

LOCAL NOTES

For Rent.—One unfurnished apartment. 211 West Normal Avenue, Phone 329.

W. F. Czeskleba and family spent Saturday and Sunday in Salina.

Mrs. Emma Averill spent Saturday and Sunday visiting at the R. W. Ealden home near Ellis.

R. W. Ealden of Ellis, transacted business in Hays, Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Philip, Sr., accompanied by Miss Sutton and Mrs. Rouse, were Ellis visitors, Saturday.

For Rent.—Two small furnished rooms for small family. Close in, good well water. Price reasonable.—Anna Froelich Page.

Mr. Ferguson of Salina, was in town this week.

A. W. Seng left Monday night, for Pittsburg, to attend a convention of the Kansas Municipal League.

Miss Nellie M. Reeder sails for Paris, France, next Tuesday at 10:00 a. m., on the Tequectania, on a two months leave of absence.

Mrs. Evalina Cochran, Grand Matron of the Eastern Star, arrived this Thursday noon on the plug, enroute to LaCrosse. She was the guest of Mrs. Geo. Philip, Jr., at dinner at the Brunswick.

Moving Household Goods and General Dray Business.—Roy Thomas, Phone 550.

Geo. Drake, this week, found a letter containing a railroad pass to a city in Nebraska, which he turned over to B. M. Clark at the postoffice. The letter was addressed to a well known citizen of Hays.

See me for improved and unimproved city property at right prices. No inflation.—H. W. Oshant.

Mr. Street, who has been living in the Winchester house on East Normal avenue, has stored his household goods and with his wife and child, has driven to Illinois, where they will spend the winter. One of the Methodist church mechanics will occupy the house this winter.

A big crowd attended the picnic at Munjor, Tuesday, and report a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Zeigler entertained friends from Oakley, who drove down in their car, Monday evening.

Mr. Street of East Normal avenue, took a ride Sunday and Monday, out to his farm in Sheridan county. He reports a nice trip, good roads, and that many have their crops in, but it is awfully dry there.

Jonah Nulton is preparing to take a trip to his old home in Pennsylvania for the winter.

Ladies or men can have their coats relined—work guaranteed—at Bissing Brothers, South Chestnut street, Phone 208.

Kelley Bros., the egg and poultry buyers, were out in the country, Monday, returning in the afternoon with truck loads—over a thousand dollars worth of chickens, they had purchased at the various country stores in this county, which they shipped that evening. They take their truck and go after the poultry, paying the storekeeper the same price as delivered in Hays.

Coats Relined.—Ladies' or men's, at Bissing Brothers, Phone 208, South Chestnut Street.

The price of Ford automobiles—all makes—is down $50. Get yours now. E. M. Speer of the First National Bank, made a business trip to Topeka, Wednesday of last week.

F. W. Bunker and family who have been spending the past year and a half in the western states, returned to Hays, Wednesday.

Winifred Bader who has been spending the past five months with her brother, G. F. Bader and family, left Monday, for Great Bend, where she will make her home.

G. F. Bader and family left Wednesday morning for Illinois, where they expect to make their home.

The Ladies of the Lutheran Aid Society will meet in their rooms at the Church, Thursday afternoon, October 26th.

Dr. Wilson took in the Masonic doings in Salina, last week.

James O'Connor, formerly a resident of Hays and an employe of W. J. Madden, was in town this week. He is traveling agent for the Bankers' Life of Des Moines, Iowa.

Tuesday night, October 16th, brought this neighborhood its first real freeze of the season, so the leaves are falling fast this week; however, we may have lots of nice weather before Christmas.

Clarence Haffamier and Ella May Geringer were married in Kansas City, Missouri, Wednesday evening, October 18th. The above is a surprise to Clarence's many friends in Hays, however, the Free Press extends congratulations to the happy couple.

The Coyotes football team from Salina, will play the Tigers, this Friday.

The citizens of Hays who have automobiles, furnished free cars for the teachers during their three days stay in the city.

A number of people walked out to the new Normal Dormitory, Sunday. The basement is finished and the walls are up half way of the first story. The basement walls of the Cafeteria are up ready for the timbers.

