Select Portry.

WINTER.

BY VIOLETTE WOODS,

Fleecy snow-flakes softly fidling.

such as whispered words of love Little snow-birds gently flitting,

'Mong the branches high above

Jingle, tingle, wondrous merry, Is the soft bells' distant sound;

Chilly though the north wind is.

life and spirit it inspires-Children frolle to its musle With a zeal that never tires!

Eyes as bright as stars at midnight, Beaming with a trustful ray :

Cheeks on which the rose is blooming.

Sport they with good will and earnest, Speed their snow-balls merily,--upwards glancing, quick careering

Those which promise more enjoyment,

Hearts as warm as summer's day

Thro' the top of each bare tree,

Soon they of their pleasures weary. And with engerness pursue

Long the way since early morning,

Men have travelled to and fro; And have left their tracks behind them,

With delight the children note them,

Happy thought strikes every mind,-Tracing up these graven foot-prints,

How its pulses bound with joy!

Cloudiess skies and summer sunlight. Purest gold without alloy !

They depart, and leave no trace,

And the snow-wreaths melt and vanish When the bright sun shows his face!

Miscellancous.

Queer Things Done by Type.

when the poem appeared with the lines;

gentleman's small clothes.

Shall reign the He Cat of the deepest Hell.

A newspaper some time ago gravely in

Letters Dropped Out.—But let the form took a whim to cut up some frantic feats.-

Happy childhood! Thoughtless childhood!

Deeply dented in the snow.

They a real pleasure find!

Or if sorrows come upon them,

Sleighs with happy, careless drivers

Lightly o'er the white earth bound ! Songs and jests, and ringing laughter. Fly about on airy wings; Wild, entrancing are the pleasures

Smoothe and fair the wintry scene is, Fair as beauty's placid brow ; Leafless trees and verdant cedars

Neath the cold winds bend and bow

JOB PRINTING

Of every description executed in the best style and on reasonable terms. The FARMIR has a larger circulation than any other paper in this section of the State. It is now, and has been for thirty-clight consecutive years the official paper of the county.

Business Directoru.

OFFICIALS.
HENRY E. POUNDS,)	Proxecuting Attorney County Clerk Sheriff Auditor Treasurer Recorder Commissioners Opener

PHYSICIANS.

Dr. E. G. Saunders.

PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, has permanently located himself in Oxford, Holmes Co. O., and offers his professional services to the people of Oxford and vicinity.

Dr. J. B. Woods. PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, Millersburg, O Office—On Clay Street, south of the Cour House, 28-4

Dr. A. A. Crump, GERMAN AND ENGLISH BOTANIC PHYSI-CIAN, Millersburg, Ohio. Office on the East end of Main street, four doors above the Pub-lle Square. 21-29.

J. Pomerene, M. D. PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, Millersburg, Office—On Main street, 4 doors east of the Bank, Residence—formerly occupied by D Ebright.

Dr. T. G. V. Boling. PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, Millersburg, C Office—on Main street, in the room formerl occupied by Dr. Irvine, 21-20

Dr. Charles Hunt. PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, Nashville, Ohio Successor to Dr. Liggett, 25-27

W. H. Putt, M. D., PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, Bowville, Ohio, 26.10 to 27.26

ATTORNEYS. J. T. MAXWELL]

Maxwell & Heller, ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW Millersburg, Ohio. Office, in the Court House up stairs. no.49. L. R. CRITCHFIELD.] DANIEL S. UHL.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Millersburg, Ohio,-Office in Critchfield's building, up stairs, 10 C. F. VORUES.] Vorhes & Reed.

Critchfield & Uhl.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Millersburg, Ohio, Office—four doors East of the Bank. 26-4 Thomas A. Taylor,

Henry F. Pounds. LICENSED AUCTIONEER. Address Mt. Hope Holmes county, Ohio. 274

HOTELS

Empire House, E. FLEMING, Proprietor, Main Street, Millersburg, Ohio. General Stage Office.— 26-13

Ohio House, F. W. FORBS Proprietor—west end of Main street, Millersburg, Ohio. 26-9

JEWELRY, &c.

