DODGE CITY, KANSAS, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1900.

TWENTY-FIFTH YEAR. VOL. XXIV, NO. 4.

T. A. McNEAL'S SPEECH

Abounding in Wit, Patriotism and Good Sense.

The opera house was filled Saturday night with a crowd that surpassed any meeting in this campaign. It represented the best interests in the country, and the well centered feeling in the crowd indicated that the audience and speaker were in sympathy. Mr. McNeal is a pleasant speaker and soon gets his audience in responsive chord. His speech abounded with humor, and his stories convulsed the audience which was shown in rounds of great applause. He made some convincing arguments. His speech will be told and retold until election day and it will afford some striking points in discussion of the issues of this campaign.

Mr. McNeal spoke for two hours, and we can only give a synopsis of his talk. He said on November 6th the people will record their verdict, and that verdict will be in favor of letting well enough alone. All people ought to meet together, not for the purpose of abusing each other, but for what is best for us—to decide what is best for us and our State and Nation. We must realize that we are not subjects but sovereigns to rule the greatest country that ever existed.

We ought to discuss the questions that affect us all in fairness and candor and in good spirit. For this reason he would abuse no person no matter how much he may differ from him politically. If this condition prevailed everywhere there would be no reason to complain no matter who is elected President.

Artful demagogues have worked upon persons to their great prejudice. Ultimately the people will get right, for the majority of the people are honest. Only a small majority of men are dishonest. Your neighbors do not need laws to enforce their honesty. Jails are for a small minority to keep them from interfering with the majority. Majorities will get right if they have an opportunity. He was willing to submit to the majority if there is a fair ballot and a fair count. There will be 112 votes in the electoral college, representing a people the majority of whom are practically suppressed. This is against our right of government, and it is unjust to us all. He referred to some of the southern states with their disfranchisement laws.

Mr. McNeal said his christian parents had taught him never to speak evil of the dead. He referred to the Populist party. He told a story and the illustration was like the poodle dog in the bowels of the lion—the Populist brother was in the carcass of the democracy.

The Republican party is the place for the Populist party, for business and patriotic reasons; and Mr. McNeal spoke intelligently on this point.

The old trait of states rights, the Calhoun doctrine, still prevailed. Our government is simply a big business institution. Politics is the leading business of the country. A political party is the business manager of the country. Our business is to see to its good management. We must judge political parties on the same principle as a business enterprise. Judge them by the record they have made and the good they have done.

For 32 years the country has been dominated by the Republican party, notwithstanding Cleveland was President two terms, but he had a Congress not favorable to him, so there was no change practically in the policy of the government.

His deprecated condition of finances when Democratic party obtained. Our business is done on confidence and credit. Now there is a lull in business over lack of confidence. The confidence of the American people does not rest in Democracy. They are afraid of Bryan, with his threatened change of policy destroying the credit and confidence of the people. Mr. McNeal told a story illustrating this point. A negro dance was suddenly broken up by the appearance of a skunk. When questioned by the solitary dancer remaining, the skunk said it had done nothing; but the affrighted dancers escaped fearing what the skunk might or could do. So it is with Mr. Bryan. It is what he might do.

Mr. A. T. Reid's chalk pictures were unique and were presented at some point of Mr. McNeal's speech where they were applicable. They had a telling effect.

The picture of Tillman with pitchfork over prostrate form of negro, and Bryan hugging a dusky Filipino maid were striking illustrations. They showed tons of sympathy for the little brown sister, but none for the little black brother. As Mr. McNeal said, the doctrine of the consent of the governed applies abroad, but not at home.

Mr. Reid is a skilled cartoonist, and the audience enjoyed his tact and quickness.

Stepped Into Live Coals.
"When a child I burned my foot frightfully," writes W. H. Eads, of Jonesville, Va., "which caused horrible leg sores for 30 years, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured me after everything else failed." Infallible for Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Sores, Bruises and Piles. Sold by W. F. Pine for 25c.

in chalk portraying. The liberty of the art of cartoonist was shown in the picture of Bryan, with mouth widely drawn from much speaking. So wide he could whisper in his own ear. The ample mouth is because it is open all the time. Mr. McNeal said crowds go to see him, "they like to see him work his jaw." McKelley's picture was a more creditable piece of the cartoonist's skill. It showed the well marked features of the President's face, and the audience readily recognized the familiar form by rounds of applause in approbation.

Mr. McNeal's speech put the people in a happy frame of mind, and while the Democrats saw no "argument" in it, there were between the lines of humor and truth most convincing proofs of the justice of the cause he espoused. God is on the side of the right, and the truth of this proverb will be manifested.

