WILD RUMORS OF ATTEMPT ON LIFE OF THE EMPEROR

With Collapse of Sailors' Revolt Comes Tie-Up of All Communication With the Interior.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 30.—The official dispatches announcing the decisive crushing of the great mutiny at Sebastopol and the capture of all the mutineers, including fanatical Commander Lieutnant Schmidt, have raised a great load from the hearts of Count Witte and his associates in the government.

At a protracted cabinet council yesterday long and serious consideration was given to the grave problem, the general strike of the telegraph and postal employees, which has completely paralyzed the interior communication of the empire and which, if continued, will mean nothing else than the economic and industrial death of Russia.

In the absence of definite information from Sebastopol the wildest rumors were in circulation in the city. The revolutionists eagerly seized the opportunity to spread reports that the mutineers had been victorious. They worked especially among the troops, buttonholing every soldier and sailor whom they encountered in the streets.