A. B. FRY. WATCH MAKER AND JEWELER, Main st. three doors west of Weirich's Hardware store Millersburg, Ohlo. 21-20

N. P. McCormick. WATCH AND CLOCK MAKER, one door east of Weirich's Hardware Store, Main St., Mill-ersburg, Ohio. 23-35

HARDWARE.

S. R. WEIRICH,

DEALER IN HARDWARE Iron, Nalls, Cutlery, Agricultural Implements, &c., &c., MILLERSBURG, O.

LOUIS MAYERS.

DEALERS IN Hardware, Iron, worshipper, the passage read: we sha Nails, Cutlery, &c., MAIN STREET, OPPOSITE THE COURT HOUSE,

MILLERSBURG, OHIO.

Commission Merchants. WHOLF & CARY, Forwarding & Commission

MERCHANTS, AND DEALERS IN Salt, Fish, Plaster, White & Water Lime, was eaten except the owls (fowls.)

Flour, Wheat, Rye, Corn and Oats, CLOVER AND TIMOTHY SEED,

BUTTER, EGGS, LARD, TALLOW, And all kinds of Dried Fruits, MILLERSBURG, O.

HERZER & PETRY. Produce and Commission Merchants, DEALERS IN

FLOUR, GRAIN, MILL STUFFS, SALT, FISH WHITE + WATER LIME, 4c. 4c. Wheat, Rye, Corn, Oats, Wool, SEEDS, DRIED FRUIT, BUTTER, EGGS, &c.

MISCELLANEOUS. JOHN CASKEY,

BOOKS, STATIONERY Yankee Notions, &c., &c.,

W. R. POMEROY, MECHANICAL AND OPERATIVE DENTIST

Holmes County Karmer. RG, OHIO, THURSDAY, MARCH 9, 1805. Things I Like to See. I like to see a whole neighborhood get into a quarrel about nothing it shows there are independent spirits in the world. I like to hear the character of my friend shamed red, the hear the shamed to defend him. I like to hear the graves on Sunday: I can sleep better during the remainder of the transfer and of the exercises. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be praised to my face; it make the think I am no feel. I like to be a praised to my face; it make the proposed to see the manual t

MILLERSBURG, OHIO, THURSDAY, MARCH 9, 1865. VOL. 27.

The Government Detective.

A cotemporary photographs the Govern-to perform. Here is the picture :

The detective system which has obtained The detective system which has obtained such wide spread prevalence in this country I can sleep better during the remainder of at the present time is an evidence of two the exercises. things: a despotic central power, and a low grade of public morality. No Governments save those of a tyrannical character have ever had resort to the use of detectives; and no people have ever looked upon these agents with any feeling save that of con-tempt, unless they have lost their self-respect and a proper appreciation of the distinction between honor and dishonor.

Of the precise moral position of the detective in the employ of the Government, we can infer much by an examination of an analogous character. In military affairs, a spy is one who gains information in disguise and through treachery. This is precisely the status of the detective. He conceals his the status of the detective. He conceans may be status of the detective. He conceans may be status of the detective. He conceans may be status of the detective. I like to be surrounded by a lot of idners of the surrounded by a lot of idners of the surrounded by a lot of idners of the detective. I like to be surrounded by a lot of idners of the detective. I like to be surrounded by a lot of idners of the detective. I like to be surrounded by a lot of idners of the detective. I like to be surrounded by a lot of idners of the detective. I like to be surrounded by a lot of idners of the detective. I like to be surrounded by a lot of idners of the detective. I like to be surrounded by a lot of idners of the detective in the detection of the detectio they both seek their ends "through disguise and treachery." This being admitted, we can very easily arrive at the moral characters it shows the spirit is willing ter of the detective; for, if two acts are exactly alike, the esteem in which mankind has unanimously decided to hold one should apply to the other.

