

CARRIER'S ADDRESS.—Our Carrier will be on hand with his annual New Year's Greeting...

AVENUE.—The Republicans elected their candidates for President and Vice President...

The Secession scheme in the South has obtained more momentum than was at first designed by the leaders...

The Senate Committee of thirteen were in session six and a half hours on Saturday last...

Stealing of the public money to the amount of $800,000 and upwards, out of the office of the Secretary of the Interior...

Attention is directed to the exciting news from Pittsburgh, in to-day's paper...

Read the able, truthful, and fearless speech of the Hon. BENJ. WADE, on the outside of to-day's paper...

The steamer City of Manchester, with European dates of the 13th inst., via Queenstown, passed Cape Race on Saturday morning...

A great many rumors are afloat as to the preparations both for the attack and the defense...

The commanding officer at Fort Moultrie is peculiarly situated. His present orders were to "act rigidly on the defensive."

The Hon. EDWARD BATES, of Missouri, has been offered, and has accepted the position of Secretary of the Interior in Mr. LINCOLN'S Cabinet.

The Hon. D. K. CAYLER, of Ohio, is favorably spoken of by the N. Y. Tribune, as a suitable person to make one of Mr. LINCOLN'S Cabinet.

From the Louisville Journal. Gov. Dennison and Gov. Magoffin. We repeat that the Governor of Ohio was wrong in refusing to surrender a fugitive charged with negro stealing...

The New York Picayune warns the fast men of the South of the inevitable irrepressible conflict into which they are precipitating themselves.

Affairs at Charleston--Preparations for War.

The Charleston correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune writes. South Carolina knows that there is no such thing as peaceful secession...

Meanwhile the men of Fort Moultrie, neglected as they are by the Government, have not been idle.

Sixty or seventy against fifteen hundred or two thousand! That is the sort of task which the Administration places before the gallant band at Fort Moultrie.

Mr. Cheever said an immense cash had been made in the law. It is necessary to avoid the inconveniences to the people, and make temporary arrangements to carry on the Government.

Mr. Haines—the Congress of the United States is no longer our government.—It will be for our Legislature to say what the laws of the United States shall be continued, and what not.

Mr. Magrath spoke of the property of South Carolina. Mr. Miles—I have not the least idea that the President of the United States will send reinforcements here.

Mr. Haynes introduced the following preamble and resolutions: WHEREAS, The causes which have produced a separation of South Carolina from the Federal Union have emanated from the States north of Mason and Dixon's line...

South Carolina Convention.

CHARLESTON, Dec. 20. The Chair announced to the Convention to draught a summary of causes for the secession of South Carolina...

Resolved, That three commissioners be appointed to carry an authenticated copy of the Ordinance of Secession to Washington...

Mr. Miles moved that the Clerk testify to the members at Washington. Carried unanimously.

Mr. Cheever said an immense cash had been made in the law. It is necessary to avoid the inconveniences to the people, and make temporary arrangements to carry on the Government.

Mr. Haines—the Congress of the United States is no longer our government.—It will be for our Legislature to say what the laws of the United States shall be continued, and what not.

Mr. Magrath spoke of the property of South Carolina. Mr. Miles—I have not the least idea that the President of the United States will send reinforcements here.

Mr. Haynes introduced the following preamble and resolutions: WHEREAS, The causes which have produced a separation of South Carolina from the Federal Union have emanated from the States north of Mason and Dixon's line...

Resolved, That a Commissioner be sent to each of the slaveholding States, bearing a copy of the ordinance of secession, and proffer each State, or any one or more of them, the Constitution of the United States as the basis of a Provisional Government...

Resolved, That the Ordinance of Secession be read before the President of the United States, and that the same shall be committed to Congress next in session, and said commissioners are authorized and empowered to treat for the delivery of the fort, magazines and light houses, and also for all other real estate and appurtenances thereto within the geographical limits of S. C.;

Letter from President Buchanan on Secession.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20. The Times publishes a letter from President Buchanan to a citizen of Philadelphia on secession. It is very long. It cites various articles in the Constitution...

I have, after grave reflection, determined not to pursue that line of conduct which, although it might be legal, would end in civil strife and the overthrow of our present form of government.

The N. Y. Times' Washington correspondence says orders have been issued to Maj. Anderson to surrender Fort Moultrie if attacked.

CHARLESTON, Dec. 21. The Convention met at noon. A prayer was offered, in the course of which God was invoked to unite the people of the South in the formation of a Southern Confederacy.

Mr. Brown offered an amendment that duties be collected at the existing rates, the Governor appointing Collectors; also continuing the present postal arrangements until other are made.

Mr. Hustin offered a substitute that all citizens holding office under the United States Government be appointed under the Government of this State; also adopting the revenue and postal laws of the United States excepting that no duties be collected on the merchandise or products of slaveholding Commonwealths...

From the N. Y. Evening Post. Project to Capture Fort Moultrie. [The following letter, from the wife of an officer stationed at Fort Moultrie, is calculated to send a thrill through the heart of every American.]

