FELLSBURG.

Creamery is all the talk now. The location selected is, we hear, on the corner of Main and Kintner Sts.

Several quite bad cases of the grippe. Among others, Mr. and Mrs. Boyu and Mrs. Geo. Fell are perhaps the most severe.

New blacksmith shop at Fellsburg, on corner of Main street and Penn. Ave. Harvey Welsh is the smith.

Eureka school closed on Friday with a big dinner and lots of fun.

Rev. Myers preached his last sermon at the burg on last Sunday.

We failed to get our usual snow storm last Sunday.

A gentleman from Harvey, a friend of J. Roenbaugh, was here buying cattle last week. He took with him about 50 head. There was also a man through here buying cows. He got about 30. We were not aware there were so many cattle for sale in this region.

Ira Tam was at the burg on Saturday.

Several loads of hogs were delivered at Kinsley and Greensburg, last week, by parties in the neighborhood.

Dr. Higby, of Greensburg, was called to attend some of the sick last week.

Miss Etta Elliot is said to be the belle of Eureka.

Several of our boys will shortly leave for colleges at various points—so we are informed.

Miss Rilla Shannon and Miss Lizzie Butler came out from town on Friday evening, to spend Sunday at home. They look quite cultured.

Union school has been having a spelling school which, from the number of speller passing up the road to the school house, must have been successful.

Geo. H. Curtiss, of Wellsford, has been sojourning in the neighborhood for the last week, working at his trade—that of carpenter.

The Literary, at Kesinger school house, last Friday, was a grand success. Mr. Tam's favorite question, "The Downfall of the Republic" was debated by a number of eloquent orators.

John Hays has a full line of blacksmith's supplies on hand, and is prepared to undertake any job of blacksmithing you may have on hand.

DEBATING SOCIETY.

Dear Graphic:
Lakeview school house was filled with interested pupils on the occasion of the third meeting of the Lyceum, which occurred last Friday afternoon. Fairview school was well represented and a number of the pupils from that district joined our society. Two papers were read. The Lakeview "Enterprise", conducted by Miss Eva Gordon, and the Fairview "Gazette", conducted by Miss Eva Johnson and Mr. Forbes Morgan, s c

The students at Lakeview are becoming adepts in parliamentary procedure, and are developing some fine orators. Miss Jessie Mayhew and Miss La Toops made speeches in the debate which were exceptionally good, and were well received by the audience.

Both the members of the society and the audience maintained excellent order throughout the exercises. The violin solo by Master Allen Mayhew, was exceedingly well rendered for so young a performer. There were a number of beautiful songs by choirs of the school which were a great addition to the programme.

The next question for debate is: Resolved that wealth is a greater advantage to an individual than education.

The Lyceum meets every Friday at 1 o'clock. Friends of the members and patrons of the school invited to attend.

A novel method of showing the new and fresh Easteride creations of Paris milliners has been adopted by The Ladies Home Journal for March. In that magazine the new French hats and bonnets will be pictured as they are worn. This unique display is useful, therefore, in pointing out clearly fashions decreed, but the styles in head-dress best suited to several contrasted types and faces.

BELPRE NOTES.

A. T. Garth shipped seven cars of stock to Lehigh, Kas., Sunday.

M. J. Cudney, of Lincoln, is staying at E. Brown's this week.

Miss Ingraham, of Waverly W. Va., a niece of M. T. Ingraham, is visiting relatives here.

Clark and Jones' Phonograph will exhibit at the Belpre School house Saturday evening, Feb. 27.

Quite a number of our young people attended the Literary in Dist. No. 11, last Friday night.

The Belpre Literary met at the school house Feb. 22, and proceeded to celebrate Washington's birthday, according to the following programme: Song, "Washington." By Choir. Roll call. Responded to by appropriate quotations.

Biography of Washington. Roxie Donovan.

Essay, "Our Country." C. A. Lester. Essay, "Independence." Ida Johnson. Essay, "Geo. Washington." Chas. Elliot.

Charade, representing George Washington.

Song, "Star Spangled Banner." Choir.

RECESS.

Dialogue, Viola Culver and Leonard Miller.

Dialogue, "What We Know About Washing," by four boys.

Recitation, "The Little Hatchet," Alma Peterson.

Recitation, "The Vows of Washington," Stella Elliot.

Recitation, "The Story of America," Iva Liggett.

Recitation, "George Washington," Frank Hawley.

Recitation, "Like Washington" Geo. Allen.

Recitation, "He Always Spoke The Truth," Wilda McCarty.

Recitation, "Crossing the Delaware," Mary Ingraham.

Recitation, "Stars and Stripes," Hattie Miller.

