LOCAL BREVITIES.

The weather on election day was very pleasant.

R. W. Evans is in Kansas City on business this week.

The High School received a fine piano Tuesday morning.

Several carloads of material for the round-house have arrived.

The shipments of cattle and sheep continue from the territories.

James Potter, electrician, goes to Durango, Colo., to engage in his business.

J. H. Mullendore left on Monday, for Topeka, where he will visit his two daughters.

A. Gluck has a photograph of Francis Schlatter, the healer, who is working such wonderful cures at Denver.

The fast train carries passengers to points where the train stops. Garden City and La Junta are western stops.

The Hutchinson News, under its new management, favors the Republican platform, and is in favor of bimetalism. This is sensible.

The Great Western Hotel has arranged for the boarding of twenty-five men who are engaged in the construction of the new round house.

R. B. Hill and Thos. O. Hill, of Ford, have gone to the east part of the state, where they will remain until next fall. They leave a part of their stock here.

Be sure to attend the concert at Kelly's opera house Friday evening, Nov. 8th, for the benefit of St. Cornelius church. An entertaining program will be rendered.

"Hark from the tombs, a doleful sound." G. M. Hoover, of Dodge City, is talked of for the Democratic nomination for congress next year.—Hutchinson News.

James Martin, who is running a train from Gainesville, Texas, to Purcell, is in the city visiting his family. He has a 30 days leave. Mr. Martin shows the effect of living in a warm climate.

Miss Amelia Etrick has returned from the State Normal School, and intends leaving in a few days for Boston, Mass., where she will take a course of studies in the schools of that city of eminent culture and education.

Mrs. Gluck returned last week from Denver. During her visit in Denver she visited Francis Schlatter, the healer, who is becoming renowned for remarkable cures. Mrs. Gluck was cured of sick headache, a nervous complaint that has been troubling her for years.

Awarded Highest Honors—World's Fair.

Weather strips which keep out dust, cold, rain and snow and stops rattle of windows, at H. Juneau's Lumber Yard.

Dr. O. H. Simpson, dentist, will be at home continuously for 30 days, after the 16th, and will attend to his professional duties.

Jake Schlickerman, the conductor who was so seriously injured about three months ago, is in the city, and he expects to resume his place on the road in a few weeks.

P. H. Young, the jeweler, returned Monday, from Chicago, where he made some purchases for the holidays. He relates his experience with the earthquake while in the windy city.

On Friday evening, November 8th, there will be a concert given at Kelly's opera house for the benefit of St. Cornelius Episcopal Church.

Selections will be rendered by the Ladies Quartette and Beeson's Orchestra, besides Soloists, among whom are Prof. Lindborg, violinist, and Prof. Leeka, vocalist.

Reserved seats for the Dewey Haywood Concert Co. will be placed on sale Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, at Amos' Drug Store. Reserve your seats early as there is sure to be a rush as the management has made the price 50c, so as to give every one an opportunity to go. General admission will also be 50c and no seats will be reserved the evening of the concert at the window. So take our advice go early and reserve your seats.

F. A. Mitchell, pastor of the Presbyterian church, preached at Greensburg last Sunday. Next Sunday he will preach at Liberal, but claiming his rights as an American citizen he will be home in time to vote.—Ashland Journal.

Fuller often sought the advice of the editor of the GLOBE-REPUBLICAN as to the profession he should follow. He contended for the law, when our advice was for him to adopt the ministry. We see he has come to it at last.

A prairie fire, on Tuesday of last week, swept over a good portion of the southwest part of Concord township, and passed over into Gray county, destroying grass and feed. J. K. Sayre, of Gray county, lost $100 worth of feed, and W. W. Frink also lost feed by the fire. The strip burned over was about 10 miles long and from one to two miles wide. The fire started from the burning of fire guards, and was carried by a whirlwind out of the control of those who were burning the fire guards.

Death of Mrs. Simpson.

Mrs. P. J. Simpson, aunt of Mrs. H. T. Davis, died at Warrensburg, Mo., Friday. The remains will be brought to Topeka for burial, arriving this morning. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from Mrs. Davis' residence, 822 Sixth Avenue West. Rev. J. S. Glendening of North Topeka will conduct the services.—Capital, 3d.

The deceased was the mother of Dr. O. H. Simpson, of this city, and made her home here. She resided with a daughter in New Mexico, but recently went to Warrensburg on a visit, where she died. Her illness was of short duration, being pneumonia.

Mrs. Simpson was 59 years of age; she made her home with her son O. H. Simpson, in Dodge City.

Getting Ready to Die.