WASHINGTON NEWS. A report that South Carolina had passed an ordinance of secession, was brought to the House this P. M. It produced intense excitement among the members, and for a long time confused the proceedings.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. The Tribune's Washington correspondence says if the South Carolina secessionists retire in a body, as expected, Mr. Holt will at once give public notice that no mails for South Carolina will be made up...

Secession Matters.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. The Times' Washington correspondence, of Sunday says: The Senate Committee of Thirteen will report to-morrow, when Senator Toombs will in denunciation of the Republican party, and will repudiate any effort at reconciliation.

Mr. Toombs telegraphs this evening the following address to the people of Georgia. "I came here to secure your constitutional rights, and to demonstrate to you that you can get no guarantee for those rights from your Northern confederates."

CHARLESTON, Dec. 21. The Convention met at noon. A prayer was offered, in the course of which God was invoked to unite the people of the South in the formation of a Southern Confederacy.

Mr. Brown offered an amendment that duties be collected at the existing rates, the Governor appointing Collectors; also continuing the present postal arrangements until other are made.

Mr. Hustin offered a substitute that all citizens holding office under the United States Government be appointed under the Government of this State; also adopting the revenue and postal laws of the United States excepting that no duties be collected on the merchandise or products of slaveholding Commonwealths...

From the N. Y. Evening Post. Project to Capture Fort Moultrie. [The following letter, from the wife of an officer stationed at Fort Moultrie, is calculated to send a thrill through the heart of every American.]

WASHINGTON NEWS. A report that South Carolina had passed an ordinance of secession, was brought to the House this P. M. It produced intense excitement among the members, and for a long time confused the proceedings.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. The Tribune's Washington correspondence says if the South Carolina secessionists retire in a body, as expected, Mr. Holt will at once give public notice that no mails for South Carolina will be made up...

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. The Tribune's Washington correspondence says if the South Carolina secessionists retire in a body, as expected, Mr. Holt will at once give public notice that no mails for South Carolina will be made up...

More Secession!

Tremendous Excitement AT KOCH'S CORNER The Goods Seeding from the Shelving. Owing to the GREAT DEMAND FOR CHEAP GOODS WE HAVE CONCLUDED TO LET THEM GO!

White & Blue Cocks may be the thing elsewhere, but at Koch's Corner CHEAP DRESS GOODS, CHEAP SHAWLS, CHEAP EVERYTHING! IS NOW ALL THE GO!

EVERY WEEK! Something new and up to the improvement in Styles is received. THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE! SAYS PUSH ALONG!

LADIES, ONE AND ALL. Do you want a good, nice and cheap pair of Gloves, Kid Silk, Woolen, or Cashmere? Go to the HOO'S STORE and see what they have got there. DO IT!

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS GO TO THE BOOK STORE. Never mind the Penny spent, but GO, GO, GO.

Woolen Hoods, Woolen Rigoletts, Woolen Victorias, Woolen Vis a Vis, Woolen Nubias, Woolen Sontags, Woolen Opera Hoods, Woolen Kiss-me-Quicks.

BUCKSKIN GLOVES, BUCKSKIN MITTENS, BUCKSKIN GAUNTLETS, Warranted Buckskin, OR NO SALE, CHEAP, AT THE BOOK STORE.

READY-MADE CLOTHING AT B. COHN'S Young America Clothing Store. I would respectfully announce to my numerous customers and mankind in general, that I have again received a full assortment of

CHEAP SHINGLES. BRING ON YOUR TIMBER. THE natural or respectively inferior the public that he has purchased the right to use in Holmes county

New Advertisements.

THE Goods Seeding from the Shelving. Owing to the GREAT DEMAND FOR CHEAP GOODS WE HAVE CONCLUDED TO LET THEM GO!

White & Blue Cocks may be the thing elsewhere, but at Koch's Corner CHEAP DRESS GOODS, CHEAP SHAWLS, CHEAP EVERYTHING! IS NOW ALL THE GO!

EVERY WEEK! Something new and up to the improvement in Styles is received. THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE! SAYS PUSH ALONG!

LADIES, ONE AND ALL. Do you want a good, nice and cheap pair of Gloves, Kid Silk, Woolen, or Cashmere? Go to the HOO'S STORE and see what they have got there. DO IT!

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS GO TO THE BOOK STORE. Never mind the Penny spent, but GO, GO, GO.

Woolen Hoods, Woolen Rigoletts, Woolen Victorias, Woolen Vis a Vis, Woolen Nubias, Woolen Sontags, Woolen Opera Hoods, Woolen Kiss-me-Quicks.

BUCKSKIN GLOVES, BUCKSKIN MITTENS, BUCKSKIN GAUNTLETS, Warranted Buckskin, OR NO SALE, CHEAP, AT THE BOOK STORE.

READY-MADE CLOTHING AT B. COHN'S Young America Clothing Store. I would respectfully announce to my numerous customers and mankind in general, that I have again received a full assortment of

CHEAP SHINGLES. BRING ON YOUR TIMBER. THE natural or respectively inferior the public that he has purchased the right to use in Holmes county