BUCKLIN BREEZES.

From our Regular Correspondent.
—Don't crow until you are out of the woods and then crow long and loud.

—The Gresham Brothers received a new self feeder and attached it to their separator last Friday, and are hulling out the grain again saving the wages of two feeders.

—Mrs. E. A. Frazier, who has been visiting her sons C. P. and Ray Frazier, and other friends in this vicinity for the past few weeks, returned to her home in Oklahoma last Friday.

—Geo. Thompson, is getting aristocratic in his old days. He is moving his residence back from the street and is going to build an extensive addition to it and live happy ever after.

—The wife and daughter of George Edwards came in last Friday from Wheatland, Mo. Mr. Edwards has been here for sometime and sent for his family intending to make this his future home.

—We heard the melodious voice of Ed Warner on our streets, Monday. Ed used to be a resident in this vicinity, but it was too slow here for him, so he has located at Nickle (if any body knows where that is) to grow up with the country.

—Mary, the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Gildemeister, has been very sick the past few days with cholera infantum. Dr. Bredehoff says that she is doing well and he is satisfied that she will come out all right.

—Roxy Geurin brought in a car of cattle last Friday. He bought the cattle in Kansas City, and shipped them out here to see if this short grass would put a little fat on their ribs. All right, Roxy, give them a few months on the range, then ship them back to Kansas City, and they won't know them when they get there.

—Mr. Bradley, civil engineer of the Rock Island, is here again driving more stakes. We don't know just what he is doing, but expect that he does. Meantime the grape vine line seems to be in remarkable good working order and the old town is full of news of that kind that learns a fellow to guess what he pleases, just any old thing from the establishing of general offices to staking out new side tracks; which latter by the way, are badly needed here. Well we will just wait and see; we are used to it.

—We took a little drive last Sunday and visited Fair View Sunday School. This school is held at the Fair View school house, some four miles north-west of Bucklin, and under the superintendence of C. E. Dellinger is doing good work. It is one of the largest and best Sunday Schools in this part of the county. But one thing we noticed, being pretty well acquainted in that community, was that there were a number that we expected to see there who were conspicuous by their absence. This is not as it should be and is very discouraging, especially to the superintendent. On the return trip from Fair View we took the opportunity afforded to view the landscape over and while we ain't brag on the corn crop much, will say that it is better than we expected to see it but not very good; but the forage crops look well. The grass is fine, and we were surprised at the number of grain stacks scattered over the fields, some has been threshed, and yielded better than was expected. While the crops this year are not as good as the farmer would like to have, we do not think that the country is on the point of starvation yet. In fact so far as good living goes the farmers have decidedly the advantage over us denizens of the small towns, as evidence of this fact, on our way home, we stopped at the commodious residence of Judge McBrayer, where we met Mr. Morton Henkle and family who live a few miles south-west of here, and they talked of living on fried chicken and roasting ears as though that was their every day diet, and then the Judge not to be out done just mentioned the roasting ears that he had devoured for dinner, but then as he did not show us the cobs we have only his word for it. Oh dear! but then these good people did not know the punishment that they were inflicting on us or they never would have said a word about it.

Astonished The Editor.

Editor S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., was once immensely surprised. "Through long suffering from Dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was greatly run down. She had no strength or vigor and suffered great distress from her stomach, but she tried Electric Bitters which helped her at once, and, after using four bottles, she is entirely well, can eat anything. It's a grand tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver." For indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Stomach and Liver troubles it's a positive, guaranteed cure. Only 50c at Rath & Bainbridge's.

Now is the time to have your Wheel cleaned and adjusted.

THE NOVELTY WORKS.