The Ford County Leader is preparing to "turn its toes to the daisies," as appears from the following, from the issue of last week:

In the Leader of August 16th, we called the attention of the Ford county populists to the fact that we were needing money badly and had pressing obligations to be met, and urged them to help us with their subscriptions if they wished the paper to live. A few responded promptly but a few persons cannot keep a paper alive unless you do your part don't be surprised at the death of the paper at any time. It cost us $100 in cash as well as a great deal of hard work and self-denial to keep the paper alive last year. This year we have no $100 to invest, and unless the populists of this county show their appreciation of our efforts in a more substantial way than heretofore, we will have to give it up as a bad job and seek a new field. We do not expect to mention this matter again.

The County Election.

The result in the election for county officers was not altogether anticipated by the Republicans, and the defeat of Mr. Tarbox for sheriff, though by a very small vote, could have been avoided had all Republicans remained true to their party fealty. Various causes contributed to Mr. Tarbox's defeat, and we shall not mention them; but we must confess that Mr. Bell is a popular man in Dodge City.

Mr. Leidigh is elected county clerk by a small majority, and his popularity is shown where he has reduced the opposition vote considerably.

The election of the Republican ticket with the exception of the candidate for sheriff, is something to be proud of, and yet the defeat of Mr. Tarbox is a result to be sincerely regretted.

The vote on sheriff is so close that the official count will be necessary to determine the result.

Mr. Tarbox can congratulate himself that he is stronger than his party in many of the country districts; but of the fifty or sixty Republicans in the city who voted against him we suppose no consideration of personal motives governed them in their action.

Mr. Tarbox does not admit of defeat, owing to the close vote, and will await the result of the canvassing board, who will canvass the vote to-morrow.

The Republican ticket made a good fight against the combined opposition. It is not believed there is a Republican majority in the county over this opposition, and the result shows a great victory.

Jerry Simpson carried the county last year by a small majority, thus indicating the strength against the Republicans.

The Election Elsewhere.

Republicans carry everything. New York is Republican by 54,000 majority, and elected the legislature.

Ohio, Kentucky, New Jersey and Maryland have gone Republican.

Ohio gives 100,000 Republican majority; Republicans claim Kentucky by 15,000 majority, and the legislature by six votes.

New Jersey gives 24,000 Republican plurality.

In Kansas the vote was light, but the Republicans carry a majority of counties.

DEED—In this city Tuesday evening, after a lingering illness, at the residence of her son, B. F. Milton, Mrs. N. G. Collins, wife of Rev. N. G. Collins. The funeral services were held at the residence of B. F. Milton yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and were conducted by Rev. W. H. Rose.

The remains were taken to Clinton, Mo., where Mrs. Collins formerly lived, and where her former husband is buried and where a son now lives. Her son, Dr. C. A. Milton, conveyed the remains to Missouri.

Mrs. Collins was born March 23, 1820, and was past 75 years of age. She was married to Elder N. G. Collins in 1855.

Mrs. Collins had been a helpless invalid since early in the spring, and her death was imminent at any time. She showed some signs of improvement a few days ago, but these indications were only the preparation for death.

The GLOBE-REPUBLICAN extends sympathy to those in sorrowing. Mrs. Collins was an estimable lady and much beloved by all her friends and acquaintances.

Foster, the weather prognosticator, describes a "disturbance." "Disturbances," he says, does not necessarily mean a storm, but a departure from the average or even weather conditions. When the temperature goes above or below the monthly average for a certain hour in the day, that constitutes a disturbance." Hereafter when we read about weather disturbances we shall not become alarmed.

The following paragraph appeared in the news columns of the STATE JOURNAL last Saturday:

The municipal curiosity of the United States is the little village of Grifton, N. C., which lays claim to more divisions than any other town, large or small, in the world. It is located in two counties, three townships, two congressional districts, and two senatorial, and two judicial districts.

This attracted the attention of a subscriber at Florence, and he outdoes it with the following:

"The town of Lincoln, Iowa, beats this; it is located in two states, two counties, two school districts, two judicial districts, two townships, two senatorial and two congressional districts and two voting precincts.

How To Prevent Croup.

SOME READING THAT WILL PROVE INTERESTING TO YOUNG MOTHERS. HOW TO GUARD AGAINST THE DISEASE.

Croup is a terror to young mothers and to post them concerning the cause, first symptoms and treatment is the object of this item. The origin of croup is a common cold. Children who are subject to it take cold very easily and croup is almost sure to follow. The first symptom is hoarseness; this is soon followed by a peculiar cough, which is easily recognized and will never be forgotten by one who has heard it. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given all tendency to croup will soon disappear. Even after the croupy cough has developed it will prevent the attack. There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by W. F. Pine.

John Thompson of Shelby, Mich., died this morning, at 4 o'clock, at the Great Western Hotel, of consumption. Mr. Thompson came here a few weeks ago with a young daughter, in the hopes that he would be benefited in health. He was improving, having gained several pounds in weight. The deceased was about 45 years of age, and leaves a family in Michigan. He was a farmer.