Recitation, "Guard Our Own Fair Land," Cassie Liggett.

Recitation, "Step by Step," Geo. Gibson.

Recitation, "The Soldier Boy," Jesse Liggett.

The National Song, by Choir.

Recitation, "The Blue and Gray," Maggie Ingraham.

Recitation, "Only the Old Flag," Birdie Logan.

Recitation, "Independence Bells," Ella Liggett.

Recitation, "The Grave of Washington," Viola Culver.

Solo, "Washington's Birthday," Mrs. W. V. Hager.

Exercise, representing the thirteen States, by thirteen girls.

Tableau, "The Union Forever," Iva Liggett and Viola Culver.

On motion it was decided in accordance with the length of the program and there being school next day, to postpone the debate on government ownership of railroads until the next meeting which will be Saturday, Feb. 6.

BELPRE SUGAR.

IMPEACHMENT PROCEEDINGS.

The Literary Society of Dist. No. 11, east of Lewis, met last Friday evening, and, after going through the regular business, proceeded to impeach Mr. O. M. Bennett on the charge that he had been elected president of the society, had accepted, promised his regular attendance, and then deserted the society by organizing another at Lewis to meet on the same night as the society of Dist. No. 11, and being elected, and having accepted the office of president of the society of Lewis.

The trial was held before C. A. Leater, of Belpre, who had been requested to act as judge in the case, and five good and true as jury, against whom the counsel for either side brought no objections. The defense was represented by Geo. Gibson, the prosecution by a gentleman whose name we did not learn. After the testimony, and able argument by the counsel for both sides, the jury, after a brief consultation, rendered a verdict of guilty. The sentence passed by the court was, that O. M. Bennett was removed from his office as president of the society of Dist. No. 11 and disqualified for further holding office in the same.

The society then elected J. W. Bridges as president of the society.

THROW AWAY HIS CANES.

Mr. D. Wiley, ex-postmaster, Black Creek, N. Y., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism that he was only able to hobble about on canes, and even then it caused him great pain. After using Chamberlain's Pain Balm he threw away his canes. He says this liniment did him more good than all other medicines and treatment put together. For sale at 50c per bottle at Porter's.

THEY CELEBRATE.

In my last communication I mentioned that the next meeting of the Old Soldiers Club would be with Comrade Dimmick, so according to previous arrangements, about 15 old soldiers and their wives met at his place on Friday, Feb. 19th to celebrate his 64th birthday.

We had a very enjoyable day, weather pleasant and every thing favorable for a good time and we had it, in fact I do not think that any other class of people can enjoy themselves as well as old soldiers and their wives when they start out for a good time.

Comrade Dimmick was a member of Company C. 126th N. Y. V. Infantry. He was wounded at the battle of Gettysburg, July 1-4, 1863, was honorably discharged and is drawing a pension which is justly merited.

The next meeting of the club will be at Comrade W. W. Shannon's, two miles east of Ellensburg, March 27th.

I don't suppose the general face of Comrade Booker will be with us, so some other B-mrade may have the opportunity of filling his pockets with chicken legs, and Comrade Gill, don't you forget to fill yours with biscuits and other substantial.

Respectfully Yours,
Comrade Robert Trotter.

HIGHLY RECOMMENDED.

EXAMINATION FOR GLASSES FREE.

Some Symptoms of Defective Eyes:

1. If you are unable to read fine print, or see or do fine work any length of time, especially by artificial light, you need glasses.
2. If the eyes ache or water, or anything "swims" or becomes "dim" or looks "hazy" or blurred when using near sight time, and you have to look to see painter, you need glasses.
3. If you have a smarting and burning sensation in and about the eyes, you need glasses.
4. If you find your eyes looking sideways, or to the head to one side or laying it over to see the shoulder in order to see an object plain, you need glasses.
5. If you squint the eyes to see more plainly, you need glasses.
6. If you see well at a distance and not close to you, or vice versa, you need glasses.
7. If you can't easily thread a needle, you need glasses.
8. If you become sleepy and have a tired feeling in the eyes after reading a short time you need glasses.
9. If you have redness or inflammation of the eyes and lids—frequently there is a dull ache or sense of discomfort in or about the eyes—you need glasses.
10. If you have a burning sensation in and about the eyes, you need glasses.
11. If you have glasses and they are not perfectly easy and comfortable they are not right, and are an injury to your eyes.
12. If you need glasses you need them now, and the sooner you get them the better for your eyes. Every day's delay may be costly, and may be one day less or total blindness. Then how foolish to postpone getting glasses.

If your glasses require to be ground to order, please call early.