—OBITUARY—Died at her home, about three and a half miles south-east of Bucklin, of cancer of the stomach; Mrs. Caroline Knowlton. Death came at about seven o'clock p. m., Monday, August the 5th. Her children were all with her at the last. Her son-in-law, M. Drennan, was at Dodge City serving of the jury; they sent a message telling him that Mrs. Knowlton was sinking, but he could not get off until Monday noon, and did not reach the bedside of the sufferer but a short time before she died. Mrs. Knowlton has been troubled with the disease of which she died for about three years, but since the last of June of this year has been much worse, and since the fourth of July has been confined to her bed almost all of the time. She has suffered much but has borne it patiently. Mrs. Caroline Knowlton was born in Malone, Franklin county, New York, July 7, 1839, and there spent the days of her childhood and grew up to womanhood. Was married to Henry Knowlton. They came west in 1859, and settled near Blue Rapids Marshall county, Kansas, where she has lived since until last March, when she with her children, moved here and built them a home where she died. Mrs. Knowlton's husband died about seventeen years ago; she was the mother of five children, three of whom survive her viz: Mrs. Nina Drennan, Miss Addie Knowlton and Fred Knowlton. Funeral, Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at the house. Rev. J. B. Paramore of Ford, pastor of the M. E. church conducted the services. She will find her last resting place in the Bucklin cemetery.

Notice.

It has been erroneously published in some of the state papers that the South-west Soldiers Reunion would be held August 26-31, which is wrong. Our original dates August 20 to 23 still stand and the reunion is going to be a great success. A large number of our distinguished statesmen will be here.

D. L. SWEENEY, president.
J. A. ARMENT, secretary.

The panic among Kansas feeders is over, and the idea of sacrificing stock is no longer contemplated. A Kansas City commission man is reported as saying: "I know a man who went out to Greenwood county to ship a train load of cattle to market because of the drouth. When he arrived at the loading pens it began to rain. He countermanded the shipping instructions and went on to Colorado for a vacation. The panics ended. Cattle men have caught their second breath. Their cattle are worth, to them, from 10 to 12 per cent more today than they were a week ago. Now from blue ruin they have got back to the top wave of prosperity. Everything is all right. We have heard from thirty rains in Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska, and that is enough to assure us the three states are all right on the water question. Now the grass will come up as we have never seen it. The ground is so hot it will force it. There will be plenty of time now to raise fall feed." The long dry spell, followed by the drenching rains of the last four days, has reversed the seasons for the farmers, and all over the corn belt seeding will now go on until abundant forage crops are assured.—Eagle.

"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea," says J. H. Donk, of Williams, Oregon. "We were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and a complete cure." For sale by Rath & Bainbridge.

Deputy Sheriff Battin was in Dodge City the first of the week. He brought back a young man who had skipped his board bill at the Kankakee.—Garden City Imprint.

Delinquent boarders are numerous and they should be lassoed and brought in. It is about as natural for some people to skip a board bill of it is for some people to steal horses. Both doers are in the low scale of morality, though one offense is greater than the other. The horse thief is put on the lowest scale of evil doing.

Old papers for sale at this office at 20 cents a hundred.

The Murder Trial—Men Found Guilty.

The trial of Herbert Lanham, Frank J. Barnes and Joseph Davis, charged with the murder of Silas Gillespie, terminated in the District Court Monday, the jury acquitting Lanham, and finding Barnes and Davis guilty of murder in the first degree. The trial began Thursday and the case was given to the jury Saturday evening. Judge Madison, having compassion on the jury, requested the sheriff to provide comfortable quarters for them for the night, and directed that they should deliberate on the finding of a verdict, beginning at 8 o'clock, Sunday morning. The jury did deliberate on a finding until about noon Monday, when they returned a verdict as stated above.

On the first ballot the jury stood seven to five; and on some subsequent ballots, nine for conviction and three for acquittal. Finally, the jury was unanimously for conviction.

The jury was composed of James P. Kealy, Samuel Willard, C. W. Gilbert, P. L. Taylor, G. V. Bartlett, H. B. Slaven, James Rearden, M. L. Sweeney, Phillip Tiefenbach and G. H. Lawrence. F. J. Oyster, county attorney, and Judge Milton were attorneys for the prosecution, and T. A. Scates and A. B. Reeves were the attorneys appointed by the court for the defense. Messrs. Scates and Reeves used fine arguments in the defense, and their utmost endeavor in plea of the defendants, with as much zeal and earnestness as though they were receiving fees for their work. The prosecution were quite as diligent and earnest on behalf of the State.

Gillespie was shot in the lungs, while near the round house, on the morning of June 4th, and died a few hours afterwards. Barnes and Davis were hoboos, who fired shots at Gillespie, and robbed him of a few cents. Gillespie was also tramping, but he was going to Oklahoma in search of employment. He had worked in Colorado, and had a home in Denver. His body was sent to Denver for burial.

