The Gallant Boys From Tuscarawas in the Late Fight. In the late battles around Vicksburg the 80th Ohio, and 80th Ohio, in which are a goodly number of Tuscarawas soldiers, took an active part.

The Jackson Battle. List of the Wounded in the 80th. A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, writing on May 16th from the headquarters of Gen. Logan, eighteen miles west of Jackson, says that the battle at the latter place on Friday, the 15th, was short but spirited.

What is the Union Without the Constitution? The patriotic "greenback" swallows are constantly prating about their great and undivided love for the Union, whilst, at the same time, they are most ruthlessly and contemptuously violating and disregarding the soul of the great American bible—the Constitution.

THE LOCUSTS. The earth is now yielding up its long buried swarms of locusts. The hogs are rooting after them, and farmers are plowing them out of their holes.

THE UNION WITHOUT THE CONSTITUTION. The Union without the Constitution means an immense country. But the immensity of the territorial extent of a country does not run parallel with the greatest happiness and prosperity of its inhabitants.

Latest War News.

Lee's Intentions. New York, May 27.—There seems to be a growing impression here that Gen. Lee is meditating an attack upon Hooker, or an advance in the direction of Washington.

CINCINNATI, May 27.—A special dispatch from Murfreesboro says rebel prisoners report that Sunday last a courier dashed up with a dispatch from Colonel Breckinridge to Gen. Wheeler, at McMinnville, saying Vicksburg had fallen but Pemberton escaped with most of his army, but lost his artillery.

Rosecrans Probably in Motion. New York, May 27.—If private advices can be relied on we shall have stirring news from Rosecrans' army within ten days. It is not improbable his column is in motion.

Hon. Hugh J. Jewett. We have just returned from a visit to Mr. Jewett, who is confined to his home by the country by severe indisposition. The fact that he has been named by many of the Democratic papers of the State as their candidate for Governor at the ensuing election, renders it proper that we should state the result of our interview with him.

Although wholly averse to receiving the nomination for Governor, he has determined to submit the matter to the wisdom of the Convention, and if, in view of his well known opinions of policy and duty, he was nominated by the Convention, to assume the duties and labors of the campaign. But since the propriety of his nomination has been the subject of discussion, the business interests and regulations of the Central Ohio Railroad, of which he has for several years been President and acting manager, have undergone important changes.

Wool. We have from time to time printed all the information we could gather in reference to the wool market; and this week we print on the outside a short article from the Detroit Free Press which makes a very clear statement of the present condition of the market for this commodity. We have one word to add of our own: Buyers will attempt to open the market at about 60 to 65 cents, this year.

New York Cattle Market.

The Tribune reporter remarks of the opening of the New York Cattle Market, last Monday, that "the cattle speculators got the butchers in a trap this morning, and they were not slow in appropriating their advantage. In consequence of the failure of about 1,000 head of bullocks, destined for this week's market, to arrive over the Erie Road, there were not over 8,000 head on sale this morning, and upon this light supply the salesmen advanced the price upon the rates of last week nearly half a cent a pound, and during all the morning this advance was pretty well maintained, but when it became generally known that there was a reserve which would be pretty sure to come in during the week, the buyers held off for more favorable terms, and in many cases undoubtedly obtained them, if not in price per pound, in better estimate of weight."

Col. Morgan, of the Newark (O.) Advocate says: The course of the federal Administration seems equivalent to denying the capacity of the People for self government. If this is not the true interpretation of its conduct, then the President of the United States, admitting their capacity, has assumed to deny that they have a right to hold or express any opinion differing from his own in reference to the policy of the war and its good or bad influence on the country.

KEEP COOL.—The New York Herald says: "There is no necessity for any fuss, excitement or indignation about Vallandigham's arrest. The Democratic party has only to keep cool; for the persistent blunders of the administration renders it complete master of the situation. All cases of arbitrary arrests will make political capital for the Presidential canvass next year. Then when the Democrats come into power, they can serve the Abolitionists as the Abolitionists have served them. Those must be very poor laws which will not work both ways. A little patience and the radical faction will receive the justities it has so long merited."

JOHNSON'S FAMILY ATLAS. We would call the attention of our readers to the following from the pen of one who knows what a good Atlas is. Mr. Smyth writes his opinion of Johnson's Atlas after examining it side by side with the best English works of which sold at fifty guineas.

Democratic Meeting.

There was a rousing Democratic meeting at New Cumberland, last Saturday, at which V. P. Bonham and D. W. Stambaugh, made telling speeches. Saturday evening, Major Stambaugh addressed the Democratic Club, at New Philadelphia, in one of the best speeches he ever made. The watch fires are burning.
