

BIG MOUNTAIN LION KILLED IN SIGHT OF THE CITY

200 POUND CAT MEETS FATE IN COYOTE CANYON

A huge mountain lion, measuring ten or twelve feet from nose to tip of tail, and which probably weighed 200 pounds, was shot Tuesday in Coyote canyon, two miles from Coyote Springs and not more than twenty miles from this city. This is the first time a mountain lion has been secured in the mountains near this city for many years. It is one of the handsomest ever seen in Albuquerque and dozens of admiring and envious hunters called at the office of the Topham Mineral Water company in this city yesterday to view the pelt.

The lucky man who shot the animal was F. M. Donavin, who owns a ranch near Coyote. He met the lion in broad daylight while out on a little hunting excursion. The dogs came running back toward Mr. Donavin after they had disappeared up the canyon for a while, and in a few minutes the "lion" hove in sight, stopping to reconnoiter not more than fifty feet from the hunter. He immediately brought his rifle to position and a .30 Winchester bullet in the shoulder dropped the beast in his tracks. The shot was fatal and the hide was not at all injured. It will be mounted and exhibited in the store windows of Simon Stern, the railroad avenue clothier.

The lion is large enough to have made it extremely interesting for man or dogs, but as the animal is proverbially cowardly in daylight unless cornered, it did not show fight yesterday. The beast is supposed to have wandered northward from the peaks of the Manzanos, ten miles to the south, where lions are tolerably plenty.

PRESSURE BROUGHT ON BALFOUR TO RESIGN

Leading Newspapers Favor This Solution of Deadlock.

London, Nov. 29.—Mr. Chamberlain addressed a mass meeting at Colston Hall, Bristol, this week. Though making few references to Mr. Balfour's Newcastle speech, he practically ignored the premier's advice, and urged a forward policy. He advised his hearers against allowing their policy to be whittled down by a timid and half-hearted minority of their party. The Liberal Unionists had lost a few hundreds through their policy but tens of thousands had taken their places. They had every promise of support, and they had formed new branches. Apathy had given place to enthusiasm and they were infinitely stronger now than a year or two ago, because they were pledged to defend the country against disruption and promote a union of the empire. Among some interruptions he explained his proposed two-shilling-a-quarter tax on corn and wheat, pointing out that it would not arise the price of the loaf, but tend to increase trade with the colonies. He appealed to the workmen's material interests before their imperial instincts.

Let thirteen millions, said he, verge on starvation, and answer whether free imports solved the unemployed question. During the last few years foreigners have increased their trade with the colonies more rapidly than we had. During the last ten years it had been increased by millions of pounds worth of foreign goods imported compared with British goods. They had it in their power to stay that by grasping the hands still held out. In spite of the insults with which the offer was received by some people in this country. They might gain for themselves and their descendants the double advantage of finding employment for people at home through developing the resources of the empire. Mr. Chamberlain finished his address with a fervid appeal for a union of the British race throughout the world, saying the time was drawing near when they would have to decide whether to receive or reject the proffered hands.

Woman Guilty of Assault.

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 28.—A Fairbanks special says Mrs. Nellie Andrak, who held down a claim in Cripple Creek with a gun, was in the commissioner's court today, charged with assault. She was found guilty by a jury and fined $1 by the commissioner. She appeared upon the claim with a cartridge belt strapped about her and carrying a rifle. She ordered off the men who had just started to work for it, Stack.

She then made Stack follow her to a roadhouse, and told him that if any shooting was to be done she would play a leading role. Stack came to town and had a warrant issued. Stack and Mrs. Andrak both claim the same mining property.

No Poison in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

From Napier, New Zealand, Herald: Two years ago the Pharmacy Board of New South Wales, Australia, had an analysis made of all the cough medicines that were sold in that market. Out of the entire list they found only one that they declared was entirely free from all poisons. This exception was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, made by the Chamberlain Medicine company, Des Moines, Iowa, U. S. A. The absence of all narcotics makes this remedy the safest and best that can be had; and it is with a feeling of security that any mother can give it to her little ones. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is especially recommended by its makers for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. When taken in time it prevents pneumonia. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.
