ERASTUS BEECHER,

FOR COMMISSIONER

JOSEPH KIMERER,

FOR RECORDER

A. J. BELL,

The work of Treachery goes on.

The Breckinridges have brought out Thomas Sparrow as a candidate for Congress in the Columbus district to aid in the defeat of that noble Democrat Hon. S. S. Cox, and in the election of the brawling, black mouthed Black Republican, Sam Galloway. We might comment on this perfidy and treachery of professed Democrats but we feel incompetent to do the subject justice. Cox will triumph over all the combinations that can be brought to bear against him; we do not doubt that he will conquer the world the flesh and the devil, or in other words the three parties opposed to the Democracy.

Banish it.

"This miserable slavery question," said Senator Crittenden in his speech at Louisville, the other day, "should be banished from the councils of the nation. The Southern Senators themselves, only the other day, agreed that there is no case calling for the exercise of Federal power in behalf of slavery. The case very probably will never occur. There is not now a single piece of Territory to which slavery would go if invited. We have nothing to quarrel about. Why go into a distant future to borrow trouble? Why squabble over what we should do in certain contingencies that may not occur, even to our children's children?"

Crawford County.

The Democracy of Crawford County are in the field with a very strong county ticket. The ticket nominated is composed of men who have been our old friends and neighbors, and we therefore speak advisedly when we say that no stronger ticket could have been nominated. It runs: Auditor, A. A. Rahl; Clerk, A. P. Widman; Probate Judge, Abraham Sumner; Recorder, William C. Trimble; Surveyor, Horace Martin; Commissioner Isaac Van Voorhis.

Where are they!

A Black Republican ally, the Cleveland National Democrat, contains a very abusive attack on the Mt. Vernon Banner for saying that Mr. E. J. Loveland did not at present reside in this county. The Democrat says Mr. Loveland's family is here and he is away temporarily on business. We have understood Mr. L. to say that he intended to claim Holmes county as his home, but if the census-takers found any such family in this county in the year 1860 we would like to know where it is located.

South Carolina.

The Augusta, Ga. Chronicle says: Breckinridge may possibly get the vote of South Carolina, according to the present look of things; but he is hopelessly defeated everywhere else. He will lead Gerrit Smith eight votes. Huzzah! for the dead men's ticket!

Some persons not well posted in political affairs may seem inclined to look on this as blavating, but if a careful survey of the field is taken it will be seen that there is no reasonable probability of Breckinridge carrying any other State than South Carolina; and it is badly mixed whether he could carry it if the people had a chance at him. In South Carolina the legislature casts the vote of the State, hence the people have no choice in the matter.

A Visible Admixture.

Lincoln and Hamlin were both in Congress together. Lincoln opposed and Hamlin supported the Mexican war; Lincoln voted to withdraw our victorious troops from the country, while Hamlin opposed the withdrawal; Lincoln voted against a resolution of thanks to the officers and soldiers of the war, and Hamlin voted for it; Lincoln voted against giving them bounty land, and Hamlin voted for it; Lincoln voted against giving supplies to the soldiers while in Mexico, and Hamlin voted for it; now they are lying spoon-fashion in the same bed, they claim that neither has changed, and we therefore conclude that this is a visible admixture.

"Oh, what a pair of jolly butcher boys Only nineteen years old."

Important Acquisitions.

The latest California arrival brings the glad tidings that Downey, at present Governor of that State, and J. W. Denver, ex-Governor of Kansas, have both declared for Douglas and Johnson. The former is to be run as one of the electors at large on the Douglas ticket and the latter has written a long letter in which he takes strong grounds in favor of the "Little Giant." The despatch also states that if the election could be had at once Douglas would carry both the Pacific States—California and Oregon. There is nothing to lose by delay. The Kentucky and Missouri news will effectually cure Breckinridge influence.

He Takes the Stump.

Mr. Breckinridge accepts an invitation from his Kentucky friends to make a speech and define his position. It is to come off on the 5th of September. He thinks he has been badly abused, and he wants to set himself right. Mr. Breckinridge said at the Battle Ground Convention, in 1856:

"I am connected with no party that has for its object the extension of slavery nor with any to prevent the people of State or Territory from deciding the question of its existence or non-existence with them for themselves."

If he sticks to that doctrine, he need not be at the trouble of making a speech to define his position. We all understood it in 1856, and we understand it now.

Reversed.

The old adage of "honesty among thieves" has been reversed by the Republicans of Summit County. They held their caucus a few days ago in a very unsatisfactory manner to the masses of the party of that county. At their meeting in Akron, on one ballot nearly four hundred votes were polled; the cheating was obvious, and upon a count of noses but two hundred and thirty persons were found to be present. This is a little the tallest ballot-box stuffing we have heard of. The swearing up in that vicinity is powerful.