Among all civilized nations, and for all time, the spy has been held to be an infa- it tells strangers that we have one. mous character. Vattle says: "Spies are usually condemned to capital punishment, and not unjustly; and for this reason, a man of honor, who would not expose himself to die by the hand of the public executioner, ever declines serving as a spy. He considers it beneath him, as it can seldom be done without some kind of treachery. The sov-ereign cannot lawfully demand such a serrice of subjects, and it remains to him to hold out the temptation of a reward as an inducement for mercenary souls to engage General Halleck is still more explicit. "No authority can require of a subordinate a treacherous or criminal act in any case, nor can the subordinate be justified in its performance by any orders of his superior. Hence the odium and punishment of the crime must fall upon the spy himself, although it may be doubted whether the employer is entirely free from the moral responsibility of holding out induce-

The mistakes of printers are often very funny to readers, and very exasperating to as a spy applies with precisely the same force to the case of a detective; and the force to the case of a detective; and the case of a detective; are as ex-

Thomas A. Taylor,

Notary Public, Holmosville, Ohio, will be always ready to attend to procuring back pay, bounty and pensions for disabled and discharged soldiers, and collection of claims for the friends of those deceased.

Andrew J. Bell,

Notary Public, Land Conveyancer, and Claim Agent,

MILLERSBURG, OHIO.

Shound have been blamed for leaving out a letter after setting up the Russian name correctly.

During the Mexican war one of the English newspapers hurriedly announced an important item of news from Mexico—that all military writers hold his tostimony as unreliable, for the reason that a man despiction of the dishonorable character of the spy, it may be added that all military writers hold his tostimony as unreliable, for the reason that a man despiction of the dishonorable character of the spy, it may be added that all military writers hold his tostimony as unreliable, for the reason that a man despiction of the dishonorable character of the spy, it may be added that all military writers hold his tostimony as been lost "in a bottle." It should have read "battle."

A lad in a printing office came upon the however, the printer could not have been deserve.

As a further proof of the dishonorable deserve.

As a further proof of the dishonorable character of the spy, it may be added that all military writers hold his tostimony as unreliable, for the reason that a man despiction of the convergence.

All all in a printing office came upon the house of the came upon the however, the printer could not have been blamed for leaving out a letter after setting deserve.

As a further proof of the dishonorable deserve.

As a further proof of the dishonorable deserve.

As a further proof of the dishonorable deserve.

It is a printing the Mexican war one of the English newspapers hurriedly announced an important item of news from Mexico—that all military writers hold his continued to the printing deserve.

As a further proof of the dishonorable deserve.

As a further proof of the dishonorable deserve.

As a further proo Shall reign the Hecate of the deepest Hell. The boy, thinking that he had discovered treachery for a given sum, he will undoubtan error, ran to the master printer and in-quired eagerly whether there was an e in eat. "Why no, you blockhead," was the reply. Away went the boy to the press and extracted the objectionable letter. But enter into the composition of a detective, fancy the horror of both poet and publisher and a verdict of condemnation will be rendered that will detract much from the popularity of his profession, and will go far towards reducing to the minimum number those engaged in it. Let a detective, when known, be driven from society, as was the formed its readers that a rat descending the river came in contest with a steamboat, with abhorred herdsman of mediæval ages, or such serious injury to the boat that great the leper from the camp of the Israelites. exertions were necessary to save it. It was In this way only can an evil be cheeked that a raft, and not a rat, descending the river. In the directions for conducting the Catholic service in a place in France, a shocking system blunder once occurred in printing callotte callotte. Now a callotte is an ecclesiastical cap or mitre, while the callotte means what is known in the drawing room English as a

