

CONGRESSMEN SEE ALBUQUERQUE AND ASK QUESTIONS

Plenty of Statehood Information on Tap.

ARIZONA OBJECTIVE OF THE LEGISLATORS' LONG JOURNEY

Nine members of congress, headed by Hon. J. A. Tawney, one of the republican whips of the house of representatives, and accompanied by several prominent railroad men and politicians of Arizona and New Mexico, arrived in Albuquerque at about 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon...

In addition to Mr. Tawney, the following congressmen are in the party: C. R. Davis, H. Stearns, of Minnesota, Thomas Marshall of North Dakota, Herman P. Goebel of Ohio, Martin B. Madden of Illinois, H. L. Maynard of Virginia, H. C. Adams of Wisconsin, R. S. Minor of Wisconsin.

Hon. Frank M. Murphy of Phoenix was here to meet the party, his private car being made part of the special.

Many Questions—Few Replies.

During the drive about the city the visiting congressmen asked a great many questions, making few replies, and saying little of their own dispositions in the matter of statehood for the territories.

Yesterday, for instance, Acting Governor Reynolds, in the course of a discussion in one of the carriages, informed Congressman Goebel of Ohio that an absolutely rigid canvass of New Mexico had been made with the result that not one per cent of votes in favor of joint statehood could be found.

Questioned by one of the Albuquerque men in the carriage, Mr. Reynolds admitted that Albuquerque had not been included in the canvass.

Despite the conflicting statements which have been made in New Mexico to the visitors, it is safe to assume that they left Albuquerque yesterday afternoon pretty well informed of the statehood sentiment of the territory.

The influence at work to produce the position of the political leaders in the event of the passage of a joint statehood bill by congress, it seems equally certain, that from this city on through their journey the visitors will hear very little but opposition to joint statehood.

The position of Mr. Murphy is well known and in El Paso additional recruits from Arizona's opposition party will join the special train, which will visit Tucson, Bisbee, Clifton and Morenci, and finally Phoenix, where something of a demonstration is being planned.

over the Santa Fe early next week. What will be the results of the trip, will probably be soon, early in the next congress. It is freely predicted by the Arizona men that the entire party will be converted to the anti-joint statehood cause, and it is even said that Mr. Tawney has already been won over.

CATRON SAYS THAT THERE IS NO HOPE FOR JOINT STATE

Talks About New Mexico Sentiment on Merger.

SANTA FE MAN SAYS INTERESTS WILL REFUSE TO MIX

The Honorable Thomas B. Catron of Santa Fe, has been in the east for a few days past and has been expressing his views on the statehood question with considerable clearness. Mr. Catron has always been in strenuous opposition to the joint statehood program and he follows out his convictions in the following interesting interview in the Kansas City Journal:

"Congress may undertake to cram such a measure down the throats of the people of New Mexico," he said, "but that action will be resented and repudiated. The people there want statehood for themselves, or else they don't care for it at all. New Mexico has waited already sixty years for statehood, and she will not wait any longer, if necessary, I would not be surprised if congress, during the coming winter, were to pass a bill admitting the two territories as one state, but just as soon as that matter is referred to our people it will be rejected almost with unanimity. Neither do the people of Arizona want single statehood. Our interests are different and we are determined against coalition."

Mr. Catron says there is a marvelously large influx of Anglo-Saxon people to New Mexico right now. "What seems strange, too," he said, "is that in the eastern part of the territory, in the staked plain country, where a few years ago men and beasts were wandering in search of water, and finally famishing, today they are striking water at a depth of from two to eight, ten, fifteen, twenty-five and forty feet and even greater depths than that. It is the best water, too, that a man ever quenched his thirst with. I can assure you, this fact makes that section essentially a watered plain, and it is a quantity of windmills there, being used almost entirely in bringing the water to the surface."

"Another thing about our country is that kaffir corn and a few other growth-resisting plants of that sort are rapidly re-conquering the country from its previous arid condition. The climate is essentially against the production of ordinary Indian corn. The nights there are too cool to be conducted in a steady growth and maturity. But these other crops which I have mentioned, and in addition, certainly are working marvels for New Mexico. Roosevelt and Quay counties, organized only a few years ago, with a population of 5,000 or 6,000 people within their bounds, all happy and prosperous."

Mr. Catron says that the development of the various irrigation projects throughout that country, "being watched with great interest by the people there."

Some Sensible Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by all druggists.

RUSSIAN BUYING SUPPLIES.