Missouri.

The largest meeting ever assembled in the South was the Douglas meeting held at Belleville, Missouri, a few days ago. The town is said to have been wrapt in flags; seventeen bands of music were present; twenty-five thousand persons were on the ground. Words, it is said, fail to express the excitement and enthusiasm of the people for the "Little Giant" of the West.

Political Items.

A full Houston Electoral ticket has been nominated in New York.

JUDGE DOUGLAS is to visit Indianapolis early in September.

JAMES B. STEADMAN has been nominated for Congress by the Democracy of the 5th district.

The Kankakee Democracy have organized a club called the Douglas Torchlight Invincibles. Captain, Alonzo Hulding.

RECTOR, Independent Democrat, has been elected governor of Arkansas by a large majority over Johnson, the regular nominee.

WARREN P. NOBLE, of Seneca county, has been nominated for Congress by the Democracy of the 9th Congressional District. He will be elected.

THE ST. LOUIS Democrat estimates the new legislature of Missouri to stand as follows: Douglas 48; Bell 28; Breckinridge 26; Republicans 15. There are ten counties yet to be heard from.

The potato rot has made its appearance in some sections of Massachusetts. The late weather has been favorable to a development of the disease.

THE HOMER (La.) Rural says that the Sparks Jeffersonian and the Red River American, which remained neutral for some time, have declared for Douglas and Johnson.

A dispatch from Davenport, Iowa, contradicts the report that Samuel Workman, Post Master at Iowa City, is a defaulter to the amount of $10,000. Mr. W. is absent on private business. His accounts for the last quarter show a balance due him.

A rumor, apparently well founded, states that Gov. Banks has accepted the Presidency of the Illinois Central R. R., and that in consequence he will decline the re-nomination for Governor of Massachusetts.

The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Times says that Gov. Letcher intends making a vigorous effort to unite the Democracy of Virginia in support of one electoral ticket. Should this fail, he will throw himself into the contest with all his influence for Douglas and Johnson.

Old Abe Riding on a Rail.

The Dankey in Frost.—I say, Massa, you ain't bery heay, but den dis rail am awful hard, and it begins to hurt my shoulder. It's radder more can I's able to do to carry you to de white house dis way.

GREENEY.—I say, you tarnaal nigger, go along, and don't growl so much, for we intend to make you our equals by this rail.

OLD ABE.—I am afraid this rail will split me before I reach the white house, and then the "irrepressible conflict" will be ended.

LINCOLN AND GREENEY.—We are a nice mixture, but no difference about that if we can deceive the people and get our hands into the treasury.

Virginia.

It is the opinion of well informed politicians that the inability of the two Democratic Conventions in Virginia to agree, renders that State certain for Bell and Everett. Where Mr. Breckinridge's vote is to come from, is a mystery.

The election of the Douglas and Bell men in New York, gives that State to Douglas as sure as the sun shines. Pennsylvania will also go for Douglas. The Southern States will, with perhaps one or two exceptions, go either for Douglas or Bell—Truly, the Disunionists are growing small by degrees, and beautifully less.

Illinois Douglas Thunder.

The other day a special election was held at Galena, Illinois, for City Treasurer, and contrary to the expectation of the most sanguine, the Democratic Douglas candidate was elected by a handsome majority. Galena is in the centre of a large Republican district and they made a special effort to carry the city but it seems the people are not with them.—This is the first Douglas thunder from the great North-west, and is but an index of what is to take place in November.

Remember

That Jacob Brinkerhoff, the Black Republican candidate for Supreme Judge, in 1860 was the Abolition candidate for the same office in 1851; that he decides matters as white male citizens of the United States and have the same right to vote that any white man has.

Approaching Elections.

State elections are yet to be held here under the Presidential election in November as follows: In Vermont, on Tuesday, Sept. 4. In California, on Wednesday, Sep. 5. In Maine, on Monday, Sept. 10. In Georgia, on Monday, Oct. 1. In Mississippi, on Monday, Oct. 1. In Florida, on Monday, Oct. 1. In South Carolina, on Monday, Oct. 8. In Pennsylvania, on Tuesday, Oct. 9. In Ohio, on Tuesday, Oct. 9. In Indiana, on Tuesday, Oct. 9. In Minnesota, on Tuesday, Oct. 9. In Iowa, on Tuesday, Oct. 9. Presidential election in all the States, on Tuesday, Nov. 6.

The South Waking.