Tuesday, the 17th, was another red letter day for the little city of Munjor, when the citizens conducted a real picnic. The weather was not of the best but a good crowd was present and everybody enjoyed the occasion. Many of the clergy and business men of Hays and the surrounding towns, were present. Munjor is always known to give the best picnics in the county.

Rev. Fr. Gilbert and Hermann Joseph of Ness county, together with Dr. F. J. Leiker, James Wasinger, and Louis Gabel, attended the picnic at Munjor, Tuesday. They also were Hays visitors a short time Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Rome of this city, drove to Munjor, Tuesday, and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Leiker and G. W. Klug, also of Hays, returned with them. Their car was loaded with goods purchased at the auction sale at the picnic. A big goose was one of the purchases made by young Klug.

In the absence of the Clerk of the District Court, Tuesday, Jacob Bissing took care of the office, while the Clerk conducted affairs at the picnic at Munjor, his home town.

A daughter, Alice Marie, was born Tuesday night, at St. Anthony's hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. Herr. Mr. Herr is the Ellis county farm agent.

A fine baby boy, Francis Lee, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Asa King, at St. Anthony's hospital, this week.

The democratic candidates were canvassing the local parishes on Sunday, laying a solid foundation for election in November.

The following officers were elected for the coming year, at the annual meeting of the Ellis County Executive Board of the American Red Cross, held last Thursday, October 5th: Chairman, H. F. Addison; Vice Chairman, Elizabeth Condit; Secretary, Mrs. W. W. Paul; Treasurer, Victor Holm; Home Service Dept., A. F. Bieker; Home Nursing Dept., Mrs. C. L. Wright; First Aid Dept., Dr. P. C. Anders; Chairman Junior Red Cross, Annabelle Sutton.

Many Enjoyed Columbus Day Entertainment

Bishop Cunningham General Assembly Fourth Degree K. of C. entertained numerous Knights and their friends on Columbus Day, the opening of their coming social season. Nearly three hundred enjoyed the four-hour well arranged entertainment. Among the out-of-town guests were Sir Knight and Mrs. R. J. Tague of Collyer; Sir Knight Joe Weigel, Ellis; Sir Knight and Mrs. F. H. Heili, Ellis; Sir Knight and Mrs. A. A. Niernberger, Ellis. Those present made known their wishes for a similar entertainment in the near future.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES

Robert Sedore, who had the misfortune to break his arm while playing at school last week, is getting along nicely. The A class sent him a surprise basket of fruit and candy, Friday, and the B class sent another surprise basket on Tuesday.

Misses Rosella McCarroll and Gladys Morrison left Tuesday night for Lawrence, where they spent Wednesday visiting the schools. They will attend the State Teacher's Association at Topeka during the remainder of the week.

One of the four Literary Clubs of the Junior High School arranged a short program which was given last Thursday afternoon. Invitations were sent to the parents of all Junior High School people and many came. After the program the Club served punch and wafers to the visitors in the Sewing room where the pupils' class work was on display.

Leland Cook is back in school again after a few days' absence on account of a mashed toe.

The Junior High School has lost another good student, Winifred Bader, who has gone to Great Bend.

The Ellis Junior High have asked the Hays Junior High for a football game.

SCHOOL HOUSE FOR SALE
Sealed bids will be received for the purchase of Pleasant Hill School House. Bids to be in by October 31, 1922. The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids. Bids to be directed to the School District Clerk, Martin Strohmeier.

THE CHURCHES

Trinity Lutheran Church
Rev. H. M. Snyder, Pastor
Parsonage, N. W. Cor. 6th Avenue and Oak Street
Phone 636

Combination Service, Sunday, 10:00 to 12:00 a. m. A service for study and worship. Welcome.
Luther League, 8:30 p. m.

Presbyterian Church
Gerrit Snyder, pastor.
9:45 a. m. Bible School. It is not too late to join some department of Bible Study. Men are especially invited to the men's class studying the life of Christ.
11:00 a. m. Preaching service with special music. The sermon on the state of the church at Laodicea will be the last of a series of four sermons.

5:30 a. m. Young People's Social Hour at the Manse.
6:30 p. m. Devotional Service. Topic: "Reverence and Worship."
Communion service and reception of new members Sunday, October 29. The pastor expects to preach at Silverdale, next Sunday at 3:00 p. m. "Come-go-to Church."