Leon Leschinsky First Greets Countess and Young Daughter Before Attending to Business.

New York, Oct. 9.—Count Leon Leschinsky, representative of the Southern Railroad of Russia, arrived in New York yesterday on the Hamburg-American liner Pennsylvania. Before transacting any of his business, which involves the purchase of railroad supplies, he hurried over to No. 163 South Ninth street, Williamsburg, to greet the Countess Leschinsky and his chubby four-month-old daughter. The Countess was formerly Miss Mice Feist, of Kansas City.

Count Leschinsky is only twenty-two years old, but he is an officer of the Michael Leon Leschinsky Contracting company, which has planned to construct thirteen thousand miles of railroad in southern Russia.

SANTO DOMINGO INDIAN LOSES RIGHT HAND AS RESULT OF EXPLOSION.

A pueblo Indian from the Santo Domingo pueblo, whose name could not be learned, suffered a painful and very serious accident yesterday afternoon while experimenting with the explosive powers of a rifle shell. The Indian who is about 50 years old, and quite old enough to know better was experimenting, near the Indian market on North First street, by cracking the shell between a couple of rocks.

Superintendent Allen, of the Indian school, who is always on the lookout for his charges, heard of the accident and took the Indian out to the school where he is being given every attention by Dr. Keck, the school physician.

ELKINS-WIDENER - MORGAN - MCGOWAN

Washington, Oct. 9.—News has reached here of the practical consummation of the biggest interurban deal ever carried out. Nearly all of the Interurban electric railroads of Ohio and Indiana are being merged by Philadelphia capitalists. Two holding companies are to be formed, one in Ohio and one in Indiana.

The syndicate is known as the Elkins-Widener-Morgan-McGowan combination. Several central west men are associated with the eastern financiers, among them Senator Forsaker.

There are about 1,200 miles of line in each state.

WEALTH AMONG RAGS.

Large Sums and Much Jewelry Found in Den of Thieves.

London, Oct. 9.—There were some sensational discoveries made at the arrest at Aberystwyth of William Leslie and Miss Frances Cheeseman, both of Putney, who were "wanted," with George Webster and Richard Rosenberg, on a charge of conspiring to defraud, a charge said to involve $150,000.

Hidden in a bundle of rags belonging to the female prisoner the police found gold and notes in the value of $10,000.

A further search in the boxes left by the prisoners at the railway station was rewarded by the discovery of $20,000 more in gold. Further discoveries of notes, valuable diamond rings and other jewelry bring the amount up to $40,000.

Germany Is Prosperous.

London, Oct. 9.—The British consul at Berlin has sent to the foreign office a remarkable report on the growth of Germany's prosperity in recent years. This has been steady since the end of 1902, with the exception of the strike of the Rhinish coal miners in January, 1905.

The number of income taxpayers in Prussia has increased nearly 70 per cent in nine years, while the population has increased only 15 per cent. The aggregate income of all taxpayers in 1904 exceeded those of 1903 by nearly $105,000,000. The bank deposits in 1904 were nearly double those of 1904.

The report gives statistics showing large and steady increases in exports and imports. The exports of textile goods alone, in which Germany is fearfully rivaling Great Britain, increased $5,000,000 in the first six months of 1905. The iron, ironware and machinery exports progressively advanced on a large scale.

KINGMAN SALOON MAN TOUCHED IN ST. LOUIS

WEALTHY ARIZONA VISITOR SAYS HE LOST BIG ROLL IN THE TENDERLOIN.

According to dispatches from St. Louis, one more wealthy Arizona man has found the tenderloin district of the Missouri city a little too strenuous for him, in spite of the lid upon which Governor Folk is sitting. A dispatch to the San Francisco Chronicle from St. Louis says:

After being robbed of negotiable notes aggregating $1,800 and $150 in bills, G. H. Sullivan, of Kingman, A. T., reported the robbery to the police and was promptly locked up, the police claiming that he had been drinking too much.

Sullivan did the buying and the tenderloin in the city yesterday and naturally drifted into the "Bad Lands." Here he met a tenderfoot who volunteered to show the Arizonian the elephant. Sullivan did the buying and the stranger was ever ready to irritate at the Arizona man's expense. When Sullivan became maudlin, the stranger said he would escort him to a nice place where he could rest. On the way Sullivan leaned lovingly on the tenderfoot and was relieved of his wallet and wealth. The tenderfoot broke and ran. Sullivan had left his gun in his grip and consequently the man got safely away.