Lanham was the "shoot mouth" murderer of Gillespie, and he was arrested at Hutchinson after making an alleged confession, that he was the murderer of Gillespie. Gillespie and the other tramps were in a rendezvous near the round house, awaiting "transportation" on the Santa Fe road when the murder and robbery was committed. Barnes and Davis found Gillespie and others in a box car, and represented that they were railroad detectives. The men, fearing arrest, jumped out of the car and ran, but were fired into by Barnes and Davis, who robbed the wounded man of some small change, all he possessed.

A motion for a new trial was overruled by the court. Judge Madison sentenced Barnes and Davis to be executed, hung by the neck until dead; and to be confined in the penitentiary until the time of execution is carried out.

In pronouncing the sentence Judge Madison gave some good advice which could be needed by some of the young men of this city. He referred to the conduct of the men—the condemned men as well as the murdered man—in not following respectable occupation, but giving themselves up to tramping; and he referred particularly to Barnes and Davis who held up and robbed innocent people. Such a course inevitably brought men to the gallows. There was an object lesson in the life of Barnes and Davis, and such careers should be shunned by all young men.

With the abundant means of employment in the country there is no necessity for men becoming tramps.

Judge Madison spoke feelingly and his remarks were touching.

You Know What You Are Taking
When you take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic because the formula is plainly printed on every bottle showing that it is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. No Cure, No Pay. 50c.

The ladies of the First Baptist church at Dodge City, Kan., will hold a popcorn social in the cornfield of Brother Asa Freeman to-morrow night. Bring a cup of butter. The corn pops on the stalk from the excessive heat. It is a beautiful sight to see the mass of snowy whiteness dropping showers from the ears of corn. Admission to the field ten cents.—Wichita Beacon.

To Cure A Cold In One Day
Take Laxative Bromo Tablets. All druggist refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Groves' signature on each box. 25c.

Normal Notes.

Normal has now been in session one week. We had anticipated a dry and hot month and consequently a small attendance, but the pleasant weather has induced many to come who would have stayed away.

This institute is very much as others we have attended, but differs in some respects. The attendance was very large the first day and is still increasing very rapidly.

We notice fewer of those who go to have a good time as their sole aim and more of those people who realize that what they put into a shot is what they will gain.

Our instructors this year are wide awake and up to date men and are full of their subject and our intercourse with them will be very helpful to us.

Our conductor, Prof. C. G. Messerley, and our instructors, E. J. Dumond and E. A. Shepardson, each made a few pleasant and appropriate remarks at the opening of the institute. We next accepted Supt. C. E. Lopp's annual apology for not having a speech ready for our edification but nevertheless as his talk was very interesting we quite forgave him.

We noticed among the visitors last week Mr. E. D. Webb, H. A. Cord, Doctor LeMaster, Chas. Vaughn, Miss Lena Summersby and friend and Miss Mabel Webb.

The following are in attendance:
Frank Drake, Martha Ott, Ethel Curry, Wilbur Clark, Dora Wiseman, Mable Tuttle, Florence Slocum, Clarence S. Laird, Ray Kirkpatrick, Mable Graver, Carrie Graver, Carrie Fowler, Cora Fowler, May Kissel, Mertie Gray, Cora Stonehouse, Ora Ragland, Hallie Adams, Eva Ralston, Mary Pruden, Barbara Mayrath, Freddie Bennett, Gertrude Brown, Kathleen Morrison, Flora H. Thome, Fannie Shugrue, Bessie Powers, Minnie Shelly, Nellie Shugrue, Kathrine Shelly, Lydia Pottorff, Ida Hobbie, Lulu Anderson, Roy Alexander, Emily Summersby, Edith Soule, Pearl Roth, Beaula Gilpin, Emma Wheeler, Sarah Dixon, Sybil Dodge, Cora Lowry, Ruth Dixon, Birdie Small, Edna Clark, Grace Metcalf, Maggie Murray, Cordie Barr, Addie Parly, Leo French, Bessie Henry, Lizzie Price, Mary Hinkle, Nora Shugrue, Cora Plunkett, Dora Boyd, Clara Purdy, A. L. Gresham, Emma Johnson, Emma Peterson, Georgiana Taylor, Kate Burgess, Edna Belmer, Julia Shugrue, Myrtle Keech, Mattie Padgett, Grace Sturgeon, Maude Schneider, Eleanor Milton, Lulu Sturm, Lizzie Metz, Mary Davis, C. A. Williamson, Nellie Ridenour, Ray Anthony, Stella Kirkpatrick, Ethel DeLa.

