

PARNELL EXONERATED.

The Parnell Commission Makes Its Report—What the Conclusion Are.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—The report of the Parnell Commission, laid before Parliament yesterday, is a long and tedious document, taking up the case of each Irish member of Parliament against whom charges were brought and entering minutely into the details of the testimony. The upshot of the report, or what may be termed judgment of the court, is as follows:

It is proved that Messrs. Davitt, Harris, Dillon, W. E. O'Brien, W. Redmond, O'Connor, Condon and O'Kelly conspired to bring about the absolute separation of Ireland from Great Britain; the fac simile Parnell letter was a forgery; the defendants were sincere in denouncing the Phoenix park murders; the defendants did incite intimidation and invited the assistance of Ford. Mr. Parnell is exonerated from the charge of assisting Byrne to escape. It is not true that Mr. Parnell was intimate with leading Invincibles. Mr. Davitt was closely associated with the party of violence in America. The report is more moderate and impartial than was expected and consequently gives satisfaction to nobody except the judges, who are relieved to get it off their hands.

The report further says: "It is not proved that the defendants subscribed toward the assistance of or intimately associated with notorious criminals or paid money to procure their escape from justice. It is not proved that the defendants were aware that the Clan-na-Gael controlled the American League or collected money for the Parliamentary fund. It is not proved that at the time of the Kilmainham negotiations Mr. Parnell was aware that Sheridan and Boynton were organizing their outrages. The Invincibles were not a branch of the Land League. The League neither organized nor paid Invincibles. None of the defendants directly or indirectly had knowledge of the Phoenix Park conspiracy. Piggott was utterly unworthy of credit. All letters he produced as incriminating were forgeries."

On the other hand the judges say the league never gave the authorities any assistance in detecting crime. There are no details of the expenditure of £100,000 of the league funds. There is no valid excuse for the non-production of its books. The Commission has not received from Mr. Parnell or the league the assistance it expected. The report is signed by all judges.

SEDUCER SHOT.

Scene in a California Court Room—A Defenseless Young Girl Shoots Her Betrayer.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Feb. 14.—What may prove to be a tragedy occurred yesterday morning in the Superior Court, when Judge Campbell was hearing the case of Bertha Johnson against William Mayne, on the charge of attempting to murder by giving her poison to take, after causing her ruin. The defendant had denied on the witness stand all Miss Johnson's statements, and had declared her to be a liar. The counsel had retired to the judge's chambers to settle the instructions. Mayne sat on the west side of the long table before the court stenographer's table. The girl sat at a table back of him. She got up and walked to the end of this table, and pouring water in a glass touched it to her lips. Then she stepped forward and raising her hand, in which she held a large pistol, fired the ball into the back of Mayne's neck. He slipped down a little in the chair, with his head resting on the back of it, exclaiming "Oh!" Two shots then followed, both going over his head. Walter Blake, a reporter, stopped the fourth shot by knocking the pistol from her hand and pinning her arms. "Do with me what you will; he has ruined me," she said, very white and trembling.

A doctor present helped to lay Mayne on the floor and examined the wound. He never lost consciousness and the doctors say he has a chance to live. The girl was committed to jail. When asked why she did this act, Miss Johnson said:

"That man has ruined me. I am ready to die now. I did it because I did not get justice the last time, and I was afraid I would not get justice this time." District Attorney Dorney is placed in a delicate position. He believes in the justice of the girl's cause, and he says he will do his duty. If after consideration he is convinced his duty is to defend her, he will resign the office to do it. In the first case brought by the girl the jury disagreed. The girl is a Swede, and served as a waiter at the hotel, where she met Mayne. She is a short and comely blonde, and had been well thought of up to the bringing of the first case. She has no relatives in America, where she has been two years.

Fire at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—The large brick and stone building at Adams and Market streets, owned by the great dry goods house of J. V. Farwell & Co., caught fire early yesterday, and before the flames could be subdued the southern half of it was gutted.

A careful estimate of the loss made after the fire was under control places the total damage at $475,000, of which Mr. Work loses $325,000, Taylor Bros. $50,000 and Farwell & Co. on the building, $100,000; insured.