Military Interferance in Elec-

(From the Chlengo Times.)
The House in Washington has passed a an's small clothes. The sentence 'Here the priest will take off his bill (and it has been approved by the Presi-dent) to prevent military interference in elections, from which fact it would appear of types he ever so correct when sent to press, errors not unfrequently happen from the liability of the letters to drop out, when the form has not been properly adjusted or locked sufficiently tight. A printer putting tion. This is the confession made by the passage of the bill, and a more shameful confession could hardly be made by a Reto press a form of the Common Prayer, the c in the following passage dropped out un-perceived by him, "We shall all be changed in the twinkling of an eye." When the law, justice and purity of elections. Had not the interference been a general one, afbook appeared, to the horror of the devout feeting the nation at large, reaching beyond particular States and localities, illegal and worshipper, the passage read: "We shall oppressive, it is improbable that the party A newspaper recently stated, in a report of a battle, that the conflict was dreadful, responsible for it would criminate itself by such an acknowledgement as the passage of the bill involves. The facts were too noto-rious and too well substantiated to be evaded. Several weeks since The New York Teiand that the enemy was repulsed with great laughter (slaughter.) A man was said once to have been brought up to answer the charge of having caten (beaten) a stage-driver for demanding more than his fare.— The public were informed some time ago bune, in commenting upon the late elections presented an array of figures tending to prove the increase of its party with the increase of population, and that the Demothat a man was committed for having stolen a small ox (box) from a lady's work-bag.— The stolen property was found in his yest eratic party, instead of gaining in numbers, as the population increased, was decreas-ing. The passage of this bill will go far towards explaining the sudden growth of pocket. In an account of a Fourth of July dinner it was stated that none of the poultry Abolitionism, and overthrowing the inferences drawn from its figures. The last election was carried by fraud. Military inmistake is shown in the following mixing of two articles—one concerned a preacher, the other about the freaks of a mad-dog—which terference in Pennsylvania and Indiana carried the State elections, and the influence occurred in a hurried "make up" in a printwhich the Administration triumph exerted in the October elections secured, in con-junction with fraud and military interfer-Rev. James Thompson, Rector of St. Andrew's Church, preached to a large concourse of people on Sunday last. This was

How Pryor was Released.

ence, its success in November, his last sermon. In a few weeks he will bid farewell to his congregation, as his physician advises him to cross the Atlantic. He exhorted his brethren and sisters, and, after the conclusion of a short prayer, ment Detective and holds him up to public contempt. He now infests every community, and is loathed and abhorred even by the loyal whose dirty work he is always ready slandered; it gives me a chance to defend ticular light so far upon the constitutional ing them. Thus it is that the definition of and before I have time to speak, answer a spy and detective applies equally to both; himself; it shows he knows more than I do.

same reason is the evidence of a detective unreliable, for if he will commit perjury and treachery for a given sum, he will undoubted tracers of the confidence which he himself and ereated. Edwin M. Stanton was the ployers for a higher reward.

Let the mind of the public perfectly comprehend the utter infamous elements which tenter into the composition of a detective, and a verdict of condemnation will be rendered that will detract much from the popularity of his profession, and will go far toward and undisguised falsisticated falsistates and that people who the surface, but people who they said the meanest and that people who they said the meanest and that people who they said th confidence; that has become the charm of try test on his shoulders; he is the only his life. Mr. Brown related an interview leader of the party who has steadily had his which he had with the present Yankee Seeretary of War just before he (Mr. Brown) any distinct idea to foreign observers of our left Washington the last time. It was unaffairs. He is the legitimate Agamemnon, der circumstances peculiarly calculated to and having no Ulysses to back him, he is from the Supreme Court. They met by accident in front of the Old Capitol, when the The Best Time to Prune Trees. conversation at onec turned on secession, the action of Mississippi on the question, and Mr. Brown's consequent withdrawal from the Senate. Mr. Brown was surprised. and, under the circumstances, delighted to hear Mr. Stanton say the South was right and express an earnest hope that she would home and urge your friends to stand by what they have done, and all will be well. Firmness now will secure you all you ask; any wavering and you are lost. He had accepted his advice, and the next he heard of him, he was Lincoln's Secretary of war, or he ha better say, Lincoln's butcher. Stanton, by his brutality in refusing all exchanges, had men, more than half of them his own coun-as that continues, they are, or appear to be, affectionate and cordial. But as soon as with the best possible will. their friend is under a cloud, they begin to withdraw and separate their interests from his. In friendship of this sort, the heart has assuredly never had much concern. For the great test to true friendship is constancy

Value of Orchard Grass for Pasturage.

Value of Orchard Grass for Pasturage.