We believe that Prof. Shepardson is the most popular of the instructors among the ladies of the institute, they say he can make those goo goo eyes.

How to get to Spearville was the absorbing thought of one young lady, Saturday morning. Did she notice what the teacher of the didactics class said about many things that will settle themselves if you just—wait.

The President of the American Federation of Labor, Union 8,215, says: "I am using your Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin myself and in my family, and find it does lots of good. Yours truly, Geo. C. Campbell, Clinton, Iowa. Sold by Palace Drug Co."

At the marriage of Rosa Sutton and Miss Abbie Lenora West, at the home of James D. Bailey, July 31, published last week, the following presents were made:
Mr. and Mrs. James D. Bailey, a set of dishes and table cloth.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rickman, a berry set.

Miss Lida Pothoff, a berry set.
Peter Curry, a set of glassware.
Mr. and Mrs. Ormel Bailey, a glass fruit dish.
Mr. and Mrs. Folkes, a set of plates.
Mrs. C. N. Ridenour, china orange plate.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Rickman, a glass water pitcher.

Miss Katie Flieger, a set of glass ware.
Miss Hannah Card, a broom.
Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Sutton, a pair of towels.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Sayre, table cloth.
Mr. and Mrs. N. Carver, pair of towels.
J. B. Bailey and family, pair of towels.
Mrs. Pothoff, chair tidy.
Calvin Pothoff, workbasket.
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sutton, bed spread and pillow shams.
R. H. Sutton, Album.

A light rain fell here at 2 a. m. yesterday.

The big tent in the park grounds will hold about a thousand people.

A heavy rain fell in Colorado, Sunday night, and extended as far east as Garden City.

The tents are up in the park grounds and the camp meeting will begin this evening. Sacramental services Sunday morning.

Mrs. R. W. Evans returned from Chicago last night, where she spent a number of weeks. Her son Paul returns here for a visit.

H. D. Chambliss has an alfalfa patch that will yield six bushels of seed to the acre. The field will average about four bushels to the acre.

James E. Workman returned Tuesday night from his trip to Missouri. Mr. Workman says the drouth was terrible in Missouri. The bees starved to death.

Fred Bader has bought the old fair grounds site, consisting of 40 acres, of D. A. Campbell, of Lincoln, Neb., through the agency of Reeves & Kirkpatrick. This is a valuable piece of ground, near the townsite.

C. Q. Chandler, of Medicine Lodge, President, and J. W. Berryman, of Ashland, Vice President of the State Bank of Commerce, were in the city this week. Mr. Chandler is connected with fourteen banks in the state.

A spring of water issues on the Rock Island track on the vacant lot east of Mrs. Carlock's home in the west part. The spring of water has only recently broken out under one of the rails of the track. There is a good flow of cold water. This sudden spring of water is a wonder to the inhabitants in west part of city.

J. N. Davidson, who has been a resident of the Soldiers' Home, for six years past, goes to Des Moines, Iowa, where he will make his home. Mr. Davidson speaks highly of Commandant Thomas' management of the home. Mr. Davidson says the home is under excellent management. There is abundance to eat of the best kind. The uniform courtesy and kindness by Captain Thomas and other officers makes the home a contented place in which to live.

DIED—In Pueblo, Colo., July 30, of heart disease, at the residence of his son-in-law, Theodore Butzbach, after a long illness, R. E. Heustis, age 65 years. Mr. Heustis had lived in Pueblo for five years past. Mrs. Hannah Heustis, his wife, who lives in this city, survives him. He was the father of Henry Heustis of this city. E. Heustis of Ford county, is a brother of the deceased. Henry Heustis and wife attended the funeral. R. E. Heustis lived in Dodge City many years, and he is well known to our citizens.

