It is not necessary that a newspaper should print everything that happens, even though it be news. If it wounds the sensibilities, or injures the interest or reputation of some person when no substantial good can arise from the publication, it had better be omitted. There is such a thing as an editor having a too lofty as well as a too low conception of his duty. Unless a good purpose can be subserved by the publication of an article involving the character or the interest of an individual, no professional or ethical obligation rests upon the editor to print it. Even if the printing of it may prove a public benefit the editor should weigh carefully the fact whether such benefit would be offset by the damage done to private character. There is no ironical rule requiring the publication of everything that happens. The highest editorial qualities is that of discrimination.

WARM WEATHER COMFORTS.

Woman's Work Made Easier.

WHAT TO BUY YOUR WIFE.

Spring has come and the prudent housewife naturally looks around for some of the comforts of the season. The hot cooking stove must be discarded as warm weather approaches, and the thing to take its place is considered. At the store of the Zimmermann Hardware Company we find the wonderful "New Process," by which cooking can be made easy. It is the original evaporating vapor stove, and some of the objections to other gasoline stoves are removed in the construction of the "New Process." It is a stove that lights like gas. A stove that makes no smoke nor smell! A safe stove! An economical stove! A stove that requires no skill to operate! A stove that never gets out of order! A stove that pleases the user, satisfies the dealer, and stays sold! The only stove correct in principle—"Evaporates," does not "Generate," and is absolutely without any of the complicated and annoying devices used on all vapor stoves before its introduction. The reservoir is readily lifted from the stove—cannot be filled while the flames are burning. By actual test during the past six years it has been proven that the "New Process" consumes less gasoline for the amount of heat given than any other style or kind of Vapor Stove.

Another Gasoline Stove.

The Zimmermann Hardware Company can fit you out with anything in the line of the gasoline stove. They are in touch with the times and can give you something for less money than most dealers. The Jewel Leaders Nos. 28 and 29 at $11 and $13 fill the bill exactly. 50 per cent is saved in operating these stoves. You will not regret buying a Jewel gasoline stove.

Keep Everything Cool.

You know how it is when you have no ice box in the house, and your butter melts, your vegetables wilt and many of the table delicacies become stale and unfit for use; but why discuss a necessity so patent to every one. You should call at the Zimmermann Hardware Company and order one of their Alaska Refrigerators. This is the best refrigerator in use.