Vote for J. C. Baird for District Clerk, one of the best office men in the city. He could do the work in the clerk's office in fine shape.

There are no sore spots on the Republicans of Ford county. Within a residence of 23 years here we have never known the Republicans to be so harmonious. If there is any kicking on any county candidate it does not come to our knowledge.

It is generally conceded that R. W. Evans will poll the full Republican strength, with the addition of the votes of some of his old time friends who will swell his majority. This is not saying too much, for the reason that Mr. Evans' political and official record is good, and he has always been successful before the people. No old political grievances can enter into this campaign, for the candidates this year are not responsible for the defeat of any Republican candidate heretofore. No sensible Republican will take upon himself to compass and defeat his party because at some time his favorite candidate was beaten for office.

Judging from the manner in which the people are taking hold of the candidacy of L. G. Grobety for county attorney, it seems unnecessary for the GLOBE REPUBLICAN to make any particular efforts in presenting Mr. Grobety's claims. The people realize that Mr. Grobety, should he be elected county attorney, would not prostitute the office to personal ends. He would prosecute criminals to the best of his ability and with honesty of purpose. He would act with justice and fairness and nothing could change his sworn duty. Mr. Grobety is recognized as an honorable and upright man and would discharge the duties of county attorney with the view of economy in cost of court and other expenses. When it comes to legal ability, Mr. Grobety is well qualified. He is a sober and industrious citizen and would reflect credit upon the office. We feel confident from the number of congratulations we hear expressed that Mr. Grobety will secure a large vote from all parties. This is proper. Should he be elected he will be an officer of the people and not of a faction or a party.

There is no county office within the gift of the people more important, none in which more care and judgment should be exercised in selecting the man who shall fill it than that of Probate Judge. The Probate Judge is the custodian under the law of all the estates of deceased persons and the official guardian of all minors, and it is his duty to so administer upon the estates left to them that it shall not be wasted, but that it shall be taken care of in an honest and business like manner. Unless a Probate Judge has some knowledge of the law, expensive mistakes may be made which would entail large expense and often result in the wasting of the property. He should be a man of the strictest integrity, of sound judgment and possessed of that knowledge of the law necessary to guard against mistakes. Such a man is J. L. Finley, who has filled that office intelligently and honestly for the last two years, and is a nominee for a reelection for the second term. Aside from these qualifications Mr. Finley is in every way deserving of the office. He is an old soldier, he gave three years of his life in the service of his country and was in twenty-one pitched battles. There is no man on any ticket in Ford county more deserving of the votes of the people nor any one that will more faithfully fill the office to which he is nominated than J. L. Finley, and the people will surely elect him.

COLLECTIONS—W. H. Preston, Justice of the Peace, does a general collecting business. All accounts entrusted to his care will receive prompt attention.

When you cannot sleep for coughing, it is hardly necessary that any one should tell you that you need a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to allay the irritation of the throat, and make sleep possible. It is good. Try it. For sale by W. S. Amos, Druggist.

PHILIPPINE LETTER.
From Our Special War Correspondent.
LEON, BOH L, P. I., August 26, 1900.
Here I am again, after a prolonged attack of chronic silence. Fact is, I can think of nothing to write. Isn't our fault if things don't happen.
Just received the GLOBE-REPUBLICAN, giving account of your 4th. Well, we had a little 4th of our own which was by no means slow. The way I happened to be in it was in consequence of being relieved from duty here in the signal service and detailed for clerical work in the commissary department at Tagbilaran. This happened July 3, so I was at Tagbilaran for the 4th. They had four or five bands from neighboring towns. Every town on this island has a band for the church, and some of them are very fine. The performers are natives, but they all play "Star Spangled Banner," "Rally Round the Flag," etc. The one at Tagbilaran have uniforms of white material with yellow leather belts and helmets, presenting quite an imposing appearance. At their evening exercise they salute the flag by lowering it to the last, dying strains of "The Star Spangled Banner!" Great spectacle, I'll tell you, for a soldier!
To wind up our celebration we had horse-races, boat-races, greased pole and all that, but at night came the feature of the day (remember I'm Irish.) First a parade, then the 4th Circus, the performers in which, Serg't Gokey and Charlie Ars, just captured the immense audience, mostly natives.
I stayed in the commissary at Tagbilaran until the middle of August when I was relieved and sent back here of which change I was extremely glad for it is a much nicer place up here, and much nicer people.
Well, I don't just think of anything more to write, except that I never felt better in my life. Give my love to all.

