

Why Sensation Coffee is Sanitary And Why Some Coffees Are Not

Sensation Coffee is subjected to several important processes, with expensive machinery, to clean perfectly and remove all dust and impurities before roasting after which it is sealed in parchment lined cartons or cans without being touched by human hands and comes to you clean, pure and fresh.

Some Coffees are handled and stored by Peddlers in a way that makes them very unsanitary for the coffee bean is absorbent and will take up and hold any gases or impure odors near which it is kept.

See that you get LEE SENSATION COFFEE and you can be sure of a clean, clear and delicious coffee.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

With delegations from the eight lodges of the county attending the 98th anniversary celebration, a class was given work in four degrees of Odd Fellowship last night at the A. O. U. W. hall. A county organization was completed yesterday afternoon with John Roemer president and C. O. AGED WIDOW DRIVEN OUT SEEKS TO REGAIN HOME

November 4, 1915 Mary Wagoner, a widow 84 years of age, deeded her property on East Sixth street to Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Wagoner on the strength of a verbal promise that they would give her one room, care for her and provide for all her wants the remainder of her life. After the property had been deeded over the Wagoners refused to provide for the aged widow and in other ways made life unbearable, and even refused to permit her relatives to come on the place to see her. Mrs. Wagoner is now depending on charity of a daughter in Junction City for her living and she has brought suit in district court to annul the conveyance, making the charges quoted above in the petition. It is also stated that the Wagoners mortgaged the property for $200.

DR. L. R. BRYAN ILL ONE WEEK

Former Abilene Resident Was Popular Young Physician

Concerning the early life of the late Dr. Bryan, whose untimely death was a shock to the whole county this week, the Union, Oregon, Republican says:

"Dr. Loren Russell Bryan was born at Abilene, Kan., on the 18th day of July, 1887. He attended the public and high schools at that place, graduating from the Abilene high school in May, 1908. He entered the University Medical college at Kansas City, Mo., in the fall of 1909 and graduated on the 27th day of May, 1913. He practiced medicine in Olmitz, Kansas, for a short time, going from there to Portland, Oregon, where he entered the Good Samaritan hospital, where he remained for a year, and received a certificate of graduation. He then came to Union, Oregon, and practiced medicine until the time of his death. He was a member of the Woodmen of the World and of the National Order of Beta Theta Pi, one of the foremost college fraternities of the land. He was, during his college days, not only a good student but an athlete as well, having played the tackle position on his college team the first two years, and full back the last two."

The La Grande, Ore., Evening Observer, says:

"After being ill less than a week, Dr. L. R. Bryan of Union has become a victim of appendicitis. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan, father and mother of the deceased, were at the bedside when death came. Dr. Bryan was a most likeable fellow. He was conscientious in his work, and though he realized he was afflicted with appendicitis he kept postponing an operation until Sunday when a most violent attack occurred. Of big physique and previously without a sick day, his demise is especially distressing."

DYER'S APPLE ORCHARD PROMISES BIG YIELD

Bert Dyer's big apple orchard presents a sight hard to describe. He has over 2000 trees in bearing and they are now in full bloom and each tree is a bower of beauty. Never have they been so full and if a tenth of the blooms set the apples will have to be thinned. The trees are of fine shape, the branches growing to the ground, sheltering the trunk from the sun's hot rays and affording easy picking. Mr. Dyer planted the orchard nineteen years ago and since it has been in bearing only two total failures are recorded. Last year he picked several thousand bushels. He will erect a cold storage building on the farm this summer and install his own refrigerating plant. A. D. Colby is aiding Mr. Dyer in the orchard work and is proving an expert in that line of work.

Low Price Loses out Against Low Cost

PRICE may sell some things to farmers, but price alone is a poor argument compared with the records for low cost of operation made by Mogul kerosene engines.

Because they run on kerosene, Mogul engines produce farm power at the lowest possible cost.

You know what gasoline costs. You know, too, what kerosene costs. Take the difference—multiply it by the number of gallons of fuel an engine will consume in five years, figuring one pint of fuel per horse power per hour.

At what price must you buy a gasoline engine to make it cost you as little as a Mogul does? Could you afford to accept a gasoline engine as a gift? See the dealer about this. He has the figures all worked out for you on all sizes of Mogul engines from 1 to 50 H. P.

$10,000.00 CHURCH

EVANGELICALS TO BUILD NEW STRUCTURE AT ONCE

Formal Action Authorizing Work Taken at Meeting of Congregation Last Night—Start Raising Funds

The present Evangelical church will be replaced by a $10,000 modern religious structure, after formal action taken by the congregation last evening when the members approved resolutions authorizing such a step and naming building committees and specifications. The actual work will be started as soon as $6000 is subscribed. Under the pastorate of the Rev. H. E. Bower, as well as previous ministers, the Sunday school has increased in numbers and greatly outgrown all present quarters.

A new home for the church congregation has been agitated for several years past. The present church at Fifth and Kunev is of wooden structure and somewhat antiquated. This step is in accordance with the Evangelicals' progressiveness manifested in religious and moral standards. The new edifice will do much toward increasing the municipal beauty.

The following resolutions were adopted: Whereas, we believe that the growth of our church, especially the Sunday school, demands more room and better facilities in order to the best interests of the work, therefore, be it

Resolved, (1) That we construct a building adequate for our needs, using the material in our present building to our greatest advantage.

(2) That the pastor be instructed to take pledges toward securing $10,000, and as soon as $6000 has been secured the work begin providing it be not later than July 1, 1916. That the building fund be pushed ahead by the several departments and organizations of the church. (3) That the board of trustees, presiding elder, pastor and E. E. Cavender, Phil Stirts and R. E. Huaton constitute a building committee which shall take all necessary steps and adopt plans in keeping with the possibilities of the congregation. (4) That the appointed building committee shall also be instructed to proceed with the erection of a parsonage, the same to be substantial and modern, the cost to be within the possibilities of the congregation.

THREE GIRLS IN RUNAWAY RETURNING FROM MEET

An afternoon of sport ended in disaster for three Enterprise girls yesterday afternoon. While on the way home, their driving horse became frightened at the engine of the Beloit special at the Union Pacific grade crossing at 5:30 p. m., and after they had been flagged from crossing by the watchman, turned suddenly around, upsetting the buggy and throwing the young ladies to the pavement, slightly bruising them. They were Ethel and Lydia Horgman and May Pontius and had attended the district meet. The horse dragged the buggy on its side to Fifth and Cedar streets, where it was stopped. The buggy and harness were badly damaged.

A Symbol of Health

The Pythagorians of Ancient Greece ate simple food, practiced temperance and purity. As a badge they used the five pointed star which they regarded as a symbol of health. A red five pointed star appears on each package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and still fulfills its ancient mission as a symbol of health. If you are troubled with indigestion, biliousness or constipation, get a package of these tablets from your druggist. You will be surprised at the quick relief which they afford. Obtainable everywhere.
