discussion of questions growing out of the present war, and a narrative of doings in the Baltic and Crimea—treated with the interest of grave argument and the romance of the battle-field.

We know of no more reliable source of information, and at the same time more readable of this article than Blackwood and the Quarterlies.

TERMS.—$3 per annum. For Blackwood and one Quarterly $5, and the four $10.

Orders for September is on our table. The fashion plate is the handsomest we have ever seen, and the engraving is superb. We recommend "Godey" to all who wish to secure the most useful, ornamental and instructive Magazine in the United States.

TERMS.—$3,00 single copy, two copies one year, $5. Address L. A. Godey, 113 Chestnut St. Philadelphia.

SENATOR.—J. D. Cattell of Salem Columbia county, is our candidate for the State Senate. A wiser and better selection could not have been made in the district. We know not who his opponent will be, and we care as little for certain it is, that whoever he may be, he will be beat more than two thousand votes.

As far as we are acquainted with the county candidates, who have been selected by the Republican party in this congressional district, they are unexceptionable, and we confidently expect they will all be elected by large majorities.

CASUALTY.—On Friday the 31st prox. at about 8 o'clock p. m., one of the boilers in the paper mill of Hauns & Sons, burst, causing a heavy loss to those entering gentleman, and seriously wounding the engineer. We are glad to learn however, that he is in a state of recovery. The injury sustained to the mill and machinery will be repaired in the course of two or three weeks.

We are requested to say that Jas. Nicholson has lately repaired his carriages and buggies, and has them now in fine condition to accommodate his customers.—His horses are all very gentle and safe, so that persons desiring to ride for pleasure or profit, can be accommodated at short notice. It is a matter of great importance, especially on funeral occasions, that horses employed in the procession, should be perfectly gentle. Patronize Nicholson's Livery stable, North 3d Street.

Republican Mass Meeting.

On yesterday, Wednesday the 29th inst. the Republican party held a mass meeting in this place, which was more numerously attended than any meeting, which has been held in this county since the Presidential campaign of 1844. The numbers in attendance were estimated at from five to seven thousand, and the meeting would undoubtedly have been larger had not the harvest been so backward.

The right kind of feeling prevailed, and a settled determination, was evinced, to put a stop to the encroachments of slavery. The sight of the delegation from Perry, which reached over a mile in extent, carried terror to the hearts of the leaders of Locofocoism, who were totally unprepared to see such a tremendous turn out. The Salem and Hanover Bands were in attendance, and enlivened the occasion by their heart stirring strains.

The delegates from the different townships met at half past ten o'clock, and nominated the following ticket.

For Representatives—John Hunter, Moses Mendenhall. Prosecuting Attorney—S. L. Wadworth. Sheriff—Wm. Hostetter. Treasurer—B. F. Thompson. Commissioner—C. M. Foulks. County Infirmary—Wm. Filson, Hiram Chandler.

Coroner—James McGonigal. The speakers present were the Honorable S. P. Chase, R. P. Spaulding, B. F. Wade, and John A. Bingham, and at half past twelve o'clock, the people assembled in the grove of the Agricultural Society Fair Grounds, and were called to order by A. L. Brewer, Esq., when the following gentlemen were selected as officers of the meeting:

PRESIDENT—John Jackson. VICE PRESIDENTS—Liverpool, John Goodwin—St. Clair, Amos Ashford—Middleton, Richard Stock—Unity, Amos Taylor—Fairfield, Dr. Kay—Elk Run, Henry Walters—Madison, James McKenzie—Yellow Creek, J. A. Riddle—Washington, Dr. Farmer—Wayne, John McDonald—Centre, Joshua Chandler—Salem, Jesse Howley—Perry, Jacob Heaton—Butler, J. Stratton—Knox, Jonathan Crew—Hanover, Daniel Voglesong—West, David Aikin—Franklin, Phos. C. King. SECRETARIES—J. K. Rubeck, Perry—Simon Wisden, Centre—Sloan Robinson, Washington.

The President then introduced the Honorable Salmon P. Chase, who was received by three tremendous cheers, a spontaneous tribute paid him by the people of Columbiana county, for his eminent and patriotic services in the Senate of the United States in the cause of human freedom.

Mr. Chase spoke for three hours, fully sustaining his reputation as an orator, and making the hearts of his audience thrillingly respond to his soul stirring appeals in favor of the down trodden slave. He briefly reviewed the course of the so-called democratic party; spoke of the onerous burden of taxation its measures had imposed upon the people, and proclaimed himself in favor of progress and reform. His hits at Jeff. Davis's automaton President, Frank Pierce, were exceedingly happy, and "brought down his auditory." Mr. C. was followed by the Hon. Judge Spaulding, who spoke for two hours in a style which confessedly the most eloquent orator in Ohio, had never before excelled.

In the evening, the convention again met in the Court House, where it was addressed by Senator Wade and the Honorable John A. Bingham, and at 10 o'clock the people dispersed, to meet again on the 2d Tuesday of October next, with the firm determination of giving the State and county ticket two thousand majority in old Columbiana.—Buckeye State.

The Lord's Prayer.

A friend tells us an anecdote of Booth, the great tragedian, which we do not recollect having seen in print. It occurred in the palmy days of his fame, before the sparkle of his great black eye had been dimmed by that bane of Genius, strong drink. Mr. Booth and several friends had been invited to dine with an old gentleman in Baltimore, of distinguished kindness, urbanity, and piety. The host, though disapproving of theatres and theatre-going had heard so much of Booth's remarkable powers, that curiosity to see the man had, in this instance, overcome all his scruples and prejudice. After the entertainment was over, lamps lighted, and the company requested in the drawing room, some one requested Booth as a particular favor, and one which all present would doubtless appreciate, to read aloud the Lord's Prayer.

Booth expressed his ready willingness to afford them this gratification, and all eyes were turned expectantly upon him.—Booth rose slowly and reverently from his chair. It was wonderful to watch the play of emotions that convulsed his countenance. He became deathly pale, and his eyes, turned tremblingly upwards, were wet with tears. As yet he had not spoken.—The silence could be felt. It became absolutely painful, until at last the spell was broken as if by an electric shock, as his rich toned voice from white lips, syllabled forth "Our Father, who art in Heaven, &c., with a pathos and fervid solemnity that thrilled all hearts. He finished.—The silence continued. Not a voice was heard or motion moved in his rapt audience, until from a remote corner of the room a subdued sob was heard, and the old gentleman (their host) stepped forward with streaming eyes and tottering frame and seized Booth by the hand.

Fever at Norfolk.

BALTIMORE, September 4.—The Norfolk boat, this morning, brings awful tidings of the ravages of yellow fever at that place. A letter from Dr. Morris states, that 64 deaths occurred in Norfolk on Monday. The Herald gives the names of 35, that died on Sunday. An order has been received here, for 100 additional coffins.—Fifty were sent down on Saturday. The boat brought up a large number of people, flying from the scourge, some of the fugitives have taken refuge in the rotunda of the Exchange, until they can be provided with lodgings.

The fever is abating at Portsmouth; the deaths average ten daily. A committee of citizens of Norfolk, headed by Dr. John McCabe, passed through this city, to Washington, this morning, to ask the President for permission to remove the remainder of the inhabitants to Fort Monroe.

Still Another.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., September 4.—The steamboat train for New York via Stonington was thrown off the track, by breaking of an axle, near Kingston, several persons on the second class cars were injured; none others hurt.
