The Reflector.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1889.

A NEW volume of poems by Eugene Ware is on the market. The contents is sure to be eccentric, but are doubtless good.

MOTHER BICKERDYKE thinks that she will have $50,000 for the Ellsworth soldiers' home by spring. She claims to have $20,000 pledged already.

THERE is wailing and gnashing of teeth in Leavenworth. The pontoon bridge has been broken and the bums are cut off from their Missouri pap.

THE west did not secure the speaker-ship as we had hoped it might; but then Reed is an able presiding officer and will head off any democratic filibustering, so it is all right.

THE special fast train service used by the Kansas City Times will make the other Kansas City papers more anxious for a regular early train west over the Union Pacific—and we are likely to secure one some day.

THE fact that the democratic congressmen are always more likely to act the fool when Randall is not around makes some of our republican exchanges wickedly glad that the distinguished leader is not able to be present at the sessions of congress.

THE Salina Republican says that John Martin is opposed to resubmission. Will the Republican please inform us when this apostle of free rum was converted? He was the only blatant resubmissionist in the campaign of 1888. His "whisky-bottle" episode has gone thundering down the ages.

SALINA is just beginning to announce herself a candidate for the world's fair. Behind as usual. Abilene has for months had a solemn pledge from the world's fair committees of New York, Chicago, St. Louis and Washington, D. C., that if neither of those cities proves successful, Abilene shall have the fair. Ta ta, Salina.

THERE is a somewhat vague yet extensive yearning on the part of many people in regard to the great elixir-of-life scare that was all the rage a few months ago. It has gone the way of all "sells," and lamb's liver will resume its old humble station in the butcher-shop, after a brief reign as the preserver of human existence.

STRAIGHT talk from the Topeka Journal: How about a convention to take steps for the return of the grasshoppers to Kansas? A lot of cranks and semi-criminals are talking of a resubmission convention to bring about the return of the saloons to Kansas, and certain it is that grasshoppers are a lesser evil than saloons. On with the agitation to resubmit the grasshoppers.

THE Topeka Lance says that the Fifth district is the cynosure of all eyes and has discovered that "if, as has been asserted, every French soldier under the empire carried a field marshal's baton in his haversack, it might as pertinently be said that in these years of grace every citizen of the Fifth district carries in his inside pocket the manuscript of a speech accepting the congressional nomination."

THE following information to correspondents, from the instructions sent out by a Chicago daily, relative to the kind of matter most desired, is right to the point and worth remembering by all who contribute to the press: Write on one side of the page only. Send promptly a concise account of all interesting doings, public happenings, accidents, deaths of prominent citizens, fires and other disasters, unusual events, business changes, failures, etc. Do not send gossip, idle or malicious rumors, ungenerous attacks or insinuations, scandals, advertisements or trivial details of any kind. In short, do not send anything that is not of general public interest, that would be likely to give annoyance to anyone, or injure any worthy enterprise.

AN example of the unconquerable march of modern business was shown Saturday night when the Minneapolis Tribune, after having its entire magnificent plant destroyed by fire, several reporters and workmen killed and all after 8 p. m., got out the Sunday morning paper as usual, being tendered the use of a neighboring office's presses and material.

THE Topeka papers note that Mrs. J. H. Canfield, of Lawrence, was the guest of Mrs. J. K. Hudson Saturday. The item does not say so, but it is rumored that the first thing the ladies did after the ecstatic joy of greeting was over was to go off by themselves and have a long confidential chat in which "Nashville," "letter," "southern people" and other words were frequently repeated. The hatchet is understood to be buried.

THE Hutchinson News' late poll of the Kansas legislature on the resubmission question was eminently conclusive in its results. Out of 165 senators and representatives, 151 responded. Some of the remainder are out of the state and a portion may have never received the card. Of the 151 members sent in there are only four resubmissionists and in the fourteen remaining there are six more—only a total of ten who are in accord with the Bentley-Wichita scheme.

THE largest and most enthusiastic meeting held in Wichita for a year was the anti-resubmission meeting held in Garfield's opera house on Wednesday night. And, very unlike the resubmission meeting recently held, it was composed of the best elements of society, including the most substantial business men and many ladies. Unless the Eagle and Journal mend their ways they will soon cut as small a swath in Wichita as the Democrat does in Topeka. A newspaper must reflect public sentiment, not try to suppress it.

WHOEVER wrote this got the whole truth in a nutshell: If you have a little farm or business and are out of debt don't fret or work yourself and good wife into the grave for the sake of making money. You have but one life to live, and it is very brief at best. Take a little comfort and pleasure as you go along day by day, and try to do a little good to others. A morbid, insatiable desire to possess the earth, to grab everything in sight, is at the foundation of more misery than any one thing. Wealth alone will never keep your memory green after you are gone, a good life and kind actions will.

THE session of congress which opened at noon today bids fair to be a notable one. For the first time in years the republican party controls both houses, as well as the executive department, and much is expected from the winter's work. Elaborate promises were made during the 1888 campaign and they must be fulfilled. The majority is so small that the opposition will have an opportunity to block the wheels considerably, but there should be more practical, straightforward work for the nation's prosperity done than any recent session of congress can show. The tariff, world's fair, deep-harbor and other important measures that will come up should be settled in accordance with republicanism and Americanism—which are one and the same thing.

