

MASSACHUSETTS'S FREEMAN'S AD-DRESS TO WM. HENRY HARRISON.

You govern freemen! Yes, you may,
When liberty has passed away;
When gold has made the son a slave Beside the pilgrim father's grave, And moral principle is dead Where Weymouth and Sumpter bleed.

You govern freemen! Curse the hour That brings to thee the mace of power; When pimps in place shall round thee cling,
The mace of some designing king,
And lead thee, by thy passion-strung,
To do thy country's honor wrong.

You govern freemen! Shrink the hand That wields thy standard o'er the land, And silent be the recreant tongue That speaks thy praises to the young,
And Raisin roll her waves in shame,
And wild Soudaky scorns thy name.

You govern freemen! Better far That you bright flag should lose each star;
That accepted king with iron tread, Should stamp in dust each freeman's head, Than thou, on freeman's neck, should soon The laws a Draco wrote before.

You govern freemen! You, who hold Communism with a monarch's gold, And purchase manhood's dearest rights With orphan's tears and widow's mites, While watchful tyrants shout huzzahs And glory mid the fading stars?

You govern freemen! You, who dare The gallant Croghan's bright wreath to wear Who moved by duty's sterner calls, Defended old Sandusky's walls, And swore that e'er he'd turn to thee, A bloody laurel his crest should be!

You govern freemen! Dreadful lot,
To bear so dearly so foul a blot, A bankrupt North, a ruined West,
A dying South in crimson drest,
A homeless heart, a voiceless voice, A heartless home, a choiceless choice!

You govern freemen! God of grace, Look down in mercy on our race; Forget not, in thy wrath, the sire Who fed in blood thy distant fire, And raised from sea to distant sea
The holy spirit that points to thee.

No, freemen! by no soldier's grave, Defend the soil he died to save; Hurl back the spear a haughty king Would place beneath your Eagle's wing, And let your glorious anthem be,
"I like my father, will be free!"

THE MISANTHROPE.
The apparently most severe misanthrope, blushing all intercourse with his kind, and perpetually holding the language of contempt and hatred for every gentle emotion, gives evidence, in some way, that he yet turns to them for comfort and consolation. "Affecting indifference and disgust to rational creatures, he is compelled to find other objects for the play of those affections, which however blighted, cannot be wholly eradicated. Irrational creatures impeccably attract his notice and regard; the hare that crosses his solitary walk, or the squirrel that interrupts his lonely meditations, in the reclusion of self-banishment, some favorite dog receives those caresses, and is the object of those attentions, which the formation of the human mind imperatively demands shall be felt and participated. Without such participation, how dreary is the most populous situation

THE LAUGHING PHILOSOPHER.
Democritus, who was always laughing, lived 100 years. Heracles, who was always crying, only lived 60. Laughing then is the best, and to laugh at another is perfectly justifiable, since we are told that the gods themselves, Sought they made us as they pleased, cannot help laughing at us.

TRIFLE AND WING—ELECTION Extraordinary.—Our village, says the Oswego Whig, was thrown into some little excitement, a few days since by the elopement of Mr Lewis Tripp, merchant tailor, with a Miss Emily Wing, semp-stress for the same, the former a married man, who has abandoned his wife for the latter, a maiden "as false as she was fair." They had both, till within a few months, sustained a good reputation but recently, rumor with her thousand tongues had noised it about that all was not right between the parties; still as they asseverated their innocence, and no proof could be brought against them of a criminal nature, nothing was fully established till their departure. He has Tripped his course, and she has Winged her way to the west; and we deem this notice no more than an act of justice to warn others against their hypocrasy and villainy.

LOST.—There's a man out East who is so small that he frequently gets lost, and is obliged to go about with a candle and ring a bell, to find out what's become of himself.

IMPORTANT TO SUFFERERS FROM THE TOOTH-ACHE. At a meeting of the London Medical Society, Dr. Blake stated "that he was able to cure the most obstinate cases of toothache (unless the disease was connected with rheumatism) by the application of the following remedy to the decayed tooth: Alum reduced to an impalpable powder, two drachms; nitrous spirit of ether, seven drachms. Mix and apply them to the tooth.

SCOLDING.—Many parents, guardians and teachers, vent the impotence of their tempers by scolding, while engaged in efforts to restrain the wayward wills of those under their charge. This kind of management is productive of much evil to both parties. Let scold remember that they must first learn to govern themselves, before they can establish good government in their families.

DISSECTION.—It was said by a surgeon of the present day, distinguished for his genius and eccentricity, that "surgeons must manage either dead bodies or living ones."

"I will save you a thousand pounds" says an Irishman to an old gentleman, "if you don't stand in your own light, How!

You have a daughter, and you intend to give her ten thousand pounds as a marriage portion.
I do
Sir, I will take her with nine thousand.

ment for the sum of about $708.65, be-force, unreversed and unsatisfied; that on the 13th day of May 1840, execution issued on said judgment to the sheriff of Tuscarawas County, Ohio and that by virtue of said execution and of make the money on said judgment the sheriff to Tuscarawas county, levied said Execution on the following described lands and tenements, the property of said Sebastian Brannard, which are being duly appraised and advertised and offered for sale by said sheriff remains undrawn out of bidders—that the lands and tenements therefore offered for sale aforesaid are described as follows to wit: "Lot No. 49 containing 117

THE PHILADELPHIA CASKET

UNPARALLELED SUCCESS PROSPECTS OF A NEW VOLUME.
The prospect in the subscription list of the Casket since the first of the year, warrants the most extensive improvements on the first of July next at which time a new volume will be commenced with increased vigor. Nothing need be said of the firm basis on which the Casket stands, a being already the oldest magazine in a country.