RAILROAD NEWS.
—Two sections of No. 1 every night to supply accommodation for the California travel.
—Clem Crawford has returned from Caldwell and resumed his former position on the Santa Fe.
—E. D. Bowen is laying off 30 days, and he is looking after the interests of the A. O. U. W.
—It begins to look as though the Liberal extension of the Rock Island will be pushed ahead soon.
—Messrs. B. O. B. have moved the reading room to the north side of the tracks and east of the depot hotel.
—Conductor Thos. H. Traynor is building an addition of two rooms to his dwelling house, and when finished he will have a comfortable home.
—California travel promises to be so large the coming winter that the Santa Fe will be obliged to extend its limited trains to every day in the week. It is said this will be done as soon as the necessary equipment can be secured.
—C. H. Hardenberg left Tuesday for New York city to visit his mother. He intends taking a trip to Central America, in which event he will be absent two months. Mr. Hardenberg formerly lived in Central America. He owns a valuable piece of land in that country.
—With the exception of a very few cars, all of the 28,042 freight cars belonging to the Santa Fe road have been equipped with air brakes. Of this number 27,710 have been equipped with automatic couplers, and the remaining ones are being equipped as fast as possible. The Santa Fe road was one of the first to comply with the requirements of the Interstate Commerce law relating to the automatic couplers on all freight cars.
—There appears to be a general demand for increased pay among engineers and firemen of the country who handle the heavier class of engines, and the officials of the roads using the monster locomotives will have this question to settle with the grievance committees of engineers' organizations. Several roads have already granted increases in pay to engineers and firemen in charge of the big engines, and it is believed that such action is but preliminary to an established rule on all roads.

THE OKLAHOMA OPPORTUNITY.
THE ROCK ISLAND ISSUES A VALUABLE BOOK FOR FREE DISTRIBUTION.
"The Oklahoma Opportunity" is the title of a new publication just issued by the passenger department of the Rock Island railroad. The new book is a valuable one and deals exclusively with the Kiowa, Comanche and Apache reservation which is soon to be opened to public settlement. The contents of the book is made up of facts regarding the reservation, its laws, how to obtain a home, the climate, resources, and contains a general description of the country. A large map is folded in the back of the book, and shows the location of the reservation and surrounding country, together with towns located, course of rivers, Wichita mountains, etc. The Rock Island has the only line into the reservation, its route lying within the reservation several miles south of the north boundary line. The book is for free distribution.

THE ROCK ISLAND WILL LAY NEW STEEL FROM MEADE TO THE TERMINUS.
Another crowd of surveyors arrived in the city last Friday and have begun work on the survey of the proposed extension. It is thought that this corps will meet the other corps of surveyors under Chief Worrall, who started out in the southwest some months ago. Chief Engineer Peters informs us that he has no definite orders except to stake a line in the southwest. He believes that there will be something done about the extension business in a short time. Just as he received orders to come down here, he was working on a survey in Iowa and was hastened here so suddenly that orders how to proceed had not reached him yet. A car load of lumber is in the yards for the surveyors which will be used for stakes in the survey. There is considerable talk among the railroad men and citizens regarding the recent movement in the railroad affair and it is generally thought the road will soon begin construction.
Roadmaster J. C. Smith has received orders to take up the old steel track from three miles east of Meade to this terminus and put in new steel rails. Some years ago the new rails which were laid on this track were taken off the Omaha line and the old rails put down, but now it appears that new steel is necessary. This change in the track has some significance in the matter of the proposed extension of the Rock Island.—Liberal News.

We received a letter recently we were unable to read. We failed to determine the nationality of the writer. The only words we were able to make out were: "Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin cures Indigestion." W. F. Pine.

J. C. Baird is one of the most modest candidates running on the Republican ticket. He would make one of the best District Clerks the county ever had should he be elected.

Frank Grimes, candidate for reelection for State Treasurer, has been the target for fusian reproach in the conduct of his office, but to the accusation that he used interest on state deposits, is proven to be without foundation. Mr. Grimes has kept the state moneys properly and in safety, and the attempt to smirch his character is redounding to his good. Mr. Grimes is a western man, and he is known in the short grass region as an honest man. The people of the short grass country know that he looks after their interests and they will vote for him on election day.

A number of small postoffices in adjacent counties, it appears, have been systematically robbed during the past few weeks. The officials have been working on the case and are keeping a close watch in Reno, Sedgwick, and several other counties for certain suspected parties. Several post offices were robbed within ten days time, and several thousand dollars worth of money and stamps were secured by the parties. About all of the details imparted by the officers is that there are six men in the deal, working in pairs, and that in all the robberies the same kind of tools, and same methods were used.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is now for sale by W. F. Pine.

