

German Syrup

Mr. Albert Hartley of Hudson, N. C., was taken with Pneumonia. His brother had just died from it. When he found his doctor could not rally him he took one bottle of German Syrup and came out sound and well. Mr. S. B. Gardiner, Clerk with Druggist J. E. Barr, Aurora, Texas, prevented a bad attack of pneumonia by taking German Syrup in time. He was in the business and knew the danger. He used the great remedy—Boschee's German Syrup—for lung diseases.

PERSONAL ADDRESS.

Lewelling Talks to the House From the Speaker's Stand.

He Shrinks From the Plain Duty Before Him to Drive Them Out; Pleads With Them to Vacate—Refuses Any Compromise.

At 7:30 Wednesday evening Governor Lewelling went to representative hall and addressed the members of the house. He introduced his address by saying that he had come to inform them that he should disperse them by military force unless they vacated the hall peacefully.

He then urged the house to surrender the custody of the hall into his hands without conditions.

Speaker pro tem Hoch asked the governor if it would not be fair, if any side abandon the hall, that both sides abandon it until a decision is reached; during the pendency of the contest.

The governor replied by refusing to discuss such a condition. He then referred to the statements so generally made that the republicans had been anxious to have a bill passed that the contest might be referred to court, and referred to the appropriation bill, which had been passed, as giving this opportunity; again urging a surrender of the hall to him.

Representative Greenlee then asked the governor if he would regard the decision of the supreme court as a final settlement of the difficulty; which the governor refused to answer.

After Lewelling had left the hall a citizens' committee, composed of ex-Governor Thomas A. Osborn, Dr. Peter McVicar, P. G. Noel and E. Bennett, took the speaker's stand. Governor Osborn advised resistance up to the point of bloodshed, but that the house should surrender and vacate if physically overpowered, without the shedding of blood.

Douglas and Hoch then gave instructions, the principal point being that no personal indignity to a deputy should cause him to use force arms; but that surrender would not be thought of until overcome by armed force.

Proclamation by the Governor.

Governor Lewelling issued a proclamation calling out the entire militia of the state. He first recites a statement of the organization of the legislature, the mutual recognition of the senate and house, and the executive recognition of both; and the obstruction to business by the legislature of a pretended organization of a so-called house of representatives and its officers. He then says:

"AND WHEREAS, It is the exclusive right of each house of the legislature to determine for itself who are entitled to seats therein, or who constitute the membership thereof, and that the courts of the state have no power or jurisdiction to inquire or determine such questions;

"AND WHEREAS, The Hon. J. M. Dunsmore, speaker of the house of representatives, has officially informed the executive of the state that the house over which he presides is menaced by the presence of a large number of persons who have intruded themselves into the hall of the house of representatives in a manner indicating a lawless and insubordinate purpose to break up the lawful house of representatives, and drive the officers and members thereof from their hall, and from the capitol building;

"AND WHEREAS, Said unlawful organization has unjustifiably and arbitrarily and unlawfully assumed to order the arrest of the chief clerk of the lawful house of representatives, with a view of precipitating a collision between said unauthorized and unlawful body and the lawful house of representatives and its officers and members, and with force and violence broken down the doors of the representative hall, and forcibly ejected therefrom the officers and members of the lawful house of representatives;

"AND WHEREAS, In order to avert, if possible, any resort to the military arm of the state to preserve the public peace, and to enforce the laws of the state, I applied to the sheriff in whose jurisdiction the capitol of the state is situated, to protect the said house of representatives in its constitutional rights and to so preserve the peace as to enable said house to peacefully continue its session; and said sheriff has failed and refused to comply with said order and directions;

"AND WHEREAS, The public peace should be preserved, and rights of the house of representatives should be respected, to the end that the people of the state may be protected in all their rights."

The proclamation then closes with the formal paragraphs which order the militia into service.

Relieved of His Command.

TOPEKA, February 17.—Colonel Hughes received the following orders:

STATE OF KANSAS, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE.

EXECUTIVE ORDER—No. 2.