TYPE—EMBELLISHMENTS.
The Casket is printed with a clear and silvery type, upon the finest white paper. The illustrations are not surpassed by those of any other publication at home or abroad; and beside the monthly illustrations, (representations of colored plate fashions has lately been added. The style of these embellishments is unequalled, and they are always accompanied with an apt sketch. N wood cuts dispense the work; whatever appears in the Casket is of the first order of the art.

LITERARY CHARACTER
The literary character of the Casket is well known. It is wholly original, of the highest order, and sustained by WRITERS OF THE FIRST RANK. Essays, Tales Sketches and Travels, compose its prominent prose articles while the poetry is equalled by that of no other magazine of like character. The variety for diminution; but on the contrary, every exertion shall be made to increase its interest.

SEVERAL ROMANCES OF THE REVOLU-TION have already appeared, and others shall follow in the course of the volume, presenting when finished, a complete picture of the manner and a historical account of the great battles of that time. Thus, the Casket, instead of being filled with rickety sentimentalities, aims at a true delineation of human nature in every variety of passion.

TIME OF PUBLICATION
The Casket is published on the first of the month in every quarter of the Union. The most distant subscribers consequently receive it on that day, as well as those who reside in Philadelphia. In all the principal cities agents have been established, by which means subscribers can obtain their copies free of postage.

FASHIONS
The fashion is published in the Casket quarterly, or oftener as any really new styles arrive from Paris. The engravings are colored, and executed from original designs. No old worn out plates retouched and then published as the latest fashions. The truth of our designs may be tested by comparing them with their true description of dresses from London and Paris.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

THESE justly celebrated Pills, have been before the American public over 5 years, their restorative and curative properties are fully estimated by hundreds of thousands of both sexes, and they are still growing in repute where ever they are known. Wherever a prejudice exists, it is because counterfeit pills have been used.
Ask any one who has used the genuine Pills, and a hearty recommendation will be the sure result.

The great principle of "PURGING" in sickness is beginning to be appreciated. It is found much more convenient to take an occasional dose of half a dozen pills, and be always well, than to send for a Doctor and be bled, blistered and salivated—with the certainty that if you are not killed, you will be sure, to have months of miserable weakness, and the only one who is benefited is your Doctor. Look at the difference between the appearance of those two persons—one has been treated by your regular practitioner—see how pale and debilitated he is, see how the shadow of death trembles in his sartary glance from his emaciated countenance, see how he trembles in every limb; his eye sunk, his teeth destroyed—his constitution perhaps irrevocably gone—yet, just hear how the Doctor arrogates to himself credit. He says "most inveterate case of liver complaint"— "nothing but the most energetic remedies saved him." Energetic measures! i. e. Mercury and Bleeding, ruined his constitution, better say, So to save life you must half poison with that comforter of the teeth and the gums—MERCURY—positive make a man miserable the said remainder of his existence; this is called curing.
Shocking folly!

Let us now look at your "purged" man—the man who has taken Brandreth's Pills for Liver Complaint—he has the firm elastic tread of robustness straight, his countenance is clear and serene, his eyes full and sparkling with the beaming of new life and animation; he has been confined a few days to his bed, but he used no thing but the true Brandreth Pills, and soon rose without any injury being sustained by his constitution. Instead of being months in a weak state he will be stronger, "after he has entirely recovered from the attack, because his blood and fluids have become purified, and having purged away the old and impure fluids, the solids are thereby renovated, and he is not borne down by useless particles, but has renewed his life and body both.

This principle of purging with Brandreth's Pills, removes nothing but the useless and de-cayed particles from the body—morbid and corrupt humors of the blood; and those humors which cause disease—they impede the functions of the liver when they settle upon that organ, and which, when they settle upon the muscles, produce rheumatism, or, upon the nerves, produce gout; or upon the lungs, produce consumption; or upon the intestines, constipation, or upon lining of the blood vessels, a apoplexy and paralysis, and all the train of disorders so mol-estuously to the sufferer and all who behold him.

Yes, purging these humors from the body is the true cure for all these complaints, and every other form of disease; this is no mere assertion, it is a demonstrable truth; and each day it is a demonstrable truth, and each day it is extending itself, far and wide, it is becoming known, and more and more appreciated.

CAUTION.—Dr. B. Brandreth never appoints Druggists, Pedlars, Doctors or Apothecaries, as his agents; therefore if you want to be sure to have THE REAL BRANDRETH'S PILLS, never purchase a Drug Store or of Pedlars, Doctors or Apothecaries. The Pills they sell in my name being universally all counterfeits.

All who sell the genuine Pills have a certificate of agency, signed by Dr. B. in his own hand writing, and renewed every 12 months, and have entered into bonds of $500, to sell no other Pills than they receive from Dr.
Brandreth or his duly appointed travelling agents, who have invariably a power of attorney, signed by the Clerk of the County of N.
York. OBTAIN—The certificate is not let or press written or Lithographed. It is Engraved—The said certificate being no guarantee of the public after 12 months from date MAKES—When you want Pills to make you are right, ask to see the certificate of agent cy—Those who sell counterfeit, and never had one, will tell you it is a mistake, lost, &c.

Price 25 cents, with full directions.
The following are the only authorized agents for the sale of Dr. Benjamin Brandreth's Veg-