Suggesting that a Republican Congressman is liable to err—or that a Massachusetts Senators loyalty is like the cream on their friend is under a cloud, they begin to affording prompt, zealous aid. When sick- under shelter. ness or infirmity occasions him to be neg-lected by others, that is the opportunity which every real friend will seize of redoub-ling all the affectionate attention which love lowing version of the release of Rogers A. Pryor: "Dispatches of Saturday to the evening papers of the Northern cities state that the President had ordered the Release of General Rogers A. Pryor that the President had ordered the Release of General Rogers A. Pryor the value of General Rogers A. Pryor the v He run up Trinity street to the college.

At this state of the proceedings a couple of General Rogers A. Pryor from Fort Ladio boys seized him and tied a tin kettle to his tail, and he again started. A great crowd of boys seized him and tied a tin kettle to his tail, and he again started. A great crowd collected, and for a time there was a grand collected, and for a time there was a grand seen of running and confusion. After a long race he was finally shot by a policeman. It has not been stated whether the following item, which is said to have been lowing item, which is said to have been printed once upon a time, was the result of inobitety on the part of the printer or reporter:

Horrible Catostrophe!—Yesteday morn—

This to report to him to report to his the report to the approved medicines. If this honorable zeal of friends who have personal interests in opposing him. This honorable zeal of friends.

This honorable zeal of the animal.

This honorable zeal of friends.

This pelaces.

The approved medicines. If families could the could' the animal.

Thi

I like to see fifteen or twenty young men parade themselves in front of the meeting house on the Sabbath, and stare at the ladies as they pass; it shows they have read the seeding and take an interest in serious matters.

I like to see young ladies, laugh and play at religious meeting; it shows they possess fine feelings, and take an interest in serious matters.

I like to be surrounded by a lot of idlers are itent.

I like to have a person ask me the newshift of the late of the la from their slumbers to partake of the sacrament; it shows the spirit is willing but the body is weak.

I like to see people hunt the taverns on the Sabbath, taiking polities and scandal; it shows that the day is regarded.

I like to hear the bell toll half the time; it tells strangers that we have one.

I like to see people ride for pleasure, go fishing or hunting on Sunday,—the better the day the better the I like to have a man take a book or newspaper out of my hands without asking, it shows he knows good manners.

I like to have a man in company engross the whole conversation; it shows he thinks the see a man in company engross the whole conversation; it shows the thinks. I like to see a man in company engross the whole conversation; it shows the thinks of a window or door to make witty remarks upon poole, as they gas; it shows they want to tak of something they can't think of.

I like to see young ladies assemble at a window or door to make witty remarks upon poole, as they gas; it shows they want to tak of something they can't think of.

I like to see young ladies assemble at the window or door to make witty remarks upon poole, as they gas; it shows they want to tak of something they can't think of.

I like to see young ladies shander each other, it is a sign their characters stand fair.

I like to see young ladies shander cach other, it is a sign their characters stand fair.

I like to see young ladies shander cach other, it is a sign their characters stand fair.

I like to see young ladies shander cach other, it is a sign their characters stand fair.

I like to see young ladies shander cach other, it is a sign their characters stand fair.

I like to see young ladies shander cach other, it is a sign their character stand fair.

I like to see young ladies shander cach other, it is a sign their character stand fair.

I like to see young ladies shander cach other, it is a sign their character stand fair.

I like to see young ladies shander cach other, it is a sign their character stand fair.

I like to see young ladies shander cach other, it is a sign their character stand fair.

I like to see young ladies shander cach other, it is a sign their character stand fair.

I like to see young ladies shander cach of the public for the purpose of extort; it is a sign their character stand fair.

I like to see

At the last meeting of the Farmers' Club there was a long discussion on pruning trees, by Dr. Ward, and Messrs. Ely, Carpenter. and Smith, and they agreed in opinion, as the result of their experience, that the best time for pruning is the summer when the trees are growing. Trees pruned at that time heal more readily, and are less likely to be attacked by black blast, or otherwise injured, than if prunned in the winter.

Feeding Poultry.

