Senator Ready's Relief Bill for soldiers' families, has finally become a law.

The Ohio Legislature some ten days ago agreed to adjourn on next Saturday.

We notice that both Ready and Bates have voted all the time against prolonging the session.

Sale Bills, Horses Bills, Township Tickets, &c., printed at the "Ohio Democrat" office, on short notice and on reasonable terms.

Taking Arms from the People. On order has been issued to prevent the sale of arms and munitions of war in Ohio, without a permit.

Gen. Sigel and the Negroes. Gen. Sigel last week sent a letter to a Republican meeting in New York explaining his position in favor of the Abolition Proclamation.

The Germans throughout the country will regret that Gen. Sigel has fallen down to worship the negro power.

The men who control the Advocates are at some of their dirty tricks again, trying to palm off bogus letters, purporting to come from the army, slandering Democrats and the Democratic press.

A few days ago resistance was made by some inconsiderate persons near Sharon, Noble county, to the arrest of a man charged with opposing the arrest of a deserter.

In this connection, we advise everybody to be obedient to the constituted authorities and laws of the land until altered or repealed.

Since the passage of the Conscription Bill, and the certainty of a draft in the Spring, there has been considerable said as to the propriety of turning the issue of the Spring Elections upon the question of a draft.

Since the mobbing of the publication office of the Crisis, at Columbus, an attempt was made, by some Abolition incendiary, to set the building on fire.

JUDGE GRIMKE, a distinguished lawyer of Chillicothe, died in that city on Sabbath week.

Why the Soldiers Want to get Home.

The Advocate editors think we are inconsistent in saying that the soldiers all want to get home, and yet are in good spirits and spoiling for a fight.

Who Discouraged Recruiting?

When the senior editor of the Advocate is away from home his man "Friday" gets him into tight places.

NEW PHILA., March 24, '63.

I wish you to answer these two questions: 1st. From your knowledge and acquaintance with the men who volunteered in the 80th and other regiments in Tuscarawas Co., what proportion were Democrats?

2nd. In the getting up of the 80th regiment, were you or were you not solicited by Democrats to raise a company, and were you or were you not dissuaded from so doing by one of the present editors of the Tuscarawas Advocate?

Col. Eckley and the 80th. We perceive by the last Coshocton Age that the officers of the 80th Ohio regiment, like the Ohio Democrat, come in for a share of the abuse of the Age man.

Our soldiers are not mere machines, but thinking, intelligent men, who have been educated to reason and weigh chances, and no power of the officer can prevent the private from reasoning on the present condition of things.

Letter from the 80th.

We are permitted to make the following extracts of a letter from the 80th, now near Vicksburg:

"Our camp is on a plantation at Grand Lake, twenty-five miles above Providence, the owner of which lives in Nashville, Tenn. It was stocked with about 150 negroes, the most valuable of which have been sent off to prevent them from being taken as contrabands.

"Another extensive branch of this institution is the manufacture of the celebrated Swedish Brandy, which is stimulating, aromatic and slightly medicinal, being an excellent remedy for dyspepsia.

"The weather is warm and pleasant, peaches are in full bloom, and many of the trees in the forests and along the river banks are green with foliage.

"The Mississippi may well be called the "father of waters," for at this time it is from one to three miles wide, and beyond its width it floods the whole country.

"The health of the regiment is good. We have all had a chance to see Dixie; no one desires to come here and raise cotton. There is no sense in a man talking about coming down here to cultivate the soil without the aid of slave labor; all are satisfied on that point.

"We have been shown a document signed by the Mayor of the city of the United States and Canada, certifying to the superior excellence of Dr. Ayer's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla and to the value of all his remedies as articles of great public utility.

"We are not but congratulate Dr. R. upon his increasing business as evinced by this enlargement of his premises. He will now be fully able, we think, to meet all demands for his pills, and give them even a more extended circulation than they have heretofore enjoyed, which already comprises an introduction into almost every State of the North, as well as in the most important cities of the East.

Removal of the Scandinavian Laboratory and Business House—Catawba and Swedish Brandy, &c. &c.

For some weeks past, the large stone front buildings on Third street, east of Sycamore, lately occupied in part by the Adams Express Company, have been in the hands of the proprietor for the reception of the business carried on so successfully for some years past in our city.

"The new premises, one hundred feet front, and extending one hundred and thirty feet in the rear, have, internally, been completely remodeled, the spacious apartments now being connected by archedways through heretofore solid walls, and everything else having been done, which can facilitate the purposes to which they are devoted.

"In connection with the extensive business in which Dr. R. had previously been engaged, he has, for some time past, entered largely into the manufacture of genuine Catawba Brandy, an article already enjoying most favorable reputation, and being widely used for medicinal purposes.

"Another extensive branch of this institution is the manufacture of the celebrated Swedish Brandy, which is stimulating, aromatic and slightly medicinal, being an excellent remedy for dyspepsia.