Judge Douglas, arrived at Norfolk, Va. on the 27th. The telegraph gives the following account of his reception: New York, Aug. 27.—Judge Douglas had an enthusiastic reception at Norfolk, and spoke in the presence of 4000 people. In the middle of his address a ship of war was landed to him, it was out from the Norfolk Daily Argus and contained two polite questions. The first is: "If Abraham Lincoln be elected President of the United States would the Southern States be justified in seceding from the Union?" To this emphatically answered "No!" (Great applause.) The election of a man to the Presidency by the American people in conformity with the Constitution of the United States would not justify any attempt of dissolving this glorious confederacy. [Applause.]

The second is:—If they, the Southern States, secede from the Union upon the inauguration of Abraham Lincoln, before he commence an overt act against their constitutional rights, will you advise or vindicate resistance by force to their secession.

I answer emphatically that it is the duty of the President of the U. S. and all others in authority under him to enforce the laws of the U. S. passed by Congress, and as the Constitution expressly then, and it is duty bound upon each and every to aid the Constitution, would do all in my power, to aid the government of the U. S. in maintaining the supremacy of the laws against all resistance to them, none from whatever quarter it might. In other words, I think the President of the United States should treat all attempts to break up the Union by resistance to its laws as an act of rebellion, and treat the nullifiers in 1852. [Applause.]

Rape.

A negro boy, aged sixteen years or upwards, was lodged in the county jail last week, upon a commitment of Squire Cuyler, for attempting to commit a rape upon the person of a white girl in Backs-kennedy township, distant nearly two miles from Lyndon Station, on the high road. It appears that the negro boy was riding and saw the girl walking along the road; he dismounted, tied his horse to a fence and waited until she came up to where he was when he caught hold of her and undertook to accomplish his vile purpose; but her cries brought to her assistance a couple of men before he could consummate it.

When he saw them coming, he took refuge in a cornfield and eluded arrest for a few days.—Chillicothe Advertiser.

CARR. BRO-H. YOUNG, of Youngsville, Tallapoosa county, Alabama, writes as follows: "I am for Douglas and Johnson. Douglas is more like 'Old Hickory' than any man now living. The nullifiers, I say, are fighting Douglas just as they did Jackson, and Douglas will whip 'em just as Jackson did. I helped Jackson to whip the crazy creature, and I am going to help Douglas do it."

News from Abroad.

Mr. Wm. B. Astor, son of John Jacob Astor, of New York City, is said to be worth, at least $25,000,000.

A few nights ago a mob forced open the jail at Shelbyville, Ill., took out a horse they named Notterfield, and hung him on a limb of a tree.

The crop of oats this year, in Massachusetts, will be unusually heavy. It is thought they will average 45 bushels to the acre.

A Bell man writes from Borbon, Ill., that the Douglas enthusiasm swamps all else. He predicts that Douglas will carry Illinois by 15,000.

JUDGE J. R. WIKLE has purchased the Cassville, (Va.) Standard, heretofore a Breckinridge organ, and hoisted the Douglas flag.

The Breckinridge and Lane State Central Committee of Kentucky, have issued a secret circular calling for funds to help carry that State. Though the funds may come, the voters will not.

The strong names of Alexander H. Stephens and Augustus R. Wright head the Douglas electoral ticket in Georgia as electors at large.

A new Douglas paper is to be started in Weston, Mo. This will make, we believe, forty-one papers in that State which are battling for the people's candidate.

The Republicans have experienced a very sensible relief at the announcement that Breckinridge will remain on the track. They breathe deeper and freer.

A large German Democratic Club has been formed in the same place, composed to a considerable extent of former Republicans but now ardent Democrats.

On the 14th inst., a rousing Meeting was held in Kalamazoo, Mich., which was addressed, among others, Hon. H. Mower, and Hon. Foster Pratt, neither of whom ever voted a Democratic ticket.

"Four Acres of Douglas Men in Council" is the heading, in the Milwaukee News, of a most Democratic ratification meeting at Monroe, Green county Wis., on Thursday.

J. W. SHEPHERD, late editor of the Chicago Times, has gone to Springfield, to take charge of the State Register.—Col. Eastman, also late of the Times, has gone to Montpelier, Vt., to take charge of the Vermont Patriot.

COOL.—The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser is scolding because the old Whigs have "sold out" to the Douglas Democrats. Pray what has the Advertiser done? How came it in the Republican ranks?

A LETTER has recently been received by the editor of the Illinois State Register from Charles Betts, Esq., of Freeport, who was the Whig candidate for Auditor in 1852, in which letter Mr. Betts declares for Douglas, and gives his reasons therefor.

WE are informed by M. V. Pans that a Democratic Club was organized at Galena in Marion county, on last Saturday evening on which occasion, twenty Republicans came forward and joined the club and promised to do battle for the "Little Giant."—Galena Democrat.

COL. T. P. MARSH, census taker for Hardeman county, Tenn., says that in the ten districts of the county which he canvassed, there are five Douglas men to one Breckinridge.

