GLORIOUS NEWS FROM MISSISSIPPI.

In the Columbus (Mississippi) Democrat of the 18th inst. we find the following cheering news of the re-election of that able and independent Senator, Robert J. Walker:

ELECTION OF U. S. SENATOR.
"In the afternoon of this day, the two Houses assembled in the Representatives hall for the purpose of electing a U. S. Senator, for six years from the 4th day of March, 1811. Mr. Walton of the Senate, nominated the Hon. R. J. Walker; Mr. Murchison of the House nominated the Hon. S. S. Prentiss. On the first call of the roll the vote stood:

For Robert J. Walker, 70
" S. S. Prentiss, 37
" Scattering, 8

"So Robert J. Walker was re-elected by a majority of 25 votes over all opponents."

The same paper gives the following as the official vote for Governor:

For Alexander G. McNutt, 18,821
" Edward Turner, 15,763

Majority for McNutt, 3,058

THE MAINE BOUNDARY.

That this important, and already too long delayed controversy will yet have to be settled by the cannon's mouth, we have no doubt. In fact, we never have had any other opinion, since we examined the subject. The United States are bound to secure to Maine her whole Territory, and Maine of course, will not, at this late day, yield a foot of her Territory—and Great Britain dare not settle the line as originally made—she cannot do this and preserve the Canadas—she must therefore make a show of fight for the territory, though in the face of own treaty, while in fact, she is fighting merely to please Canada. The merits of the case, will be an attempt on the part of Canada, to take from the United States a portion of her territory as clearly their own, as the land on which is built New York, Philadelphia or the National Capitol, England, by solemn treaty settled the line of boundary, but Canada, not finding it convenient to yield all the territory on our side of the line, is determined to take it by force, by fighting us, or rebelling against England if she does not aid in the attempted robbery. This is the whole concern.—England would gladly get rid of the matter, but she cannot, except by the loss of Canada. Well, let our authorities at Washington meet the crisis—delay is nonsense. The longer it is left the worse it will get. While the Canadians are endeavoring to chop off a piece of Maine and add it to their possessions, we in this region will slice off a piece equally as valuable, along Lake Erie and the Detroit river.

As somewhat connected with this subject, we give the following from the Montreal Herald, received by its eastern mail of yesterday morning:

"In the Quebec Mercury of Thursday last, we find the following memorandum issued by His Excellency Sir John Harvey, the Lieutenant Governor of the Province of New Brunswick. We do not know the motives which have induced his Excellency to issue it, but it may possibly be in consequence of information he has received from the Imperial Government, that, in the event of Messrs. Featherstonhaugh and Mudge's report of their survey of the disputed territory agreeing with the position already maintained by Great Britain, the whole energies of the empire will be called in action to enforce our possession of it, even at the cost of a war with the United States. Although those gentlemen have not allowed the particulars of their report to transpire, it is more than probable that its details are in the possession of Sir John Harvey, and that they are in his favor. In case of a general war, the recommendations of Sir John are extremely judicious, and we understand—they were acted upon with the most beneficial results during the war of 1812, and the subsequent years."

Memorandum.

I am desirous of impressing upon the inhabitants of the frontier districts of this Province, that in the event of hostilities with the United States, the most prudent course to be pursued, (on either side, for the measure, to be effectual, must be reciprocal) would in my opinion, be that of strict neutrality. Let the borderers remember that, as connected with the war, we should unhappily be compelled to engage in one, no national object can possibly be advanced, by any display of hostile feelings, towards each other. They might, it is true, mutually subject each other to constant alarms, great calamities, sufferings and distress; but their utmost efforts must be as a drop of water in the determination of the great national questions at issue, which must be decided elsewhere by the great naval and military resources of the great powers engaged in the conflict. And let the inhabitants of this Province repose, with confidence, upon the protection of the parent State which is alike able and willing to throw her powerful shield over all who have a just claim to her protection and defence.

HENRY D. GILPIN, Esq of Pennsylvania, has been appointed by the President and Senate, Attorney General of the United States.

From the Globe.
The Federal party in the Legislature of Massachusetts have at last, after deliberating at every step, consented to announce MAJUS MONROE Governor of the state. This was not a submission to the will of the majority of the people, by whose suffrage he was elected, but to the fear that defeating him, under the petty pretext suggested for the purpose, they would increase his majority at the next election. The principal objection taken, with a view to set aside his election, was, that the certificate of the returns from one of the towns making his majority, was written upon the outside of the paper containing the polls, instead of the inside, although the law is silent upon the point.

The Boston Morning Post, speaking of the grave exception to the polls by the suffrages of upwards of fifty-one thousand freemen were to be annihilated, call it "the miser able quibble that the town clerk of Westfield put his attention on the outside instead of inside the sheet containing the returns, which are duly certified."

For this desperate attempt to overthrow an election made by democratic suffrage, ten federal members in the Senate, and forty five in the House of Representatives voted—and this, notwithstanding a majority of their own committee had reported Monroe duly elected.

The democracy of the whole Union will hail the result as a most glorious triumph—a triumph over federalism before the people of Massachusetts—and a triumph over its trickery and cunning in a body where it holds a decided majority.

The Congressional correspondent of the Virginia Statesman has thus noticed Mr. Starkweather's debut in Congress on the New Jersey fraud.

"Mr. Starkweather, a new democratic member from Ohio, has just taken his seat, after making one of the most eloquent speeches I have heard upon the subject.

Mr. Starkweather is a young man of excellent address and bearing, and possesses great animation in debate. It was his first effort, and was listened to with an attention which was evidence that his debut, as a debater in the House of Representatives, was eminently successful.—Mr. S. replied to portions of many of the speeches which have been recently made on this inexhaustible subject, at times, in language of great eloquence, and in argument and depth of reasoning unanswerable—and others in a strain of irony and sarcasm, rendering some of the ridiculous positions which have been assumed by the Whigs, if possible still more ridiculous.

Mr. Starkweather said, that the gentleman from Virginia, (Mr. Botts,) had exonerated the Clerk of this House from responsibility in the course he pursued in relation to this matter, at the opening of the session. I am glad, sir, said Mr. S., that he did it, I wish to have the honor—the glory, sir, of a portion of that responsibility myself—I claim it as a right—but sir, the name of that Clerk, in connection with the right, the honorable, the patriotic stand he took upon that occasion, will be remembered by posterity, long after that of the gentleman from Virginia, or that of him who now addresses you, shall have been forgotten!

After speaking for about an hour, Mr. S. said he had detained the House longer than he intended, when he arose, and yet he had only touched upon here and there a point in the arguments of those who favored the rights of the Whig claimants; he felt like a pilgrim just returned from his travels, having called a shell here, and a shell there, and brought them into one promiscuous parcel.

Of course, in giving the above, I do not pretend to give the exact language of Mr. S. I only give the ideas, as nearly as I can recollect, in his language."

OREGON.

Mr. Linn of Missouri, has given notice of his intention to introduce in the Senate, a bill authorizing the President to take possession of the Oregon Territory. It is well known that the British are constantly making encroachments there, and that they have erected forts within our acknowledged limits, from whence they supply the Indians with arms, ammunition, and other means of annoying us in case of difficulty. They have also assumed the prerogative of driving off our trappers, missionaries, &c. and a fact has taken possession of the territory, which is within the limits of the United States, with an apparent determination of holding on to it even by force if necessary. They have driven our merchant vessels from the coast, and forbid our citizens trading with the Indians. We hope these high handed assumptions of sovereignty over this part of our country, will be met, a Mr. Linn proposed to meet them—and the integrity of our territory preserved at all hazards.—Ohio S. Bulletin.