William Sallander, a fireman, while on a thirty-six-foot ladder on the south wall, was knocked from his footing and fell to the stone pavement below. He struck on his head and was picked up unconscious. His skull was fractured and he was internally injured.

Dead at His Post.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Feb. 14.—An accident occurred in the A. T. & S. F. yards last evening whereby Engineer William Taylor lost his life, though he saved his train and prevented any injury to the passengers. The passenger train from the north was five hours late and came into the yard at a high rate of speed. A switch was open and the train went in and was met by a yard engine with a heavy train. The yard engine was wrecked. The firemen of the passenger train and switching crew saved their lives by jumping, but Taylor, who remained at his post, was so badly crushed he lived only a few minutes.

A WRONGED WOMAN.

The Bride of Dick Hawes, the Birmingham brute, Expresses Her Contempt of the Convicted Murderer in Bursling Words.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 13.—Since Dick Hawes was taken from the side of his bride of six hours to answer the charge of murdering his first wife and his two children, scores of reporters and correspondents have tried in vain to interview the young lady he married. Miss May Storey, that was her maiden name, is now living quietly at the home of her parents in Columbus, Miss. There your correspondent secured an interview, in which she tells the whole story of how she once loved Dick Hawes, and how she hated him when she learned of his crime. When she first commenced to talk about the affair she said:

"I try to forget; people say I bear up bravely, but I had to do it. If I had given way to the terrible grief that was breaking my heart it would have killed my old father. You know he opposed the marriage and when the blow came it almost killed him. For his sake I have tried to bear it bravely. The subject is never mentioned at home now. You have seen father? His gray hairs; that awful trouble caused it. Do I love that man? No, no; God forbid! I hate him. He is not the man I loved. I loved a man who looked like Mr. Hawes, but I never loved a monster, a fiend in human shape."

Then she described at length how Hawes had represented that he was a widower, with only one child, and how he deceived even her father by exhibiting a bogus decree of divorce. She told of the wedding and how happy she was when they started on their bridal tour. When Hawes was arrested on their arrival in Birmingham he sent her to a hotel in charge of a friend, and it was two hours before she was told of the charge against him. Speaking of this she said:

"I could not believe it. It seemed too horrible. I thought I was dreaming. That night I did not close my eyes in sleep. My brain was in a whirl. I did not know what to believe or what to do. As long as I remained in Birmingham I seemed to be in some sort of a horrible trance. My father had heard of it all. In fact he had heard about it before I knew the truth, and he telegraphed me to come home. I reached home at last. It seemed an age since I left it and found relief in tears. Oh, it was terrible! I read the papers, read all about the finding of those bodies in the lake, the terrible riot at the jail, every thing; read all the evidence against Mr. Hawes, my husband. Then my dream was over. The man I loved was dead and in his place I saw a monster in human shape. All the love in my heart was dead; my confidence in men was destroyed forever. No man can be trusted. As long as I live I shall never place any confidence in man again. The very moment I fully realized the horror of his crime, then I loved him no more. My heart was dead. The character of the man I loved was so different from that of this man Hawes I can never think of them as one and the same."

MUCH CONFUSION.

The Rush into the Sioux Lands—Many Claimants to Each Lot.

PIERRE, S. D., Feb. 13.—Tuesday afternoon Colonel Lassen, in command of the military at Fort Pierre, received an official telegram from the War Department officially announcing the President's proclamation opening the Sioux reservation and that the military forces should be withdrawn. Information to this effect was sent to the daily papers of this city, and immediately extra copies were put out announcing the fact. Vehicles of all kinds were immediately called out and packed with men of all classes and there was an exciting race for the reservation. Every body who could get transportation joined the excited crowd, and those who could not ride walked. In thirty minutes the town was practically deserted; stores closed and business almost suspended.

At Fort Pierre the situation is serious. The bulk of the crowd first struck that village and immediately commenced to claim town lots, there being as many as ten claimants to one lot.

AT CHAMBERLAIN.

CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Feb. 13.—The situation on the town site west of this city became more complicated than ever last night when a large party of persons from along the Milwaukee road arrived with a force of surveyors and began at once running lines regardless of the rights of prior settlers, Indian lands or any thing else. A meeting was held by the several claimants for the purpose of adjusting the differences, but a compromise could not be made and the fight for the possession from this time on promises to be most bitter. Many settlers are putting up buildings on lands reserved for the Indians in several, but they are being ejected.

The Duke Sentenced.

PARIS, Feb. 13.—The Duke of Orleans, son of the Count and Countess of Paris, who came to Paris last week with the avowed intention of enlisting in the French army, and who was then arrested on the charge of violating the law existing from France all pretenders to the French throne, was again arraigned before the tribunal of the Seine to-day. He was adjudged guilty of violating the law and was sentenced to two years' imprisonment.

The Duke will be allowed to remain in the congerie for a few weeks before being removed to jail. The Government grants him this privilege in order to give him an opportunity to appeal from the sentence of the courts.

Excursionists in a Wreck.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 13.—By a collision on the Alabama & Great Southern road near Coaling between a south-bound special excursion train, consisting of twelve coaches carrying over a thousand people, and the north-bound Tuscaloosa accommodation train, Engineer Edward Doollittle of the special was killed and some ten or fifteen persons on the accommodation were hurt. The trains were running at great speed and both engines and the baggage and several other cars were demolished. The excursion train was en route to New Orleans. None of the excursionists are reported killed.

A Woman in the Case.

There always is. She is the power behind the throne. A woman's influence over the man who loves her is often absolute. To wield so great a power to guide, strengthen and help her husband, a woman's mind should be clear and healthy. It can not be if she is suffering from any functional derangement. How many a home is made unhappy because she who should be its life and light is a wretched, depressed, morbid invalid! Wives, mothers and daughters, why suffer from "female complaints" which are sapping your lives away, when Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will renew your health and gladden those about you. It has restored happiness to many a wretched life. Why endure martyrdom when release is so easy! In its special field there never was a restorative like the "Favorite Prescription."

The Voyage of Life.

Life is beset by evils and changes on every side. From birth to manhood and from manhood until old age eternal vigilance is the price of health. There is one remedy that has saved many a rickety, headaching, blood-poisoned, dyspeptic mortal to a life of usefulness and robust health. It is known as Dr. Bull's Sarsaparilla, and it is a Sarsaparilla that is Sarsaparilla. Not a thousand doses of molasses and water for a dollar, but a concentrated essence of the best virtues of sarsaparilla and other alterative herbs. It heals, it cures where other sarsaparilla and blood remedies have no more effect than so much stagnant water. If your system craves an alternative, if you value life, you do yourself a great injustice if you fail to try this excellent remedy. Demand it of your druggist and take no other.—Sidney Times.

It is no longer interesting. It is a sort of nervous chestnut, so to speak.—Boston Transcript.

INTELLECTUAL WOMEN.

"I do believe those women. Who for years and years and years, keep polishing their intellects, To ornament their biers!"

should again call the attention of their sex to the remedy especially provided for the correction of their physical ailments by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo. It is called "Favorite Prescription." Women for years and years have used it and have pronounced it the best corrective of all "female weaknesses" ever invented.

As an invigorating, restorative tonic, soothing cordial and bracing nerve, for debilitated and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has no equal. In fact, it is the only medicine for the peculiar weakness and ailments incident to females, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from its manufacturers, that it will, in every case, give satisfaction or its price ($1.00) will be promptly refunded. It improves digestion, invigorates the system, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, produces refreshing sleep, dispels melancholy and nervousness, and builds up both the flesh and strength of those reduced below a healthy standard. It is a legitimate medicine—not a beverage. Contains no alcohol to inebriate; no syrup or sugar to sour or ferment in the stomach and cause distress. It is as peculiar in its marvelous, remedial results as in its composition. Therefore, don't be put off with some worthless compound easily, but dishonestly, recommended to be "just as good," that the dealer may make more profit. "Favorite Prescription" is incomparable. The manufacturers' unprecedented offer to guarantee satisfaction in every case, or money refunded, ought to convince every invalid of this fact.