WHEREAS, I have been informed as chief executive of the state that the hall of representatives has been forcibly invaded by an armed and insubordinate body of men, who have taken and now hold forcible possession of such hall, whereby the constitutional rights of the members of such house have been subverted and the public business of legislation prevented; I, therefore, order all persons except such members of the house of representatives and such other persons as are recognized as such by the Hon. J. M. Dunsmore, speaker of such house, to vacate such hall and the approaches thereto under penalty of forcible expulsion for their non-compliance with this order.

Witness my hand the great seal of the state at Topeka this 15th day of February, 1903.

L. D. LEWELLING, Governor.

EXECUTIVE ORDER—No. 3.

Colonel Hughes, Commanding H. R. Art, Adjutant General.

Sir—You will first proceed to clear the corridors of all persons except troops; you will then station a small detachment in the main corridors of the east and west wings of the capitol, after which you will proceed quietly with the remainder of your forces to Representative hall and eject all persons not specified in executive order No. 2, a copy of which I hand you herewith. Having removed from the hall such persons designated, you will station a detachment in and about representative hall and such other detachments as may be necessary to occupy the entrances to the capitol. In no case shall any person accompany the troops to Representative hall.

L. D. LEWELLING, Governor.

H. H. ASTR, Adjutant General.

Colonel Hughes told Governor Lewelling that if he should order him to burn the capitol, he would hold fire. He would as soon think of obeying as the orders he gave me. I told him as a colonel of the guards and a peace officer of the county, I consider it my duty to preserve the peace and not bring on bloodshed with an attacking force."

Lieutenant Colonel Barker, of Holton, took command.

Republican Address to the People.

The republican house adopted the following address to the people of the state:

To the Law Abiding Citizens of Kansas:—

An organized conspiracy to subvert the constitution and laws of the state, and to overawe the lawful house of representatives, is at this moment in full operation at the capitol of the state. The lawful authority of the house of representatives was openly and flagrantly defied by an assault upon the officers of the house in the discharge of their duties. The assault took place in the presence of the governor and was led by J. F.

Willits, J. W. Breidenthal and other lawless disposed persons.

When the house of representatives was closed to its members were affronted at the foot of the stairway leading to the house by a force armed with rifles under command of the adjutant general of the state. The members of the house of representatives were driven to the entrance of the hall and after battering down the door, which was barred against them, entered the hall of the house and proceeded to business. At this writing they still sit there, but are hourly threatened with a conflict with the forces of anarchy and revolution who openly proclaim their determination in advance to disregard any judgment of the court contrary to their own wishes, and to continue in defiance of the constitution and the laws.

The members of the house of representatives have earnestly sought to bring the questions involved to an issue in the courts, and to meet with open proclamation of disrespect for and defiance to the courts.

The cause of the constitutional government is at stake and it becomes every law-abiding citizen to take his stand in behalf of the principles of free government. At this juncture of affairs I deem it proper to advise you that your representatives need at this moment your moral aid and active support.

GEORGE L. DORLAND, Speaker.

The Injunction.

In the morning of the official publication of the legislative appropriation bill many of the members and officers of the legislature presented their warrants and received their pay.

At about 11 o'clock Judge Hazen, of the Shawnee county district court, granted the restraining order to prevent Treasurer Biddle from paying out any money under the act and to prevent Auditor Prather from issuing any warrants under said act. Sheriff Wilkerson appeared in the auditor's office and read the injunction to Mr. Prather, and five minutes later he performed his duty in the auditor's office. Both Mr. Prather and Mr. Biddle stated that they would refuse to obey the order of the court, not recognizing that a district court had jurisdiction over a state officer; but after having consultation with Attorney General Little, they decided to discontinue the issuance and payment of vouchers.

All Tuesday night Ben Rich and his men had occupied the auditor's office and assisted his force in preparing the warrants to be issued against the members of the legislature in the morning containing the official publication of the act. As soon as old blind Jesse made his appearance on the streets with the Capital, at 4 o'clock in the morning, the populists began to receive the warrants. Attorney General Little, they decided to discontinue the issuance and payment of vouchers.

The Sheriff Calls a Halt.

At 11 o'clock Wednesday night Sheriff Wilkerson sent to Governor Lewelling the following letter:

TOPEKA, KAN., February 15, 1903.