THERE are a number of pseudo-politicians at Topeka who enjoy nothing better than to catch the editor of some interior paper in the lobby of a hotel and pump him brimful of political juice which he is expected to exude through the columns of his paper when he returns home. The Clay Center Times and the Iola Register have both given exhibitions of successful workings of the scheme in the past week. What some of these Topekans don't know about the actual status of Kansas politics would make a volume equally as large as what they do know of putting up jobs. The lobby politicians are good fellows to listen to, and then let alone. More can be learned of state politics at the capital than elsewhere, but it is easy to learn there a lot of things that ain't so.

Enterprise Etchings.
ENTERPRISE, Kas., Nov. 28.—[Special correspondence]—Hon. C. Hoffman made a trip to Topeka Saturday. Edward Volkman and Clay Scott, two of the Harrison Normal boys, spent Sunday at Woodbine with their parents.
D. L. Holter came up from district 69 to spend Saturday and Sunday, and in company with O. L. Bates attended the North Dickinson Teachers' association five miles north of Chapman.
Prof. C. L. Shaver is visiting relatives in Nebraska.
Jno. A. Flack made a business trip to Topeka and Emporia last Friday, returning Monday.
In the hose practice today, (Tuesday) the fire department boys behaved nicely; all are well pleased with the result, considering the weather.
B. H. D'Huy, of Abilene, was on our streets the first of this week.

Woodbine Tidings.
WOODBINE, Kas., Nov. 28.—[Special correspondence.]—Mrs. J. A. Gillett and daughter were visiting friends in Abilene last Friday.
Misses Lillie and Della Potter, who have been visiting here for the past two weeks, went home last week.
Messrs. Joe Reed and J. W. Gillett were dehorning cattle on their ranch last Friday.
Messrs. C. B. Vangiesen and Grant Gillett were in Lost Springs doing business last week.
Berry Winchester was in town Sunday.
D. W. Pierce, of Kansas City, was doing business with the Woodbine hardware men Monday.
Rev. Nathan preached an excellent sermon Sunday and was listened to by a large congregation.
O. W. Folsom has moved his family in town.

Carlton Cullings.
CARLTON, Kas., Nov. 27.—[Special correspondence]—"Rah for Carlton. The hotel is running in full blast and the stub train on the Salina branch meets the passenger here every evening.
The Y. F. T. U. met at the school house last Thursday evening.
Our schools are progressing finely under the supervision of E. F. Grosser.
David Matteson of Abilene was in our midst last week.
John Major received another large supply of goods this week. John is a rustler.
Mr. W. W. Woods had his large herd of cattle dehorned on Friday last.
Miss Emma Bohannon visited her parents at Dillon last Saturday and Sunday.
Miss Emma Beach leaves next month to attend the high school at Chapman. Success to you, Emma.
Our genial and old time barber John Johnson is back among us again.
How would the idea of flying the stars and stripes over the school building strike some of the citizens of Carlton. It surely would be a grand thing and teach a lesson of patriotism not soon to be forgotten.
We understand that our former respected citizen, Dr. T. B. Patten, has located at Chapman.
Jay C. Heath talks seriously of removing to Iowa.

Dillon Recents.
DILLON, Kas., Nov. 27.—[Special correspondence]—Rev. and Mrs. S. E. Betts have returned from a visit among friends and relatives in Illinois and Iowa.
Under the leadership of T. E. Natort the Dillon Band is making rapid improvement. The boys have just received their new uniforms in which they present a most striking appearance.
An old fashioned shooting match took place here Tuesday at which a large number of our skilled marksmen displayed their proficiency (?). Some were lucky enough to carry home a Thanksgiving turkey.
Mr. W. W. Day, one of our successful farmers, was in the county emporium, last week renewing old acquaintances.
Inclement weather during the early part of the week temporarily suspended corn husking in this vicinity, but the boys are again at work relieving the golden ears of their clothing.
The Hope Dispatch seems to think the Dillon creamery is a structure that exists only in the minds of the people here. We wish to say that work on the creamery has already begun, and although the building is a short distance west of Dillon, all the business will be transacted at this place and it will be known to the world at large as the Dillon creamery.
We are pained to chronicle the death of Mr. William Messort, who lived a short distance south of here. About a year ago Mr. Messort was kicked by a horse and received severe internal injuries, from which he never fully recovered, and which caused his death. He leaves a wife and children to mourn his decease.

North Dickinson News.
HAYS, Nov. 30.—[Special correspondence.]—Eli Ginder, Woodbine's popular miller, spent a few days with his parents.
A. H. Neisley, a farmer from Hope, passed last Sunday with relatives.
James Dunlop has gone to Oregon on a speculating visit. He will probably not return for a year.
Mother Brechbill has moved her headquarters to her son Abram's residence.
A number of the pupils from Centerdale school attended the funeral of Charley Baker in Abilene. He was formerly a pupil of that school.

Miss Emma and Seth Ginder attended the funeral services of one of their relatives in Marion county.
The creamery is finished and will receive milk tomorrow.
Mr. Ed. Johnson will move with his family to Buckeye before long.
How Mr. C. A. Buckingham hits the Nail.
C. A. Buckingham, night clerk of the United States Express Company when asked to make up a purse for the purpose of buying some tickets in the Louisiana State Lottery refused, but concluded that he would try his luck, and sent $2 and received in return two one-twentieth tickets. One of these was one-twentieth of ticket No. 69,159, which drew the third capital prize of $50,000. He forwarded his ticket to the Louisiana State Lottery company and received in return $2,500 in hard cash.—[Chattanooga [Tenn.] Times, Oct. 1.