Foster says "watch for a warm, dry period in November. Some rain in places at the beginning of the month and generally cool. Then a general warming up west of the crest of the Rocky Mountains, then the warm air moves eastward. The long temperature curve of November is expected to begin about the first of the month. Following this the long curve temperature average will gradually rise again."

If the judgment of the national weather bureau is to be trusted, November will put an end to the long drouth, and throw in plenty of storms and snow for good measure. The drouth has become very tiresome and in many localities distressing, and while the country is not yearning for storms it will welcome moisture in any form. The sooner it comes the better.

Four schooners of people enroute from Washington to the strip passed through town Saturday. They had a good outfit of teams and wagons and were driving 110 head of horses, and had been on the road four months. Previous to leaving Washington they sold their wheat at 14 and 15 cents per bushel and 1700 head of horses at $35 per head. They were to be slaughtered and canned.—Ashland Journal.

The farmers near Wichita are said to be losing their cattle which are feeding on corn stalks. If they give them all the salt they will eat it will probably put an end to the trouble.—Topeka Journal.

We suppose the Journal understands the proper remedy. If any of our cows get sick from eating corn stalks we shall try his remedy. We always did have more faith in the news editor's advice about sick cows than that given by the cow doctor. As a rule most editors are good cow doctors—especially city editors.

The wife of Mr. Leonard Wells, of East Brimfield, Mass., had been suffering from neuralgia for two days, not being able to sleep or hardly keep still, when Mr. Helden, the merchant there sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and asked that she give it a thorough trial. On meeting Mr. Wells the next day he was told that she was all right, the pain had left her within two hours, and that the bottle of Pain Balm was worth $5.00 if it could not be had for less. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by W. F. Pine.

Six weeks ago I suffered with a very severe cold, was almost unable to speak. My friends all advised me to consult a physician. Noticing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised in the St. Paul Volks Zeitung I procured a bottle, and after taking it a short while was entirely well. I now most heartily recommend this remedy to anyone suffering with a cold. Wm. Kuhl, 678 Selby Ave., St. Paul, Minn. For sale by W. F. Pine.

THE BEE HIVE!

Seasonable Talk.

We are likely to have a very cold winter according to Prof. Hicks, and it behooves us all to prepare for it.

Underwear.

We bought our Fall stock of Men's, Ladies' and Children's Underwear as early as last January while wool was the lowest it has been for years. We contracted with one of the largest New England manufacturers at that time, and four months later they wrote and offered us a profit of 15 per cent to cancel our order. We said NO! and to day we are showing the best line of these goods and selling them for less money than many merchants have to pay for them. Children's Undervests commence at 15 cents each; Ladies' Undervests at 29c each, and Men's Undervests at 49c each.

Blankets.

We are strictly in line with Gray Blankets 10-4 size, from 75 cents a pair up.

Canton Flannels.

We commence the Unbleached at 5c; Extra heavy at 7 1/2c and 8 1/2c, and the heaviest at 10c, worth 15c.

All Wool Flannels.

We are selling all wool Scarlet and Grays, extra heavy, for 25c—the kind usually sold for 35c.

Dress Goods.

Never before was our stock of Dress Goods so attractive or the price so low. We are showing a line of Worsted Brocades at 15c, and all wool Tricots and Sackings at 25c, 35c, 45c, 50c, 65c and $1.00. Our stock of Novelty Dress Goods is selling like hot cakes. Low prices prevail as usual with anything bought at the Bee Hive.

We are right in the front rank this season. Our stock is larger and prices lower than ever. Come and see what free wool prices mean.

The Mammoth Potato.
Colorado can make the boast of having one of the most curious freaks in the world. It is a mammoth potato. It was grown by J. B. Swan of Loveland, and this huge vegetable is 28 inches long by 14 in diameter and weighs 86 pounds and 10 ounces, which is equivalent to the weight of 1 1/2 honest bushels of ordinary potatoes. It belongs to the variety so appropriately christened Maggie Murphy and has added another luster to that excellent brand.

In a letter to Ewing Herbert recently Jake Stotler, who now lives in Missouri, says: "Give my regards to Governor Morrill. I like him better than ever and I hope he will be triumphantly re-elected. If ever a man was lied about and basely accused and unfairly criticised it is Morrill. They clamor for him for their candidate, and as quick as he got in the pie-ants commenced to vilify him. I often wish I was back with a paper to put in my lies. Do you know I have come to think prohibition is a very considerable humbug and a handy club for some fellows. Here we have high license, No more drinking and no pulling hair over the temperance issue. Prohibition gives a broad street for hypocrisy and the venting of personal spleen."