To His Excellency, L. D. Lewelling, Governor of the State of Kansas:

Sir: I, as sheriff of Shawnee county am charged with the duty of preserving the peace within the territorial limits of this county.

I am advised that you have called upon the military power of the state to preserve the peace in this county. I wish to inform you that this action on your part is without my consent or concurrence and is wholly unnecessary as I have no troops impaneled to you that I am unable to preserve the peace within this county.

I now wish to inform you that I am fully able and prepared to enforce the laws and preserve peace and order, and it is my intention to do so. Very respectfully yours,

J. M. WILKERSON, Sheriff of Shawnee County, Kansas.

The sheriff is acting under legal advice as to what is his official duty, it being the requirement of the statute that he shall keep the peace of the county, and, if he requires aid, shall call upon the governor for militia aid. The sheriff is the only legal commander and the only officer with authority to call the militia.

Recommends Annexation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 17.—The president sent a message to the senate recommending the annexation of the Hawaiian islands. It was accompanied by the treaty of annexation concluded between the secretary of state and the Hawaiian commissioner, and a mass of correspondence relating to the question at issue. The treaty is brief, providing merely for the annexation of the islands under the present provisional government, and leaving the details of a permanent form of government, etc., to the action of congress. The correspondence is very voluminous, going back many years, and gives a complete history of the islands as far as negotiations with the United States are concerned.

The message of the president and the correspondence was received in executive session with attention such as no message from the president has received in recent years. There was no debate beyond a few questions directed to the chairman of the senate relations committee, but every word was carefully weighed, and the message and treaty met with almost general approval.

For Open Joins.

TOPEKA, February 17.—Allen Sells, Oscar Kraus and L. T. Yount have been appointed by Governor Lewelling police commissioners for the city of Topeka, to succeed the present commissioners, P. E. Bonebrake, Dr. F. S. Mabe and Charles F. Spencer.

Colonel Allen Sells was named as chairman of the board and L. T. Yount as secretary. Sells and Yount are the populists members and Kraus is a democrat. Yount is a prohibitionist, but the other two members, Sells and Kraus, are both anti-prohibitionists.

The object of making the appointment seems to have been to secure a police force composed entirely of populists.

Attorney General Appears.

TOPEKA, February 17.—When the proceedings in injunction came up yesterday before Judge Hazen, Attorney General Little appeared in court and announced that he had been directed by the governor to conduct the case for the state. He asked for a continuance until to-day, but it is known that if this had not been granted he would have filed a motion to dismiss the application on the part of the state for an injunction on the auditor and the treasurer.

Sheriff Wilkerson.

TOPEKA, February 17.—Yesterday Sheriff Wilkerson, of Shawnee county, gathered and qualified quite a number of deputies to assist in putting the peace on his own impulse, and that he would, in due time, assume control of the state house and disperse the militia, who can only be there legally, as in answer to his call and under his command. This at least is the estimate of his duties, authority and responsibility.

Grave Fears Entertained.

TOPEKA, February 17.—It was broached yesterday, and considered of importance, that the supreme court judges are in peril in their rooms in the basement of the east wing of the state house.

It was thought a possibility that some over heat of passion, acting on his own impulse, might kill Judge Horton or Judge Johnston, with the idea of making a vacancy on the bench.

An Incident.

TOPEKA, February 17.—While the militia were carefully guarding the state house yesterday, even forbidding entrance to the state house grounds, D. R. Anderson, with a party of about ten from Leavenworth, marched into the state house and were not obstructed in any way.

World's Fair Souvenir Coins

The Official Souvenir of the Great Exposition—

5,000,000 of which were donated to the World's Columbian Exposition by the Government, are being rapidly taken by an enthusiastically patriotic people.

As there early promised to be a demand for these Souvenirs that would render them very valuable in the hands of speculators, the Exposition Authorities decided to place the price at and sell them direct to the people, thus realizing $5,000,000, and using the additional money for the further development of the Fair.

Considering the fact that there were but 5,000,000 of these coins to be distributed among 65,000,000 people, in this country alone (to say nothing of the foreign demand,) and that many have already been taken, those wishing to purchase these mementoes of our Country's Discovery and of the grandest Exposition ever held, should secure as many as they desire at once.