Methodist Episcopal Church
Glenn A. Baldwin, pastor.
"Thinking" is the subject for Sunday morning. "Temptations of a Christian" for the evening service.
The Joash Box program is growing in enthusiasm. Minute speakers every Sunday till November 12.
The Mid-Week church day program has opened with a rush. Every class has a good enrollment and the other features are being supported better than last year.
The membership drive begins this Sunday in Epworth League. The enthusiasm and interest taken in the young people's department this year is splendid. The Campfire Service last Sunday at League proved to be very successful.

Converse at Long Distances.
The air is so clear in the Arctic regions that conversation can be carried on easily, and without telephone apparatus, by persons two miles apart.

Best Form of Reading.
A man improves more by reading the story of a person eminent for prudence and virtue than by the finest rules and precepts of morality.—Addison.

Something Worth While.
Nat Goodwin used to tell a story of a tramp who, upon being asked to undertake the task of eating 30 quail in 30 days, pathetically exclaimed: "Make it turkeys."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON CLUB

Saturday, October 21, 1922
Hostess ..... Mrs. E. M. Speer
Subject ..... Washington, D. C.
Mrs. G. A. Baldwin
Mrs. C. G. Cochran

W. C. T. U.
The regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held Friday, October 27, at 3:00 p. m., at the Presbyterian Manse. Topic for discussion is "The Christian Home the Bulwark of Civilization."

ANNOUNCEMENT

As the business and my work does not allow me to see all the Voters of Ellis County, for that reason I wish to announce myself that I am a candidate for the office of Probate Judge. I will herein ask the Voters for their support at the election in November, 1922.
Your support will be appreciated.
J. B. Gross.

REGISTRATION NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the poll books of the City of Hays, Kansas, will be open from 8 o'clock a. m. until 10 o'clock p. m. on each and every day, including the noon hour, from the 18th of October until the 27th of October, 1922, both dates inclusive, for the purpose of registration of qualified voters of said City; and that from and after the 27th of October, 1922, said books will be closed for the purpose of registering and remain so until after the general election.
Witness my hand and the seal of said City this 9th day of October, 1922.

Emily C. Johnson, Clerk.

Everyone Wants

Good things to eat. Our store is full of the very best obtainable.

Our line of Dry Goods, Clothing and Shoes will also please you. A trial will convince you.

Carl Leiker & Son

Phone 267

Give us a trial

New Designs

In Light Weight Cut Glass Water Sets, Bud Vases, High and Low Sherbet Glasses

Beautiful in Design and Finish

STERLING SILVER

Mount Vernon and Chateau Thierry patterns

Full line of Adam, Patrician and Grosvenor patterns
Community Plated Silver

We have the largest and strongest line of High Grade Merchandise that we have ever carried. Every article guaranteed to give satisfaction.

J. T. MORRISON

The Jeweler & Optometrist

Citizens State Bank Bldg., N. Chestnut St.

HAYS, KANSAS

There is Just a Little Snap in the Air

We Notice Its Effect on Each Individual as They Hustle Along Just a Little Faster

And the white frost which greets us in the mornings reminds us that winter is just around the corner; and the scarcity of coal this winter, due to the prolonged strike, must be met with warmer clothing of all kinds. We have anticipated your needs along this line and have for your inspection:

Blankets of Cotton and Wool
36-inch Outing Flannel
Outing Flannel Garments
Wool Middies
Sheep Lined Coats
Leather Lined Vests

Large Comfort Cotton Bats
Good Warm Underwear
Middy Flannel
Blanket Lined Coats
Caps and Mittens

We invite your careful inspection of our merchandise. We meet any mail order competition and you see what you buy. We do not ask you to buy from a picture. Our stock is new. We have no shelf-worn or left-overs; and we stand behind the goods we sell.

J. B. Byars & Co.

The Store of Quality

And Good Service

One-Half Block East of First National Bank

You Can Assist

In perfecting our nation's banking organization by carrying your account with a bank which is a member of the Federal Reserve System.

First National Bank

HAYS

KANSAS