The official announcement of the total population in the United States for 1900 is 76,295,220, of which 74,620,907 are contained in forty-five states, representing approximately the population to be used for apportionment purposes. There is a total of 134,158 Indians not taxed. The total population in 1890 with which the aggregate population of the present census should be compared was 63,067,706. Taking the 1890 census as a basis there has been a gain in population of 13,227,464 during the past ten years, representing an increase nearly 21 per cent.

Population of Kansas, 1,469,496 against 1,427,096 in 1890.
Missouri, 3,107,117 against 2,679,184 in 1890.

Gentlemen:—I feel it my duty to express to you my gratitude for what your wonderful remedy has done for me. I was completely run down with a complication of stomach disorders. For ten months I could not work and was treated by three eminent physicians. One insisted upon operating upon me, declaring that nothing short of an operation for appendicitis would cure me. A friend induced me to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and from the first dose I began to improve, and have not had any trouble since. I have gained 25 pounds in weight and am enjoying the very best of health. I never fail to say a good word for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for I know what it has done for me it will do for others. Gratefully yours,
Charles Gurry.

Does It Pay to Buy Cheap?
A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the most dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but always inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try ONE bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. For sale by Palace Drug Co.

There is one thing every person should look after very carefully this time of the year, and that is the chimneys on your house. Before putting up your stove you should see that the flue is in good condition, it might possibly save you several dollars.

It Heals the Lungs.
When suffering from a racking cough, take a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar. The soreness will be relieved, and a warm grateful feeling and healing of the parts affected will be experienced. Take no substitute. W. S. Amos.

The Fear of Food.
A wise person observes with much truth that the health and food fads of the day are producing their legitimate results. Over-zeal in their pursuit waste to be expected, and it extends to the extent that physicians have actually found a scientific name for a condition which arises from fear of food.
It is not exactly a disease, but its effect speedily becomes harmful if the condition continues. It seems desirable to avoid too much thought over what one eats. If certain general principles of hygienic food are observed, a healthy appetite and a relish for the viands set before one may be trusted. It does not need any convention on mental science to discover that if we make up our minds something will disagree with us, it will.

DR. PRIGES' CREAM Baking Powder

In Use the most Economical

Greater in leavening strength, a spoonful raises more dough, or goes further.

Working uniformly and perfectly, it makes the bread and cake always light and beautiful, and there is never a waste of good flour, sugar, butter and eggs.

With finer food and a saving of money comes the saving of the health of the family, and that is the greatest economy of all.

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO., CHICAGO.

NOTE.—Many mixtures, made in imitation of baking powders, are upon the market. They are sold cheap, but are dear at any price, because they contain alum, a corrosive poison.

Election Returns.

The Republican Central committee has made arrangements to receive the Telegraphic Reports of Election Returns at the opera house on Tuesday night.

The bulletin will be read from the stage. A large black-board will display the vote of Ford county as the various precinct returns are brought in.

There will be no smoking allowed and a special Police will be on hand to maintain order.

Children under 16 years of age unaccompanied by their parents will not be admitted.

Everybody, and especially the ladies, are invited.

SOULE COLLEGE NOTES.

—Prof. LeMaster, Miss Daisy LeMaster and Miss Candace Cramer attended the Sunday School convention at Holbrook last Sunday.

—The Faculty of the college are preparing to give a series of literary and musical entertainments in as many different towns and neighborhoods as possible between this and Christmas vacation, in the interests of the college. It is hoped that a great interest may be awakened in the subject of education in general and in Soule College in particular by the visit of the teachers to the various places they may be able to reach. The first date will be Minneola, Saturday night, Nov. 3. Admission will be free, but a collection will be taken at the close to help defray expenses.

—The health of the students and teachers is very good. No case of sickness has occurred yet.

—The reading circle at the college meets on Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock. The reading for last meeting was the legends of Sleepy Hollow. The stories of Washington Irving will never lose their charm over the minds and hearts of his readers.

Miss Jessie Kissel received a visit from her father on Monday of this week.

Mr. Kirby, of Wilburn, visited his son and daughter on last Saturday.

Missouri to be a Surprise.

Willis G. Emerson, of the Republican speaker's bureau Chicago, gave out his forecast of coming election. McKinley will have 302 votes; Bryan, 145. McKinley will carry the following states, he says, which Bryan carried in 1896: Washington, Idaho, Utah, Wyoming, South Dakota and Kansas. The Republicans have a fighting chance in Montana and Nevada, he declares, and Missouri will give the people a large sized surprise.
