LOCAL BREVITIES.

County Teachers' Association convenes next Saturday.

Quite a prairie fire was burning near Howell last Thursday. Archie Keech and E. W. Hall lost several stacks of hay.

There were twenty-seven applicants for teachers' licenses last Saturday, an unusually large number for this time of year.

C. M. Beeson has made a success at farming and raising cattle, but he sure struck his long suite when he turned his attention to politics.

Lost, a leather covered book, with my name on the back of front cover. The finder will please return to this office. J. T. METCALF.

The ladies of the G. I. A. to the B. of L. E. will give a "Pink Tea" on Wednesday evening, November 11th, 1891, in the brick building opposite the depot.

Election day passed off quietly and only two drunks were discovered and one of them was such a little fellow that he was not elected to fill one of the cells in the city bastille.

Andy Russell and J. M. Burson of the Ford Flour Mills were in the city yesterday. The miller of that establishment was called east and the mill will shut down for a few days during his absence.

The People's Party not being satisfied with the result of their efforts to put Democrats into office, have gone to sowing grain. The people of the entire county hope their success in all their business efforts will be much greater than has crowned their efforts in the political field.

Two cows and a calf became so elated over the New York election yesterday, that they attempted to knock the noon freight on the Rock Island all to smithereens. The engine threw the calf about twenty feet into the air and gently laid the bovines in the ditch on either side of the track.

One of the candidates for a county office was so disgruntled by the returns from Wheatland that he stopped one of the respected citizens from that precinct and abused him in a disgraceful manner, using language that would shame the most drunken harlot in the land. The gentleman thus assaulted is one of our best farmers and a true Third Party man, his work securing a large vote for that party.

A party of hale and hearty gentlemen from Indiana have been making a tour over the western states and are now stopping with J. H. Crawford who was a neighbor of theirs back on the hillsides of the Hoosier State. The party consisted of Messrs. Wm. Gorse, Isiah Houpt, Wm. Evans and Rufus Pribble, they are all men of mature years and have lived where they now reside since childhood. Mr. Gorse being now 76 years old, takes the premium as a youthful man and carries almost four score years in a manner that shows they are not burdensome. He has cast 55 votes in the same county and is living upon the farm his father owned. They are pleased with our climate although the unbroken prairies are a great contrast to the rugged hills of their state and gives them the idea that this is a much easier place to farm than their state.

P. N. Rice, brother-in-law of B. F. Milton is very low with consumption.

J. D. Shaffer, of Spearville, was in town this morning. He runs a chop mill at that place.

It seems as though Chalk Beeson had been fiddling right handed down in Wheatland precinct.

C. M. Beeson has laid aside politics and gone to his ranch. He left this evening and will remain several days.

Every teacher should make it a point to be at the Association next Saturday. It will meet at the Third Ward school building.

L. R. Miller would have been elected had republicans stood shoulder to shoulder and not been frightened into the Third Party.

Miss Mary Wright, a teacher from Nebraska and a sister-in-law of James O'Neal, was in the city Saturday. She will teach in southeast Ford this winter.

There was a light fall of snow in Ohio election morning, followed by a heavy fall of ballots which completely obliterated the Third Party and covered the Campbells so that only the hump appears.

Judge Hendricks and party were delayed from performing a very important duty on election day by the Judge's horse becoming very sick at Locke's livery stable Tuesday morning. The sagacious animal has a strain of republican blood in his veins.

Mr. Martineau, an engineer who has been associated with the Gilbert brothers in reference to the north ditch, will soon return to England. Mr. Martineau, though a conservative gentleman has made some warm friends among us who will regret seeing him leave.

I, after thirteen years working for the public in Dodge City, am going out of the millinery business. I will sell all hats, flowers and feathers, tips and birds at very low prices, many below cost—please, by your patronage, enable me to close them out in 30 days. IDA D. BEADLE.