It has been ascertained that if you mix with your food a sufficient quantity of eggshells or chalk, which they cat greedily, they will lay twice as many eggs as before. A weel-fed fowl is disposed to lay a large num-Desert not your friend in danger and distress. Too many there are in the world whose attachment to those they call friends is confined to the day of prosperity. As long as that continues, they are, or appear to be, affectionate and cordial. But as soon as with the best possible will.

Inafferials of shell, however nourishing in another respect her food may be; indeed a licent's last call for men, that "you wish he may get them."

Expressing disgust at the perrenial "quicationate and cordial. But as soon as with the best possible will. ber of eggs, but cannot do so without the materials of shell, however nourishing in in the hour of danger—adherence in the season of distress. When your friend is heavier stocking, and comes forward in the culminated, then is the time openly and spring very early. 'No grass grows so boldly to defend his cause. When his situation is changed, or misfortunes are fast out the season, or allows to be pastured so gathering around him, then is the time of early. It grows better than most grasses he season, or allows to be pastured so Death comes to a good man to relieve 'It grows better than most grasses him. It comes to a bad man to relieve so-show yourself warm in this manner in the cause of your friend, commands esteem even three gaits must depend somewhat on the "Jemma, why shee Notions, &c., &c.,

MILLERSBURG OHIO.

TIST
MILLERSBURG OFFICE—Up stairs above Dr. Bocc.

The Notice Notions, &c., &c.,
MILLERSBURG OHIO.

The Notice Notions, &c., &c.,
MILLERSBURG OHIO.

TIST
MILLERSBURG OFFICE—Up stairs above Dr. Bocc.

The Notice Notions, &c., &c.,
MILLERSBURG OHIO.

The Notice Notice Notice Notice Note of the portion of those who princed that Col. Forney. It will be possible in a good stone cellar, about twenty bushes in the hour of during the eyere frosty weather, his potatoes would desert their friends in the hour of during the eyere frosty weather, his potatoes during the eyere frosty weather, his potatoes would desert their friends in the hour of during the eyere frosty weather, his potatoes during the eyere frosty weather, his potatoes during the eyere frosty weather, his potatoes would desert their friends in the hour of during the eyere frosty weather, his potatoes would desert their friends in the hour of during the eyere frosty weather, his potatoes would desert their friends in the hour of during the eyere frosty weather, his potatoes would desert their friends in the hour of during the eyere frosty weather, his potatoes would desert their friends in the hour of hour driving has been bloom. He informs me that in February last, during the eyere frosty weather, his potatoes would desert their friends in the hour of heaven as during the special provided in a good stone cellar, about twen the would desert their friends in the hour of Notan Provided And Provided And Provide Nothing is more common than to hear old people utter querulous complaints with re-gard to their increasing deafness; but those who do so are not perhaps aware that this der circumstances peculiarly calculated to and having no Ulysses to back him, he is infirmity is the result of an express and impress Mr. Brown. His State had with-quite right to stand up for himself and drawn from the Union. Mr. Brown was thwack any ill-advised Thersites of his crew passing out of the Senate, and Mr. Stanton into silence, if not into submission. pose, it being intended to give ease and quietude to the decline of life, when any noise or sounds from without would not discom-pose the enfeebled mind, and prevent peace-ful meditation. Indeed, the gradual with-drawal of all the senses and the decay of the frame, in old age, have been wisely or-dained in order to wean the human mind from the concerns and pleasures of the world, and to induce a longing for a perfect state of existence.

Receipts to get into Fort Lafayette.

Discouraging enlistments by asking in-tended volunteers to take a drink of South Doubting the originality of Old Abe's

Calling in question Major Gen. Butler's ability to take—whiskey plain or a sardine Disbelieving in the dislocation of the spi-nal vertetbee of the rebellion. Calling a loyal sutler a swindler and

Many devote half of their lives to laying up a store of shame for the other half. very wind blows their horns for them. If women are flowers, we fear that they

Value of National Glory -- Consis-

I like to see fifteen or twenty young men lights in the cabin after supper, and firing ter trees are grown to a large size, manurmore remorse at the slaughter of armies of arade themselves in front of the meeting his pistols at random under the table.