A number of the relatives of E. Kirby and wife, the victims of the terrible tragedy, were present at the funeral and are still in the city. Isaiah Kirby, a brother of Sycamore, Ohio, and W. J. Palmer and wife, of Marshalltown, Iowa, and Mrs. Dan Eryin, of Joplin, Mo., the two latter named sisters of Mr. Kirby, Mrs. Ervin returned home Saturday. J. S. Barton, of Shelby, Mo., a brother-in-law of Mrs. Kirby, and L. H. Cumley, of Eldorado Springs, Mo., a brother of Mrs. Kirby, are also present. Mattie, the daughter of Mrs. Kirby, will probably return with Mr. Bartou.

There was in an insurance company an insurance of $3,000 each on the lives of E. Kirby and his wife Ida Kirby. Each were to be beneficiaries in case of the death of either, but since both are dead the insurance will go to the heirs. Only the land in Meade county—440 acres—was decided by Kirby to his wife. The hotel property was in his name. The land in Colorado was formerly owned by Kirby and his brother. There was no farm in Missouri, as stated in the GLOBE-REPUBLICAN last week, and whatever cattle was owned by Kirby was sold some time ago. Mr. Kirby, father of the deceased, says his son had obtained $5,000 from him, and it was this money upon which his son was owning property and doing business. Mr. Kirby is running the hotel at present, and will continue to do so until some disposition is made of it.

Have You Seen It.

We keep Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in plain view but if you don't happen to see it, why ask for it. The manufacturers guarantee it to cure Dyspepsia and all forms of Stomach Troubles. Sold by Palace Drug Co.

RAILROAD NEWS.

—Conductor E. G. Guirich's family is in Denyer for a short time.

—E. C. Mace is attending to the work in agent's office during Fred Gardner's absence.

—F. S. Gould's family is temporarily in Liberal while Frank is running the work train.

—No. 2 arrived this morning, the first California train for three days. Another train arrived at 1 o'clock.

—Brakeman R. M. Turner has moved his family from Pratt to Dodge City. The entire crew moving here is an evidence that the permanence of the division point on the Rock Island is permanently established at Dodge City.

—H. J. Franklin has been made claim and tax agent for the Santa Fe Pacific with headquarters at Los Angeles to succeed A. P. Maginnis. E. H. Burns succeeds him as claim adjuster for the Colorado division. These appointments are effective August 1.

—Engineer Murphy of the Rock Island, has moved his family to this city, and occupies a house in the west part of city. Conductor Banghart has also moved his family to this city. There is one train which lays over at this station of the Rock Island, which is in charge of the officials named.

—Bucklin has struck it at last. The stakes are driven for a ten-stall round house at that place. The round house is to be built inside of the Y west of the tank, where the Dodge City line starts off. Trains will continue to lay over at the Dodge City yards, and it is probable that a round house will be built here.

—Bert Hobbie made a narrow escape at the round house, Saturday night. The spout of the water crane struck him on the head, inflicting a slight wound. He was on the side of a box car, and the car not moving fast, it did not strike him with much force. The wound was sewed up and he went back to work.

—The bridge gangs of this division have been sent to Glorieta canon, New Mexico, where thirty-five bridges have been washed out by floods. The floods swept the track and bridges within a distance of 7 miles. The trains from the coast have been detained several days on account of these washouts. The bridge gangs of other divisions have also gone to make repairs in the flood district.

—Rain would be very acceptable to the Santa Fe railway. On account of the drouth the road is experiencing considerable difficulty at many points in this state and in Missouri, Oklahoma and Texas in obtaining sufficient water for engines. The situation at several places is so serious that the company is making arrangements for hauling water from nearby streams. At the main division points the supply is still holding out. The wells at small stations are going dry.

N. G. Mootz killed a big rat yesterday evening. Chas. Dickerson poisoned several rats last week. Rats are here for good.

The package containing $8,000, sent from Kansas City to Great Bend, in May, is still missing. The postoffice inspectors have been unable to get any clue.

The young lady who made a present of a broom as a wedding gift, has an eye to the economy of married life. The broom is an indispensable article in housekeeping. Its uses are varied. It sweeps everything before it. In the hands of an accomplished housewife it may sweep the dirt or chase an ugly husband. How many men stand in dread of the broom, in the hands of a woman scorned!

Did you ever a stand by and see a chicken rake over a pile of refuse in search of a crumb or worm, and then another chicken that stood idly by grab and eat the morsel? That illustrates the fellow who sits around town, kicks over improvements and then reaps the benefits by having his property increased in value by reason of the improvements made by others.—Rocky Ford Republican.