Ho John! Have you seen anything of them to-day? "Of who?" "Of the Peoples party." "Yes, I saw him down at Willburn trying to convince Republicans that the fight was all between the Democrats and their men. He succeeded in getting about 20 of them to vote for Swan for Clerk and half a dozen to go to Crane." "Why did he do that?" Oh, because that would help defeat Scoffern, and Scoffern don't put on style enough to suit the Peoples Party. They want either a dude or a howler." "Where is it now?" Oh, they have gone into their hole for repairs, their sign is still out, but they have been so thoroughly cleaned out that they are now devoting all their time to repairs.

CONFIDENCE RESTORED.

During the campaign closed last Tuesday the News frequently expressed the belief that with the defeat of the People's party would come a speedy restoration of the credit lost through the success of that party a year before. Firm as we were in that belief, we hardly dared to hope that the evidence would be forthcoming so soon. In another column we present the evidence which proves our predictions to have been correct. A responsible farmer who needed some money attempted some weeks ago to negotiate a loan on his farm. He wanted $2,000 at ten per cent. interest, but could not get it. He tried to get $1,500 on the same security, but failed. The result of the election was then in doubt. Loan companies did not care to place a dollar until they knew what kind of district judges were elected. As soon as it was known that the People's party had sustained a crushing defeat, the agent who had refused to make a loan of $1,500 at ten per cent., at once hunt up our farmer friend and offered to let him have $2,000 on the same security previous ly refused, and at six per cent. interest.

Another case may be cited. A gentleman had been placing considerable money on Kansas securities. The parties whose money he handled became alarmed over the wild speeches made by the People's party orator. They ordered their agent to place no more money in Kansas, until election. They wanted to see whether our people would endorse the threats of repudiation. But now that the People's party has been defeated, the money withdrawn will be returned here to be loaned at low rates of interest.

There is no way of estimating the value to our county and to Kansas of Tuesday's election. Our people have demonstrated that they are in favor of the enforcement of law and the payment of honest debts. Confidence has been restored, and we may look to the near future to bring us greater prosperity than we have ever enjoyed in the past.—Hutchinson News.

- SOUTH SIDE SCHOOL. Bertha Rall, Gracie Rall, Alma Wintamutt. COLUMBUS, OHIO, NOV. 4.—Returns from the election come in slowly. At the State Headquarters of the two parties un-official information has been obtained from probably half of the 88 counties. Chairman Hahn, of the Republican committee claims the plurality of McKinley will be between 19,000 and 21,000, and that the general assembly will be 37 on joint ballot. Concerning the result he says: "It is due to Major McKinley's magnificent canvas, the thorough discussion of the tariff and silver questions and the common sense of the Ohio people. The feature of the result is the complete drop of the People's Party. Their vote in the state will not exceed 11,500 while before election they claimed over 75,000. The prohibitionists will probably lose 7,000 votes from last year, polling probably 16,000. This loss is traced to Republican counties and partially accounts for the gains in the strongholds. The total vote in the state is estimated at as close on 700,000 as in the last presidential contest. The last general assembly contained in the house 59 democrats and 51 Republicans. The senate, 17 Republicans and 16 Democrats. Under the new apportionment the next assembly will have only 31 senators, of which 18 will be Republicans and 13 Democrats. The house, 70 Republicans and 39 Democrats.

McGarry, H. Evans, James Campion, L. A. Lauber, Mr. Wilhof, Dr. Milton, Arthur Wright.

The smiling countenance and sparkling eye indicated that all were happy; but when supper was announced and they faced the table groaning under the weight of good things of 'his earth, they were happy indeed. But when they arose from those tables, the "groaning" wasn't in the table. The donation aside from the supper, amounted to $21.70. Grandma was too much overcome to express her gratitude at the time, and wishes to thank the many kind friends through the columns of this paper.

Y. P. S. of C. E. The Young Peoples' Society of Christian Endeavor, meets ever Sunday at 7 o'clock p. m., at the Presbyterian church. Interesting exercises at each meeting. The friends of this society are anxious to increase its membership, and a cordial invitation is extended to all the young people as well as the older ones who feel an interest in the grand cause, to come to these meetings Subject.—Lead by the spirit.

The Co-operative Plan.