The mistakes of printers are often very funny to readers, and very exasperating to authors. A single letter is often of the greatest importance, and a small mistake frequently changes the whole effect of an article. Some very funny stories are told of mishaps of this character, and we give believe that me my hope of the best:

An English paper once stated that the Russian General Backinowsky was found leave been. Yes word. In this case, however, the printer could nave been 'sword.' In this case, however, the printer could nave been 'sword.' In this case, however, the printer could not have been 'sword.' In this case, however, the printer could not have been 'sword.' In this case, however, the printer could nave been 'sword.' In this case, however, the printer could nave been 'sword.' In this case, however, the printer could not have been 'sword.' In this case, however, the printer could not have been 'sword.' In this case, however, the printer could not have been 'sword.' In this case, however, the printer could not have been 'sword.' In this case, however, the printer could not have been 'sword.' In this case, however, the printer could not have been 'sword.' In this case, however, the printer could not have been 'sword.' In this case, however, the printer could not have been 'sword.' In this case, however, the printer could not have been 'sword.' In this case, however, the printer could not have been 'sword.' In this case, however, the printer could not have been 'sword.' In this case, have the leisure to devote them-blamed for leaving out a letter after setting up the leaving out a letter after setting the four the course of the same propositions—to sa subscient the can track the been kept very productive by mulching debet of the can the the can track that the sort of the same propositions—to the track the find the the captain's pistol on the spot, and the years in their productiveness. Probably it masses of the people—a monarchy or an discomfitted Henderson was dropped suddenly back into his seat with the assertion that by the "loyal citizens" of Southern although I am not aware that injury is caustimited from the people—a monarchy or an oligarchy; one of the characteristics of which is an ever active propensity to extend the limits of its domain. From this our liberties set up a sovereign on our ewn account.

We have a great work—a mission—to perform: indeed we have several. First, we must protect the people of the South, over whose unconscious heads a serious calamity impends. Their liberties are in danger, and they do not see it. Our eyes being so much better than theirs, to us it is perfectly apparent. Through their liberties we must represent our own for if they they have must protect our own, for if they they lose theirs, ours is gone without the hope of sal-vation. Whether ours are the most in danger from compulsion or seduction does not dis-tinctly appear: some of our loyal cotempora-ries seeming to be most afraid of the one,

All this means that there is no good rea-on for the war. The reasons given contradiet and therefore neutralize each other. In order to be a war man it is necessary to be-lieve that the South is weak, and that it is strong; that it is rich, and that it is poor; that its people are constant and courageous, that its people are constant and courageous, and that they are imbecile and cowardly; that slavery is an element of social power, and the element of social impotency; that the effect of slavery upon the character of the white man is to render him listless and unenterprising, and also to render him hardy and ambitious. It is necessary, furthermore, to believe that unless we subdue and completely master this people whose inflavority. pletely master this people, whose inferiority in point of numbers we have derided, whose characters we have depreciated, and whose resources we have despised, there is immi-nent danger that they will subdue and master us ; or, if this should not be attempted, that we are in peril of having our liberties seduced away from us, by ourselves, through the evil example of those toward whom and for whose doings we have no feelings but hatred and contempt. It is necessary, in order to be a war man to be very foolish indeed.—Cincianati Enquirer.

Healthfulness of Apples.

There is scarcely an article of vegetable food more widely useful and more univers-ally liked than the apple. Why every farmer in the nation had not got an apple orchard, where the trees will grow at all, is one of the mysteries. Let every housekeeper lay in a good supply of apples, and it will be range of culinaries. A raw mellow apple is digested in an hour and a half, while cabbage Cattle are not ambitious of fame, but the requires five hours. The most healthy desort that can be placed on a table is a baked apple. If eaten freely at breakfast, without meat or flesh of any kind, it has admirable are as often silk and paper and gum flowers as botanicalones.

"Jemma, why does a rich lady act prodently by marrying a penniless man? "I couldn't tell for my life." "Because she husbands her resources."