TAMMANY HALL and Mozart Hall are reconciled again. Delegates from each were received on equal terms into the late New York State Democratic Convention, and one member from each was placed on the State Executive Committee.

The Boston Courier, in alluding to the recent rumor (started by the N. Y. Tribune) that Mr. Everett proposed to withdraw further than this—he will withdraw the State of Massachusetts from the Republicans.

It having been reported that Hon. William L. Vanney was coming North, the Journal of Commerce says: So far as the interests of the (Breckinridge) ticket are concerned, which he is common with ourselves supports, it is better that he should not attempt its advocacy in the Northern States.

The Memphis Appeal says: "The reaction in the South is evidently on the increase, and when the people shall have been thoroughly informed on all the questions at issue, Mr. Douglas will be found far in the lead, not only in the South, but throughout the Union. Keep the column moving, and let ball roll on!"

A letter from Beloit, Wis., August 13th says: "Nathan D. Parker, Esq., a prominent lawyer of this city and in 1856 an ardent supporter of Fremont, since then Republican District Attorney, has left the Republicans and come out for Douglas and popular sovereignty. Mr. P. is an eloquent speaker."

A scriptural quotation, which is very applicable to the Republican party of Maine, whose candidate for Governor is Israel Washburne, was displayed on one of the transparencies carried in the crowd which welcomed Judge Douglas to Camden, Maine, the other day. The quotation is as follows: "The iniquity of the house of Israel is very great. The days of visitation are come. Israel shall know it."

In the official report of the California Mint, the following passage occurs, which illustrates one of the singular phases of social life on the Pacific: "Half dimes, three cent pieces, coppers and nickels are almost unknown to our commerce, and are few half dimes were once issued, to the great indignation of some people, who consider them a dangerous innovation, as they have a tendency to reduce the price of labor and the profits of trade."

MR. WALTER H. PAYNE, who was nominated on the electoral ticket by the New York Breckinridge Convention, has declined to serve. He appears in a card in the New York News, in which he pronounces himself for Stephen A. Douglas as the only man who can defeat Lincoln, and for the Douglas platform as one on which every true Democrat can stand.

He thinks it inconsistent in Dickinson, and the other "Hards" associated with him, to fight against the very principles for which they contended in 1854—56. He says that in his own county—Franklin—where the Hards were 500 to 400 strong, a dozen Breckinridge and Lane noses cannot be counted, and those will be less (if there be any at all) in November next.

Douglas Stock Raising.

MAKE WAY FOR THE VOLUNTEERS.

"There is a waking up of nations, A stirring up of anakes, The people shout for Douglas, Abe Lincoln's got the shakes."

But a few days since we noted the establishment of a handsome looking and ably conducted paper called the "People's Press" at Newark, O., with the Douglas flag flying. We to-day received the first number of the Miami County Democrat. It is handsome, able and vigorous in its support of Douglas and Johnson. J. H. Horton is Editor and Proprietor. The Trumbull County Democrat lately ran up the Bolter's black flag and hauled down the Bolter's black flag and hauled up Douglas barge. The Times, a daily paper, has just started at Steubenville, O., under the same colors. The Press, also new, published at Eaton, Preble county, is spicy and earnest for the People's man Stephen A. Douglas. We have received during this week, twenty-six Douglas papers Vol. 1, No. 1, from out of the State, and if the Crestline, O. Express holds its neutral position much longer under the outside pressure with which it is surrounded, it has got amounting to madness. Everywhere in this State we are pushing our enemies to the wall and advancing upon them with a momentum perfectly irresistible. Ohio will give her 23 electoral votes for Douglas and Johnson.—Plain Dealer.

Be of Good Cheer.

Yes, Democrats of Ohio, be of good cheer. The skies are bright and brightening. Everything at present augurs well for a Democratic triumph in October, to be followed by a still greater one in November. The news from every quarter of the State is of the most cheering kind. The Union-loving, conservative masses are now moving with a fixed determination to politically bury forever the negro equality Brinkerhoff and his followers. The people were already inclined to a high degree Republican in sentiment which has disgraced and almost bankrupted the State, but the attempt of the Republican party—headed by Giddings & Co.—to force the infamous and detestable opinions of Brinkerhoff upon them, has woked up a feeling of indignation and opposition that will sweep over the State like an avalanche. We do not wish to be over enthusiastic on the subject. We mean and believe exactly what we say, that with proper effort on the part of the Democracy of Ohio, the State will be reclaimed in October. The news from every section are indicative of such a result.

The camp-fires of Democracy are burning brightly in the "Old Buckeye State," everywhere their banners float "the skies, and from every hill and valley swells the notes of Democratic thunder. Then be of good cheer, boys, it will all be right in—October.—Dayton Empire.