We do not know who are the most active men in advocating the co-operative plan with the New York fakers, but we think it is safe to say that the loudest advocates of co-operation are men who have been carried by the merchants of their own town through every period of depression that has come to the country, and that many of them are now on the books of the merchants. We unhesitatingly say that the merchant is as indispensable to the farmer's prosperity as the farmer is to the merchant, and every sensible farmer knows it. There is not a business man in Kansas but knows that this co-operative scheme will prove a dismal failure in the end. But now when times are close it is dangerous to have the current of trade disturbed by such agitation. Four-fifths of the men who are talking so loud for co-operation will be asking their local merchants for credit before two years. The people of the city are deeply interested in the prosperity of the farmer. They would do anything in their power to promote the interest of agriculture because we live in an agricultural state. It is our chief industry. But all men must remember that the more diversity in Kansas the better for the agriculturists. These wild schemes will not succeed, but they should receive the stamp of condemnation at once and the Vincts and the non-conformist gang should be taught that their doctrines can not thrive in Kansas.—Salina Republican.

Giesecke Shoes. The Bee Hive has just received a full line of these shoes, every pair guaranteed.

Soldiers' Home Notes. The Misses Mollie and Annie Sweeney gave a pleasant party and hop to their many friends on last Saturday evening. All who attended report a very pleasant and agreeable time.

The telephone at the Home is kept very busy transmitting messages.

The two stone cottages are almost completed, and add greatly to the appearance of the Home.

The location of the families in the cottages just completed will soon take place.

Mrs. Robt. Shearing is again convalescent after a severe attack of malarial fever. The cottage that is being built by Messrs. Potter & Hicks, of Dodge City, is very neat in appearance, and although no new lumber is being used in its construction, it is the opinion of all, that it is the best cottage of the lot. The Board of Managers of the Home will be here some time during this month on their quarterly tour of inspection. LOOKOUT.

What a gross man McJunkin is. Yes, but you ought to see his brother. He's a grocer.

Perfect action and perfect health result from the use of De Witt's Little Early Risers, a perfect little pill.

Linier—That man Spacer seems to delight to make changes in every thing I write.

Editor—You'd get used to that; the editor is yet to be born who wouldn't have blue pencilled the Lord's Prayer.

De Witt's Sarsaparilla destroys such poisons as scrofula, skin disease, eczema, rheumatism. Its timely use saves many lives.

"Did you hurt yourself, love?" asked Mrs. Larkin, tenderly, as the hammer came down on her husband's thumb nail and he announced the fact with a shriek.

"No!" howled Larkin. "It was the man in the moon I hurt."

You never tried De Witt's Little Early Risers for constipation, biliousness, sick head-ache or you would not have these diseases.

Mrs. Gargoyle (as her husband caters at 2 a. m.)—George, I have a suspicion that you have been drinking. Gargoyle—M'dear, you should be likey Casar's wife.

"How was that?" "She was above suspicion."

Don't storm the system as you would a fort. It held by the enemy constipation, gently persuade it to surrender with De Witt's Little Early Risers. These little pills are wonderful convicers.

So Bilkins after courting that girl for ten years, you at last got up spunk enough to propose?

Wilkins—Yes, proposed last night. I guess it will be all right.

"Didn't she accept?" "Not exactly, but I think she will."

"What did she say?" "Its so sudden."

Investigate their merits. De Witt's Little Early Risers don't gripe, cause nausea or pain, which accounts for their popularity. Our druggists say they would not run a drug store without these little pills.

At a social gathering a widow did not engage in tripping the light fantastic toe. A gentleman approached her and asked, "Are you going to dance this evening?" "Not until after midnight." "Why not before?" "Because to-day is the anniversary of my second husband's death."

For the cure of headache, constipation, stomach and liver troubles, and all derangements of the digestive and assimilative organs, Ayer's Pills are invaluable. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take, always reliable, and retain their virtues in any climate.

Jack Tentor—I don't see why you keep me so long in suspense, Clara. Can't you say "yes" or "no" right out? Clara Hooks—Oh, you just wait until we're married, and you'll find I can speak out quick enough.

As you like it. Gray and faded whiskers may be changed to their natural and even color—brown or black—by using Buckingham's Dye. Try it.
