All people don't believe in phrenology we know; but we never saw a person who would pick out a man with the head of a bulldog, for a kind, genial, practical philanthropist.

The Milwaukee Sentinel says the track of the Milwaukee & Mississippi Railroad was finished within seven miles of the Mississippi, on Saturday night last. Ten or twelve days more will see it finished to Prairie du Chien.

A gentleman who passed through the Franconia Notch, in New Hampshire, last week, reports six miles of very fair sleighing from one mile above the Notch to the Flume House.

The Wyckoff gold mines in Fauquier Co., Va., have been sold for $4,500, to satisfy an execution. The whole amount, says the Warrenton Whig, spent upon these works, could not have been less than $50,000.

The Danville Democrat states that one day last week there was manufactured at the Montour Rolling Mill, in that borough, the enormous quantity of upward of 116 tons of Railroad iron—the largest amount ever manufactured in one day at any establishment of the kind in the United States.

A Mrs. Baker, of Belmont Co., was drowned at Belair, a few days since. She fell from the steamboat plank into the water and was buoyed up by her clothes, so that she did not sink, but when the small boat reached her, her face was in the water and all attempts to resuscitate her were unavailing.

The Rev. J. C. ENCOUNTER WITH A PANTHER.—NARROW ESCAPE.—On Wednesday last a large shepherder, measuring eight feet six inches in length, was killed in Elk county, by Nelson Gardner. While in the woods in Highland township, his dogs started the animal, and she ran up a tree and took refuge among the branches. He undertook to discover her whereabouts, but while in the act of looking for her, she sprang upon him and struck him with her claws, which sunk deeply into his left arm. The dogs coming to his assistance, she again ran up a tree, and on a large branch she lay watching Gardner, ready to pounce upon him the first opportunity. While in this position the hunter loaded his rifle, and with unerring precision, put a ball through the head of the animal, killing her instantly. The bounty for killing a panther is $12.00, so Gardner, besides the "honor of the thing," made quite a good day's work of it.—St. Clairsville Republican.

Having determined not to become a candidate for re-election, I shall have no motive to influence my conduct in administering the government except the desire, ably and faithfully to serve my country, and live in the grateful memory of my country.—Inaugural.

The coolness with which Mr. Buchanan implies that he would or might act improperly, if he had a motive for it, is as rich as the implication of a man who could be more ridiculously humiliating. Having dedicated his life to the arts of political chicanery, and at length reached the Presidency by their unscrupulous practices, the highest assurance Mr. Buchanan can now give the country that he will faithfully serve it, is the absence of a motive to do otherwise. Surely a man capable of such flagrant self-justification can have little or no moral sense, and not much of any sort. His intellect must be as obtuse as his conscience.—Louisville Journal.

CONVICTION OF WARD AT TOLEDO.—The murder trial which has been going on in Toledo the past weeks, has resulted in the conviction of Ward for the murder of his wife. The Blade of Thursday says: "The murder is one of the most brutal, horrid and disgusting in all the annals of crime. A husband not only murders his wife, after coldblooded premeditation, but he sits up night with his door locked, cuts her into small pieces, and burns her remains in the stove. This process occupied several days, in which time he drew largely on the shops around for shavings, and the unsavory scent went forth from the chimney, and filled the nostrils of those who happened to be in the vicinity.—Ward occupied himself with this disgusting and appalling work, till he thought he had obliterated all traces of his guilt, and then defied detection. But 'murder will out.' It is amazing what an array of facts unimportant in themselves, have been brought to bear on the case, and what an irresistible conviction of guilt they carry to the mind."

BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS. THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR DYSPEPSIA, DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS, LIVER COMPLAINT, WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND, FEVER AND AGUE.

And the various affections consequent upon a disordered STOMACH OR LIVER, Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Headache, Dropsy, Ascites, Constipation, Bilious and Bleeding Bilis, in all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has innumerable instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effectually decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, the introduction into the United States was intended more especially for the relief of the sick and suffering, and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its use will be found to be most beneficial.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continued use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally inebriated, in other words, they are directly to the seat of life, bracing and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

CAUTION. The great popularity of this delightful Balm has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. It is not permitted to lay anything else until you have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a trial. The best will be found to be superior to any other similar preparation. It is sold at $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5, by the
